BRIAND WINS FIRST TEST

Overrides Foes in Chamber

New Premier Given Votes of Confidence in Face of Stiff Opposition

Makes Eloquent Appeal for Inflation as Measure to Save Country

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

PARIS, Dec. 3.—The newly constituted Cabinet of Aristide Briand early this morning received two votes of confidence in connection with its proposed project for the stabilization of French finance.

The first vote, 298 against 113, was on a motion to discuss the bill article by article, when the general discussion closed.

The second came on the rejection of an alternative bill introduced by M. Bokanowski, of the opposition group, providing for [illegible] francs inflation of currency for the government's immediate needs and leaving the other points in Minister of Finance Loucheur's bill for inclusion in a comprehensive reform plan to be taken up later. The vote in this instance was 363 against 186.

After a short recess M. Loucheur took the rostrum to refute adverse criticism and to defend the financial bill. He declared he was ready to welcome any modifications in the text which would really improve it, but that none of the suggestions made thus far could be said to do so. The Minister asserted that the 6,000,000,000 of note inflation provided for was only just enough for the needs of the treasury up to the month of March. He recognized that it was difficult for all the parties in Parliament to be compelled to vote for the bill, but the treasury of France was at stake.

After M. Blum, the Socialist leader, had declared that he was deeply moved by the gravity of the situation, but that his party must refuse to vote for the inflations asked for, Premier Briand rose and delivered an appeal which moved even the opposition.

NEW STORM MARK SET

Rainfall Almost Two Inches

Precipitation for Season Above Normal With 3.32 Total

Thoroughly drenched after a night of rainfall that brought precipitation figures up to new storm records at many points, Southern California awoke yesterday to clearing skies and a promise that the rain is over for the present. Although the weather forecast is for cloudy skies today, no more rain is forecast for the next twenty-four hours.

Los Angeles experienced the heaviest fall since the winter of 1921-22, according to figures compiled by Col. H. B. Hersey of the Weather Bureau. The precipitation here was 1.90 inches, raising the season's total to 3.32. Last season at this time it was 1.77. Normal is 2.44 inches. The storm began at 6:30 p.m., Tuesday and continued intermittently until 7:55 a.m. yesterday, according to the Weather Bureau.

DRAIN COLLAPSES

A check of localities in and around the city yesterday revealed that a considerable amount of damage had been done in some sections, chiefly where buildings, roads or storm drain walls were under construction.

In the Southwest, a portion of the storm drain wall collapsed, flooding the territory in and around the intersection of Forty-first and Hoover streets. Similar conditions existed along Tenth street in the vicinity of Westchester and Norton. Great pools of water flooded the streets and automobiles were stalled in practically every low-lying section of the city. A widespread pool formed on Western avenue near Tenth and hasty autoists who made the mistake of trying to speed through the water merely stalled themselves and others more careful.

San Fernando Valley emerged from the storm in exceedingly good shape as the water, for the most part, filtered rapidly. At Van Nuys, although 2.40 inches of rain fell, no discomfort was caused. The value of the downpour to growing vegetables in the valley was said to be great. What damage was caused was to lettuce crops being harvested.

Southland communities reporting less than an inch of rainfall were the exception rather than the rule, after figures for the storm had been compiled.

Bakersfield, Del Mar, Long Beach, Porterville and Santa Maria were the principal exceptions.

At Glendale 2.31 inches fell and some damage was caused to storm-drain walls under construction and to store fronts where the water rushed in.

Baldwin Park, Whittier, Van Nuys and Glendale recorded the peak measurements in this vicinity. The figures are: Baldwin Park, 2.56 inches; Whittier, 2.50; Van Nuys, 2.40, and Glendale, 2.31. Oxnard had more than two inches. Santa Barbara reported 1.96.

San Diego, getting 1.15 inches, reached a seasonal total of 5.99 inches, or five inches more than had been received at this time last year.

Assistant City Engineer Stewart stated that the most serious damage done to city property was to parts of the Mulholland Highway road bed, which washed downhill. He said he had received reports that the roadway was blocked in some places by silt which flowed down from the sidehills. He said he could not estimate the damage in figures until a complete inspection had been made.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

EUREKA, Dec. 2.—Pedestrians and loiterers on the street here tonight were treated to a wonderful sight when Santa Claus and his six prancing reindeer, with sleigh bells jingling, came dashing into town down the main street shortly after 10 o'clock.

Persons who were fortunate enough to be about could hardly believe their eyes when the reindeer pulled up in front of the local telegraph office and old Santa Claus leaped out of his sleigh. He shook hands all around with a merry "hello" to everybody. A chunky individual whom Santa introduced as Ook Wat, his Eskimo friend, got out of the sleigh and stood at the head of the wonderful reindeer team while Santa Claus went inside and filed a telegram to the Los Angeles Times.

Upon returning to the street, Santa explained hurriedly that he is on his way down to Los Angeles to spend a long visit with boys and girls of Los Angeles upon an invitation from The Times. He said he had heard [illegible]uch about the famous Redwood Highway into Eureka that he decided to take that route. After watering his deer, Santa filled and lit his pipe, jumped into his sleigh with Ook Wat after him and the reindeer whisked them off down the street and into the night, bound for Los Angeles.

FULL DETAILS IN TIMES TOMORROW

Santa Claus and his great team of reindeer will arrive in Los Angeles Saturday morning.

For weeks thousands of boys and girls of Los Angeles have been waiting for the wonderful message that Santa Claus sent The Times last night from Eureka, saying that he will be here day after tomorrow.

It is going to be a day of days for Los Angeles boys and girls and for the grown people, too. It will be the first glimpse in broad daylight of Santa Claus and his reindeer. The very reindeer we have spoken pieces about and sung about each Christmas for years and years.

You will notice Santa's request in his telegram to send him our plans for his meeting Los Angeles boys and girls. Those in charge of the arrangements worked far into the night last night whipping every detail into shape so that as many children as possible will be able to see the reindeer during Santa's long daylight visit here. The Times wired him last night asking if he would not pass through some of the principal downtown streets Saturday morning when he arrives in the city and starts for the big barn where he will keep his reindeer each night. Programs will have to be arranged for each day that he is here so that he can drive his reindeer through the various neighborhoods where the children live.

Look in The Times tomorrow morning for the announcement of the exact hour when Santa and his reindeer will arrive and what downtown streets he will be on Saturday morning.

AIR REGIME VINDICATED

Coolidge's Board Files Report

Mitchell's Theories Refuted as Separate Branch for Aviation is Opposed

Army and Navy Get Praise for Advances in Flying Art During Peace Time

BY KYLE D. PALMER
"Times" Staff Correspondent
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—"Our answer is no." This laconic sentence, reflecting the answer of the President's special aircraft inquiry board to demands emanating largely from Col. William A. Mitchell, former assistant head of the air service, for the creation of an aircraft service independent of the regular Army and Navy, stands out as the high point in the board's voluminous report made public here today.

The aircraft investigation, begun on September 17, last, and conducted by a board of distinguished navy and army officers, Senators, Congressmen and representative citizens, was in session for four weeks.

The greater portion of the testimony heard by the board was given by those who have had actual flying experience.

"The one thing that stands out clearly," says the report, "at the very outset of a consideration of the problem is the great conflict in the testimony. This conflict extends not only to matters of opinion where it is necessarily to be expected—indeed, where to some extent it is to be desired—but also to what seem to be differences in statement of fact. There are some real conflicts on questions of fact. In most cases, however, the apparent differences in fact are merely different conclusions resulting from partial statements of fact.

CONFLICTS CITED

"There is apparently a wide divergence of opinion as to the number of usable airplanes under the control of the United States Army and Navy; as to the number of airplanes in use by other first-class powers; as to the effect of bombing and of antiaircraft fire; as to the physical possibilities of aircraft in carrying bombs and the distance they can be carried; as to the extent of the civilian use of aircraft here and abroad; as to the extent of industrial preparedness here and abroad."

Obviously referring to the Mitchell court-martial, the board reports that "we are not primarily concerned with questions of Army discipline. These are problems with which armies always have had to deal and always will have to deal. They must be dealt with through the ordinary channels. They do not fundamentally affect the problem upon which you have asked us to report."

The board does not hesitate, however, to take a view concerning the nation's aviation affairs exactly contrary to that so vociferously proclaimed by Col. Mitchell.

"We have found cause," the report reads, "for nothing but praise of the skill, daring and individual accomplishments of our army air pilots. They may challenge comparison with any in the world."

Concerning the naval branch of the Air Service the board is no less complimentary.

"We find nothing but praise," says the report, "of the personnel engaged in naval aviation.

"Our Navy was the first among those of the world to adapt the airplane to use over the sea. This was accomplished through the development of seaplanes and flying boats. In these types of airplanes we have continued to hold our lead. The Navy early developed the catapult for the launching of planes from ships. No other navy has as yet produced a successful counterpart. We have done more extended cruising with large sea-

SPANISH DICTATOR TO QUIT

Capt. Gen. Primo de Rivera Declares Time Near to Form New Civil Cabinet

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

MADRID, Dec. 2.—The plan to constitute a government made up of civilians to take the place of the military directorate has been confirmed. The new government, it is announced, will be sworn in tomorrow.

MADRID, Dec. 2.—Capt. Gen. Primo de Rivera, leaving the Royal Palace at 1 o'clock this afternoon is quoted by the Havas agency as having confirmed the report that the military directorate would be replaced by a new Cabinet in the near future.

Primo de Rivera said the situation had been sufficiently cleared since the installation of the military dictatorship to permit the formation of a new government.

"We have the country with us, and with the sovereign's approval, we can do nothing better for Spain," he said.

The new government is likely to consist of the high functionaries of the ministeries as a sort of civil directorate, with Primo de Rivera as president.

The military directorate was set up as the governing power in Spain after a coup d'etat led by Gen. Primo de Rivera in September, 1923. The new regime was approved by King Alfonso, who signed several decrees validating its power and suppressing all the ministries except those of War and Foreign Affairs.

Gen. Primo de Rivera has repeatedly declared that the military regime would be abolished in favor of a civil government as soon as conditions warrant.

ARIZONANS PROTEST AT POWER PLAN

New Distribution System Submitted by California Assailed as Unfair

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

PHOENIX, Dec. 2.—The new plan for distribution of the water and power of the Colorado River, submitted yesterday by California and Nevada representatives, was under consideration today by Gov. Hunt's Arizona representatives.

Strong opposition is voiced to the California proposals by persons and papers close to the State administration and from the Arizona high-line canal element with the declaration that California is "trying to hog the river" and that she demands three times as much water as she would grant Arizona.

Opposition also is expressed to the power-distribution proposal. From an administration source has come declaration that "Arizona will never indorse the compact, the Swing-Johnson bill, or the Boulder Canyon dam."

The baroness arrived here yesterday on the steamship Empress of Russia from the Orient. She is awaiting decision of the immigration officials whether she may enter.

Desert's Transportation Problem Solved by Motors, Says Explorer

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2. — Explorers in the Gobi Desert and other points in Mongolia have "opened up a new continent to motor transportation" as well as given the world some startling new scientific truths, Roy Chapman Andrews, the explorer, told a gathering of club women here today.

There was no transportation in the great open spaces of Mongolia other than horses, camels and oxcarts previous to these explorations, Andrews said, but the introduction of doughty and durable American motor cars seems to have solved the transportation problem.

Andrews disclaimed being the first discoverer of the dinosaur eggs, which his latest expedition into the Gobi uncovered in considerable numbers. The dune dwellers, who lived there some 20,000 years ago, and their predecessors used to wear fragments of the egg shells for ornaments, and used to take great pride in these 10,000,000-year-old baubles.

Two Attacks on Members of Opposition Feature Proceedings of Italian Chamber

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

ROME, Dec. 2.—The Italian Chamber of Deputies was the scene of a scuffle today when Vincenzo Saitta, a member of the Aventine opposition, which has been abstaining from the Parliamentary session, was forcibly ejected from the Chamber.

Upon spying Saitta a group of Fascist Deputies, led by Achille Starace, shouted:

"What are you doing here?" rushed upon him, dragged him from his seat and pushed him out of the room.

This incident was the second to enliven the Chamber's proceedings today. Luigi Repossi, a Communist Deputy, narrowly escaped injury when attacked by several Fascists, whom he angered by a remark during a discussion of the government's oil researches.

SLAYER SUSPECT FREED TO TAKE OFFICE

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

ROME, Dec. 2.—The Fascist Press Bureau announced today that Robert Farinacci, secretary-general of the Fascist party, has appointed Signor Marinelli, former treasurer of the party, to be general inspector of the administration of the Fascist party. Signor Marinelli was liberated yesterday after having been imprisoned for eighteen months in connection with the murder of the Socialist Deputy, Matteotti.

The kidnaping and slaying of Matteotti, which caused such a sensation early last year, was not premeditated, but the result of a spontaneous impulse by a number of hot-headed youths, who sought to prevent him from participating in the sittings of the Chamber.

This is the finding of the Court of Review, as published in this morning's newspapers. The finding holds five men for trial and liberates all the twenty-five others named in connection with the crime. The five held are Amerigo Dumini, Alino Volpi, Giuseppe Viola, Amleto Poveromo and Augusto Malacria.

According to the Court of Review, these five, exponents of extreme political measures, conceived the idea of kidnaping Matteotti, but unfortunately the kidnaping resulted in homicide.

The review discredits the asser-

HURRICANES MENACING EAST COAST

Shipping Paralyzed Along South Atlantic Ports and Rains Inundate Streets

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Hurricanes are lashing the South Atlantic seaboard tonight in the vicinity of the Virginia capes and are threatening the whole seaboard from Cape Hatteras to Boston. The United States Weather Bureau this afternoon ordered gale warnings displayed over the entire coast line.

The hurricane broke over Cape Hatteras this afternoon and by nightfall was moving slowly northward.

First reports of the storm came from Norfolk, stating that gales accompanied by heavy rains had tied up all ocean traffic between there and Hampton Roads. Streets are inundated and hundreds of basements in the business districts are flooded. No shipping is able to leave the harbor. So far no damage has been reported.

Young Stinnes Starting South on Coast Visit

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SEATTLE (Wash.) Dec. 2.—Dr. Edmund Stinnes, German financier, who has been visiting here, will leave tomorrow for southern Coast cities.

"American steel prices must be reduced or Japan's trade will be given to France and Germany," he said today.

A traveling companion said that failure of Stinnes and his brothers to carry on to success the business that their father, Hugo Stinnes, built up before his death, was due to their youth and the fact that much of their energy had been given to the World War.

The visitor, who is touring the United States "mostly for pleasure, but studying business, too," is 27 years of age.

Strike Follows Rounding Up of Liquor Suspects

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

YOSEMITE, Dec. 2.—A strike that threatened to tie up logging operations of the Yosemite Lumber Company at Camp Alta, about twenty-three miles from here, on the border of the park, resulted yesterday when park rangers outwitted a band of bootlegger suspects and arrested five men. Immediately thereafter, fifty-seven employees of the lumber company went on strike. The company retaliated by dismissing the strikers.

Park authorities declare that William Gale of Coulterville, one of the men arrested had been supplying the camp with illicit liquor. He was remanded to custody of Sheriff Turner of Mariposa county for hearing in court.

COURT BARS HARSH WORDS

Mitchell Trial Chief Clamps on Military Rules to End Wrangling During Hearing

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The Mitchell court-martial ended the sixth week of its existence today by employing army laws to preserve its dignity. All parties to the trial were enjoined by Maj.-Gen. Robert L. Howze, court president, to "take notice" of the regulations, stop wrangling and bickering and refrain from harsh and insulting treatment of witnesses.

When the ban was imposed, Representative Frank R. Reid took exception to Gen. Howze's pronouncement, saying he believed it was a personal rebuke. The admonition, it was immediately explained, applied to all court attendants, defense and prosecution alike. From then on only an occasional flurry marked the otherwise routine proceedings.

Prosecution continued presentation of evidence by naval officers. Comander Kenneth Whiting, its first witness today, testified that in general the United States "is ahead of Great Britain in naval aviation development," conceded that the present policy of the Navy is not suited to bring out the best work of its personnel in aviation and asserted that naval constructors were taking advantage of lessons learned in the bombing tests with the hull of the battleship Washington to make future capital ships better able to withstand bombs and torpedoes.

Commander R. D. Weyerbacher, aircraft engineer and constructor, who had charge of the building of the dirigible Shenandoah, contradicted many of Col. Mitchell's charges with respect to the ship.

Lieutenant-Commander Charles E. Rosendahl, senior surviving officer of the Shenandoah, was called to the stand a few minutes before the court recessed for the day. He was qualified as an expert on mooring masts and declared a dirigible could attain a high degree of safety when so moored.

Col. Mitchell had charged that mooring a craft like the Shenandoah to a mast was an inefficient way to handle airships.

BOARD UPHOLDS POLICIES IN AIR

Separate Service Opposed in Report to Coolidge

Mitchell Theories Refuted by Voluminous Findings

Army and Navy Get Praise for Their Advances

planes than any other navy. Our Navy aviators hold at least their share of world's records and have to their credit many outstanding accomplishments, such as the first trans-Atlantic flight.

HIGH-GRADE MATERIAL

"The material at its disposal is likewise generally of high grade as is shown by the almost total absence of criticism of material by the naval witnesses who appeared before us. From these facts and from considerations similar to those outlined in the instance of the Army we believe that the quality of our naval personnel and of its equipment is at least the equal of and in certain directions undoubtedly superior to that of any other power."

A direct challenge is given Col. Mitchell's charge that aviators have been compelled by superiors to use unsafe planes, the board commenting: "While the charge has been made in the public press that flyers have been compelled to fly unsafe planes, no evidence of any such case has been submitted to us."

Likewise the President's investigators take issue with the air colonel on his attacks upon the De Haviland planes as "flaming coffins."

"This particular type of plane," says the report, "though referred to by some critics as 'flaming coffins,' has in the last three years been flown approximately 1,000,000 miles across country on the Army airways without casualty."

The board recommends that an additional Assistant Secretary of War be authorized by Congress in order that the Army Air Service shall receive "sympathetic supervision and counsel." It is also recommended that the name of the service be changed to air corps.

An additional Secretary of the Navy to supervise the Navy Air Service also is recommended.

Other recommendations for the Army are:

That an air section be created in each of the five divisions of the War Department General Staff.

That Congress create two more places for brigadier-generals in the Air Corps.

That the Secretary of War assign officers to flying commands.

That extra pay for flying be recognized as permanent in time of peace.

That additional appropriations be made to provide proper training of reserve officers and to provide necessary training planes and subsidiary flying fields.

NAVY PROGRAM

That a very considerable increase be made in the number of ground instruction schools.

That "a careful study be made of the desirability of increasing the use of enlisted men as pilots in the Air Corps."

That special appropriations from Congress for aircraft development be given every consideration but it is not wise to make definite plans for such an extended period as ten years. The board suggested that a five-year aviation program appears "more prudent."

As to the Navy the board recommends:

Giving of temporary rank as captain, commander or lieutenant-commander to any officer of a junior grade when he is detailed to duty requiring specialization in aviation and for which the higher rank is proper.

The conditional maintenance of flight pay as at present.

Additional plans and suitable provisions for the training of reserves.

That representation be given naval aviators both in the office of the chief of naval operations and Bureau of Navigation. This to the end that naval flyers shall have opportunity to present their problems to those responsible for shaping their policies.

Col. Mitchell, when apprised of the general tenor of the Aircraft Board's findings, declined to comment for publication, saying he wanted to study the entire report before expressing his opinion of the findings. Friends of Col. Mitchell, however, assert that the air colonel assumes that many of the recommendations made by the board are directly traceable to the Mitchell attack.

REASONS GIVEN

Without particularizing as to the identity of Air Service critics, the aircraft investigators nevertheless devote considerable attention to a major portion of the specific charges for which Col. Mitchell is on trial accused of insubordination.

Setting forth its reasons for concluding that a separate air service is undesirable, the board, quoting the opinions of Gen. Pershing, Admiral Eberle, Admiral Robinson, Admiral Coontz and Admiral Hughes, all of whom recommended separation of the air branches of the Army and Navy, proceeds on its own account to say:

"Modern military and naval operations cannot be effectively conducted without such services acting as integral parts of a single command. Moreover, the training of these air services that are to act with the Army and with the Navy must be under the continuous direction and control of the command which is ultimately to use them. In these conclusions and principles we concur. The question left to consider is whether the country has need of a separate independent air force in addition to the air power required for use with the Army and Navy. We do not consider that air power, as an arm of the national defense, has yet demonstrated its value—certainly not in a country situated as ours—for independent operations of such a character as to justify the organization of a separate department. We believe that such independent missions as it is capable of can be better carried out under the high command of the Army or Navy, as the case may be."

NO UNANIMITY

One of the basic arguments advanced by Mitchell to support his demands for a separate air service hinged on a policy of unified air control by the British Air Ministry.

This contention the aircraft board dismisses as unimportant and unrelated to conditions in the United States, saying: "Because of our different geographical position we attach no weight to this precedent."

"Moreover," adds the report, "in this connection we desire to draw attention to the fact that in Great Britain itself there is no unanimity of expert opinion as to the ultimate value of the Air Ministry from the viewpoint of national defense."

The board, taking into consideration the honest differences of opinion that may have arisen as to the best method of utilizing aircraft in war, and advising "a more generous appreciation by each side of the difficulties of the other side" concludes that while fundamental problems may not be settled, they may be understood "if men will approach them with less feeling and more intelligence."

Emphatic recommendation is made to President Coolidge that the aviation policy of the United States provide for distinct separation of military and civilian air services.

Going exhaustively into the question of possible menace of air attack on the United States by a foreign power, the board concludes that there is no danger of such attack.

"This conclusion," the President is informed, "is based on the facts as they now are. No airplane capable of making a transoceanic flight to our country with a useful military load and of returning to safety is now in existence."

Following up its recommendation against a separate air service, the board reports unfavorably on a suggestion that all groups of the military service be placed under a single department of national defense.

Under the heading, "How can the civilian use of aircraft be promoted?" the board presents a thoughtful analysis of the possibilities of commercial aviation commenting, "This brings us directly to the part of our inquiry, which has, perhaps, attracted the least popular attention, but which may well be the most important question which aviation presents in its far-reaching consequences to our people."

GREAT OPPORTUNITY

On this subject the board assures Mr. Coolidge that "a great opportunity lies before the United States. We have natural resources, industrial organizations and long distances free from customs barriers. We may if we will, take the lead in the world in extending civil aviation. In this field international competition is to be desired by all."

Citing a list of obstacles to development of civil aviation, the board submits certain generalized recommendations, chief among them that an additional Secretary of Commerce be appointed to supervise a bureau of air navigation, that the Air Mail Service be progressively extended, preferably by contract, provision be made for needed airways and air navigation facilities, including a specialized weather report service.

Encouragement of various phases of the air craft industry is recommended.

Concluding their suggestions with the frank admission that their early deliberations were marked by "views differing as widely at first as some of those expressed in the testimony heard by us," the President's investigators say:

"We have reached a unanimous conclusion because we have approached our task in a spirit of mutual accommodation and understanding."

FLYERS DIE IN SAN DIEGO AIR CRASH

Marine Officers' Planes Collide Above Waters and Two Pilots Are Killed

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 2.—Colliding head-on 1500 feet above San Diego Bay while their Vought airplanes were traveling faster than 100 miles an hour, Capt. Harry H. Shepherd and Lieut. John D. Christian, attached to Marine Corps Aviation Squadron No. 1, at North Island, were killed today.

The two airplanes, their locked wings and fuselages parting after dropping 1000 feet, plunged into the bay about four miles south of Coronado Tent City.

Lieut. Christian's plane fell near the shore and the aviator was still breathing when he was pulled from the wreckage. He died while being rushed to the naval air station dispensary.

Capt. Shepherd remained in the wreckage of his ship until the wrecking barge hoisted the demolished plane from the bay bottom. The body of the Marine Corps pilot was found huddled over the shattered steering stick.

A dramatic touch to the ill-fated maneuver in which the two aviators lost their lives was added when it was discovered that both men evidently had sensed their danger and for a fraction of a second had tugged at their parachutes.

Both parachutes were opened, but still were tied securely to the bodies of the dead pilots. The planes came together, however, before either could leap to safety.

Capt. Shepherd was married three months ago. His widow resides in Coronado. During the World War he commanded a machine-gun company of the Fifth Marine Battalion, participating in all the engagements in which the Marines took part. He graduated from the Pensacola naval air station in 1921.

Lieut. Christian was born in Halthorpe, Md., February 12, 1900. He was unmarried. He has a brother, a captain in the Army, stationed at Fort Leavenworth, Kan. Christian graduated from the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis and subsequently left the service. He was appointed a lieutenant in the Marine Corps in 1924 and in May of last year was sent to the Pensacola naval air station for flight training.

Local Man May Also Quit State Fish Commission

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 2.—As the battle clouds lifted today in the verbal warfare between Gov. Richardson and Frank M. Newbert, ousted president of the State Fish and Game Commission, rumors were in circulation at the capital that the resignation of M. J. Connell of Los Angeles, third member of the commisison, will soon be in the hands of the Governor.

Connell is known to have been in sympathy with Newbert in matters pertaining to the Fish and Game Comission and supported the ousted member on many actions taken by the body.

In addition to their affiliation in official capacities, Newbert and Connell are said to be very close personal friends.

ently had been overlooked by the rain clouds during the general drenching early Tuesday night, were visited late at night and during the early hours yesterday. Mt. Wilson, for instance, where only a moderate fall was reported up until 10 p.m. Tuesday, recorded 2.12 inches for the storm, the largest portion of which came after 10 p.m. Moderate temperatures, however, caused rain rather than snow to fall in the mountains.

Pasadena registered 1.55 inches for the storm, all of which came between 7 p.m. Tuesday and 9:30 a.m. yesterday. Morris S. Jones, special meteorological observer there, said the storm was the heaviest in Pasadena since January, 1922. No property damage of any consequence was reported there.

BRIDGES THREATENED

North of the Tehachapi, a cool wave was noticeable after the storm, dispatches stated. Cold, threatening weather was reported from Porterville and snow was said to be falling generally in the high Sierras of that section.

A precipitation of 1.26 at Monrovia caused an eighteen-inch flow of water down Sawpit Wash to Huntington Drive for the first time this season, but did no damage.

Flood waters in the southern half of Glendale scoured the soil from one of the buttresses at the Cypress-avenue bridge, damaging that structure to the point where it was closed to traffic pending repairs.

The bridge at Verdugo Wash and San Fernando Road narrowly escaped destruction, but strenuous work by street crews saved it.

Rain reports received from J. W. Reagan, chief engineer of the Los Angeles County Flood Control District, giving the amount of rain for the storm, which began about 6 p.m., Tuesday and lasted until about noon yesterday, follow:

Lake's Camp, Pacoima, 1.63 inches.

Craig's Ranch, Pacoima, 1.80 inches.

City of San Fernando, 2.07 inches for this storm, making 4.48 inches for the season as against 2.59 inches last year.

Dillon's Ranch, Pacoima, 1.70 inches.

Indian Spring Camp, Little Tujunga, 1.35 inches.

Mt. Wilson, 2.12 inches.

Loomis Ranch, Big Tujunga, 1.10 inches.

Colby's Ranch, Big Tujunga, 3.78 inches, Justice Camp, Big Tujunga, 2.04 inches.

Switzer's Camp, Arroyo Seco, 2.30 inches.

Camp Oakwylde, Arroyo Seco, 2.55 inches.

Waterman Ranger Station, 2.67 inches.

Robert's Camp, Big Santa Anita, 2.19 inches.

Santa Anita Ranger Station, Big Santa Anita, 2 inches.

Little Gray Inn, Big Santa Anita, 1.72 inches.

Opid's Camp, San Gabriel, West Fork, 2.69 inches.

Valley Forge Lodge, San Gabriel, West Fork, 2.45 inches.

San Gabriel Flood Control Camp, Forks of San Gabriel, 1.30 inches.

Coldbrook Camp, San Gabriel, North Fork, 1.32 inches.

Hyne's Camp, San Gabriel, West Fork, 1.83 inches.

Roger's Camp, San Dimas, 1.75 inches.

Wolfskill Falls, San Dimas, 1.90 inches.

San Dimas Dam, 1.77 inches.

Brydon's Camp, between San Dimas and Live Oak Canyons, 1.40 inches.

Big Pines Recreation Camp, 1.50 inches. Temperature of 50 degrees.

HEAVY FROST FORECAST FOR NORTH

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—What is believed to be one of the heaviest State-wide rains California has had in three years is expected to end tomorrow with scattered showers in Southern California. Starting Sunday on the north coast the rain gradually worked southward and today gave Southern California one of the heaviest drenchings it has had since the winter of 1921-1922.

A heavy frost this morning will be followed by clear weather the rest of the week, in the opinion of the government forecasters.

During Tuesday night and this morning the central valleys, especially the San Joaquin, which had been rather deficient in rain fall, were visited by heavy downpours, many places reporting more than an inch of rain overnight. More rain has fallen in San Diego so far this season than during all of last winter. The precipitation this autumn totals 5.96 inches with more expected tomorrow, while during all of last season only 5.81 inches fell. To date 3.32 inches of rain has fallen in Los Angeles. Last winter this figure was not reached until February 6.

The heaviest twenty-four hour rain reported today was 2.01 inches at Eureka; Red Bluff 1.36; San Luis Obispo 1.32; Sacramento an inch; Santa Barbara 1.96 inches; Los Angeles 1.80 inches, Oroville 1.25 inches, Chico, El Cajon and Rocklin 1.25 inches.

Slightly over an inch of rain has fallen in San Francisco this week bringing the total for the season up to 3.50 inches, compared with a normal precipitation to date of 4.25 inches. Last year 4.62 inches had fallen to December 3.

There are four inches of snow on the ground at the summit station in the High Sierras.

The official rainfall table for the twenty-four hours ending at 5 o'clock tonight follows:

	Last 24 hours	Seasonal to date	Seasonal last year
Eureka	.16	10.59	15.21
Red Bluff	.18	4.18	6.48
Sacramento	.40	2.15	3.83
San Francisco	.12	3.49	4.62
San Jose	.28	2.08	3.03

English Writer Suffers from Double Pneumonia at Sussex Village

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

LONDON, Dec. 2. — Rudyard Kipling has been stricken with double pneumonia at the little Sussex village of Burwash. Late tonight London was filled with reports that the condition of the author had become worse.

Lord Dawson, the King's physician, was called in consultation with the regular physician and this evening he informed the Associated Press upon his return to London that Kipling is suffering from double pneumonia and his condition is "anxious, but not dangerous."

Close friends of Kipling received a telegram at 8 o'clock tonight from Burwash with Kipling's name attached, saying that the doctors were satisfied with his condition, but that the disease must run its course.

Quiz of Byram Halts in Fight Over St. Paul

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Examination of H. E. Byram, former president and now receiver of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad, was temporarily suspended after further questioning at today's session of the Interstate Commerce Commission inquiry into the road's financial plight.

H. L. Ekern, Attorney-General of Wisconsin, and counsel for bondholders asked and received permission to delay their cross-examination of Mr. Byram until further hearings are held later at Chicago and E. L. Fisher, a director of the road, then gave details of the efforts that were made to keep the road out of receivership in spite of poor earnings and maturity of its bonded debt. Other officials of the line will be called tomorrow.

BRIAND WINS IN FIRST CONTEST

the Chamber of Deputies today, won a partial victory by inducing the Chamber to change its methods of procedure and consider the proposed increase of 7,500,000,000 francs in the monetary circulation before discussing interpellations.

The bill, framed by Finance Minister Loucheur, raising the limit of the issue of paper money from 51,000,000,000 to 58,500,000,000 francs, was introduced at once and referred to the finance committee, which demanded a suspension of the session until 9 p.m.

DEMANDS CARRIED

Upon the required vote between this hour and postponement to tomorrow, the finance committee's demand was carried by 415 to 154.

The Briand Cabinet's ministerial declaration admits that the situation is particularly grave, but says it cannot have irreparable consequences provided the government has the confidence of the entire country and the collaboration of both houses of Parliament.

The declaration asserts that the government is ready to assume its immediate responsibilities and to enforce the necessary measures to meet the treasury bonds which fall due the 8th inst.

It promises that inflation will be limited to the immediate needs of the treasury.

The declaration says that realizing that the restoration of French finances cannot be accomplished without loyal agreement with the great nations which are France's creditors, "the government will continue earnestly and promptly the negotiations with the Allies concerning debts."

The government expresses the hope that France's allies and friends will take into consideration in the forthcoming settlement of France's precarious financial situation the necessity for them to collaborate in the revaluation of the French franc, thus rendering possible the fulfillment of the undertakings entered into by France.

Measures for the curtailment of the period of military service were referred to but the declaration refrains from a specific statement that a one-year term will be adopted. It makes brief mention of the Locarno security treaty, expressing certainty that the treaty will be ratified by a large majority.

It concludes with an expression of belief that the situation in Syria and Morocco soon will return to normal.

The ministry's declaration was received by the Chamber in impressive silence. The Premier's delivery of it was extremely grave and the Deputies seemed to realize the seriousness of the situation.

M. Briand's reference to the Locarno security treaty was applauded but his mention of the necessity of inflation threw a chill over the assembly. The same effect was noticed when he mentioned the proposal to return to the system of district polling in the reform of the electoral law.

Bruises on Body Found at Untenanted House

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 2.—Conceded that Rev. Knute B. Birkeland was slain, police today sought to account for the presence of the retired Lutheran minister, author, and business man in the untenanted duplex house where his body was found late yesterday.

Efforts of the authorities were directed largely to a search for a woman giving the name of Mae Reynolds, who rented the apartment November 20, last, saying she planned to open a massage parlor.

Dead from chloroform or some other subtle poison, the body of the clergyman was found fully clothed, his overcoat wrapped around him, stretched out on two kitchen tables, over which had been placed a folded quilt, a white bed spread and a sheet. A pillow was under his head.

Rev. Birkeland, who was 69 years of age, had been missing for a week and a wide search for him had been instituted. Two blocks from the house where his body was found yesterday, his automobile was discovered the day of his disappearance.

Dr. E. T. Bell of the pathology department, University of Minnesota, reported after a post-mortem examination that chloroform or ether had undoubtedly been used, and Coroner Seashore said it was not a case of suicide or accident.

On the man's cheek was a bruise and police believe he was probably lured into a car and slugged, taken to the apartment and chloroformed. It was dusk when he disappeared November 24, and he could have been carried into the building unnoticed, police believe.

The Rev. Mr. Birkeland formerly was president of the board of trustees of Augsburg Seminary here. He retired from the active ministry twenty years ago, and since then met with considerable success in business as well as in literary work. He was widely known in the Northwest.

Coroner Seashore will sign a death certificate that Rev. Mr. Birkeland was the victim of "homicide by soluble poison," he said this afternoon.

Meanwhile, university experts continued chemical and microscopic examinations in search for some subtle poison, while police continued their search for "Mae Reynolds" and three men who called at the untenanted house yesterday.

The janitor reported an elderly, well-dressed man called shortly before the body was found and two others also had called, asking for "Mrs. Reynolds."

The woman, described as between 30 and 40, medium height and with bobbed hair, said she had just come from San Francisco when she rented the place. The police of that city were given her description today.

Count and Countess De Coudenhove-Kalergi

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—So rapid has been the growth of the plan for a United States of Europe that the centennial of the first Pan-American Congress in 1926 will mark the first great concerted movement toward the establishment of a similar Pan-European Congress, according to Count Richard Nikolas de Coudenhove-Kalergi, who is at present visiting here with Countess Kalergi.

The count is editor of Pan-Europa, official magazine of the Pan-European union, and one of its earliest and strongest advocates. As sketched by the count, the Pan-European Congress would include all the countries of Europe with the exception of England, Russia and Turkey, and will be conducted in October of next year in Vienna. Countess Kalergi is famous on the Viennese stage as Ida Roland.

"CALL ME HENRY"—EPITAPH

Famous Injunction to Mark Last Resting Place of Departed Washington Shriner

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—"Call Me Henry," the constantly expressed injunction of the late Henry Lansburgh, potentate of the Almas Temple and vice-president of Lansburgh & Brothers, one of the oldest department store firms in the capital, will be, with the dates of his birth and death, the sole inscription on the door of the mausoleum to be erected for his remains in Rock Creek Cemetery. Pending the construction of the mausoleum, his grave will be indicated by a marking stone bearing the words "Call Me Henry."

Famous in Masonic circles throughout the country by the title "Call Me Henry," which he even had engraved upon his cards, Mr. Lansburgh's will, which was read today, characteristically referred to nearly every one of the many beneficiaries named as "my very dear friend."

"He liked to feel close to people," one of his brothers said today. "He never liked to have any friend call him 'Mr. Lansburgh.' He would say, 'call me Henry.' That was how it began. It seemed to him more intimate, more friendly, as it was his own nature to feel toward his friends."

Mr. Lansburgh, who died last Sunday at the age of 56, was a bachelor.

FREIGHT LOADINGS GAIN DURING WEEK

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Placing freight carloadings for the week ending November 21 at 1,057,674, the American Railway Association tonight declared this was an advance of 6916 over the preceding week and an increase of 46,755 over the corresponding week last year.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE AID FOUND

Canadian Finds Extract of Liver of Benefit for Arterial Tension

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

TORONTO, Dec. 2.—Dr. W. J. MacDonald of St. Cahterine's, Ont., who some time ago said that experiments were being made in the hope of developing an effective and practical treatment for high blood pressure, now states that the first findings concerning the possibilities of a remedy have been confirmed by experiments.

Addressing the Academy of Medicine, whose guest at dinner he was, Dr. MacDonald told of the intensive work that had been carried on for six months in the physiological laboratories of the University of Toronto.

"An extract of liver has been obtained which possesses the property of reducing to a certain extent arterial hypertension when there are no complications," reported Dr. MacDonald.

The findings of his investigations, announced in a preliminary report last May, have been confirmed, said the investigator, by animal experiments and clinical test on humans undertaken since, as well as by a preliminary chemical analysis.

HEALER WOULD OUST CHIROPRACTIC BOARD

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 2.—Charges that members of the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners are guilty of collecting illegal fees for services rendered and that they have been ordering illegal disbursements are contained in a petition for the ouster of the board, filed today in Superior Court.

The petition was filed by Percy Purviance, a chiropractor of Berkeley, in Judge Malcolm Glenn's department. He issued a citation ordering James Compton, W. W. Tait, W. N. Clayton, J. K. Giljerson and H. D. McFarland, members of the board, to appear in court on December 10 to show cause why they should not be ousted.

The action is an echo of the war raging between members of the Board of Chiropractic Examiners and one element among the practitioners, in which the disposition of a fund of $12,000 raised by the chiropractors of the State for a defense fund, is involved.

Other suits filed by Purviance in the San Francisco courts are still pending.

In the petition filed today Purviance charges that the board, specifically, employed Attorney Kingston of San Francisco for work in connection with examinations for applicants for chiropractic licenses without due authority or warrant of law.

WORK RECORD SPOILED

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 2.—Max Beaver, deputy-county Treasurer of Salt Lake county, was absent from his office today the first time in twenty years. He sprained his ankle last night and could not negotiate the trip. Beaver holds the record here for continuous service in one office.

IMPERIAL HAS WINTER FAIR

Remarkable Produce Display Given at Brawley

Fruit and Vegetables Shown With Live Stock

Governors Will Attend Fete in Valley Region

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

BRAWLEY, Dec. 2.—Imperial Valley furnished abundant evidence that it is the winter garden of America today when a profusion of fresh fruit and vegetable products such as probably never before has been assembled in any community at this season of the year, greeted several thousand visitors who attended the opening of the annual Imperial midwinter fair.

The exhibits not only include vegetables of nearly every variety grown on the North American continent, but also a remarkable showing of thoroughbred live stock and poultry.

The midwinter fair which started a few years ago in the back end of a local feed store, has developed into an exposition of Statewide importance, and large numbers of visitors have motored here from Los Angeles and other Southern California cities to view the exhibits.

The feature of the live stock show is the entry of Segis Walker Matador Mechthilde, the 2-year-old Holstein bull which recently won the grand prize at the Pacific Dairy show, and which recently has been purchased by Gov. Rodriguez of Lower California to head the dairy herd on his new colonization project at Progreso.

In addition to the regular fair features, motor dealers of Imperial have combined in presenting one of the most attractive automobile displays ever given here. Tomorrow is Calexico-Mexicali day on the fair program when Gov. Richardson of California and Gov. Roderiguez of Lower California will be honor guests. Friday is Elcentro day, and the Saturday program is arranged in honor of a special excursion of visitors from San Diego. The fair will continue until Sunday night.

NEW WILSON STAMP NEAR COMPLETION

Die Proof of 17-Cent Issue Ready and They May Go on Sale Soon

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The die proof of the new Woodrow Wilson 17-cent stamp was completed today by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and Postmaster-General New announced that work will be rushed to have the first issue placed on sale the 28th inst., the birth date of the war President.

They will be sold on that day only at Staunton, Va., Mr. Wilson's birthplace; Princeton, N. J., his last home before coming to the White House; New York City, headquarters of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation, and at Washington.

The new stamp is to be printed in banknote black ink and will bear what is understood to be the favorite portrait of Mr. Wilson, approved by his widow and the president of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation.

Doble Fails to Block Trial on Stock Charges

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—The State Supreme Court denied the applications of Abner Doble, head of the Doble Steam Motor Company, and his son, W. A. Doble, for a writ of prohibition to restrain the Superior Court here from hearing a criminal action against the Dobles in relation to the sale of stock in their company. The Dobles had contended that the Superior Court had no jurisdicaion to try the case.

The Dobles, who operated an automobile plant in Oakland, were indicted by the grand jury here on September 2, 1924, on a charge of violating the State Corporate Securities Act. The State Corporation Department investigators held that the Dobles and their associates sold stock in excess of the amount permitted by the department.

WATER PLAN APPROVED

State Grants Application for Stony Creek Rights

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 2.—Application of the United States Bureal of Reclamation on behalf of the Orland irrigation project to appropriate 50,200 acre feet of water from Stony Creek for storage in Glenn and Tehama counties was approved today by the State Division of Water Rights.

The project was delayed several years through changes in plans. Under terms of the application the project's present storage capacity may be doubled.

Construction of increased facilities may be started soon after July 1, when an appropriation of $1,150,000 by Congress is expected to be available.

JAPANESE DENY BAN

Tokio Assures Embassy American Rail Bids are Welcome

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

TOKIO, Dec. 2.—Commercial Attache Calder of the American Embassy here visited the railway department of the Japanese government today and was informed by officials there that the Japanese had no intention of excluding American-made rails from the railroads of the country, but in the new rail-replacement program bids will be accepted and considered from any country.

REPORT SOUGHT IN DEPORTATION

State Department Again Queries Oregon Chief

Exclusion of Japanese Basis of Inquiry

Arrival of Executive's New Note Awaited

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Renewed inquiry has been made by the State Department of Gov. Pierce of Oregon as to the progress being made in the settlement of a case arising out of deportation of a group of Japanese several months ago from Toledo, Or.

The matter was taken up at the time with the State Department by the Japanese Embassy, and Gov. Pierce in response to a State Department inquiry transmitted information showing the courts in Oregon were dealing with the matter. As nothing further was heard from the Governor after his first communication was received here, and in view of a further request from the Japanese Embassy for information, another letter to the Oregon executive was forwarded a few days ago, but the State Department has not made public either its contents or the reply previously made by Gov. Pierce.

Additional information in the deportation incident has been received by the State Department, from the Department of Justice, but this also has not been made public pending a reply to the last inquiry addressed to the Governor.

FIVE SUITS FILED OVER DEPORTATION

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SALEM (Or.) Dec. 2.—Deportation of half a dozen Japanese mill workers from Toledo, Or., last July has been investigated by State and county officers, and Prosecuting Attorney E. P. Conrad has advised Gov. Pierce in response to an inquiry made last week that the next session of the Lincoln county grand jury, which meets in February, will take up the case. The Governor was advised that the last session of the grand jury did not get around to it, owing to lack of time and pressure of other matters.

There are pending in the United States court in Portland five civil suits against Toledo citizens in connection with the deportation, in each of which $25,000 damages is demanded.

Gov. Pierce said today that he had not yet received the communication from the State Department at Washington relative to the Japanese deportation last summer.

"I do not consider that I have a right to say anything for publication until the State Department's letter is received," said the Governor. "When I get it I shall make a reply. So far all official communications bearing on the matter have been made public."

PARTIES IN DAKOTA FIX UP SLATES

Three Tickets in Field for Primaries in March; Incumbents Indorsed

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

PIERRE (S. D.) Dec. 2.—Primary candidates for Congressional and State offices were named and platforms adopted by Republicans, Democrats and Farmer-Laborites of South Dakota in State conventions that continued until an early hour here today.

Outstanding in importance was the indorsement for renomination of United States Senator Norbeck and Gov. Gunderson by the Republicans, who smoothed out early factional ruffles which threatened for a time to disrupt their convention.

The convention's indorsements are considered the equivalent of election, although candidates may file independently in any of the primaries which will be held in March. Heretofore the convention candidates always have been nominated Democrats indorsed C. J. Gunderson, of Clay county, a cousin of Gov. Gunderson, for United States Senator, and W. J. Bulow of Beresford for Governor, while the Farmer-Labor party named George Platt, a farmer of Marshall county, for Senator, and H. K. Warren of Yankton for Governor. Efforts of the Democrats and Farmer-Laborites to agree on a complete fusion slate failed, although a number of "insurgent" Farmer-Laborites joined with the Democrats in indorsing Miss Alice Lorraine Daly and several other candidates. Miss Daly, who last year was the Farmer-Labor candidate for Governor, was indorsed for Congress in the First District.

For Congress the Republicans indorsed the three incumbents, C. A. Christopherson, Sioux Falls; Royal C. Johnson, Aberdeen, and William Williamson, Custer.

Newspaper to Celebrate at Birthday Party

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

PORTLAND (Or.) Dec. 2.—Plans for celebrating its seventy-fifth anniversary with a huge diamond jubilee birthday party next Friday, at which its oldest subscribers, pioneers and editors of Pacific Northwest newspapers will be its guests, were announced today by the Morning Oregonian.

Pioneers, editors of the Pacific Northwest, and workers in all departments of the Oregonian, will be guests at a dinner. About 1500 are expected. A feature of the dinner will be a big birthday cake.

RHINELANDER'S FATHER FLAYED

Charges Parent Neglected Duties to Son

Compares Mental Ages of Client and Bride

Bases Plea to White Jury on Racial Distinction

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WHITE PLAINS (N. Y.) Dec. 2. Isaac N. Mills, chief counsel for Leonard Kip Rhinelander, in the suit to annul his marriage to Alice Beatrice Jones, part negress, in his summation today launched an attack against Philip Rhinelander, wealthy father of Leonard, for his neglect of his son.

"Philip Rhinelander is more to blame for the fool position that this young man has brought himself into than the young man himself," the lawyer asserted.

He declared Alice had considered young Rhinelander to be her absolute slave, and that she had thought that he was being kept away from her against his will. Mills said she believed that until he had walked into the courtroom. She had believed eventually he would return to her.

MIND OF BOY

Referring to his client's degree of intelligence, Mills said: "I do not claim that Leonard Kip Rhinelander is a fool, but it is a problem how much intelligence he has. At the beginning of his acquaintanceship with Alice, although he was 18 years old, intelligence tests show that his intellect was not above that of a normal boy of 14."

On the other hand, Mills said, women of Alice's race mature early.

Mr. Mills said that for years the elder Rhinelander had neglected Leonard, citing the fact that Philip Rhinelander had never visited the boarding school while Leonard attended. Philip Rhinelander never had set eyes on any member of the Jones family, Mills said.

The plaintiff attorney made a point of the absence from the court of any member of Rhinelander's family. Mills said, "when the father found his boy living with a woman, what did he do? He sent a lawyer to see him instead of going himself."

Almost with the first words of his burst of oratory, which Mills had indicated will continue for a day and a half, the plaintiff attorney appealed to the white jury on a basis of racial distinction.

"Leonard will hail a verdict for the plaintiff as a prisoner on the steps of the scaffold hails a pardon from the Governor," Mills declared.

Mills asserted there is a third party at interest in every venture in matrimony; that party is the public. He asked the jury to be guided by a consideration of the effects which their verdict will have. He admitted that subterfuge had been practiced by the Rhinelander attorneys in gaining Leonard's consent to separation from his wife until the matter of her color could be investigated.

COLOR SETTLED

"The question which started this battle has already been settled by the defense attorney," he stated. "That is the question of color. It has been confessed by the defense, but it has not been eliminated from the issues."

Referring to the interviews with the newspapers immediately after the news of the marriage became public, Mills asserted that "Leonard then stood by his wife. He loved her—that is the wonder of this case."

Mills referred to a letter written by Rhinelander in September, 1922, in answer to a letter from Alice in which she threatened to break off their friendship. Rhinelander in his letter begged Alice not to "throw him down."

"He begged," Mills shouted, "as if he had been beseeching an alliance with a girl of the Four Hundred; or the daughter of a queen."

Just prior to adjournment when Mills indicated that he probably would require most of tomorrow for completion of his summing up, Justice Morschauser announced that in that case he probably would not charge the jury until Friday.

RAIL CUT ON MEAT ORDERED

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Rates on fresh meats from Chicago to New York must be reduced by railroads to 79 cents per 100 pounds as compared with the present rate of 87 cents, the Interstate Commerce Commission ruled today.

COOLIDGE HELPS FIGHT WHITE PLAGUE

Red Cross Tokens Purchased From Little Girl at Capital

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Following the custom of three preceding Presidents—Taft, Wilson and Harding—President Coolidge inaugurated this year's Christmas Red Cross seal campaign in the capital by purchasing his supply from Adrienne Mayer, champion seal girl, who as 5 years of age started to aid the fight against the white plague with the Prince of Wales as her first customer.

In addition to Presidents and Royalty, Adrienne has sold seals to Gen. Foch, Gen. Pershing, M. Clemenceau and many other notables. From the supply being purchased by the President to seal his Christmas presents it appears that he has overlooked his pet hobby of economy in his intended dispensation of Christmas gifts.

REMEMBER NEAR EAST ON SUNDAY

"Golden Rule Day" to be Observed as Benefit for Overseas Relief Fund

Next Sunday, which in fifty countries has been set aside as the third annual Golden Rule Sunday, will be observed generally throughout the Pacific region, according to reports reaching Dell A. Schweitzer, Southwestern district chairman.

Churches, young people's societies, women's clubs and fraternal organizations are active in the movement. In Fifty Southland churches special sermons in observance of the day will be delivered.

In many households a frugal meal approximating the 4-cent fare eaten at Near East relief orphanages in Greece, Syria and Palestine will be served and the difference in the cost between this simple meal and the usual elaborate Sunday dinner will be given to the fund.

Headquarters for the movement are at Room 804, Wright & Callender Building.

French Scientist Questions Death by Electrocution

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

PARIS, Dec. 2.—The question of the possibility of a person being really killed by electrocution was again raised when Prof. Darsonval before the Academy of Sciences expounded the theories of the specialist, M. Jellinek, who declared it is possible to resuscitate anyone apparently dead from an electric shock if treatment begins before putrefaction sets in, which is remarkably rapid in the lungs and nerves.

M. Jellinek has revived persons thought dead three hours after a long treatment including artificial respiration.

HOME FILMS ADVOCATED IN ENGLAND

Commons Has Discussion of Question of Limiting American Pictures

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

LONDON, Dec. 2.—The House of Commons today heard a version of the complaint often raised by the English papers that American motion-picture films give an entirely false impression of British life and manners.

Sir William Henry Davison, Conservative member for Kensington, said it was desirable that British life should be presented by British-made films and he wanted to know whether the government intended to introduce legislation compelling English motion-picture theaters to include a certain percentage of British films in their programs so as to stimulate British production.

Arthur Samuel, parliamentary secretary of the overseas trade department replied that the government was considering such action.

Capt. S. Arthur Evans, Conservative from Cardiff, asked Mr. Samuel whether in the interest of the motion-picture public, he would take into consideration "that the supply of British films, in either quantity or quality, is not sufficient to meet any compulsory percentage." Mr. Samuel said this would be considered.

WINE BY GLASS SALE PROPOSAL OPPOSED

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

VICTORIA (B. C.) Dec. 2.—T. G. Coventry, a Conservative member of the British Columbia Parliament, today attacked a proposal to legalise the sale of wine by the glass. Coventry, representing a berry district, explained that "loganberry wine by itself is a satisfactory beverage, but mixed with beer is likely to cause serious trouble." Sale of beer by the glass, is legal in British Columbia, where all liquor is distributed by the government.

ARICA EXPOSE THREATENED

Heckling of Pershing by Chilean Commissioner May Result in General Hurling Boomerang

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

ARICA (Chile) Dec. 2.—The increasing heckling by Chile of Gen. Pershing in South America and Europe is expected to force the State Department at Washington to give out the general's recent statement of the existing conditions in Tacna-Arica.

This statement may make a boomerang of Augustin Edwards's recent aspersions on the general. The statement discloses why he has delayed holding the ballot which is to decide whether those provinces shall remain in Chile or shall be returned to Peru, from whom they were wrested about half a century ago.

Gen. Pershing is the neutral chairman of the plebiscite commission, appointed by President Coolidge, who was chosen as arbitrator by both Peru and Chile. He frequently has stated that he will not consent to a plebiscite which does not give each side a fair right to an open vote under the Coolidge award. He has contended that the Chileans have not been removing from the region certain officials and other persons which the commission majority decided should not be in the region on election day. His statement is believed to reveal other things. The Peruvian commission has been voting with him.

The Chilean commissioner, Senor Edwards, refuses to attend the meetings of the commission unless steps are taken immediately for a plebiscite within the next two or three months. When Gen. Pershing refused to accede, he opened an attack on the general which has been repeated by former President Alessandri of Chile, whom Gen. Pershing recently rebuked for inflammatory speeches in Tacna.

SAYS PERU MERELY SPECTATOR OF STRUGGLE

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

LIMA (Peru) Dec. 2. — The Tacna-Arica controversy from the Peruvian point of view was summed up by a high Peruvian government official today in these words.

"The struggle at the present moment is between the United States and Chile, with Peru sitting on the side lines."

Peru, he continued, expects to be called back into the struggle after the ground rules are fully defined. The plebiscitary battle, he believes, will enter its most critical phase when the credentials of the potential voters come up for final vise.

While realizing the critical character of the encounter in which Gen. Pershing and Augustin Edwards, the Chilean member of the plebiscitary commission, are engaged, public opinion here registers a high optimism, founded on the belief that Gen. Pershing has the entire and unconditional confidence of President Coolidge, and that the latter will use the full moral force of the American nation to drive the plebiscitary procedure through to a decision.

The Peruvians feel that intimations from Chile that it may appeal to the League of Nations will strengthen instead of weaken the United States' opposition to the Chilean policy, such an appeal being regarded as tantamount to the repeal of all the principles of the Monroe Doctrine.

Eight American Naval Vessels on China Duty

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Reports from the Asiatic Fleet to the Navy Department to date show eight American naval vessels either at Shanghai or en route there.

The destroyer McLeish arrived there November 16, the Simpson November 3, the mine-sweeper Penguin, November 4, the oiler Pecos November 12, and the destroyer McCormick sailed from Manila for Shanghai November 27. The destroyers Edsall, Hulbert and Noa sailed from Manila for Shanghai November 30.

PEKING, Dec. 2.—A number of prominent Chinese are urging Marshal Feng Yu-Hsiang to prevail upon the chief executive, Tuan Chi-Jui, to remain in office, declaring his retirement probably will cause the powers not to recognize China and lead to a breakup of the tariff and extraterritoriality conferences.

Other circles are pressing for the formation of a responsible Cabinet with the object of ousting Tuan Chi-Jui.

Search for Four Stowaways on as Liner Docks

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—The steamer President Lincoln arrived here today from Honolulu and immediately officials started search for four Chinese believed to be aboard as stowaways. Eleven Orientals were found hidden in coffins deep in the hold of the vessel when the ship stopped at Honolulu. The death of one of these resulted in vaccination of all Asiatic passengers aboard against smallpox.

Fifty-two were ordered detained at Angel Island today, the vaccination having failed to take effect. Papers found among the effects of a Chinese steward indicated there had been fifteen Asiatic stowaways aboard.

Thirty-seven of British Vessels to be Scrapped

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

LONDON, Dec. 2.—Thirty-seven British naval ships will be scrapped in the immediate future, J. C. C. Davidson, Under-secretary for the Admiralty, announced today in the House of Commons. This list will be made up of three cruisers, five depot ships, eighteen destroyers, seven submarines, three trawlers and one drifter.

RAIL HEADS DISCUSS COMPULSORY MERGER

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Executives of the principal railroads of the United States met here today to discuss a program of action to be submitted to the member roads of the American Railway Association. The principal topic of discussion was the matter of a possible program of compulsory consolidation of railroads.

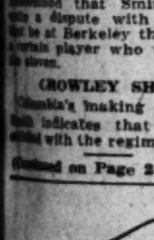
NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Columbia has offered a three-year contract, calling for a total of $45,000 in salary and $9000 in expenses, to Andy Smith, the California football coach, says the New York Telegram.



Smith's friends are negotiating for the Oakland baseball club. If the deal is closed he will get $10,000 a year in salary and $30,000 in stock. Bill Hollenbeck, famous as a player at Penn and now an official and well established in a lucrative coal business, would be the chief stockholder of the Oakland club.

Smith wants California to give him a new five-year contract to meet the Columbia offer and he wants California to sanction his connection with professional baseball. This the faculty thus far has refused to do. It is understood that Smith got into quite a dispute with the powers that be at Berkeley this year over a certain player who was kept off the eleven.

WORLD BILLIARD KING DEPOSED

Belgian Annexes Championship by 1500 to 1495

Jake Sets Record Run of 432 But Fails Later

European Defeats Angeleno With Run of 74

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—After the most extraordinary display of billiards ever witnessed Young Jake Schaefer lost the world's championship at 18.2 balk line billiards to Edouard Horemans, the Belgian champion, 1500 to 1495, here tonight. Schaefer took the lead with a world's record run of 432, but fell down in his next inning, and the little Belgian dethroned him by a run of 74.

Schaefer played unsteadily and had no control over the balls. He scored 64 and 18 in two tries, while Horemans ran 135 in his second effort of the evening. The score was 1235 to 995. Horemans was playing with extreme care with the championship possibly only a step away.

HOREMANS LEADS

He counted 80 before he missed a line-up in the middle of the table. Schaefer appeared to miss intentionally to play Horemans safe. Safety became the order of the evening, both missing their next tries.

The score then was: Schaefer 999, Horemans 1315.

Horemans got 11 and missed a

Maroon Eleven Stays in Line for New Year Date

Up to Alumni Football Body to Pass on Game

Les Henry Thinks Undefeated Squad Will Accept

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

HAMILTON (N. Y.) Dec. 2.—Graduate Manager William Reid, of Colgate University, said today that the decision as to whether the Maroon football team will participate in the Tournament of Roses game at Pasadena, Cal., January 1, has been left to the alumni football committee.

Colgate's undefeated football team has not officially accepted the invitation to represent the East in the annual New Year's Day game at Pasadena, but Tournament of Roses officials are hopeful they will do so today.

Les Henry, chairman of the football committee, did not hear yesterday from Jack Benefiel, who is in the East to handle the matter on behalf of the Coast conference and takes this as an omen that the Colgate authorities are favorably considering the game.

As far as Tulane and Alabama, two Southern universities who have been quoted in press dispatches as accepting the invitation, are concerned Henry declared last night neither had been extended an offer to play Washington, the Western representative.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—George Putnam, secretary of the Seals, said today that the management had discussed a plan of having the team train at Honolulu but that it was improbable such would be the case next spring. He added that there was a chance of acceptance in future seasons.

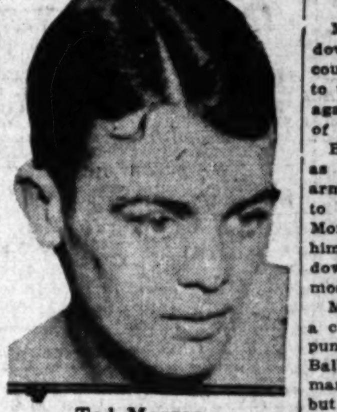
COAST SCRAPPER STOPS TITLE-HOLDER IN TENTH

Seattle Junior-Lightweight Fistic Star Has New Yorker Helpless in Olympic Auditorium Ring

BY PAUL LOWRY

California crowned another world's boxing champion last night—the second this year. Tod Morgan is the new occupant of a berth in the king row, the Vallejo lad removing the junior lightweight crown from the battered brow of Mike Ballerino in a ten-round fray at the Olympic Auditorium. The result will go down in the record books as a technical knockout for the new champion, Ballerino's seconds heaving the towel into the ring in the last round to save their man a needless beating.

HAIL, THE NEW FISTIC MONARCH!



Tod Morgan

When the end came Ballerino was hanging helplessly on the ropes, bracing himself with one hand and gamely trying to ward off the rain of blows Morgan was smashing to his head.

ALL THE WAY

Morgan won the fight hands down, dropping Ballerino for the count of nine with a left hook to the jaw in the third round and again in the tenth for the count of three.

Ballerino was game, courageous as a lion, but his short, chubby arms seldom got him close enough to land a really telling blow on Morgan. The latter left-handed him to death, and after beating down his guard crashed rights almost at will off Ballerino's chin.

Morgan showed everything that a champion needs but a finishing punch. His cleverness in parrying Ballerino's blows enabled him to maneuver his foe around easily but he was unable to finish him after having him in desperate straits on several different occasions. Ballerino, winning two of the ten rounds on aggressiveness, showed an ability to assimilate punishment in remarkable fashion and come up smiling at the start of each round.

SEMI-WIND-UP

Harry Wallach won a clean-cut decision from Ad Cadena in the semi-wind-up, slowing him up with stomach punches and nearly finishing him in the sixth round with head punches.

Benny Burrell won an unpopular decision from Alki Akol. Joe Burns and Joe Pimenthal fought a steam-heated four-round battle to a draw OAKLAND, Dec. 2.—California Joe Lynch of San Francisco won a decision over Charley (Phil) Rosenberg of New York, bantamweight champion of the world, after ten slashing rounds at Oakland Auditorium tonight. The title was not involved and both men came in overweight, Rosenberg at 121½ and Lynch at 122.

OREGON AGGIES DUE HERE TOMORROW FOR U.S.C. GAME

BY BRAVEN DYER

Whatever the future holds for the U.S.C. football team of 1925 will be pretty well established when the score-board boys complete their afternoon's toil at the Coliseum Saturday. If the Trojans can't lick the Oregon Aggies it looks like a sour ending to what promised to be a glorious season, for the St. Mary's struggle a week from Saturday should be considerably tougher than the present encounter, although for the time being all thoughts are centered on the task at hand—that of recovering from the Washington State disaster in time to smack down the visitors from the Webfoot State.

Coach Paul Schissler and twenty-six of his hand-picked athletes are slated to arrive here tomorrow morning. The Aggies are reported to be in no playful mood. Mr. Schissler is credited with the following words upon the eve of his departure from Corvallis: "We may lose the game, but from the way the team looks now, and the way they are tearing into practice, we will have a mightly dangerous bunch for any team to go up against."

Incidentally Schissler is a former Nebraska man and will have the backing of a flock of ex-Cornhusker rooters in Saturday's game. Hailing from Hastings, where he was the town hero as a high school star, Schissler shared honors with Dazzy Vance, the Brooklyn twirling ace, who also attended the Hastings knowledge foundry. Later on, as coach of Lombard College, Illinois, he put that institu-

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Gwynn Wilson, graduate manager of U.S.C., who has been in conference with Big Ten athletic officials, left today for home. Wilson asserted he has promise of games with some western conference teams but cannot announce them until after the annual meeting of the Pacific Coast Conference at Ceattle, Wash., on the 11th and 12th inst.

GRANGE SHOWS MISSOURI

Red-Headed Ghost of Gridiron Crosses Goal Line of Donnelly Stars of St. Louis Four Times

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) Dec. 2.—Harold Grange made four touchdowns and was the outstanding star in a 39-to-6 victory of the Chicago Bears over the Donnelly Stars of St. Louis this afternoon. A crowd estimated at 10,000 saw the grid's latest idol rip holes through the opposition defense and cross the touchdown line four times during the performance.

Grange gave an all-around exhibition of gridiron perfection; he sent forward passes barely over the heads of his opponents but straight to the mark; he caught them and made big gains; he swung around both ends, cut through center and otherwise did everything a wonder man of the gridiron is expected to do.

Grange scored 24 of the 39 points for his team, more than enough to get the victory. He put over two touchdowns by big gains in midfield and crashing through his opponents in the first quarter; he made another in the second, and after resting almost through the third period scored a fourth in the final quarter.

Jimmy Conzelman and Eddie Kaw were the stars for the Donnelly Stars but they faded into oblivion compared with Grange's dazzling exhibition.

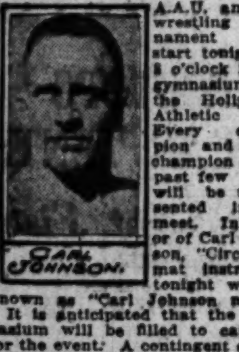
Pacific Coast A.A.U. Wrestling Championships Begin at H.A.C. Tonight

CARL JOHNSON TO BE HONORED

Record Entry Lists Received for Tournament

Archamreau Favored to Take Welter Title

Grizzlies and Trojans Have Teams in Meet



CARL JOHNSON.

With an entry list of well over 250 grapplers representing every section of the Pacific Coast, the A.A.U. amateur wrestling tournament will start tonight at 8 o'clock in the gymnasium of the Hollywood Athletic Club. Every champion and past champion of the past few years will be represented in the meet. In honor of Carl Johnson, "Circle H" mat instructor, tonight will be known as "Carl Johnson night."

It is anticipated that the gymnasium will be filled to capacity for the event. A contingent of 250 sailors will be on hand to cheer on to victory the seventy-eight navy wrestlers entered in the meet. Several thousand local mat fans of both sexes are expected to attend. This is the first time women have ever been admitted to the meet.

GRAPPLERS ARRIVE

Representatives from all over the coast have been arriving daily. Members of the Multnomah A.C. of Portland, Ore., and Olympic Club teams arrived yesterday morning and the last of the vanguard will arrive in Hollywood this morning.

Several favorites have already been set up by the fans. Sailor Archamreau of the U.S.S. Maryland, welterweight champion of the Navy, is favored to cop the Pacific Coast title. Harold Pitcher, now flyweight champion of the Coast, will wear the "Circle H" and is expected to retain his title in the face of keen competition. Everett Stowell and Art Gillem are two others of the local club, who are given a good chance of copping off titles. The Hollywood club will enter thirteen in the tournament.

UNIVERSITIES ENTER

The Los Angeles Athletic Club is entering a number of first-class grapplers in the meet who are expected to make a good showing. Both the University of Southern California and local University of California are entering teams which should enliven the meet a great deal as both schools boast of several first-rate grapplers.

In accordance with the A.A.U. rules, the wrestlers will not know their opponents until the hour of the meet. The officials draw the names before each bout until the finals. The meet will last for three nights with the finals being decided Saturday.

SMITH SOUGHT BY COLUMBIA

Crowley, who became head coach this fall. Crowley was an assistant to Percy Haughton and then Dr. Winthington last season and now is being spoken of as a candidate for the position of head coach at Harvard.

Crowley's tenure this year was a rather stormy one. Dr. Arthur Brides of Yale, the line coach, resigned in midseason because of a dispute with Crowley over the way the Columbia forwards worked in the game with Cornell. Other factors were involved in this debate, about which there have been all sorts of rumors on the Morningside Heights campus.

Smith has established himself as one of the greatest coaches in the game. California under his tutelage won the Coast title five years in succession. This fall the Bears were dethroned by Washington and also were beaten by Stanford under Glenn Warner.

When Reynolds Benson, graduate manager of athletics at Columbia was asked today to deny or confirm the Smith story he said: "We will have no statement on that subject."

This did not sound very much like a denial.

Crucial Tilt on Tonight in Hockey League

Club Casa Del Mar will make its supreme effort of the ice hockey season tonight when the beach sextet will attempt to wrest the Auto Club from its strangle hold on first place in the league at the Palais de Glace.

The battle tonight promises to be one of the real classics of the season, with the outcome of the first half of the schedule practically dependent on the result. Victory for the Casa Del Mar sextet means the first defeat of the season for Tom Murray's Motorists and at the same time ties the two clubs for the leadership of the league.

The Casa Del Mar has been coming along at top speed and is at the peak of its game right now. Real enthusiasm has been engendered among the fans over the contest and a record crowd is expected. The line-ups:

Casa Del Mar		Auto Club
Castillion	Goal	Murray
Thiope	R.D.	Galbraith
Lee Beck	L.D.	Howard
Jacobs	C.	Lawrence
Irvin	L.W.	Shaver
Larkin	R.W.	Mooney

The game will start at 8:30 o'clock.

PART OF HUDKINS STABLE IS ON ROAD

MAKING OVER THE ORIOLES

Hugh Jennings

In 1892, the year after I joined the team, Louisville got back into the National League. The National could well afford to have Louisville in the circuit, for the Colonels were a stepping-stone for all the other clubs, except Washington. These two teams generally battled for last place.

My work at Louisville caused no great excitement, and therefore when the chance came the Louisville owners were glad to trade me off. This trade was the most fortunate thing that ever happened to me. Baltimore had a shortstop, "Voiceless Tim" O'Rourke, who was going good in those days. Baltimore wanted more players and so they decided to trade "Voiceless Tim." They offered him to Louisville for Harry Taylor and myself. Taylor at that time was playing first base. "Voiceless Tim" never spoke much above a whisper. He had been hit in the Adam's apple with a batted ball, which crushed back the cartilage into Tim's throat, robbing him of his voice. But the accident that made him voiceless did not affect his playing ability. Louisville was glad to get O'Rourke, and Baltimore seemed just as pleased to get Taylor and myself. That was in 1893.

CALLED ORIOLES

When I joined Baltimore the team was known as the Baltimores. Later on they were called the Orioles. I do not remember who first named them the Orioles. As a matter of fact, I doubt if I ever heard who the man or woman was. At any rate they became known as the Orioles after I joined the team.

When Taylor and I became members the Baltimore team was a mediocre outfit. Ned Hanlon was just beginning to build his machine. He did this by some clever trades and purchases. Hanlon, at that time established himself as one of the finest judges of playing talent in the history of the game.

When we joined Baltimore, John J. McGraw was playing third base, second base and shortstop at intervals. Wilbert Robinson, now manager of the Brooklyn team, and Bill Clarke, later coach of Princeton, were the catchers. Heinie Reitz played second base, Shindel was the third baseman, McGraw shortstop, George Treadway right fielder, Joe Kelly left fielder, and Jimmy Long center fielder. The pitchers were John (Sadie) McMahon, Bill Hawke, Kirtley Baker and Tony Mullane.

I played little in 1893, the year that I joined the team. I had been ill and Hanlon was unable to get much work out of me, but he hung on and in the spring of 1894 I was back with the team.

At the end of the 1893 season Harry Taylor quit the team. He declared he would not sign another contract, that he had enough of baseball and that he intended to take up law as a means of livelihood. He made good and went to Buffalo, where he entered a law office, and he stuck to his resolve, never returning to baseball.

Ned Hanlon continued building during the off season. He traded Treadwell, our right fielder, and Shindel, third baseman, for Willie Keeler and Dan Brouthers. He bought Walter Brodie, who always carried the nickname of Steve, after the chap that took a dive off Brooklyn Bridge. He also bought Frank Bonner, a shortstop, from Wilkesbarre.

ALL AROUND MAN

When the season of 1894 got under way, Baltimore was started for its first great splurge in baseball. Hanlon had Dan Brothers on first, Heinie Reitz at second, Frank Bonner at short and McGraw at third. In the outfield were Joe Kelly, Walter Brodie and Willie Keeler. His catchers were Robinson and Clarke, and his pitchers, "Sadie" McMahon, Bill Hoffer, "Herky Jerky" Horton, Kirtley Baker and Tony Mullane. I was a substitute infielder, ready to play first, second, short, third or catch. In those days we did not have substitutes who specialized in one position.

There were several men on that team who were to play an important part in baseball history, although when the season of 1894 started, none of us had any idea that we were to develop into a great playing combination.

RABBIT PUNCHES

By PAUL LOWRY

IF INJURED feelings amount to anything, we feel called upon to remark that the referee is the guy who ought to have all the sympathy in the gentle pastime of punch and parry. The incident that brought this to our attention occurred at Hollywood last Friday night. Frank Holborrow delivered a perfect decision, Newsboy Brown had beaten Izzy Schwartz in at least seven of the ten rounds, and Frank called it that way.

Imagine the look of pained surprise that came over his features when a shower of cushions started his way. No referee ever batted perfectly in any fight league. He's human and sometimes is bound to make a mistake. But here was a decision over which there should have been no dispute. Holborrow thought so, and was dumbfounded when the cushions began to fly. There was not a boxing writer at the ringside who did not see a Brown victory, the majority by as big a margin as the writer.

Los Angeles has seen some pretty good boxers from the East in the past few months, but it is going to see more of 'em. For example, we might call attention to Joey Sangor, a featherweight, whose biggest bid to fame is that he knocked out Sammy Mandell two years ago.

Aside from the fact that any man who can knock out the clever Sammy ought to be darn good, Sangor is said to be the type of fighter who takes on all comers; his opponents do not have to be handpicked.

Sangor is managed by his brother Lew, who used to have Johnny Ertle, a very good bantamweight until the gay white way got him. The latter is now a retired farmer in Wisconsin.

Incidentally, the managing end of the Sangor family says the fighting end is a university graduate, a registered pharmacist turned out at Marquette.

From far-off Seattle we continue to hear word of the rapid improvement of giant Bill McKenzie, the heavyweight Lonnie Austin is grooming as his bid for the heavyweight crown still reposing on the noble brow of Mons. J. Dempsey, the restaurateur.

Austin writes: "He makes monkeys of every man I have had him box with, and they are boys with years of experience over what Bill has had. For example, he could take Roy Cliffe and beat him in two rounds, and the rest of the big fellows I have seen wouldn't have a ghost of a chance."

On top of that Austin says Cliffe is improving rapidly and is considered the best 175-pounder in the Northwest. Recently he knocked out Al Anderson at Bellingham.

Spike Robinson, pal of Bull Montana and in his heyday an outstanding featherweight in England, is going into the coffee-shop business. He is being backed by an English sportsman, Eddie Rust, according to Spike. The shop is to be established in Hollywood, where Spike expects to cater to the elite of the city.

MAT CARD IS COMPLETED

Announcement of Lou Daro's complete card for Monday night, December 7, will give the mat promoter a chance to concentrate on his main event, which will feature Joe Stecher defending his heavyweight title from Jim Londos.

Daro made up his card yesterday afternoon and immediately turned his attention to ironing out a number of wrinkles that both Stecher and Londos are making in the title battle.

In the semi-wind-up George Katsanaros, popular Greek heavyweight, will return to Los Angeles, flushed with scores of sensational victories in the effete East, to meet Reginald Siki, huge Abyssinian in a one-fall, one-hour match. On paper this bout appears to be one of the best Daro has ever booked.

Setinzo Ohta, Japanese jiu-jitsu champion, is also booked for another start, this time against Earl Clemings of Wichita, Kan. Clemings toured the Orient several years ago and learned a lot about the oriental style of grappling, so is expected to give the Jap a much bigger battle than the big Russian who dropped two falls to Ohta three weeks ago.

For the opener Daro will send Peter Sauer, Los Angeles heavyweight, after Doc Mullikin, San Luis Obispo chiropractor, in a thirty-minute battle.

SLUGGERS BACK VERNON GO

Back of the Bud Taylor-Jimmy McLarnin match, scheduled for Vernon next Tuesday night, is a card of sluggers. Jimmy Finley, the Louisville slugger with fifty knockouts out of 130 fights to his credit, tackles rugged Sailor Billy Vincent in the six-round semifinal. Eddie Long says that Finley is as much of a star in the welterweight division as Taylor is in the bantam.

Ahead of Finley and Vincent are Pat Freeman and Smoky Joe Woods, two 155-pounders with plenty of powder back of every punch they throw. Al Neff and Billy Blake box one four. Both are consistent winners. Two new faces—Jack Colbut and Young Frapo—open the show.

McLarnin, back from Seal Beach, began boxing at the Southern California gym a couple of days ago. He is in great shape and believes he will wipe out the only defeat on his brilliant record by turning the tables on Taylor this time. Little Jimmy will weigh 125 pounds for the match.

Taylor will weigh not over 121, according to his manager. "He will be out of shape if he is heavier than that," says Long.

Willie Ritola is the class of eastern A.A.U. distance competition.

GOBS IN TITLE GRID TILT

U.S.S. California and Pennsylvania Elevens Will Tangle on Trona Field Saturday Afternoon

The championship of the battleship divisions will be decided at Trona Field next Saturday afternoon when the football squads from the U.S.S. California and U.S.S. Pennsylvania, having eliminated all other dreadnaught competition, meet. Both elevens decisively defeated the U.S.S. Nevada eleven, the other runner-up; the California, 40 to 12, and the Pennsylvania, 39 to 18.

The two squads are surprisingly evenly matched, both from the standpoint of weight and speed and past performance, and luck should prove a big factor in the result.

The winner will go down to San Diego a week later, where on the 13th inst. the battleship champions will tangle with the hard-hitting eleven from the Destroyer Squadrons for the Battle Fleet title.

The Travelers, a fast basketball aggregation composed of officers of the United States Battle Fleet, is seeking games among the local amateur clubs. The team is being coached by Ensign J. S. Laidlaw and has in the line-up a solid representation of former Naval Academy basket-tossing stars. Last week the Travelers defeated the Southwestern University team by a large margin and tomorrow night meets the Athenians, from San Pedro, at the harbor. Managers interested should address all communications to Ensign J. S. Laidlaw, U.S.S. Tennessee.

The second fall regatta of the Battle Fleet will be pulled in the outer harbor next Saturday, a three-race affair. The feature event will be the Seattle Shriners' Cup race, a two-mile pull for raceboats with selected crews. The other races are an engineers' whaleboat race, a mile-and-a-half, and a four-man dinghy race, one mile.

OBSERVATIONS

BY THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER BILL HENRY

WE GET an awful kick out of these all-star football teams. We noted one published the other day in which certain alleged "experts" all along the Coast had collaborated in making the choices for the various positions. We don't know anything about the northern critics, but unless we're very much mistaken several of the three or four Los Angeles critics who participated had seen only three or four of the conference teams play this year, and some hadn't seen that many. They had probably seen U.S.C., Stanford, California and Montana. They had not seen Washington, Washington State, Idaho, Oregon or the Oregon Aggies. How in the world could they judge the 1925 ability of the various players of whom they knew nothing except what they had read in other newspapers, and probably three-quarters of what they read was publicity sent out from the various schools. Presumably the northerners were as much in the dark regarding the southern players.

We can't get over the feeling that most of these all-star teams are decided by the young men in charge of the publicity departments of the various colleges. Montana, for instance, started out to make Billy Kelly the all-Coast quarterback, and kept hammering away on that line all season. Stanford did the same thing with Nevers. Both players were good enough to warrant mention, anyhow, but the publicity they got did as much as anything to get them picked. Those who named Hobbs Adams must be doing it on the strength of the punts he blocked last year, for this season his injuries have handicapped him to such an extent that he isn't to be mentioned along with Shipkey and Walker of Stanford or Mell of California.

It's entirely too deep for us to figure out how anybody can have the nerve to pick players whom they've never seen on an all-something or other football team. What you read doesn't mean a thing. It may have been written by some "expert" just out of high school, as so many of them are. If anybody asked us to pick an all-Coast team of men we've seen this year, we'd name Mr. Meeker of Washington State as quarterback, Nevers of Stanford at fullback, Kelly of Montana at one half and Drury of U.S.C. at the other. Cravath of U.S.C. is the best center we've seen, Taylor of U.S.C. and Swan of Stanford the best guards, Coltrin of California and Sargent of California the best tackles, and Walker and Shipkey of Stanford the best ends. We've seen 'em, and they're good.

Gordon Campbell, former Trojan grid star, told us a belated but good yarn on Howard Jones and his ideas of sportsmanship the other day. Do you remember when Montana scored on U.S.C. by having a halfback pull the old "shoestring" play? Well, said half was crouched right in front of the Trojan bunch for pretty nearly a minute, and Coach Jones and all the Trojans saw him. Several of them shouted to Jones to send in a substitute to call attention to him, but Jones said, "I've got eleven men out there on the field and if they're so sleepy that they can't see that man they deserve to be scored on."

Long Beach defeated Whittier yesterday afternoon in the final Coast League game of the year, 7 to 0. As a result of the win the Jack Rabbits took third place in the league standings. San Diego won the championship with no defeats and seven wins. Whittier, which won but one game this year, ended in seventh place.

Albertson field at Whittier, where the game was played, turned into a lake after Tuesday's rain. A passing game was out of the question on the muddy field and both teams played straight football. The Poets threatened to score in the third period after working the ball deep into the Jack Rabbits' territory, but lost the ball on a fumble.

Complete List for Big Ring Tourney Here

The entry list for the Pacific Coast amateur boxing tournament to be staged at the Olympic Auditorium December 10 and 11 was completed yesterday and the complete list shows there will be sixty-one contenders for the eight titles at stake. There will be no defending champions as all have graduated into professional ranks. The tourney will create eight new champs.

There will be but one fight for the heavyweight title as there are but two men entered in the unlimited division. In the other classes the number of contenders range four to fourteen. In the 112-pound class there are four entries, six in the 118-pound division, fourteen in each the 126-pound, and 135-pound classes, ten in the 147, four in the 160-pound, and seven in the 175-pound classification, besides the pair in the heavy class.

tion on the map from a football standpoint.

He took over the Aggies last year and had a fair season. Right now the Corvallis aggregation looms as the second toughest on the Trojan schedule, Stanford being the other. Of course, St. Mary's can't be forgotten but right now "Slip" Madigan's charges are not receiving a great deal of attention. The Aggies can finish in a tie for second place by defeating U.S.C. A tie with Stanford is something to crow about and rest assured that the Northwestern athletes would like to yodel a tune to the effect that they were good enough to occupy a seat near the top of the Pacific Coast Conference.

The Trojan backfield will undoubtedly present a changed complexion Saturday for Honey Earle appears to be out of it, due to an injury received in the Cougar clash. It turns out that a couple of Earle's tootsies are busted and naturally he can't function properly in such shape. Looks as if Manuel Laraneta will fill Earle's shoes, with Henry LeFebvre, once more ready for the fray, taking over the fullbacking job. These two, with Morley Drury and Bill Cook, constitute a mightly respectable combination.

Carl Lodell, former halfback on Oregon Aggie football teams and now graduate manager at the same institution, dropped into Los Angeles yesterday morning to look over the situation before the Aggies play U.S.C. at the Coliseum Saturday.

One of the objects of Lodell's early arrival was to talk over the building of a larger stadium at Portland, with Zack Farmer, the boss of the Coliseum.

It seems that the Multnomah field in Portland accommodates only 15,000 persons at the most, and as the Aggies play their big games there, a move is afoot to build a stadium seating approximately 50,000 persons.

Lodell was a halfback on the Aggie team which invaded Los Angeles back in 1916 and defeated U.S.C. by a score of 16 to 7 at old Fiesta Park. He played handball with Farmer yesterday morning and takes on old man Charley Keppen at the L.A.A.C. this morning.

DAVIS ELECTED TO CAPTAIN PRINCETON

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

PRINCETON, (N. J.) Dec. 2.—John W. Davis, Brooklyn, N. Y., today was elected captain of the Princeton University football eleven. He is the tenth successive lineman to lead a Princeton team.

MAXSON LEADS IN SENIOR PLAY

Los Angeles Veteran Defeats Fred LeBlond, 1 Up

Auxiliary at Annandale Today, Virginia Tomorrow

Rancho Locker Room Golf Fest Scheduled Saturday

BY BILL WISE

E. W. Maxson, veteran Los Angeles golfer, defeated Fred Le Blond 1 up yesterday, and will play John A. Rush, who won from Force Parker, 5 and 4, for semifinalist honors in the semiannual seniors' tourney for Beverly club members.

H. M. Snyder won from E. C. Haskell on the home green, 1 up, and will play Judge William Frederickson, who defeated T. H. McManus, 6 and 4, in the lower bracket of the semifinals this week. Finalists will play off for the trophy awarded in the event open only to golfers who have passed their fifty-fifth birthday, one week from Wednesday.

WOMEN TO PLAY AT ANNANDALE

Members of the Women's Auxiliary of the Southern California Golf Association are urged by Mrs. G. M. Midgley, teams' chairman, to play in the special best ball four-ball invitation event at Annandale tomorrow. Players are requested to arrange their own foursomes, if possible, but twosome pairings will be completed at the starting tee.

There also will be an invitation event for women at the Virginia club Friday. The event will be eighteen-hole medal, with handicap, in two classes, for trophies presented by the Long Beach club. Rain caused the postponement of the event last week, and with the course in wonderful shape after the precipitation yesterday, another record field is expected to tee off in the tournament.

David Hannah, Jr., defeated H. J. Stanley in the play off for the low net.

All those eliminated in the first matches will be paired in consolation flights.

GOLF CLASSIC AT RANCHO CLUB

J. C. Hattler, popular Rancho Club golfer, at the head of more than a score of other club members—hanging their clothing on the west side of President Frank Collin's hospitable locker room will attempt to golf through Bradford Eldridge and the East side lockerites for glory, eats—and other considerations in a classic arranged by Arthur Clarkson and scheduled for Saturday.

George Von Elm, California's outstanding amateur, playing with the Eastward Ho forces is the golfing stumbling block that the West must hurdle. George will only be allowed to play with one club at a time and must break 70 to qualify, so the boys from the land of the Afternoon Sun are confident.

Ruban Rouge in Muddy Win at Tia Juana

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

TIA JUANA (Mex.) Dec. 2.—Ruban Rouge, from the stable of Jimmy McGill, got up in a hard drive in the stretch to nose out Allan Drumheller's Margie K in the Oceanside Handicap today. Jockey Vernon Wallis brought the winner from last place under a driving ride, and had passed all save Margie K at the last turn. Finishing, Ruban Rouge came up stride by stride and slipped under the wire a winner. It was raining steadily, and the track was a sea of slop. Results:

First race, four and one-half furlongs—Little Lee (Edwards,) won; La Belle (Taylor,) second; Fullanti (Buck,) third. Time 0:56 3-5.

Second race, five and one-half furlongs—Bank, Jr. (Doyle,) won; Brazen (Bleys,) second; Ninon (Collins,) third. Time 1:11 2-5.

Third race, six furlongs—Kilauea (Dyam,) won; Hands Up (Buck,) second; Brazos (Wallis,) third. Time 1:18 2-5.

Fourth race, six furlongs—Pole Star (Baker,) won; Jack Lodi (Serambo,) second; Blue Bell (West,) third. Time 1:16 4-5.

Fifth race, one mile—Jay Roberts (Buck,) won; Bowsprit (White,) second; The Lamb (Renn,) third. Time 1:45 1-5.

Sixth race, mile and one-sixteenth—Ruban Rouge (Wallis,) won; Margie K. (Buck,) second; Mardale (Sylvia,) third. Time 1:49 1-5.

Seventh race, five and one-half furlongs—Rachel Potter (Hay,) won; Miss Emmert (Sylvia,) second; Friend Joe (Wallis,) third. Time 1:09 3-5.

Eighth race, five and one-half furlongs—Sequan (White,) won; Good Hope (Neal,) second; Mary Dear (Buck,) third. Time 1:09 1-5.

WILL DEFEND TITLE

Maj. Goodsell, the world's sculling champion, has accepted Tom Saul's challenge to a match for the title. The details are to be arranged. The race may be rowed in Sydney, Australia.

INDIANS TO PLAY L.A.A.C.

Haskell Squad and Gonzaga University Teams to Clash With Mercury Club

The Haskell Indians and Gonzaga University will be seen in action here this month against the Los Angeles Athletic Club football team, according to plans announced last night by officials of the Mercury organization. The Redskins will be featured in a game on the 19th inst., while the Spokane eleven is due to furnish opposition for the locals the following Saturday.

A. E. Santwier is dickering with the Indians and Gonzaga for the Mercury Club and has received offers of acceptance from both institutions. Announcement of the playing field will be made within the next two or three days.

The Redskins appeared here two years ago Christmas, playing the Olympic Club team at Washington Park. With the spectacular Levi brothers in action, the Redskins won, 7 to 6, after a tough battle. The Olympic Club would probably still be out there trying to score, but for the mental lapse of Ben Carpenter, Haskell end. This chap allowed the opening kick-off to roll over the goal line, and then stood idly by, watching an Olympic athlete race down the field to fall on the leather for a touchdown.

USS SAUNDERS IS EXONERATED

illtops Keep Championship of Coast League

ersonal Confession Saves Southern Leader

eceived No Money for Bout, is Declaration

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SANTA ANA, Dec. 2.—Russel aunders, captain and quarterback San Diego High School football am, was exonerated of charges professionalism at a hectic seson of the directors of the Coast rep League this afternoon at hittier, and as a result of the ven-to-one vote of the board. n Diego remains as the chamon of the league.

President Harry J. Moore anunced to newspaper men that the te had been unanimous in favor exonerating Saunders, but when porters asked W. M. Clayton of nta Ana if he had voted to exerate Saunders, Clayton replied ith emphasis that he had not.

LAWYERS TANGLE

Lawyers representing Santa Ana d San Diego tangled often durg the session. Santa Ana High hool had alleged that Saunders as ineligible because of his paripation in a prize fight with Herrt Miller, July 11, 1923, in Coaella.

Previously, Miller had signed an fidavit to the effect that he ught, that he received $40 for e fight, and that he believed unders had been paid $25. Toy San Diego presented another fidavit from Miller in which he id he believed that Saunders did t enter the fight as a professional d that he, Miller, did not actuale see Saunders paid.

A San Diego representative made e statement that Santa Ana repesentatives had promised to pay iller and his managers their exnses and "more money than ey could earn in a day at their gular jobs," if they would make e trip to Santa Ana to testify in e hearing on Saunders's eligibiliy.

This statement brought a hot-rert from a Santa Ana lawyer and n Diego did not press the charge.

SAUNDERS APPEARS

Saunders himself appeared. He id that he had fought Miller in strictly amateur bout under the spices of the Coachella American gion, that he did not know Miller was a professional and that he, unders, did not receive any oney.

Santa Ana supporters read an fidavit from Roy J. Lyon of Sar Ana in which he said he had en Saunders fight a certain boy med Casey and that after the ut the audience showered the hters with money and that this ver was divided equally between e two fighters. The San Diego torney complained bitterly that on had not attended the meetg for cross-examination.

Lyon's brother, now attending nta Ana Junior College, arose to swer the San Diego man. He clared that the fight between unders and Miller had hung e for some time because the anagers of the two fighters wantmore money than was offered. nally terms were agreed upon d the fight took place, he said. oung Lyon said that he himself ught the curtain-raiser on the me card with Saunders and Milr and that he was paid for fightg.

CALL COMMANDER

San Diego presented an affidavit om Henry B. Briggs, former mmander of the American Leon post at Coachella, to the efct that he had been in charge the financing of the bout in hich Miller and Saunders parcipated and that he had not paid unders any money. Young Lyon plied that Briggs had not hand all the money as another ember of the post had paid him.

As the result of today's decision, ullerton High School will play n Diego High School Saturday San Diego in the second game the championship series. A speal train will be run from Fullern to transport the several hunred supporters who plan to make e trip.

Quiz Clears San Diego Captain

RUSS SAUNDERS IS EXONERATED

Diegans Keep Championship of Coast League

Personal Confession Saves Southern Leader

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SANTA ANA, Dec. 2.—Russel Saunders, captain and quarterback of San Diego High School football team, was exonerated of charges of professionalism at a hectic session of the directors of the Coast League this afternoon at Anaheim, and as a result of the seven-to-one vote of the board, San Diego remains as the champion of the league.

President Harry J. Moore announced to newspaper men that the vote had been unanimous in favor of exonerating Saunders, but when reporters asked W. M. Clayton of Santa Ana if he had voted to exonerate Saunders, Clayton replied with emphasis that he had not.

LAWYERS TANGLE

Lawyers representing Santa Ana and San Diego tangled often during the session. Santa Ana High School had alleged that Saunders was ineligible because of his participation in a prize fight with Herbert Miller, July 11, 1922, in Coachella.

Previously, Miller had signed an affidavit to the effect that he thought that he received $49 for the fight, and that he believed Saunders had been paid $35. Today San Diego presented another affidavit from Miller in which he said he believed that Saunders did not enter the fight as a professional and that he, Miller, did not actually see Saunders paid.

A San Diego representative made the statement that Santa Ana representatives had promised to pay Miller and his managers their expenses and "more money than they could earn in a day at their regular jobs," if they would make the trip to Santa Ana to testify in the hearing on Saunders's eligibility.

This statement brought a hot retort from a Santa Ana lawyer and San Diego did not press the charge.

SAUNDERS APPEARS

Saunders himself appeared. He said that he had fought Miller in a strictly amateur bout under the auspices of the Coachella American Legion, that he did not know Miller was a professional and that he, Saunders, did not receive any money.

Santa Ana supporters read an affidavit from Roy J. Lyon of Santa Ana in which he said he had seen Saunders fight a certain boy named Casey and that after the fight the audience showered the fighters with money and that this money was divided equally between the two fighters. The San Diego attorney complained bitterly that Lyon had not attended the meeting for cross-examination.

Lyon's brother, now attending Santa Ana Junior College, arose to answer the San Diego man. He declared that the fight between Saunders and Miller had hung fire for some time because the managers of the two fighters wanted more money than was offered. Finally terms were agreed upon and the fight took place, he said. Young Lyon said that he himself fought the curtain-raiser on the same card with Saunders and Miller and that he was paid for fighting.

CALL COMMANDER

San Diego presented an affidavit from Henry B. Briggs, former commander of the American Legion post at Coachella, to the effect that he had been in charge of the financing of the bout in which Miller and Saunders participated and that he had not paid Saunders any money. Young Lyon replied that Briggs had not handled all the money as another member of the post had paid him.

As the result of today's decision, Fullerton High School will play San Diego High School Saturday at San Diego in the second game of the championship series. A special train will be run from Fullerton to transport the several hundred supporters who plan to make the trip.

NO DEAL MADE FOR BECK YET

Despite printed reports to the contrary, no deal whereby Clyde Beck, Angel second-sacker, goes to the Chicago Cubs for four players and a cash consideration has yet been completed, it was announced last night by Oscar Reichow, business manager of the Angels.

"The Angels have been dickering with the Cubs for some time in an effort to put over a deal for Beck, but so far nothing has come of it," said Reichow. "If the Cubs can get us the men we want, the deal will go through right away. However, it is at present apparent that the Chicago officials will not know whether they can land us the men we have asked for until the major leaguers convene in their annual meeting at New York this month. Yes, Clyde Beck is still the property of the Angels."

Morgan swung a right to the chin. Morgan's round.

Ballerino swung a left and Morgan answered with a right as the round opened. Ballerino swung a harmless left. Ballerino missed a left swing to the head and landed a right to the kidney. Another left was short. Morgan crashed a right to Ballerino's chin. Ballerino was short with a left hook. Ballerino swung a left around Morgan's neck and landed a right to the kidney. Ted landed a short left hook. Ballerino got in close and landed a light left. Ballerino was short with a left and Morgan hooked a right to the stomach. Morgan landed to Ballerino's head. Morgan smashed two rights in succession to Ballerino's jaw. Just before the bell rang he knocked back Ballerino's head with a straight left. Morgan's round.

Ballerino led with a left to the stomach. He landed a left to the shoulder. Morgan sent a left to Ballerino's face, and then caught him with a right-hand uppercut to the body. Coming out of a clinch he repeated. Ballerino swung a right to the body. Ballerino was short with a left. He was short with a right. Morgan crashed a right off Ballerino's chin, but the blow apparently did not faze Ballerino any more than a half-dozen similar blows. Morgan sent home a straight left. Morgan landed a left hook, a straight left and a right swing to the head. A right jab at close quarters rocked Ballerino's head. A right-hand uppercut landed on Ballerino's chest. Ballerino's head was bobbing around like a cork in an effort to evade Morgan's punches. Morgan's round.

They sparred in the center of the ring. Morgan landed a light left and Ballerino returned a hard right to the head. Morgan worked in close and Ballerino's blows landed on his challenger's back. Ballerino landed a light left and Morgan got in an uppercut to the face. A left hook, followed by a hard right, dazed Ballerino. As he plunged forward Morgan landed another right. He smashed four right uppercuts to the head. A left hook, followed by a right to the head, scored for Morgan. Morgan lacks a finishing punch, or he would have stowed Ballerino away easily. Morgan's round.

TENTH ROUND

Ballerino came out of his corner wobbling. He swung wildly, hitting nothing but the atmosphere. Morgan put two lefts to the jaw. Another right to the same place put Ballerino in the ropes. He punched over four rights in a row. Morgan crashed another right to the chin, and Ballerino went to the floor for the count of three. He struggled to his feet. Morgan peppered him with lefts and rights to the head, but could not produce a finishing punch. Morgan backed Ballerino into a corner, hitting him at will with both hands. The second threw in the towel. It is a technical knockout for Morgan.

Lyman Loses to Sam Adams at Wilmington

Sammy Adams won nine rounds of the scheduled ten-round event from Joe Lyman at the Wilmington bowl last night. Lyman was outfought all the way and was barely able to cop the sixth, his only round. A good house witnessed the fights.

SCOTS TO BATTLE VIKING SOCCERITES

The doughty Scots who held the strong Mercury soccer team to a tie last Sunday, meet the Viking eleven in the feature game next Sunday at Loyola Field. Their meeting should be productive of a game that promises to equal if not surpass the thrilling brand of football which featured the clash of the two athletic clubs.

In the other half of the bill, the Sons of St. George bark shins with the Thistles. The latter have been experiencing some difficulty in breaking into the win column, but Manager Burleigh is authority for the statement that he considers the time is now ripe for this propitious event, and he hopes that the Sons will be their first victim. The game starts at 1 p.m.

ROYAL GIANTS AND WHITE KINGS CLASH

The Philadelphia Royal Giants will play host to the White Kings nine Saturday and Sunday at White Sox Park, the series to mark the resumption of a feud started last Thursday. Bullet Rogan, the hitherto invincible Giant pitcher, was handed his first defeat of the season Sunday, last, and seeks to make amends at the expense of the Bubblers, but he is choosing a tough date, because he is booked to throw 'em up to such stars as Wally Hood, Frank Brazill, Babe Twombly, as well as oppose such pitching talent as Clyde Barfoot and George Payne. Jess Hubbard and Rube Curry will be the other Giant pitchers ready to work against the soap nine.

BUNNY RYAN IN TITLE NET PLAY

Midwick Club Stages County Court Championships

Big Three to be Absent at Racket Event

Competition to Cover Last Days of This Week

Leading a field of Southern California's tennis stars, Miss Elizabeth (Bunny) Ryan will be seen in action on the courts of the Midwick Country Club in Alhambra, in the annual county tennis championships slated for the 4th, 5th and 6th inst. The tourney will be in charge of Midwick Country Club officials, who will work in co-operation with the Southern California Tennis Association.

ELIZABETH RYAN

Miss Ryan, the only player to defeat the national champion, Miss Helen Wills, in two years of competitive play, will compete in the women's singles and doubles play. As yet Miss Ryan has not selected a mixed doubles partner.

Because of the distance to the Alhambra club, many of Southern California's leading players will be unable to compete in the tourney. This will lower the ranking of the players, also, for the ranking committee lays a great deal of stress on this event. Harold Godshall, Harvey Snodgrass and Walter Wesbrook, the "big three" of the city, will not compete in the tourney at all. Godshall declares the necessity of rest from the game, while Snodgrass was seriously injured recently, which will keep the star from competing in the event.

Lack of entries will force the officials at the country club to drop many of the events from the list. To date the women's events, both singles and doubles, have been discarded, as only three entries were received. The events to be played include boys' and girls' singles and doubles, men's singles and doubles, and junior singles and doubles.

JAKE SCHAEFER LOSES CROWN

two-foot draw shot at the foot of the table. Schaefer stepped to the table facing a deficit of 331 points and the crowd, forgetting the strict etiquette which limits applause only to 50-point intervals, suppressed coughs and sneezes and bated breaths.

"Come on, Jake," they begged. They remembered once when Jake ran 400 from spot, and if a man could do that, 331 was not a too severe handicap. Ten was his best, however. He left an impossible shot and Horemans missed, after mopping his brow and sighing.

SHAEFER IMPROVES

Schaefer seemed in better stroke and was going smoothly when, at 51, he missed a two-cushion carom by a hair's breadth. The score then was: Schaefer 1055, Horemans 1386.

Horemans made 13, his last counter being a four-foot masse which cost him control of the balls.

Schaeffer lucked one, made one, lucked another and made another for a count of four. Shooting his same careful, precise game, Horemans kept control of the balls until he missed at 86, within 75 points of the championship while Schaefer still needed 441 to retain his crown.

With a display of rare courage, the champion set about retaining his crown for the first time during the block, playing the game of which he is capable. He scored rapidly and repassed his previous high run of 153. At 180 he still had good control of the balls and acclaiming a new champion was postponed for a while at least.

At 197 Schaefer encountered a line-up along the foot-rail and played a marvelous three-cushion shot. The balls fell back into a close group and he continued his determined defense of the championship. He was pale and his jaws were set, but his stroke never faltered.

At 237 he set a high run for the match, beating Horemans's 236, made the opening night. The crowd roared its appreciation of the champion's display of courage and shot-making.

SETS RECORD

When he reached 309 he made a new record for a high run in match play in 500-point blocks. The old record of 303 was made by Willie Hoppe against Welker Cochran.

Schaefer erased what had appeared to be an unsurmountable lead by continuing his world's record run to 367. The score then was Schaefer, 1426; Horemans, 1435.

Schaefer still was in control of the balls.

Schaefer set another record when he reached 401. Once he ran out from the opening shot in a 400-point block. At 420 he needed only 21 more to keep his title.

When he was within 9 points of retaining his crown, Schaefer missed a hard bank from the red at the side rail to the white at the end. Horemans needed 75 and got only 1. Schaefer then tried for his 9.

Schaefer got only 4, missing on an open-table line-up. After all his hopes had vanished, the Belgian found himself with another chance, the three balls being grouped closely. With that start, he took the championship with a run of 74.

FUENTES PLEADS GUILTY IN FAKE BOUT CHARGE

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

YUMA (Ariz.) Dec. 2.—Plea of guilty to participating in a fake prize fight here last July 10, was entered in Superior Court today by Tony Fuentes, well-known Coast pugilist, through his attorney, Herman Lewkowitz of Phoenix. Similar pleas were entered also for Fuente's manager, Al Lopez, and for John "Pop" Nealin of Los Angeles.

OVERTON YACHT MOORS AT PORT

Past Commodore Brings in Latest Purchase

Dwyn Wen to Make Home in Local Waters

Famous Craft is Known as Staunchest Afloat

Past Commodore Eugene Overton's new schooner-yacht, the Dwyn Wen, one of the most famous yachts afloat, arrived at the harbor yesterday after a three-weeks' voyage from Seattle under sail and power. She was commanded on the 1200-mile trip by Capt. Joseph Pugh, veteran Pacific yachtsman.

Yachtsmen the world over know the Dwyn Wen as one of the staunchest, ablest pleasure craft ever built. She was built at Dartmouth, Eng., 1906, and has led a colorful career.

The Dwyn Wen was originally built for an English surgeon, who started in 1906 on a cruise around the world. He was beset by many difficulties en route and eventually died in Hongkong, where the schooner was later acquired by Dr. Robert Hale Ellis of Seattle, from whom she was purchased by Commodore Overton.

Dr. Ellis left Hongkong with the Dwyn Wen in command of a licensed master. In mid-ocean the captain died, leaving the safety of the craft in the hands of Dr. Ellis, himself inexperienced at sea, and a green crew. After a trip of many hardships the schooner finally reached Seattle in safety and has since cruised in North Pacific and Alaskan waters.

She is of composite construction, her hull being of teak above the water line and elm below, with teak decks and steel bulwarks. She is 105 feet long with a twelve-foot beam and a draft of eleven feet six inches and is of sixty-five net tons. Her after-quarters are fitted in teak and include accommodations for six persons in the afterguard in addition to quarters for a crew of eight.

Commodore Overton, one of the Southland's veteran sailors, has owned and sailed five yachts in local waters. He began with the thirty-foot sloop Portola in 1900, followed with the schooner Katrina, the yawl Arrow, the ketch Spendrift, ex-Yankee Girl, and now the 100-footer Dwyn Wen. He will refit the new craft here and she will probably be an entry next June in the Los Angeles-Honolulu ocean race.

PURCHASE OF SHIPS BY NEWCOMER STIRS

Purchase by a shipping man named William F. Shupe of three 13,000-ton Shipping Board steamers, the Abraham Lincoln, Daniel Webster and the Andrew Jackson, on the east coast last week, has stirred much interest locally, where shipping men believe it is a move on the part of new interests to enter the intercoastal freight trade.

The vessels were bought for $[illegible] each and each will require approximately $50,000 for reconditioning before entering any service. Little is known of Shupe locally and surmises are plentiful as to whom he represents.

There is speculation as to whether he may be acting for the General Steamship Corporation, which recently established connections on the Atlantic Coast, also recently announced its intentions to charter intercoastal vessels, and indicated it might be in the market for its own tonnage. Others leap to the conclusion the vessels will be put in the lumber trade between the Northwest and Florida, but many say the vessels are of too deep draft to engage in that trade.

The three are sister ships, built on the Atlantic in 1919. They are 420 feet long, 60 feet breadth and 28 feet draft, with a net of [illegible] tons.

That the government is rapidly getting out of the shipping business is indicated also by the sale announced last week of the West Jester and West Jappa, both operated in this port. Negotiations also are under way between the McCormick interests and the board for the sale of the line of freighters operated from here to South America by Swayne & Hoyt, while the government is trying to force a sale of its Admiral Oriental fleet of liners, having rejected Dollar's proposal of a five-year charter and purchase of these ships.

Proposals that the city of Los Angeles construct a municipal oil-loading station along the breakwater for convenience of small oil companies and those having no regular loading station, were taken up by the Harbor Commission at yesterday's meeting. No decision was reached and Port Manager Spear was instructed to consider the proposals further.

The idea grew through the General Petroleum Corporation offering for sale to the city its physical equipment on the breakwater, left by its recent dismantling of that plant in favor of its larger and more modern station on Terminal Island. The oil company's material was offered for $8000 and it was understood $4000 more would be needed for reconditioning.

A recently advanced zoning plan for the harbor, still in state of flux, proposed locating all future oil stations along the breakwater, and sentiment was expressed at yesterday's meeting that the city should take the lead in following its own proposal. Coincident with this, the harbor department last week applied to the War Department for permission to fill a strip 3850 feet long and 400 feet wide along the breakwater, and this fill would fit into the plan for a city loading station, if undertaken.

Negotiations also are under way for rights of way to extend Harbor Boulevard to the western edge of the outer harbor, the first move toward possible development with slips and docks of the old submarine base site of 143 acres, which has languished undeveloped by the city for years, despite many proposals to improve the valuable acreage.

The United American Lines freighter Ipswich arrived from New York and Baltimore yesterday with 6000 tons of cargo for the Pacific Coast, 2700 of which is being discharged here. Capt. J. W. Kirschner said his ship made it here from the Panama Canal in eleven days.

Capt. Charles Nichols, first master of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company upward of thirty years ago and retired several years ago, was the guest of Capt. Tapley aboard the steamer Montanan, which arrived yesterday from the east coast. Capt. Nichols makes his home in Maine.

Another German steamer, the freighter Witram of 7243 tons net, has been added to the European-Pacific Coast run in joint service between the United American Lines, the Hamburg-American, Kosmos and Roland lines. The vessel is loading at Hamburg on her first voyage to this port, according to the Los Angeles Steamship Company, local agents for the joint service. Half a dozen German vessels have been added to this service within the last nine months, yet cargoes continue as voluminous for each ship as before the additions, it is said.

The San Francisco Bridge Company's dredge McMullen yesterday began its last lap on widening and deepening the Cerritos Channel along a 5000-foot strip between East Basin, Los Angeles, and the west line of the city of Long Beach. The dredge two weeks ago completed one side of the strip, 170 feet wide and to a depth of thirty-three feet. When the north half of the channel is dredged the channel will be 350 feet wide and thirty-three feet deep at mean lower low tide. Contract calls for completion by May, but progress already made indicates the company will finish its work in advance of that date.

Capt. Harry Miller yesterday was appointed by the Harbor Commission a permanent municipal port pilot, a post he has held temporarily several months. The post was made vacant following the protracted illness of Capt. T. T. Tellaksen, injured by a fall while on duty. The latter, carried on leave several months, was dropped from the city's rolls two weeks ago. He was one of the oldest pilots in the city's employ.

FREAK GRID SCORES

A remarkable feature of the Harvard-vs.-Yale football games since 1883, when numerical scoring was introduced, is the closeness of the contests in a majority of instances. In thirty-seven games played the margin in twenty-three has been ten points or less—sometimes the score was a tie. Another curious feature is that although there have been numerous ties, all have been scoreless.

A CHUCKLE FOR EVERYBODY

LOCAL LAUGHS

Each week The Times produces a film entitled "Local Laughs," consisting of the fifteen best jokes submitted by local people. Weekly prizes are paid of $5, $3, $2, and twelve of $1 each. A list of theaters showing the film, together with rules for submitting jokes, are given daily in a coupon in The Times. Prize-winning jokes, and names and addresses of winners, appear only on the screen. Jokes receiving honorable mention will be given a place of honor on The Times comic page each week-day, and each of these contributors will receive a souvenir of acknowledgment.

"Dat baby of yours am de perfect image of his daddy."

"He suah am. He am a regular carbon copy."

J. B. Howe, 507 West Twenty-first street, city.

"Couldn't you learn to love me?"

"No."

"Just as I expected, you're too old to learn."

J. H. Howard, 5151 West Boulevard, city.

"Can you stand on your head?"

"No, it's too high up."

Mrs. W. Gilmore, R.F.D. 1, Covina.

Warden: Your wife wants to see you.

Prisoner: Tell her I am out.

Mrs. D. R. Shinn, 2910 Morton Place, Altadena.

"How do you get your boy to take that medicine?"

B. A. Lauzer, 1202 Verdun, City.

"Have you ever smoked fish?"

"No, I use tobacco."

I NEVER KNEW THAT A MAN COULD BE SO MISERABLE! IT'S TERRIBLE. BUT I HAD TO DO IT. IF PHYLLIS LISTENS TO MME. OCTAVE INSTEAD OF ME THERE IS NO OTHER ANSWER.
UNCA WALT!
I HAVE WANTED TO MARRY HER AND SHE HAS ONLY CONSIDERED MME. OCTAVE'S WISHES. I DON'T WANT HER UNLESS SHE IS WILLING TO MARRY ME IN SPITE OF HEAVEN AND EARTH.
UNCA WALT!
I JUST HAD TO TELL HER I WAS THROUGH. BUT IT'S DREADFUL. I DON'T SEE HOW I CAN STAND IT. BUT I'VE GOT TO.
I DREWED A CAMEL, UNCA WALT!
UNCA WALT FEEL BAD? NEVA MIND. BE ALL RIGHT TOMORROW.

GLUYAS WILLIAMS
REMEMBERS THERE'S A PIECE OF PIE IN ICE-CHEST IT'D TASTE PRETTY GOOD BEFORE GOING TO BED
FINDS WIFE IS IN KITCHEN PUTTING PRUNES TO SOAK GUESSES HE'LL WAIT
SHE CLAIMS PIE AT NIGHT DOESN'T AGREE WITH HIM AND WOULD START ARGUING WIFE GOES BACK TO LIVING ROOM. HAS STARTED TO OPEN DOOR WHEN WILFRED APPEARS
CLOSES DOOR. NO USE PUTTING IDEAS IN HIS HEAD AND THE BOY EATS TOO MUCH ANYWAY
RETURNS PRESENTLY TO FIND MILDRED PRESSING RIBBONS
HANGS AROUND WONDERING WHY THE FAMILY IS BOUND TO STAY IN KITCHEN WHEN HE WANTS A QUIET SESSION WITH ICE-CHEST
MILDRED FINISHES AT LAST. DARTS IN AND PULLS OUT PIE-PLATE — EMPTY FINDS WILFRED AND MILDRED DIVIDING PIE DEMANDS CANT THIS FAMILY GET ENOUGH AT TABLE — ALWAYS EATING, EATING, EATING

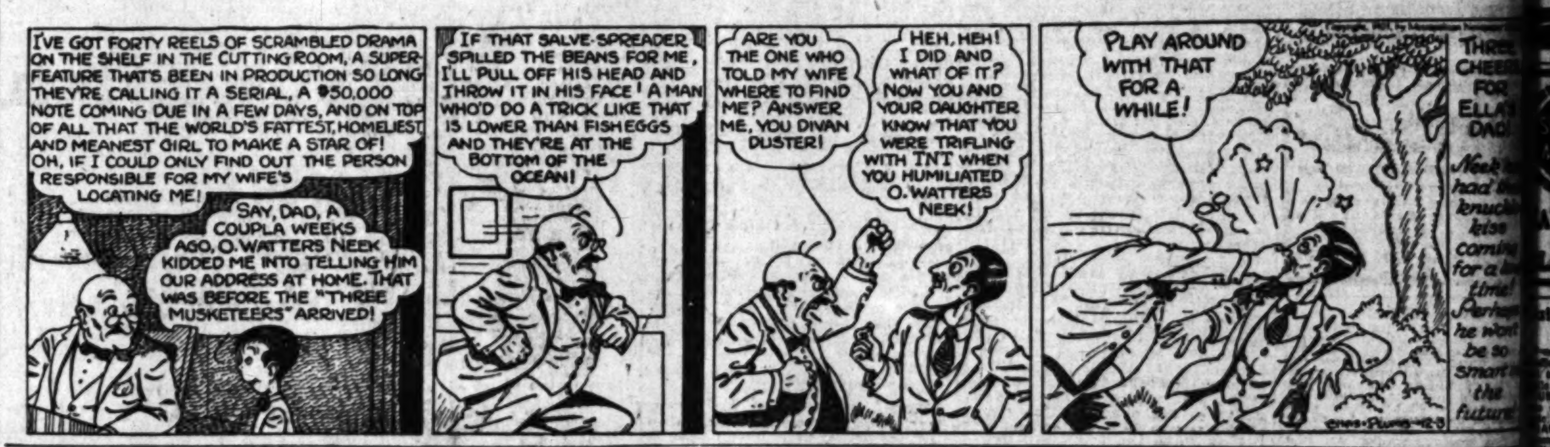
ELLA CINDERS

Sock Him Again!

By Bill Conselman and Charlie Pl



I'VE GOT FORTY REELS OF SCRAMBLED DRAMA ON THE SHELF IN THE CUTTING ROOM, A SUPER-FEATURE THAT'S BEEN IN PRODUCTION SO LONG THEY'RE CALLING IT A SERIAL, A $50,000 NOTE COMING DUE IN A FEW DAYS, AND ON TOP OF ALL THAT THE WORLD'S FATTEST, HOMELIEST AND MEANEST GIRL TO MAKE A STAR OF! OH, IF I COULD ONLY FIND OUT THE PERSON RESPONSIBLE FOR MY WIFE'S LOCATING ME!
SAY, DAD, A COUPLA WEEKS AGO, O. WATTERS NEEK KIDDED ME INTO TELLING HIM OUR ADDRESS AT HOME. THAT WAS BEFORE THE "THREE MUSKETEERS" ARRIVED!
IF THAT SALVE-SPREADER SPILLED THE BEANS FOR ME, I'LL PULL OFF HIS HEAD AND THROW IT IN HIS FACE! A MAN WHO'D DO A TRICK LIKE THAT IS LOWER THAN FISH EGGS AND THEY'RE AT THE BOTTOM OF THE OCEAN!
ARE YOU THE ONE WHO TOLD MY WIFE WHERE TO FIND ME? ANSWER ME, YOU DIVAN DUSTER!
HEH, HEH! I DID AND WHAT OF IT? NOW YOU AND YOUR DAUGHTER KNOW THAT YOU WERE TRIFLING WITH TNT WHEN YOU HUMILIATED O. WATTERS NEEK!
PLAY AROUND WITH THAT FOR A WHILE!
THREE CHEERS FOR ELLA'S DAD! Neek had the knuckle kiss coming for a long time! Perhaps he won't be so smart in the future

CONCENTRATED WHISKY LATEST

Reported Easier to Smuggle Into America

First Shipment Appears on Rum Row

Liquor Mixed Aboard Ship Off West Coast

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

VANCOUVER (B. C.) Dec. 2.—Concentrated whisky is reported as the latest on rum row, and is said to be especially popular in the United States because of the ease with which it is smuggled into that country.

The first shipment of this new type of drink has arrived on rum row, having been delivered directly by steamer from Glasgow without coming here for transhipment.

Malt that is fourteen years old is used along with alcohol. Where rum runners had to put in 3000 cases of liquor in a night to make the trip worth while, 200 cases of malt are now said to do the same work.

On one ship off the coast the malt and alcohol are being mixed as required, it is said, and with false labels representing some of the best brands of liquor, a perfect distillery has been established.

Instead of paying $12 a case for Scotch whisky in Great Britain, the liquor runners now buy a case of pure malt whisky and pay from $85 to $90 a gallon for it. This they break down with alcohol and a greater profit is possible with less risk in smuggling the smaller quantity into the States.

Whisky, rum and gin buyers from California are reported to be arriving here daily to make their purchases for the Christmas season. Their plan, it is said, is to follow the custom of anchoring the mother ships at sea a considerable distance from shore, from which sanctuary they will deliver to smaller boats for the running of the prohibition gauntlet to the California landings.

The capture of the ships Quadra and Coal Harbor, which went too close to the coast of the Golden State, is to be avoided on this occasion, so in the event of the rum chasers making a capture it will be of only the smaller vessels, while the more costly ships and their cargoes will be safe, according to plans.

It is also reported in local circles that the row among the southern importers, which led to the seizure of the larger boats and the indictment of numerous Vancouver exporters, has been adjusted under an agreement among the importers as to territorial rights along the coast.

FERGUSON ROW WAXES HOTTER

Ex-Governor and Moody Hurl New Charges

Attorney Accused of Costing State $1,800,000

Lawyer Asserts Road Suit Figures Juggled

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

AUSTIN (Tex.) Dec. 2.—James E. Ferguson, husband and adviser of Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson, and Atty.-Gen. Dan Moody today vigorously renewed their battle of statements centering around the Texas Highway Commission.

Ferguson, former Governor of Texas, and veteran of a number of hard-fought political campaigns, scoffed at the claim that Moody had served the State by forcing the American Road Company to confess judgment in court of $600,000, asserted excess profits on a highway contract. He estimated that Moody's prosecution would cost the State at least $900,000, the profit made by the company, probably $900,000 more, which he declared the State probably will have to pay for a second course of asphaltic treatment on 400 miles of State highways.

In reference to the probability that the suit of the attorney-general will cost the State $1,800,000, Ferguson spoke of the "great legal gymnastics of the youthful attorney-general," and said that as a result of Moody's prosecution, "the State got the hot end of the poker."

Moody characterized Ferguson's statement as a labored attempt to juggle the figures and mislead the public. He emphasized that his answer "was made in order that the people of Texas may have the truth and not be deluded and deceived by the attempt to juggle figures and misstate facts."

"For the past few weeks," said Ferguson, "the opposition to the Ferguson administration has been crowing in high glee over asserted frauds upon the State by the action of the Highway Commission in letting contracts to the American Road Company. Atty.-Gen. Moody is being proclaimed as the man of the hour, because it is claimed for him that he has detected great fraud and corruption and that he has saved the State hundreds of thousands of dollars which were about to be taken from the State by contracts which, as stated by him, were made in fraud and executed in a fraud. In aid of this propaganda and campaign the daily papers of the State, largely unfriendly and hating the present administration, have sought by misleading and deceptive headlines and contortion of the facts, sought further to fix in the minds of the people that an awful and lasting crime had been committed and a blot had been placed upon the fair name of the State."

Mr. Ferguson points out that "after five weeks of deliberation, the grand jury of Travis county has adjourned and has found no bill against any employee or official connected with the highway or any other department of the government."

WOMEN COLD TOWARD 'MA'

Sex Not Rallying to Support of Gov. Ferguson of Texas as Impeachment Talk Gains

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

AUSTIN (Tex.) Dec. 2.—Women of Texas are not rallying to the support or defense of the administration of Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson, the first and only person of their sex to be Governor of this State. Although expressions of loyalty and praise of the way Gov. Ferguson has conducted the affairs of State have come from many men, the women are silent. It is regarded as significant that she has never had the support of the women of Texas either before or after she became Governor. Her opposition to woman suffrage, her lack of interest in the work of women's clubs and organizations of all kinds and her failure, except in one instance, to place women in position of trust and honor in her administration have all added to her political unpopularity in feminine circles.

An increasing amount of talk is heard among members of the Legislature and other persons of the probability of an effort being made to impeach Gov. Ferguson. It is asserted that this determination is uppermost in the minds of the group of representatives who petitioned Speaker Lee Satterwhite to call a special session of the House to meet January 4, 1926. The fight which is to be made on her is to be based on asserted waste of public funds and the delegation of her official power to her husband, Jim Ferguson.

After all it is Jim Ferguson that the anti-Ferguson political element are after. They undoubtedly want to get him out of the way as a possible candidate for the United States Senate so that Senator Earle B. Mayfield who was elected by the Ku Klux Klan three years ago may have a clear field for re-election. Mayfield is in Washington seeking to induce the Federal government to investigate the Highway Commission of Texas because of its asserted abuse of Federal road funds. If this investigation is conducted it will be water over Mayfield's political wheel. It is also apparent that the Ku Klux Klan is on the verge of attempting a political come-back.

To arrive at a true estimate of the situation in Texas it is well for the outsiders who are not familiar with conditions here to remember that in popular conception of things political and administrative Jim Ferguson is the government. His critics assert that he is running the whole works; that members of the Highway Commission, Pardon Board, Penitentiary Commission, and various other departments which come under the appointive power of his wife, Gov. Ferguson, are mere puppets in his hands. Naturally, supporters of the Fergusons dissent from this sweeping declaration.

It is clearly true, however, that Jim has not confined his functions to "toting in wood and water and to keep the home fires burning" at the executive mansion, since his wife was elevated to the title of Governor. He also declared in the very early part of his wife's administration that he would stay around Austin until the Legislature finished its regular session in order to help her get acquainted with the ropes, but that he planned to devote his time to looking after the interests of the three railroads of which he had just been appointed general counsel as soon as the Legislature adjourned. It was stated that Ferguson's appointment as general counsel of the railroads, owned by W. T. Eldridge, carried with it a salary of $25,000 a year. Ferguson's critics said that was a pretty good thing to start on. But Jim has continued to serve as personal advisor of the Governor.

Ferguson's friends declare that he has been an invaluable assistant to Gov. Ferguson; that he has done nothing more than was expected of him when she was elected. On the other hand, his critics declare that Gov. Ferguson has delegated practically all of the functions of her office to him.

Summed up, the case seems to be too much Jim Ferguson in the administration of his wife, Gov. Ferguson. That is the substance of the criticism of a large political element in Texas which is back of the movement to investigate various State departments and official acts. How far-reaching this inquiry may become when the Legislature meets there is no way of knowing.

It has been stated by Speaker Satterwhite that her being a woman will not shield Gov. Ferguson. She will be treated just as though she were a man, it was asserted. But even with the filing of charges her impeachment is something that is very unlikely to happen, according to persons who are familiar with the impeachment of her husband eight years ago, and the protracted political row that it stirred up. Her impeachment would probably mean another series of attempts on the part of the Fergusons to obtain vindication by votes of the people of Texas. That is one of the reasons the Senate is not going to impeach her, some of the wise ones are saying.

DRUSES FACING EXTERMINATION

Resolve to Fight to Last Man Regarded as Suicidal

New Offensive Movement Started by French

Long Bombardment Makes Hasbeiya Untenable

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

BEIRUT (Syria) Dec. 2.—(Via Cairo.) An offensive aiming to encircle 5000 Druses began with a ry and military attack yesterday. Infantry and cavalry will follow up today. The Druses are determined to fight until the entire nation of warriors are exterminated. From all reports, it is apparent that the Druse nation is committing suicide

At Djedsidde and Merjayoun, villages whence the offensive is being launched, field glasses revealed the Druse strongholds to the left with Mount Hermon behind. The only escape for the Druses lies in the valley leading to Palestine. Near the village British troops are safeguarding the frontier, while the French are advancing to cut off the retreat.

ZEID ATRASCH FORCES MOVING OVER MOUNTAIN

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

BEIRUT (Syria) Dec. 2.—The continual bombardment of Hasbelya is gradually blowing up the Druse stronghold, making the city untenable. It is reported that Zeid Atrasch's forces are gradually slipping over Mount Hermon, leaving the Lebanon Druses to suffer for their massacre of Christians. It is reported that Zeid Atrasch has arranged a rendezvous with Sultan Atrasch east of the mountain, when he can operate northward against the Damascus road or the air base at Rayak.

The panic at Damascus was caused by local bandits raiding the gendarmes' station. Eight gendarmes fled, leaving their rifles and ammunition for the bandits. The city is excited but nobody was hurt.

It is notable that the Druses have issued a statement of their nationalist aims in Cairo, confirming the report a month ago that Mr. Bakry, the Damascus leader, had proclaimed himself president of the provisional government. The Druses deny massacring Christians, but fail to state who massacred the women and children in Kaukaba and other towns.

ALEPPO NARROWLY ESCAPES DAMASCUS' FATE

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

ALEPPO (Syrio) Nov. 11. (By mail.)—How Aleppo, one of the world's oldest cities, nearly shared the tragic fate of Damascus during the Druse revolt was related today by a former war worker in France, Miss Elizabeth Sill of Pittsburgh, who is in charge of the Near East relief work among the large refugee colonies.

"There were less than 100 French soldiers in the city," Miss Sill said, "and natives were talking quite openly of the rising planned for the next day. It was right after the trouble in Hama when 500 people were killed and a few days before the Damascus revolt, which caused 1500 deaths. I was, therefore, not surprised when notified by our Consul, Maurice Altoffer, to come to the consulate in case of an outbreak. In the night I called at the consulate and the Consul, pointing to freshly-oiled rifles, asked me jokingly if I could shoot.

"The revolt did not come off. When native leaders heard of the plans they used their influence to prevent it and the next day the French called in all the available troops in the district and paraded them through the streets. A few days later the Damascus riot took place and the severe reprisals of the French had a sobering effect in Aleppo. The situation here is still full of danger."

Among other Americans in Aleppo, besides the consulate, are Miss Lucille Forman of Seattle, Wash.

AMERICANS IN DAMASCUS WARNED

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

DAMASCUS (Syria) Dec. 2.—The American consul today warned the American residents of Damascus to keep off the streets after 6 p.m. The fanatical feeling here is running higher than before the sanguinary rising late in October.

In a warning to the consular corps of a possible resumption of the bombardment, the French military have indicated which parts of Damascus will be safe. They declare the shelling will be resumed as a last resort to repel the rebels who are infiltrating into the city and attempting to stir up further risings against the French authorities.

REBEL ADVANCE ON DAMASCUS REPORTED

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

LONDON, Dec. 2.—The Evening News Cairo correspondent says an unconfirmed report is published there stating that the rebel Druse tribesmen in Syria are advancing to attack Damascus and that a battle is imminent.

WORLD COURT HIT BY SENATOR MOSES

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Senator Moses, Republican, New Hampshire, who was one of the leaders in the fight against the League of Nations, declared today he regarded the World Court issue as a renewal of the League controversy. He asserted that he was opposed to American adherence to the tribunal as now constituted, but would not offer "captious objections" to a World Court proposal, if it was entirely divorced from the League of Nations.

MEXICAN BEANS TO COME UNDER TARIFF

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

MODESTO, Dec. 2.—The Farm Bureau has received a telegram from Senator Shortridge to the effect that the Treasury Department has decided that blackeye beans must pay a tariff of 1 3-4 cents per pound.

Local organizations sought this interpretation of the tariff when they found that Mexican blackeyes were being imported free of duty as cow peas for seed purposes.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Newfangled dance steps requiring more energy than grace are blamed for the collapse of a building here housing the Arena Club.

As shown above, the wall of three stories fell, carrying with it ten persons, all of whom were more or less seriously hurt. An investigation showed that the collapse occurred while the floor was crowded with couples stamping their feet while wooing Terpsichore.

RETROACTIVE TAX DELETED

Repeal of Increased Estate Levy Over Period Rescinded to Avoid Deficit

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—As a means of avoiding unnecessary controversy the House Ways and Means Committee today rescinded its action repealing retroactively to June, 1924, the estate tax increase of the 1924 Revenue Act.

The committee in a final survey of the new tax bill also voted to defer the effective date of the decrease from 5 to 3 per cent in the tax on automobiles until thirty days after the enactment of the law, and also to provide for a rebate at that time on cars in the hands of dealers on which the full tax has been paid.

Another action taken was to repeal entirely the stamp taxes on deeds and conveyances and on proxies and powers of attorneys. The committee previously had reduced the stamp tax on bonds and conveyances from 50 to 25 cents.

HUGE REVENUE LOSS

As the bill now stands, it was estimated unofficially that the total revenue loss will be a little less than $330,000,000, which is understood to be the surplus in prospect for the fiscal year 1927.

Representative Green, Republican, Iowa, chairman of the committee, in announcing the rescinding of the retroactive repeal of estate tax increases of the 1924 act, said that it had been found that it would mean a greater loss in revenue than first supposed. Green had opposed the retroactive repeal.

"The committee, when it decided to apply the 1921 rates to the estates of those who had died between June 2, 1924, and the date when the new act takes effect, understood that the loss occasioned by such provision would amount to $20,000,000," said Mr. Green. "It appears that the loss will aggregate approximately $70,000,000, assuming the bill becomes law on March 1, 1926. The bulk of this loss will fall within the next two years.

COMPROMISE ON AUTOS

"Moreover, the most recent estimate submitted by the Treasury actuary indicates that other proposed changes in the estate tax will occasion in the fiscal year 1927-28 a loss of revenue of not less tha $10,000,000 and a much larger amount the following year."

The committee approved the plan to give a rebate on automobiles in the hands of dealers when the tax reduction becomes effective after a delegation of automobile manufacturers had appeared before Chairman Green and urged such action. The manufacturers said that any uncertainty as to a rebate would so interrupt business as possibly to force some of the plants to shut down, owing to a lack of storage space for the large daily output.

In return for the approval of the rebate proposal the manufacturers gave assurance that they would make no further effort to secure the entire repeal of the automobile tax.

FACE PAYS HER ROYALTIES

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—"In the first place he deceived me," testified Mrs. Leonard Fulegs in the divorce court today. "He told me he was a sculptor, but I could have died of mortification when I learned that he was a mere manufacturer of false faces and bogus whiskers."

The judge looked sternly at Mrs. Fulegs.

"You lived comfortably and he was kind to you?" he asked. Mrs. Fulegs admitted that such was the case and that she shared her husband's enthusiasm when he announced that he had hit upon the funniest false face ever put on the market.

"He said it was the funniest false face in the world," Mrs. Fulegs told the court.

"And it certainly was," declared the husband.

"I'm surprised," remonstrated the judge. "True art lies in the method, not in the material. You should be proud of the man who has produced the funniest face in the world in spite of so much competition."

"But he didn't," shouted Mrs. Fulegs. "He didn't produce that face. I never saw the model until the day before I filed my bill for divorce and I recognized it at once. It's my face, that's whose face it it."

The judge took another look at the plaintiff and abandoned all attempts at reconciliation. He granted a decree and entered an order allowing her $250 monthly royalties.

El Dictador Español se Dispone a Dejar su Puesto

MADRID, Diciembre 2.—Comunica la agencia Havas que hoy a la 1 de la tarde, que salía el capitán general Primo de Rivera del Palacio Real, confirmo éste la noticia de que el directorio militar iba a ser reemplazado dentro de muy poco por un nuevo gabinete.

Dijo Primo de Rivera que, desde la instalación del directorio militar, se ha despejado la situación lo suficiente para permitir la formación de un nuevo gobierno.

"El país está de nuestro lado", agregó, "y con la probación del soberano, nada mejor podríamos hacer en bien de España."

Lo probable es que el nuevo gobierno se componga de una especie de directorio civil formado por los altos funcionarios de los ministerios, y a la cabeza quedará Primo de Rivera como presidente.

El directorio militar subió al poder en España después de un golpe de estado encabezado por el general Primo de Rivera, en Septiembre de 1923. El nuevo régimen mereció la aprobación del Rey Alfonso, quien firmó varias reales órdenes, por las que se revalidaba el poder de aquél y se suprimían todos los ministerios, salvo los de Guerra y Relaciones Exteriores.

El general Primo de Rivera ha declarado repetidas veces que, tan pronto como las condiciones lo permitieran, se aboliría el régimen militar en favor de un gobierno civil.

El Defensor de Rhinelander Ataca al Padre de Este

WHITE PLAINS (Nueva York) Diciembre 2.—En el juicio de anulación de matrimonio promovido por Leonard Kip Rhinelander, para separarse de su esposa Alice B. Jones, por tener ésta sangre negra, Isaac N. Mills, principal defensor del actor, lanzó hoy, al hacer su resumen, un ataque contra Philip Rhinelander, acaudalado padre de Leonard, por haber descuidado la vigilancia de éste.

"Philip Rhinelander", dijo el referido letrado, "tiene más culpa que su hijo de la triste situación en que éste se ha colocado." Declaró asimismo que Alicia había considerado que el joven Rhinelander era su esclavo absoluto, y había creído que contra la voluntad de éste, se le tenía separado de ella. Dijo Miller que hasta que la joven lo vio entrar en la sala del juzgado, había estado confiada en que acabaría por volver a sus brazos.

Abundante Lluvia la Noche del Martes

Bien empapada por un aguacero que duró toda la noche, y determinó cifras de precipitación que batieron el record en muchos lugares, despertó ayer Sudcalifornia bajo un cielo que se limpiaba, y dejaba brillar poco después el sol esplendoroso de esta privilegiada región. Lo más satisfactorio de todo es la promesa que nos hace el observatorio meteorológico de que en las próximas veinticuatro horas, aunque el tiempo esté nebuloso, no habrá lluvia.

Emocionante Declaración de la Señora Buus

Ayer a última hora hubo una escena dramática en la sala del juez superior Hahn, con motivo de que la señora Paul Buus, habitante en la calle de Mansfield, 2854, y madre de las dos hermanitas asesinadas, May y Nina, ocupó la barra de los testigos en el jurado de S. C. Stone, ex-velador del distrito de Glen Airy, y procesado por el asesinato de las dos niñas.

La señora Buus atravesó valerosamente por tan penosa ordalía, y reprimiendo sus lágrimas, relató muy paso, en voz apenas perceptible, al jurado y a los espectadores, cuál había sido la última vez en que vio a sus dos hijas vivas. Luego que hubo identificado los retratos de las dos chiquillas, bajó de la tribuna, se le aflojaron las piernas, y casi se desmayó.

Charlas Infantiles para Chiquillos de Escuela

NUMERO 113

Los pies de Sam, que colgaban como abandonados del banco de la ventana en que estaba sentado, estaban calzados con zapatos bajos y chatos, de anchas hebillas en las punteras (Sam's feet, dangling rather forlornly from the window bench he sat on, were covered by low flat shoes with wide buckles across the toes), y cubrían sus piernas pequeñas y delgadas un par de medias amarillas (and his small thin legs were covered by a pair of yellow stockings). Llevaba pantalones de cuero asegurados en un cinturón escarlata, y una larga levita azul le caía hasta el tobillo (he wore leather trousers fastened to a scarlet belt, and a long blue coat fell down to his ankles).

Bastante alegre era el traje; pero el niño que lo llevaba puesto no estaba contento (a cheerful costume enough, but the boy wearing it was not cheerful).

HUGE VOLCANIC CRATER DISCOVERED IN ALASKA

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Discovery of a huge volcanic crater, believed to be nearly as large as the famous Crater Lake in Oregon is reported by the Geological Survey in Alaska. The crater is approximately five miles wide and is at the summit of a mountain 8000 feet high. This mountain is in the southwestern part of the Alaskan peninsula. It is thought by experts of the survey to be the highest crater of like dimensions in the world.

PLAN FUND TO HELP ABANDONED CHILDREN

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Plans to set aside December 13 (Sunday) as American Guardian Day were announced today by the American Guardian Association, organized in Manila in 1921 for the social welfare and education of the abandoned half-Filipino children of American soldiers in the Philippines. On that day Protestant and Catholic churches and individuals will co-operate in launching an appeal for a fund of $2,000,000 for the care of the abandoned children. The appeal came from Gov.-Gen. Leonard Wood of the Philippines.

Small Flies Menace Party in Brazil Wilds

Obstinate Mule Refuses to Quit Nest of Wasps

Effects of Snake Poisons and Antidote Told

BY COL. P. H. FAWCETT, F.R.G.S.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

[Copyright, 1925, in United States, Canada, South America, Germany, Austro-Hungary, Czecho-Slovakia and Japan by North American Newspaper Alliance. Great Britain by London Daily News. Australia by Australian Cable Service. India, Ceylon and South Africa by Reuter. All rights reserved.]

CAMP FAWCETT (Matto Grosso, Brazil) May 30. (By courier to Rio Janiero, Dec. 2.)—We are now eight days beyond civilization's furthest outpost, in the midst of the unknown and unexplored wilds of Matto Grosso.

To send this letter costs infinite effort, for this region is what is called by the local Indians a "mundicia"—that is, a land of bugs. The main offender is a fly, smaller than the little period at the end of each sentence in an American newspaper. It is called "porvin" and is the wickedest fly on earth, almost invisible, biting like a mosquito and very active. He assembles in millions and gives a human being no peace. Men frequently go mad from his bites.

Then the porvins are aided by bees of all sizes, which have a peculiar appetite for salt perspiration.

The slightest physical effort seems to be a challenge to these insect enemies, and it has proved incredibly difficult to write. Since I started this message, some new visitors have made their appearance, a species of wasp, which stings right and left, apparently because it is the habit to sting or bite in these parts.

Our mosquito nets are in use day and night, although they are no protection against the porvin, which sail blithely through even the fine mesh of our heat nets.

From Fort Bakairi, whence I sent my previous dispatches, our journey has been no bed of roses. We have cut our way through miles of cerrada, a forest of low, dry scrub; we have crossed innumerable small streams by swimming, fording and bridging; we have climbed rocky hills of forbidding aspect; we have been eaten by bugs.

Raleigh Rimell, the third member of our party, is still bootless from his lame foot, the result of an infected insect bite. I have therefore urged him to go back if he felt at all uneasy, but he insists on going on.

Our two guides go back from here. They are more and more nervous as we push further into the Indian country, and they hate the Land of Bugs. One was bitten yesterday by an uncommonly vicious form of tick, which caused his whole leg to swell. Of the lesser ticks we are all full, our bodies covered with bites and very itchy.

MOST MULISH MULE

Our mules have developed an annoying habit of blundering into wasp nests, causing themselves and us plenty of trouble. Today Gertrude, an extremely obstinate mule, got into a bog and sat down on a wasp nest. The more persistently the insects bit her, the more determined she was to stay. We solved the problem by lighting a fire under her.

Of our animals, seven or eight will go on with us, the rest go back to Cuyaba with the guides. We have picked the best of the animals for our push into the jungle, including Charlie, a mule which bears a curious resemblance to the one and only Charlie; Dumdum, named because of his bullet head, and Sorehead, a forlorn-looking specimen. The Dook is our best horse, whose only frailty is an insatiable thirst, and his fellows include Ginger and Tummy. A peculiarly foolish horse with a bell goes along as a focus for the mules.

We shall not get into interesting country for another two weeks. After that we shall be among the Indians, with all the adventures which that implies. It is difficult country to enter and to penetrate. I shall continue to prepare dispatches from time to time, in hopes of being able to get them out eventually through some friendly tribe of Indians. But I doubt if this will be possible.

STUDYING SNAKES

Meanwhile, we shall make further studies of snakes. It is remarkable how little is known about snakes among the general public. Here in Brazil the general ignorance is responsible for all manner of superstitions and many tragic mistakes.

Few people are aware that there is a recognized evolutionary chain between the poisonous and nonpoisonous varieties. The nonpoisonous are large-eyed, very active and aggressive, a bad-tempered lot armed with small teeth, which they are very ready to use. From them developed the variety which are normally harmless to human beings and animals, possessing a pair of back retractile teeth, which are not brought into action in biting, but whose use is to kill by poison any small creature during the process of swallowing. It is a curious protective expedient evolved by the possibility of internal injury from struggling victims.

From these snakes evolved again the Colubine varieties, with short, fixed, nonflexible fangs, like the poisonous corals. From these came the flexible fangs of the poisonous varieties, whose meals are sometimes taken months apart; their need for the conservation of energy dictates normally a torpidity of movement and the least possible expenditure of effort in securing a meal. Such snakes see badly, have cat-eyes and very seldom attack human beings. They only ask to be left alone. They are nocturnal in habit and normally gentle—a fact which most folk will prefer not to prove by personal investigation. One drop of their poison is capable of destroying thirty pounds of muscle.

SERUM AGAINST BITE

In 70 per cent of all cases of snake-bite, recovery takes place without treatment. Hence the success of quack remedies. In the East it is accepted by the natives that the moon's phase affects the strength of the venom. As a matter of fact, a snake which has fed within a fortnight of biting a human being will probably not have sufficient venom to kill. The building up of a full supply takes about three weeks. Among the Brazilian varieties, death from snake bite usually takes place in about seven days, and is never rapid in the case of human beings, whatever it may be in the case of small animals.

A snake-bite which bleeds is nonpoisonous. Two punctures, plus a bluish and bloodless patch, is a sign of poison.

We are armed with a five years' supply of serum for snake-bites—one kind for rattlesnake bites, another variety for the jararace, and a mixed quality for use when the nature of the snake is unknown. The serum is injected in the muscles of the back, about ten cubic centimeters being used normally. The serum has an affinity for the poison, which it attracts and absorbs, thus preventing the poison operating on the blood. The serum is prepared from the blood of horses and keeps for ten years.

BOUNDARY DECISION WITHHELD

Tension Over Irish Issue Eased With Announcement of Premier Baldwin

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

LONDON, Dec. 2. — The Irish Boundary Commission award will not be issued for the present, Premier Baldwin announced in the House of Commons today, after consultation with President Cosgrave of the Free State Cabinet.

The withholding of the decision has considerably eased tension and created a belief that the Free State and Ulster will reach a settlement on the basis of the existing boundary.

This will be subjected to financial arrangement necessitated by the Irish treaty, whereby the Free State agreed to assume a percentage of the United Kingdom's public debt, variously estimated at from £5,000,000 to £19,000,000 annually.

The difficulties over the commission's award had their origin in the resignation from the commission of the Free State's representative, Prof. Eoin MacNeill, a few days ago.

TOMB OF GODDESS ENTERED

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The Franco-American expedition in the Sahara headed by Count Byron Kuhn de Prorok, has disinterred the skeleton of a personage buried in the tomb of Tim Hinan, the legendary goddess and ancestress of the Tuaregs, says a dispatch today to the New York Times from Abalessa Hoggan in the Sahara Desert.

The bones of a well built person about six feet in height whose fine features resemble those of present day Tuareg nobles were found resting on an elaborate couch sunk in solid rock, the dispatch stated. This was surrounded by bags of grain, grapes and dates, food for the journey into the other world.

The scientists were unable to determine whether the bones were those of a man or woman, but the natives were convinced they were those of Tim Hinan herself.

The skull had feminine characteristics but the body bones were apparently of a masculine type. It is thought possible that the expedition has found the body of the ancient heroine who is the root and whole structure of Tuareg mythology.

The weapons usually buried with persons of high rank were not found. Garments of a dignitary were found piled in an anteroom of the burial chamber. Beads, carbuncles, garnets and objects of gold and silver were dug up in the mound covering the skeleton. The beads, which were similar to those of the third and fourth centuries found in the temple of Tanit at Carthage, gave the first clue to the date of the tomb.

Massive bracelets on the arms of the skeleton were believed to be of gold and silver alloyed with another metal, probably antimony, which was used by the Carthaginians to give gold and silver jewelry additional weight and hardness.

EXECUTIVE QUITS FLEET BOARD POST

Vice-President Resigns Over Differences With New President

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Joseph E. Sheedy has resigned as vice-president of the Fleet Corporation in charge of European operations, after being called from London by President Crowley of the corporation, who has accepted the resignation effective at once.

Arriving Monday, Sheedy came to Washington yesterday for an executive session of the Shipping Board. His resignation was submitted after a series of conferences among commissioners of the board.

While officials were reticent in discussing the case they indicated that differences had arisen between President Crowley, who recently took charge of the Fleet Corporation, and Sheedy, and that the European official had been ordered here for the conferences.

R. D. Gatewood, director of the New York district of the Fleet Corporation, was selected by President Crowley to take over temporarily the London office of the corporation, made vacant by the resignation of Sheedy.

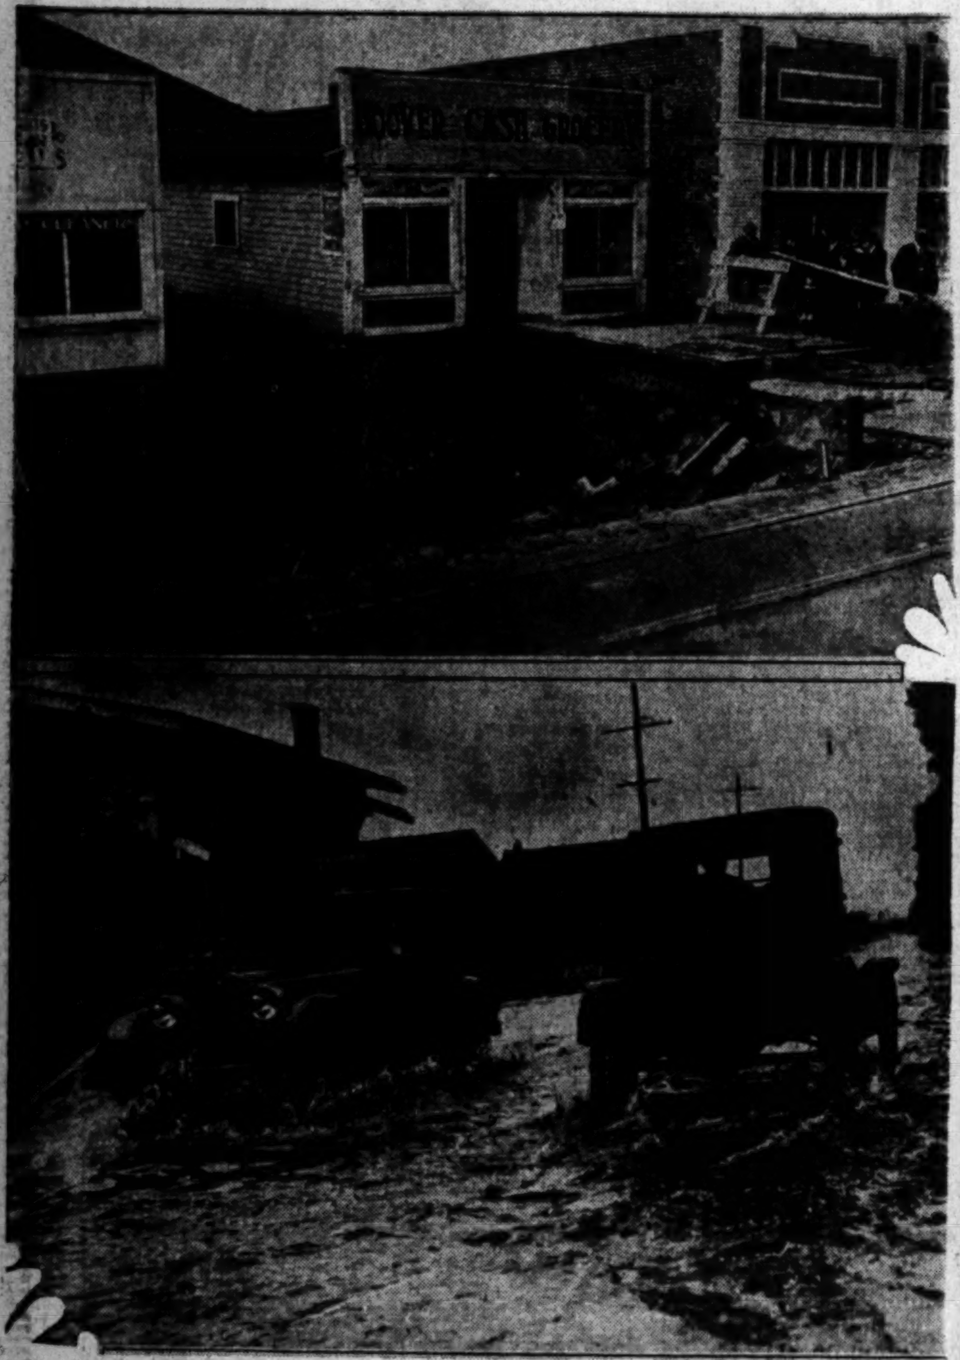
Record Rainfall on Rampage in Southwestern Part of City



Nearly Two Inches of Rain Which Deluged Los Angeles Tuesday night and Wednesday morning caused a cave-in of the excavation for a main-line sewer, the collapse of approximately 100 feet of sidewalk and undermined a number of small stores located at Forty-second and Hoover streets. Other sections of the city where storm drains have not yet been installed also suffered slightly. Photo at top is a view at Forty-second and Hoover. All Boys Like Ives Train Sets

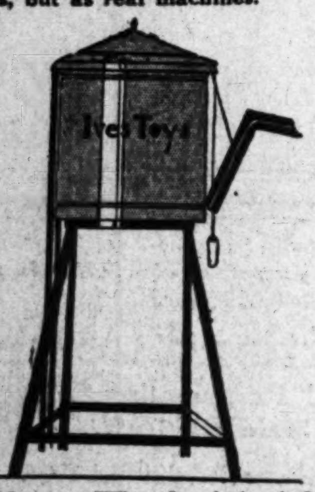
Ives Toys

THE Boy who receives an Ives Train Set on Christmas morning will be genuinely pleased with its mechanism, its true form and its workableness.

The fact that all parts of these sets are up-to-date in every respect comparing favorably with regular train systems makes them all the more interesting to boys, who take interest in them not as toys, but as real machines.

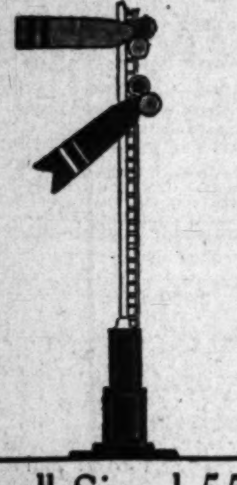


Water Tank $1.10

THE train slows up, the passengers wonder why, but the engineer knows. It's time to fill up the locomotive with water from the Tank which the Ives Railroad provides.

This one is painted a bright orange color so you can't miss it on the road, is 9¼ inches high and the spout raises and lowers by means of a weight. $1.10.

FIFTH FLOOR



Small Signal 55c

A SIGNAL which will do nicely on a small road will prevent accidents and give to the miniature railroad a real professional air.

The two arm semaphores in red and green. When it needs fixing a ladder leads up to semaphore. Without lights, 55c.

FIFTH FLOOR

Automatic Signal Priced at $4.00

TWO light target signal which works on the same principle as an automatic semaphore signal, stands 13 inches high with insulated track for use on a 2¼ gauge line.

Priced at $4 for the large size and for the 0 gauge track as well.

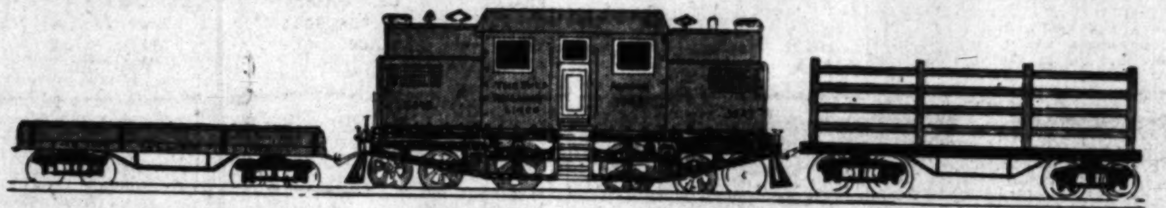
Electrical Train Outfit 15 Piece Set $10

CLEAR the track, throw on the switch, and the Electric Train speeds away. Perfect mechanism performing just as smoothly as a sure enough big electrical train. The fun it provides is almost endless, now it darts through a tunnel, then on around the circular track, pulling up in front of the station to discharge passengers and baggage.

This express, drawn by a modern locomotive, is made up of a Baggage car and a spacious Parlor car.

The outfit includes a Passenger station, a Semaphore signal, a Tunnel, two pieces of straight track, 8 pieces of curved track with terminal section and the operating control switch and wires. Complete at $10.



Three Separate Cars for 2¼ Gauge Track

ON THE LEFT an essential part of every railroad's freight trains. A flat car 11½ inches long. Used for hauling railroad ties, steel rails, lumber and a number of other commercial articles. $2.20.

BUILT to conform as closely as possible to resemble real trains, these three cars illustrated here may be hooked up together or used separately on other lines.

The new electric locomotive in the center is a powerful puller. 16 inches long with two headlights and hand reverse. Equipped with 12 wheels, four of them drivers, one can well imagine the power it provides.

Full brass trimmed and beautifully finished. $27.50.

TO THE RIGHT a Coke Car 11½ inches long. Although called a coke car it may be used for a number of different kinds of products. Anything may be hauled in it that does not have to be protected from the weather. $3.

Mechanical Train Sets 17 Pieces $5.50

MECHANICAL Sets which are just as much fun as those driven by electricity are easier of operation and are most satisfactory for smaller boys.

The engines go tearing around the tracks just the same and the cars are decorated just as attractively.

No. 620 Mechanical Train Outfit includes an iron locomotive operated by a strong spring. And besides a tender, baggage car and chair car; signal, water tank, passenger station and 10 pieces of track. $5.50.

FIFTH FLOOR

Repair Shop

JUST as big engines do, so will little engines get out of repair.

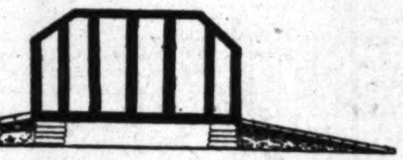
Passenger Station Ives Line $3.30

A GOOD looking passenger station is a tribute to the entire railroad system. Ives Toy Train owners will particularly enjoy setting up such a station as this at various points along the road.

This big station with two waiting rooms has a shining red roof, is substantial and low priced. $3.30.

FIFTH FLOOR



Bridges to Span Rivers

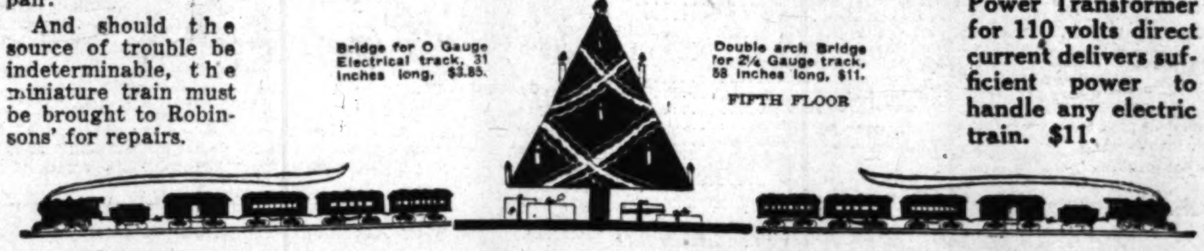
NO bridge out here, for this is a well built bridge over which the Ives trains may thunder time after time and yet shows no signs of wear.

Bridge for O Gauge Mechanical track, 31 inches long, $3.30.

Bridge for O Gauge Electrical track, 31 inches long, $3.85.

Double arch Bridge for 2¼ Gauge track, 58 inches long, $11.

FIFTH FLOOR



Transformer for Alternate Current $4.25

THE transformer plays an important part in the operation of the Ives Trains. It is necessary that the house current available is of the same voltage and cycles as specified on the transformer.

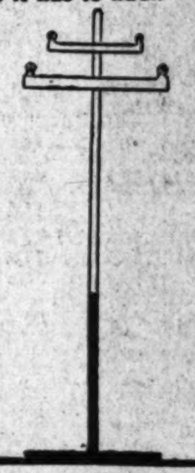
For alternating current, No. 204 Transformer is extremely satisfactory. It not only handles the electric trains but supplies sufficient current for street lights, signals and other devices. For alternating current, 110 volts, 60 cycle, 100 watt capacity. $4.25.

No. 210 Direct Power Transformer for 110 volts direct current delivers sufficient power to handle any electric train. $11.

Reverser

AN amazing device in miniature railroading has just been perfected by Ives. A locomotive may be reversed at any position on the track—even whizzing around a dangerous curve—by touching a tiny button twice, it will slide on its wheels and reverse.

One should be careful in purchasing a locomotive separately, to choose one which will suit all the trains it has to haul.



Telegraph Poles 35c

TELEGRAPH poles that go whizzing past as the Ives Electrical Train dashes down its track creates a real railroad atmosphere.

Fine wire or thread may be strung through the holes in the arms, and the telegraph system is complete.

Every boy wants them added to his set for Christmas. 35c each.

Danger Signal 35c

"LOOK for Engine—Danger—Railroad Crossing" reads the sign illustrated. Every road and street crossing the railroad tracks should be provided with such a protective signal.

Green base, white enameled post and sign. 35c each.

Electric Street Lights $2.75

THROWING out a friendly light in the darkness of the night, electric street lights twinkle merrily along the Ives Railroad. This particular kind has double arm with two lamps which actually light.

Every station should have at least two in front to guide the passengers. 13 inches high, $2.75 each.

FINANCIAL

An Investment Opportunity From Abroad

The fact that the Hamburg Electric Co. does the entire electric light and power business in one of Europe's most important coast cities, and that its property valuation is over 3½ times total funded debt, and that its earnings are over 10 times interest charges on its 10 year 7% External Gold Debentures, makes the issue one of the most attractive, well secured, high yield foreign securities now obtainable.

LOCAL BANKERS GO TO FLORIDA

Eleven Delegates to Attend I.B.A. Meeting

Board of Governors May be Increased by Six

New York Man Slated to Head Association

Eleven delegates representing investment banking houses of Los Angeles are on their way to St. Petersburg, Fla., to attend the fourteenth annual convention of the Investment Bankers' Association of America, to be held in that city from the 7th to 12th inst., inclusive.

Those attending from Los Angeles are: R. H. Moultotn of R. H. Moulton & Co., a member of the board of governors of the national association; F. S. Baer, First Securities Company; Henry Bateman, Citizens' National Company; Earl Huntley, Banks, Huntley & Co.; George A. J. Howard, California Securities Company; James Sheldon, Drake, Riley and Thomas; Garrettson Dulin, Hunter, Dulin & Co.; C. A. Sheedy, M. H. Lewis & Co.; Harold B. Reed, Blair & Co., Inc.; J. E. Jardine, William R. Staats Company, and Roger Pile, Stephens & Co.

Growth of the security business in recent years, together with the increase in scope of the association's activities has led the board of directors of the association to recommend through a constitutional amendment an increase of six in the number of governors. Action will be taken on the recommendation at the convention in St. Petersburg.

MAY ADD GOVERNORS

It is anticipated that the convention will approve the addition of three governors from California, one from the Pacific-Northwest and two at large, according to a statement made by R. H. Moulton before leaving for the convention. Mr. Moulton believes that Los Angeles will obtain another governor and San Francisco will get the other two allotted to California.

Following the meeting in St. Petersburg, a tour to Havana and Key West and thence up the east coast of Florida to Jacksonville has been arranged for the delegates. The return trip will include Palm Beach, St. Augustine and Jacksonville.

At a recent meeting of the board of governors, the regular ticket of officers and governors to be voted upon at the convention was selected. The nominations are as follows:

NOMINATE OFFICERS

President, Ray Morris, Brown Brothers & Co., New York; vice-presidents, Arthur H. Gilbert, Spencer, Trask & Co., Chicago; Pliny Jewell, Coffin & Burr, Inc., Boston; John W. MacGregor, Glover & MacGregor, Pittsburgh; Tom K. Smith, Kauffman, Smith & Co., St. Louis; Eli T. Watson, Watson, Williams & Co., New Orleans; secretary, Frederick R. Fenton, Chicago; treasurer, Frank M. Gordon, First Trust and Savings Bank, Chicago.

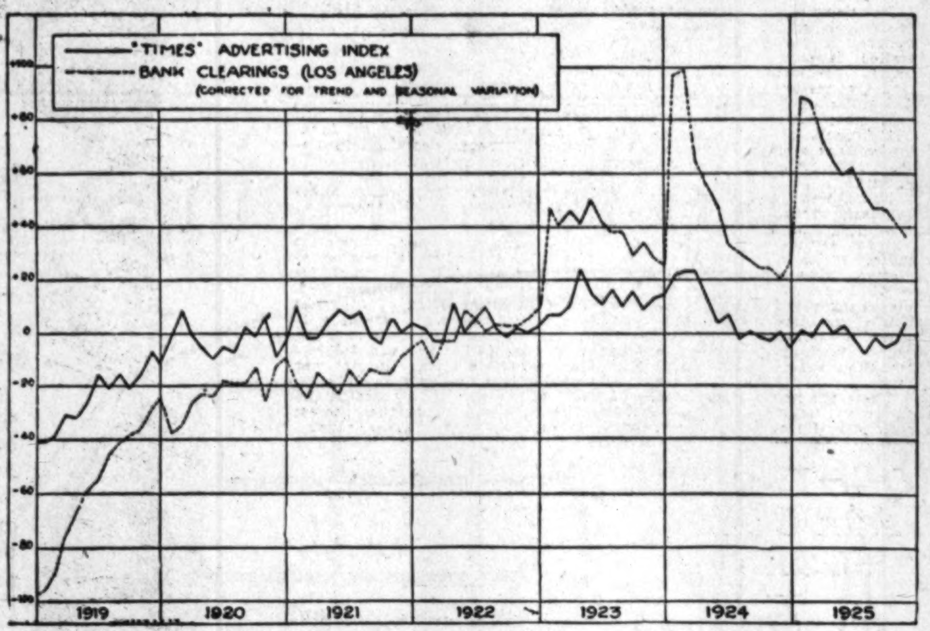
Governors, two-year term, Clarkson Potter, Hayden, Stone & Co., New York, to succeed Pierpont V. Davis, National City Company, New York; three-year term, Sigmund Stern, Stern Bros. & Co., Kansas City; Carroll J. Waddell, Drexel & Co., Philadelphia; R. A. Wilbur, the Herrick Company, Cleveland; Alden H. Little, Little & Moore, Inc., St. Louis; Joseph R. Swan, Guaranty Company, New York; John P. Baer, of John P. Baer & Co., Baltimore; J. H. Gundy, Wood, Gundy & Co., Toronto; Charles T. Sidlo, Sidlo, Simons, Day & Co., Denver.

TO EDUCATE PUBLIC

During the past year, more than $7,000,000,000 in issues were financed by members of the association, and it is believed this amount will be even greater in the coming year. The members of the association are planning to spend about $250,000 in a campaign during the coming year to advertise the investment banking business and to help educate the public to invest its funds in sound securities.

The Investment Bankers' Association, through the proposed campaign, hopes to educate the public to a better understanding of sound investment securities and prevent the sale of worthless stocks and bonds. The association wants the public to know that the investment firm which can claim membership in the association is safe to deal with.

What "Times" Advertising Forecasts



Expert Business Opinion Reflected in Newspaper Space

This chart, with a more extensive discussion of business conditions, will appear in The Times Annual Midwinter number.

TRADE INCREASE INDICATED

Advertisers Prophesy Expansion in General Lines for Next Few Months; Progress Traced

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Business men in Los Angeles and Southern California confidently expect an expansion in the volume of general trade. The opinions of hundreds of merchants, manufacturers, jobbers, financial houses and real-estate brokers are expressed as a composite in The Times index of advertising lineage, which turned definitely upward in November after hovering around normal for the greater part of the year.

As experts in their particular lines, advertisers clearly reflect their opinions of business prospects in the succeeding months by the amount of newspaper space purchased. The volume of advertising caried by The Times represents the preponderance of newspaper advertising in Los Angeles and in Southern California, and ranks as one of the largest volumes in the United States. Because of this volume, the index shown in the accompanying chart presents a satisfactory and reliable forecast of what the majority of business men in this region expect.

MOVES IN ADVANCE

Traced over a period of seven years, the advertising index generally moves in advance of the business index, represented by bank clearings in Los Angeles. The priority of movement usually runs from one to three months, or about the same result obtained by the Harvard Economic Service, which originaly developed the principle in its comparison of total newspaper advertising in the United States with total bank clearings.

The sharp turn taken by the advertising line in November is substantiated by the individual predictions of many leading business men, most of whom anticipate holiday business from 10 to 15 per cent above last year, and a healthy expansion in the first few months, at least, of 1926. The November increase, however, may represent only a temporary expansion on the basis of holiday trade but ordinarily, a gain of the amount shown on the chart should signal a reversal in the trend of business, measured by the index of bank clearings.

STABLE BASIS REACHED

Perhaps the outstanding message conveyed by the two lines in 1925 is the trend in the direction of business stabilization. The advertising line, in moving close to normal during the most of the year, indicates that conservative business men have been confident, but evidently have not been given to excitement or lending an ear to the lure of speculation. In reflection of this sentiment, the business index, while declining through most of the year descended gradually and evenly, in sharp contrast to the reckless course taken in 1924.

From the path traced by the business line, it is indicated that most of the speculative water accumulated in the previous boom year has been squeezed out. Business activities, of course, are seasonal in character, rising in the fall months to a peak in January or February, and then descending gradually during the summer months. Prior to 1925, however, or particularly in 1923, the rises and dips were extremely erratic, but now this tendency seems fairly well eliminated. A foundation of solid business has arisen to support the growth fanned into flame by speculation.

INCREASES SHOWN

Speculation along moderate lines, however, is a necessary part of business expansion. The presence of this ingredient in the last few months, especially in the form of real-estate activity, lends emphasis to the forecast of the advertising index. Real-estate advertising in The Times increased heavily in November over the previous month of October. Another favorable point is the increase shown in automobile advertising, indicating that sufficient money is available for the purchase of motor cars.

Substantial gains also are recorded among others, in department store advertising, furniture lines, foodstuffs and classified advertising. The increases suggest that the advertisers in these lines anticipate a greater volume of business in the coming months.

Until 1923, the advertising index faithfully prophesied the major fluctuations in the business index. By increasing expenditures for advertising, the retail merchants, the wholesalers and the manufacturers of innumerable commodities demonstrated their confidence in the future of their respective enterprises, and in nearly all cases the business index followed shortly afterward.

An interesting feature of the fluctuations of the advertising line is that it seems to forecast the downward turn of business more readily than the upward movements. This tendency illustrates the fact that the creation of confidence in business is a cumulative process and necessarily a slow one.

Issue of Bonds of Los Angeles Offered Today

An issue of $14,825,000 City of Los Angeles 4½ and 4 3-4 per cent bonds was yesterday awarded to the nationwide banking syndicate headed by the First National Bank of New York, Blair & Co., Inc., and Anglo-London-Paris Company, will be offered for public subscription today at prices to yield from 4.10 to 4.50 per cent, according to maturity.

The bonds are exempt from all Federal income taxes and are legal investment for savings banks in many States. The bonds are for a variety of municipal purposes, including electric plant, City Hall, branch libraries, pedestrian tunnels, water works, including a small block for Colorado River supply, and street construction, and are direct obligations of the city of Los Angeles, payable from unlimited taxes against all the taxable property in the city.

Western members of the banking group include Blair & Co., Ins., Anglo London Paris Company, Halsey, Stuart & Co., Inc., Bank of Italy, and other prominent local houses. Among the eastern members are First National Bank of New York, Hallgarten & Co., Redmond & Co., the Detroit Company, George B. Gibbons & Co., Inc., Phelps, Fenn & Co., Old Colony Trust Company, R. W. Pressprich & Co., Stevenson, Perry, Eldredge & Co., Stacy & Co.

Potatoes Drop as Volume of Imports Gains

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Imports of potatoes from Canada, duty-paid, have again increased, and at nearly all the United States city markets as well as at rural shipping points the wholesale price of potatoes is lower than a week ago.

Approximately 1000 carloads of Canadian potatoes have been brought into the United States so far this season, according to a report today by the government Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Potatoes from Bermuda have had some slight part, too, in lowering the price of patotoes as compared with last week's figures. A quantity of Berumda potatoes is reported as having arrived in New York, and it is indicated that more are to follow.

HUNTING BAN HITS SPORT-WEAR FIRMS

Brackett Says Business Hindered by Supervisors' Restraining Order

The sporting goods business in Los Angeles, as especially pertaining to the merchandising of hunting equipment, has been injured during the past several months through action of the County Board of Supervisors in closing the forests and timber sections of this county to hunters, according to a statement made yesterday by W. H. Brackett, sales manager of Summers Manufacturing Company, Inc., makers of hunting equipment and work clothing in Los Angeles.

Retail dealers were heavily stocked with merchandise for the hunting season, and the day after the dove season opened, September 2, last, the Board of Supervisors closed the forests to hunters. The restraining order continued in force until after the deer season, and consequently the dealers had great difficulty in disposing of their stocks, Mr. Brackett said. Practically the only persons who bought hunting equipment were those who could afford or spare the time to go outside of the county to hunt.

The sporting goods business throughout the country generally during the past year has been good. Mr. Brackett reports September and October the best two months in the past two years, and he anticipates an exceptionally good business during the first six months of the coming year.

"General improvement of conditions throughout the Pacific Coast has stimulated business in the sporting-goods line," said Mr. Brackett. "Fine crops throughout the State have placed the rancher in the most favorable financial position in several years. The San Joaquin Valley has just harvested the best crops in four years and the citrus growers of Southern California are feeling better. The trade in the Santa Barbara district is most optimistic over the outlook for the coming season."

EMPLOYEES OFFERED STOCK BY AUTO FIRM

ARE ENTITLED TO SUBSCRIBE FOR GENERAL MOTORS PREFERRED

General Motors is making the third annual offering of its 7 per cent preferred stock to the employees of the corporation and its subsidiaries, according to a statement issued yesterday by Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., president of General Motors.

All employees who have been on the pay rolls continuously since August, last, are entitled to subscribe, at $114 a share, payment to be made in full or in eleven monthly installments. Subscription books close January 15, 1926. Employees may subscribe in amounts from one share up, in no case more than ten shares, dependent on their wage earnings; the total value of the stock subscribed for not to exceed one-third of the year's wages.

As an incentive to employees to retain their investment in the 7 per cent preferred stock and as an inducement to remain with General Motors, an extra payment of $2 a share a year will be made in addition to the regular dividend of $7 a share. The first extra payment will be made on February 15, 1927, and will continue for five years, provided the employee retains his stock and remains in the General Motors service.

BY WIRELESS—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH

[Copyright, 1925, N. Y. Evenig Post, Inc.]

LONDON, Dec. 2.—Financial markets were unsettled and irregular today in reflecting uncertainties regarding the monetary situation.

French securities slipped back in sympathy with the fall of the franc on prospects of further inflation. Sterling was dull.

Rubber shares and oils were fairly active and in rather good demand, while leading industrials were in favor.

The Peninsula and Oriental report shows a credit balance of £150,000 less than the previous year, explaining the reduction of the dividend on the deferred stock from 12 to 10 per cent.

The Times commenting upon the rejection of the $50,000,000 potash loan in the United States takes the view that the loan should reduce, not raise the price of potash, because it will result in a reduction of production costs.

WILLYS AUTO TO PAY DIVIDEND

Accumulation of $29.75 On Preferred to Be Paid In Stock

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Directors of the Willys-Overland Company today declared a dividend of $29.75 to clear up accumulations on the preferred stock. The dividend is payable in common stock priced at $25 a share.

Negotiable certificates of rights covering the dividend payable in common stock will be issued to preferred shareholders of record the 20th inst.

The regular quarterly cash dividend of $1.75 on the preferred also was authorized. Both dividends are payable January 2 to stock of record the 20th inst.

GERMAN ANTHRACITE ARRIVES IN BOSTON

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

BOSTON, Dec. 2.—The first shipment of German fuel to this port arrived today on the steamship Rotterdam. It consisted of 4000 tons of Westphalian anthracite bricquettes.

MILLION ACRES TO BE RECLAIMED IN SONORA

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

TUCSON (Ariz.) Dec. 2.—According to E. E. Richardson, head of the Richardson Construction Company, about 1,000,000 acres of fertile land eventually will be irrigated in the Yaqui Valley of Southern Sonora by reclamation work which is being pushed by the corporation. To date after expenditure of $5,000,000, a total of 600 miles of waterways has been completed serving 90,000 cultivated acres. About 50,000 acres this year were in rice, the rest planted to wheat and vegetables. It is expected that 50,000 acres will be in vegetables next season. The main canal, now forty miles long, is being extended by means of three steam dredges.

COTTON EXCEEDS ESTIMATES

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

TUCSON (Ariz.) Dec. 2.—The cotton crop on the Pima Farms project in the Santa Cruz Valley now is estimated at 6500 bales, fully 800 above previous expectations. This will mean an average of a bale to the acre.

Preferred, Participating Convertible

THE Class "A" Participating Stock of Superior Portland Cement, Inc., is especially attractive because:

The Company has earned a profit every one of its seventeen years of corporate existence, and has paid monthly dividends for over ten years.

Average net earnings the past three years, after all charges, were equivalent to $7.46 per share on this entire issue.

Total assets are $6,975,080.63 or $69.75 per share of Class "A" stock.

There are no mortgage or funded debts and no bank loans.

The Company owns one of the finest deposits of limestone on the Pacific Coast (sufficient for at least 75 years) and produces about 56% of all the cement shipped in the State of Washington.

The capacity of its large modern plant is 5000 barrels of raw cement per day.

The cement industry (one of the essentials) is rapidly growing, and the outlook for this Company is particularly bright.

This stock is Preferred, Participating and Convertible.

Price $45 per share.

Subject to cumulative dividends of 27½c per month from Dec. 1, thus providing an immediate yield of over 7.33%.

HOLIDAY TRADE MAY SET MARK

Volume Declared to Hinge on Weather

Present Conditions Held to be Favorable

Promise Appears Certain of Fulfillment

BY PAUL WILLARD GARRETT

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

[Copyright, 1925, New York Evening Post, Inc.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—With Christmas now only three weeks off merchants are beginning to reckon the probable volume of their 1925 holiday trade.

That sales will run into unprecedented totals this year is the consensus of most persons, but, as H. T. Parson, president of the F. W. Woolworth Company pointed out in a conversation yesterday, it is foolish to count the chickens before they are hatched. What he meant was, of course, that it is foolish for the merchant to undertake to say what his volume of sales will be until the dollars reach the tills. Weather conditions, as he says, always affect sales. A series of cheerful days between now and Christmas will stimulate more business than a period of cold, damp days.

PRESENT FOR EVERYONE

It takes no more than a trip westward, southward or into New England to make one conclude that the country is rolling in wealth and that 1925 will be the merriest Christmas since the outbreak of war in 1914. Perhaps never in the history of the country have more persons had reason to anticipate Christmas so much as now. There should be a present for everyone this year and several presents for the great majority.

The present era of agricultural prosperity had begun a year ago and made considerable progress, of course, but not so many candles were burned in the homes of the country places as in the city apartments. The farmers had begun to make money a year ago, but they were still heavily in debt. What they earned was being used to wipe off long-standing obligations. All of that has been changed within the last year.

Most of the pressing debts have been paid. Farmers now are in position to buy things they want and they plan this year not only to have a tree but to hang it full of presents.

We get some idea of the upward trend in the agricultural purchases incidentally, from the November reports of the mail-order houses. Sears, Roebuck & Co. sold 15 per cent more last month than a year ago; Montgomery Ward & Co. sold 10 per cent more. On this basis what, New York bankers are asking, will be the December volume?

PROPHETS OPTIMISTIC

In Wall street the holiday season is anticipated with particular enthusiasm for not in a decade have so many types of businesses been good. The butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker, literally speaking, always may look forward to an extra volume of business around Christmas time, but the presents will not be confined to sale of meats, cakes and prettily lighted candles.

Makers of expensive articles, automobile manufacturers, electrical appliance companies, clothing merchants and the radio industry expect to do a big business this year. Of candy and eats there will be aplenty, but so will there be of those more luxurious presents that heretofore have been denied in thousands of homes. December is seldom a favorite month for security dealers, but for the downtown bankers who study underlying conditions this December should be a month of cheerfulness.

Attractive Discount on Issue of Westphalia United Electric Power Corporation's First Mortgage Sinking Fund Gold Bonds Brings Quick Absorption Here

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

[Copyright, 1925, New York Evening Post, Inc.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Offered at a discount that was sufficient to insure subscribers a yield of better than 7.60 per cent on the investment, the $7,500,000 first mortgage 6½ per cent sinking fund gold bonds of the Westphalia United Electric Power Corporation found a ready market here recently.

Among the largest of the recent foreign corporate issues floated here, these bonds represent the obligation of one of the most important producers and distributors of electric energy in Germany. The loan was floated to provide funds for use primarily in the development and enlargement of the producing and distributing properties of the company, electric and gas.

DATA ON COMPANY

Practically all of the capital of the company, which serves one of the most important industrial sections of all Europe, is owned by the various municipalities in its territory. The company furnishes directly 138,000 customers in more than 240 communities, and indirectly, through wholesale to various distributing companies, it reaches more than 160,000 additional consumers in 106 communities.

Its electric properties include four large modern steam electric generating plants, having an installed capacity of 160,000 kilowatts. Transmission and distribution systems are made up of some 390 miles of 50,000 and 100,000-volt steel tower lines and about 3937 circuit miles of medium and low-voltage system, of which more than 1470 circuit miles are underground.

Franchises under which the company operates are entirely satisfactory, and, in the opinion of counsel, service, both directly and indirectly, is rendered under exclusive rights, which, in practically all important cases do not expire before the maturity of the bonds just floated. Among the principal cities served are Dortmund, Bochum, Munster, Herne, Recklinghausen, Norde and Witten.

These are in the heart of one of the most important coal-mining regions in Europe, which territory is also among the most highly developed manufacturing sections of the continent. Under the Dawes plan and the laws enacted to carry that plan into effect annual payments of this company are estimated at not in excess of $75,000.

CAPITAL EARNINGS

The new bonds, which represent the only funded debts of the company, are secured by direct first mortgages on all of the more important of the properties and will be subject to the sinking fund, which will begin operation in August, 1931, at an annual rate sufficient to retire all of this series before maturity. Issuance of additional bonds is strictly regulated by indenture.

Following the bonds there is $9,523,809 in additional capitalization, virtually all of which is owned by the municipalities served. Gross earnings of the properties for the twelve-month periods ended July 31, last, and December 31, 1924, were $6,896,467 and $6,196,970, respectively, and the net was $2,526,279 in the year to July 31, last, equivalent to substantially more than five times the interest charges on the mortgfage bonds.

IRON TRADE KEEPING ON HIGH SPEED

Bookings for November Gain, With Some Lines at High Level of Year

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

CLEVELAND, Dec. 2.—November proved another month of heavy bookings in steel and added both tonnage and strength to the position of the mills, says Iron Trade Review. In some finished lines incoming tonnage totaled the largest of the year, exceeding both October and January, previous ranking months. Generally, unfilled tonnage with producers has been increased as a result of the month's market despite a material expansion of shipments.

On the basis of orders on hand and the rate at which consumers are specifying, present activity in the industry is considered assured through January and probably well through the first quarter. With mills back on deliveries, specifications today usually mean shipment after January 1, which is acceptable to most consumers for inventory reasons. Moreover, contracting by buyers for first quarter requirements has been active and is continuing so.

Steel production is moving ahead at high speed, with some companies running close to the highest rate of tonnage in their history. While the industry as a whole is operating at 80 to 85 per cent, based on the numerical rating of furnace capacity, a number of companies, including some of the largest, actually are producing tonnage in excess of their theoretical maximum. This illustrates the unusual pitch of efficiency that characterizes present operations.

A gain of eleven blast furnaces in the active list is the outstanding fact of pig-iron production figures for November. This brings the number of furnaces in commission to 220 or 57.2 per cent of the total number, against 54.6 per cent in October. Because most of these stacks resumed in the second half of the month, the increase in tonnage is not marked. Average daily production went from 97,351 tons to 100,620 tons, a rise of 3.2 per cent.

November orders for railway cars were the heaviest of the year. New inquiries appeared this week more freely, totaling 8000 principal of which are 5000 for the Pacific Fruit Express. Trade surveys from Detroit fail to show any decided sliding off of automobile production beyond the usual holiday modification. In fact, there is talk of operations to be pushed ahead after the first of the year.

Structural steel business in November was unusually good and for some large producers is much in excess of mill capacity. Active buying in the Philadelphia district where 40,000 to 50,000 tons was closed, and the purchase of 35,000 tons of basic by a Newport (Ky.) steelmaker are the high points of an otherwise quiet week in pig iron.

The Iran Trade Review composite of fourteen yeading iron and steel products this week is $39.17, compared with $38.89 last week and $39 one year ago.

NEW GERMAN MARK FRAUD WARNING GIVEN

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Warning against a new fraud in German marks was issued today by the commerce and marine commission of the American Bankers' Association. Certain concerns in all parts of the country are said to be promoting sale of German securities by representing that both prewar and postwar paper-mark bonds can be revalued on the basis of 15 per cent or more of their face value. The actual computation must be based on an infinitesimal fraction of this amount, the association warned.

QUOTATIONS FOR COTTON SCORE GAIN

Tone of Market Firmer on Liverpool Rise and Export Sales Report

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The cotton market was firmer and higher today from the opening, due to an upturn of the Liverpool market and the better spot demand from domestic and foreign spinners developing on the Southern markets. The big export clearance of yesterday, totaling 232,000 bales, the third largest for any day on record, was also a factor. It brought the total exports from August 1 to date to 3,758,000 bales against 3,378,000 in the same time last year.

Of these shipments 79,000 went to Great Britain, 43,000 to France, 86,000 to Continental ports and about 24,000 to Japan and China.

The large excess in the export movements over last year's shipments compares with an exceptionally heavy export movement then. It stimulated new buying by local trade and Wall street commission houses which with the higher closing Liverpool cables turned prices up for the general contract list.

The maximum advance was between 20 and 25 points over yesterday's closing, under the lead of the near months, with December selling at 20.48 cents, January 19.85; March 19.80 cents; May, 19.46 and July 19.10 cents. Although considerable further profit-taking and some Southern selling occurred on this rise, the market held most of the gain in the later trading.

At Liverpool cotton futures, due to sustain a rise of 3 to 4 of their points to have equaled our good rally of late yesterday, closed firm at the top at 6 to 9 of their points advance on the day. Spot cotton there was unchanged from yesterday's price at 10.46 pence for middling with sales of 6000 bales and import arrivals of 38,000 bales including 32,000 of American cotton but there was a much better tone to the market.

Private cables reported more Continental buying with a better feeling having developed at Manchester.

DEATH INVALIDATES MANY CERTIFICATES

DELAWARE CORPORATIONS HIT BY DEFUNCT OFFICIAL'S SIGNATURE USE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 2.—The time-honored custom, followed by many public officials, of leaving behind them when they go on vacation sheaves of official papers signed in blank for the convenience of their deputies, has resulted in the voiding of the certificates under which a number of corporations are doing business in California.

This was revealed today when Secretary of State Jordan began a check of Delaware corporations which have filed certified copies of their certificates of incorporation with him since the accidental drowning about a month ago of William G. Taylor, Delaware Secretary of State.

An undetermined number of such certified copies have been filed, many of them bearing the signature of Taylor. The fact that he was dead when the documents were issued makes them, of course, invalid. Two of the corporations affected in this State, already have discovered their unintentionally illegal status and have taken steps to obtain new and valid copies for filing. The others will be sought out and notified.

FRAUD SET UP IN SUIT OF RAY-CON

Charge is Made in Final Papers on File Against Merger With Nevada

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, Dec. 2. — Stockholders of the Ray Consolidated Copper Company would lose $12,000,000 through the proposed merger of that concern with the Nevada Consolidated Copper Company, Frank C. Armstrong, stockholder in the former company, alleged in final papers filed in Supreme Court in a suit to prevent the merger.

The suit, filed in the equity division, was started more than a month ago but the papers had been withdrawn pending service on all defendants. Supreme Court Justice Wasservogel November 5 issued a temporary restraining order to prevent consideration of the proposed merger at stockholders' meetings of the two companies.

Mr. Armstrong asserts the merger plan is based on fraud and conspiracy. The firms named as defendants are the Ray and Nevada Consolidated Companies, the Utah Copper Company, the Chino Copper Company and the Kennecott Copper Company. The charge is made that the directorates interlock but that this information was withheld from the stockholders.

Thirty-one officials and directors of the Ray and Nevada Consolidated companies are named as individuals in the suit. They include Charles Hayden, Daniel C. Jackling, Solomon R. Guggenheim, Murray Guggenheim, Harry F. Guggenheim, Thomas Cochrane and John R. Dillon. The papers set forth that the brokerage firm of Hayden, Stone & Co., marketed the stocks of the different companies named in the suit. It is following this statement that the allegations of interlocking directorates is made.

Gold Bonds of Industrial Firm Offered Today

An issue of $4,000,000 Brunner Turbine and Equipment Company 7½ per cent closed first mortgage thirty-year sinking fund gold bonds will be offered today by F. J. Lisman & Co. at 95 3-4 and accrued interest to yield approximately 7.90 per cent.

The Brunner Turbine and Equipment Company, one of the oldest and most prominent industrial corporations in Czecho-Slovakia, is engaged in the manufacture of heavy machinery, including turbines, Diesel engines, sugar-refining and refrigerating machinery. Its plants cover seventy-six acres and give employment to more than 3500 men, most of whom are highly-skilled workmen.

The corporation at present is operating all of its plants on a twenty-four hour shift, and it has unfilled orders of an aggregate value of $6,000,000, which compares with a gross business during the entire year of 1924 of $4,352,941. Real property and other assets are valued at $29,739,370, equal to more than seven times the present issue of bonds, the net quick assets as of June, last, were $7,527,370, equal to about $1882 per each $1000 bond. Included in the pledge is the entire capital stock of the corporation's subsidiaries valued at approximately $17,264,706.

Closing of Bank Brings Tighter Money in Chile

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SANTIAGO (Chile) Dec. 2.—The government's closing of the Banco Espanol De Chile in Santiago and Valparaiso because of their lack of funds adds to the tightness of the Chilean money market. While a moratorium of sixty days has been declared in the expectation that the bank's affairs will be straightened out, banking circles are doubtful of the success of the effort.

The bank officials admit a loss of $20,440,000 out of $21,900,000 capitalization and $13,140,000 reserve. Bankers here assert that the Espanol has been in bad condition for several years, following heavy losses sustained by the mother-bank in Spain and the failure of the directors properly to reorganize the concern. Other local bankers limited their transactions with the Espanol, especially after it was reported that certain of its directors had suffered heavy losses in Bolivian mining speculations.

The bank operated forty branches in Chile. Many of these supposed to have been solvent are deeply involved in the affairs of the Santiago and Valparaiso branches. Spanish business firms and citizens of Chile who patronized the bank are hard hit.

BOND QUOTATIONS

Rails Turn Down

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The maintenance of firm money rates and the customary midweek uncertainty over the local rediscount rate situation dulled the edge of bond trading today and price fluctuations were held within extremely narrow limits. Interest lagged in the railroad group today and speculative industrial liens usurped the place which the carrier issues have held in the favor of the buying public.

Most changes in the rail list represented downward revisions, forced by realizing sales. Fractional losses were recorded by Norfolk and Western convertible 6s, Chesapeake and Ohio convertible 5s, Burlington refunding 5s, Denver and Rio Grande Western 5s and Pere Marquette refunding 5s.

Oils succeeded the rails as the leading strong spots. The rise in petroleum stocks brought a sympathetic response from the convertible liens, such as Skelly 6½s, Pan American 6s and Sinclair 6s, which moved up 1 to 2 points. International Paper 5s and American Writing Paper issues were in demand.

Movements of foreign obligations were conflicting. French bonds wavered, as new issues for currency inflation, were outlined at Paris. The current weakness of Poland's exchange also brought about another 2-point reaction in Polish 8s.

Public offering will be made of a $21,000,000 bond issue for the Province of Ontario.

Offering also will be made of $14,825,000 city of Los Angeles 4½ per cent and 4 1-4 per cent bonds, due serially 1926-1965, inclusive. The offering is comprised of $7,325,000 4½ per cent bonds which are priced to yield 4.10 per cent to 4.45 per cent for the varying maturities and $7,500,000 4 1-4 per cent bonds which are priced to which are priced to yield 4.10 per cent to 4.50 per cent.

Following are yesterday's high, low and closing prices of bonds on the New York Stock Exchange and the total sales of each bond.

RUBBER MARKET

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Aided by a slight buying inquiry on the part of local dealers, rubber demonstrated a steadier tendency and prices again went forward in a movement that embraced all positions. Ribbed smoked sheets were quoted up 3 cents at $1.10 per pound, while other leading grades advanced from 1 to 3 cents. Dealers were actively bidding within 1 cent of the asked price, but only the smaller holders of the commodity responded with any offerings.

Gilmore Oil Features Trading; Pacific Gas Shows Big Gain

A more even distribution of activity throughout the oil list featured trading on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday, with Gilmore Oil leading a general advance. Opening 1 point higher at 13½, Gilmore Oil advanced to 14 at the close with a large number of shares crossing the board. Interest in Julian Petroleum preferred subsided after several weeks as the feature of trading in the oils. The preferred moved up 1-4 point to 15 1-4, while the common held firm at 4 7-8.

Marine Corporation sold off 7 points to a close at 1.33 on a large turnover. Marine Oil advanced ½ point to 58 7-8. Union Oil added a fraction to 35 7-8, while Union Associates added 1-4 to 34 3-8. Los Angeles Investment moved up early to 5.82, but reacted to a close at 5.79, a net loss of 1 point.

Bank of Italy added 2½ points to 454, while Bancitaly Corporation moved up 3-4 to 353. Americommercial Corporation was firm at 209. Southern California Edison common opened 1 1-4 points lower at 131½, but recovered to a steady close at 132 3-4. Los Angeles Gas and Electric preferred sold firm at 95 5-8, and Pacific Gas and Electric common added 5 points to 135.

Trading in the mining list was light and prices were firm. Big Jim Mines was firm at 12, as was San Francisco Gold at 21½ and Katherine Extension at 7½.

DRIED FRUITS

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Evaporated apples quiet. Prunes, very steady. Apricots, nervous. Peaches, nervous. Raisins, firm.

Have You Considered the Future of THE LAUNDRY INDUSTRY?

Its Continued Expansion Is Inevitable

The Laundry business is one of this country's fastest growing industries with an increase of 500% in volume in the last 16 years. More than two million families are now being served and in addition hotels, pullman cars, restaurants, institutions, etc. The Laundry Industry shows every indication of being on the threshold of a large expansion. Some of the contributary factors are:

1. Consolidation of sound companies resulting in large economies in operating costs and greater efficiency in the service rendered, together with the ability to increase volume of business through combined advertising and educational campaigns.
2. Increasing congestion in living conditions which have rendered washing and drying at home almost a physical impossibility.
3. Evolution from what ten years ago was almost solely a "collar and shirt" business to include today the entire family wash.
4. Higher standards of living and dress.
5. Public appreciation of the general development and greatly increased efficiency throughout the entire industry.
6. Refusal of the present generation of housewives to launder at home.
7. Inability to obtain domestic help.
8. Reduction of cost, resulting from improved methods and increasing volume of business, which has rendered the service universally available.

We believe that the securities of well-established companies in this field offer most attractive and profitable investment opportunities.

Our Statistical Department has compiled a pamphlet on this interesting industry, which we shall be pleased to furnish upon request

Wheat Reacts After Hitting High of Season

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—A bullish demonstration in wheat at the opening lifted prices 1@4⅝c over the finish of the previous day to a top of 1.75 on December, 1.69 on May and July to 1.50, a new high on the crop on all deliveries. The sensational upturn in the past two days, with values up 12@13c from the low on Monday, brought in immense profit taking and May broke 3⅝ from the top. The market was decidedly unsettled throughout the day with numerous bulges and the breaks of 1c or more, with the finish 1⅛c higher to ½c lower, with December showing the most strength.

The latter went to around 6c over May and closed at 5c over at 1.71⅛@1.71¼. July was 1.46⅝@1.47 at the last. Heavy short covering appeared in corn, and with closing of spread with wheat, net gains were 2⅝@3c. December finished at 76⅛@76¼c and May at 82¼@82c. Oats gained ⅝@⅝c and rye ⅝@1c.

Some of the local professionals and commission houses who have been bullish of late were aggressive on the selling side, taking profits, believing the technical position weakened by the upturn of over 25c from the low of November 9. Considerable buying was in evidence during the day, which was regarded as for eleventh hour bulls. Buenos Aires failed to reflect the early strength in Chicago and was ⅛c higher to ⅛c lower at midday, and finished 1⅛@⅜c lower. Liverpool after buying 4⅛@5d higher early, closed 2⅜@3d higher.

Argentine news was somewhat more bullish with private estimates on the exportable surplus of wheat ranging from 112,000,000 to 120,000,000 bushels, or slightly less than the recent average. Weather reports from that country were mixed with some cables reporting fair and cooler, while others said it was hot and muggy. Rain is forecast for December 4 and 7.

December wheat acted tight and the bulk of the trade was at about 6c over May. Some wheat was bought to come here from Minneapolis and Omaha, which dampened the ardor of the bulls toward the last, and there was also closing of spreads between here and Minneapolis. Winnipeg was easy and 1⅛@2⅝c lower at the last, with July leading. Export sales in all positions for the day were 500,000 to 600,000 bushels, including 150,000 bushels Durum to England. Resellers of Manitobas were reported as doing a good business abroad.

A great deal of the strength in corn, with an advance of 3⅛@3⅝c over the finish of the previous day, came from closing of spreads between corn and wheat, the latter being sold. Several local operators came in on big lines, while the pit element was disposed to go a little slow on the bear side, with December corn nearly 1.00 per bushel under wheat. Basis in the sample market showed little change, with receipt 335 cars, the movement being smaller than anticipated. The seaboard reported 200,000 bushels corn resold by the United Kingdom. Oats and rye were influenced largely by the action of other grains, although there was a good class of commission house buying in rye.

Selling of December lard, credited to cash interests, carried all deliveries lower, with the finish at net losses of 2½@20c lower, the near-by future leading. Ribs were 5@10c lower and bellies 15@25c lower. Weakness in hogs and a slow cash demand were the depressing influences. Packing of hogs in the West for the winter season to date, as compiled by the Price Current-Grain Reporter aggregates 2,473,000 against 2,520,000 last year.

NEW YORK CURB

TRADING BROADER

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Broader operations in which several issues touched new high levels marked today's active trading in curb securities, oil, motor, industrial and radio shares being chiefly in demand.

Wall street reports of a pending merger on the Cleveland Automobile Company and Chandler Motors brought life to the motor group, shares of the Cleveland Auto moving into new high ground, closing at 32 for a gain of 1 1-2. Rubber and tire shares also were strong, Goodyear making a net gain of 2 5-8 points, U. S. Rubber reclaiming sold at a new high closing at 14 3-8, up 1 5-8.

The oils generally were active. Humble featuring the group with a net advance of 1 3-8 to 77 3-8, Standard Oil of Kentucky moved up more than a point and many other issues showed moderate improvement.

Radio shares were aided by a 25-cent dividend declared by Tower Manufacturing Company, while several industrials responded to talk of consolidations, chiefly the baking issues.

Public utilities showed mixed changes. American Light and Traction lost 2 points and United Gas improvement moved up a point.

INSURED

By Independent Surety Companies Against Loss of Principal and Interest

The insurance company guarantee stamp on a Bristol Insured Bond indicates that the surety company has rigidly investigated every detail of the bond issue—has applied every known test of safety—and has done it far more thoroughly and carefully than could any individual investor.

The guarantee on Bristol Bonds is optional. When unguaranteed, Bristol Bonds yield 6½% and 7%. When guaranteed the yield is 6% 6½%. The ½% difference is the premium paid to the insurance company. In either case you receive identically the same bond carefully selected and approved by the insurance company and protected by the same stringent Bristol safeguard.

ONE of the finest country estates of San Diego County is now offered for sale by the owner at a very favorable price.

The property embraces 290 acres, with the main residence occupying a commanding site, on high ground, with wonderful view in all directions. This quaint Spanish structure, with 12 rooms and 2 baths, and 14-inch plastered adobe walls, is considered one of the most attractive houses in the entire county.

Other improvements include two good frame houses with baths and electric lights, three electrically lighted barns, large garage, swimming pool, etc. An up-to-date irrigation system is now being completed. Under-ground water pipes run to all parts of the property.

The location is about 45 miles north of San Diego, and about 12 miles due east of Oceanside, on the main paved inland highway between San Diego and Los Angeles, at the town of Vista and in the Vista Irrigation District. The land is high and rolling, free from frosts, and suitable for a wide diversification of crops, including avocados, citrus fruits and winter vegetables.

For the person who seeks a really charming country estate, true to the best traditions of old California, yet modern in its appointments, will find in this property his ideal; or, the capitalist who seeks an especially choice piece of acreage for purposes of subdivision, will find here an exceptional opportunity for profit.

Terms will be arranged if desired. A very high-class trade might be considered.

Merchandise and Oil Issues Active in Trading

Motors Gain on Merger and Dividend Reports

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Stock prices continued their rise to higher ground in today's moderately active trading. With favorable trade developments reported from several industries, constructive operations assumed a broad outlook.

The jump in wheat prices to new high levels for the season, coupled with the firmness of the other commodity prices, provided a good foundation for the bidding up of securities. These factors outweighed the feeling of uneasiness over the continued firmness of money rates and reports that both the Bank of England and the Federal Reserve Bank of New York might advance their rediscount rates tomorrow.

OILS ACTIVE

The rising tendency of oil prices linked with a decline in the daily output of crude oil to the lowest level since last April, again attracted speculative attention to the petroleum shares. Marland developed outstanding strength, mounting to a new top price for the year, while Standard Oil of New Jersey, Pacific, Pan American, Phillips, Atlantic Refining and Indian Refining issues joined in the upturn.

Merchandising issues vied with the oils in an attempt to capture favor. Buying indication of holidays sales coming on top of the increase of November earnings, promoted a wide demand for the mail order, chain and department-store stocks. Gimble Brothers advanced more than 5 points and Woolworth, Montgomery Ward and Sears Roebuck sold 1 to 4 points higher during the day, although some of the gains were surrendered before the close. Speculative interest also was revived in the baking shares, with gains of 2 7-8 to 8 points registered by General Baking, Loose Wiles Biscuit and Ward Baking Company "A."

MOTORS GAIN

Favorable merger and dividend developments arrested waning interest in the motor group, turning the trend of prices upward. Willys Overland preferred spurted up to a new high level at 120 7-8 in response to the liquidation of 29 3-4 per cent accumulated dividends on this issue. Chandler advanced 3 3-8 on the publication of a tentative plan for a merger of this company with the Cleveland Automobile Company involving an exchange of shares for those of a new holding concern.

Price movements in the rail group lack uniformity, with most of the buying in the converging on the southern and southwestern carriers.

Another sharp break in French francs to 3.76 cents, within 3 points of the 1925 low, reflected uneasiness over proposals for currency inflation in France and drastic measures to correct the government's financial position. Demand sterling was fractionally higher around 4.84 1-4 and other European currencies were firm.

Call money ruled at 5 per cent all day and time money rates were unchanged at 4 7-8 to 5 per cent. Commercial paper continued firm.

LOS ANGELES MARKET

Cattle—Active demand cleaned up today's small cattle supply on a strong to 25 cents higher basis, the inbetween kinds showing most advance, although good steers and cows were scarce. Late yesterday a load of low good 1168-pound northern steers scored 8.75, while the best steers today, Idahos, averaging 1118 pounds, made 8.50, with another load of northerns averaging 1073 pounds, realizing 8.40. Common and low medium kinds, in fair supply, sold from 7.00@7.85, with very thin kinds down to 5.50.

Several loads of low good northern cows turned from 5.60@5.75, while a small lot made 5.85. Common and medium kinds turned largely from 4.00@5.25, with the lower price taking in several lots of southwesterns. Most of today's southwestern she stock supply was on the canner and cutter order and cleared from 2.50@3.75. Bulls were scarce and ruled strong to 15 cents higher, beef types selling up to 5.15, with the general run of bolognas from 4.00@4.50, while thin range kinds sold down to 3.00.

Calves—Demand continued comparatively narrow and only a portion of today's supply, estimated at 400, most of which were held over from yesterday, had sold at a late hour. The few sales made were barely steady, with common and medium 225 to 300-pound weights clearing from 7.25@8.00, although less desirable kinds in load lots sold down to 6.50. A few local milk veals cleared around 9.00.

Hogs—Only three loads were offered on today's market, two of which were held over from yesterday. These were cleaned up on the morning session at about steady prices. One load, averaging 185 pounds, topped at 12.75, while the other loads, averaging 213 and 216 pounds, cleared for 12.55 and 12.65 respectively. No packing sows were offered.

Sheep—Late yesterday the four decks of shorn lambs held over since Monday sold for 13.25 with fifteen buck lambs out at 11.25. The string averaged eighty-five pounds. Good and choice wooled lambs are quotable from 14.00@15.00.

WOOLS WEAKER

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

BOSTON, Dec. 2.—Some wools recently in demand at rather high figures were mentioned at a fraction lower price today. Buyers from the woolen branch of the industry were in the market, but trading was of very limited volume. Some mills have booked a fair business of late from the goods market. Scoured wools of about A quality have sold at 165.

BY ROBERT J. PRITCHARD

More than eighty new wells are w drilling in the northwest ex- ation of the Signal Hill field with e starting of six new projects in at area within the next few ys. Signal Hill's latest extension now the busiest oil field in the tire State, the drilling operations ere being almost equal to the tal drilling operations in all the st of the State combined, and ore than doubling the activity in the Southern California fields.

Joseph Dabney, pioneer Califor- a oil man, is putting down four the new wells with A. J. De- ney. These will be located east American avenue in proven ter- tory. One derrick is at 3170 ameron Place, one at 3390 Cam- on Place, a third at 3504 Linden venue, and the fourth at 3390 asadena avenue.

Dabney and Delaney both are d timers in Signal Hill, both be- g prominent in the operations of e Dabney Oil Syndicate. Dabney so owns productive property at untington Beach and Torrance, nd with Ralph Lloyd was one of e discoverers of the Ventura venue field at Ventura.

J. T. Robertson is spudding in a ell at 3502 Elm avenue, and in e Los Cerritos district not far om the Kohlbush and Johnson usher, M. S. Liberman is prepar- g to drill at 3450 Locust avenue.

The Kohlbush and Johnson well hich blew out a week ago and oded the surrounding neighbor- ood with oil, is now flowing into e tanks, according to field re- orts. Production is about 2000 arrels a day, which is the largest y more than two to one, that has een completed in the northwest xtension. Gas production which uring the eruption was estimated t 10,000,000 cubic feet a day is auged at 2,400,000 cubic feet a ay.

art Gosnell Well

The Shell Company is preparing start another well on its Gosnell roperty in the Ventura-avenue eld at Ventura, according to of- cial reports. The new well will e Gosnell No. 18, and is near the rolific wells which the Shell has een completing on this property r the past six months.

oes 550 Barrels

While public attention is cen- ered on the spectacular develop- ment of the northwest extension f the Signal Hill field, wells in he old producing district which ave been on the job for more han three years, are still quietly nd regularly producing at a rate hich in many fields is considered ood as flush production.

One of the best of the old wells the No. 4 well drilled by E. J. Miley in the early days of the field which came in at 25,000 barrels a ay, the largest in the field's his- ory, and which is still doing 550 arrels a day. No other well in he field ever equaled the initial ate of the Miley No. 4, and few re producing more oil three years after completion.

Miley has two other wells on this lease, both doing over 300 barrels a day. No. 1 is making 300 barrels a day, and No. 2 is making 321 barrels a day.

Quit Outpost Wells

Abandonment of the Susana No. 1 of the Henderson Petroleum Corporation, and the Dominguez No. 7 of the Marland Oil Company, both in the southeast end of the Dominguez field, closes a chapter of pioneering in that district, that was marked by long and persistent effort to get commercial production in a place where there wasn't any.

The Henderson well was an offset to the Shell Company's Manuel lease, which at the time the Shell acquired it, was said to be the highest priced piece of oil land in California. If the tract had been as productive as the Shell expected it to be, it would have cost the company about $7000 per acre, according to the terms that were reported at that time. But the Manuel lease produced only four producing wells, and these were not as prolific as developments on the adjoining DeFrancis property had led operators to believe.

The Henderson corporation acquired the Susana lease a short time after the Shell leased the Manuel tract, figuring that there was room for at least one well, and possibly two or three in the northwest corner. Good oil sands were found in the well, but water zones were so close that it was never possible to get production, although J. W. Henderson, president and general manager of the corporation, and one of the best known operators in the State, re- The Dominguez No. 7 well was sorted to every method known to the industry to solve the problem, a deep test on the south side of the field and went to 6300 feet without success.

Official Report

Oil field operations reported to State Oil and Gas Supervisor R. D. Bush during the week ending November 28, show twenty-three new wells started, the same number as during the previous week. Of the twenty-three notices to drill filed this week, eight were for wells in the Long Beach field, one each in the Torrance, Montebello, Inglewood and Huntington Beach fields, one in Orange county, one in Los Angeles county, two in the Ventura field, six in the fields of Kern county, and one in the Coalinga field. The total new wells this year is 1239, as compared with 1263 at the same date last year.

Tests for water shut-off numbered nine, as compared with nineteen during the previous week. Yearly total to date, 1315; total to same date last year, 1476.

Deepening or redrilling jobs numbered seven, as compared with eighteen during the previous week. Total to date this year, 872; total to same date last year 767.

Abandonments this week numbered six as compared with seven during the preceding week. Total to date this year, 403; total to same date last year, 444.

BY ROBERT J. PRITCHARD

More than eighty new wells are now drilling in the northwest extension of the Signal Hill field with the starting of six new projects in that area within the next few days. Signal Hill's latest extension is now the busiest oil field in the State, the drilling operations there being almost equal to the total drilling operations in all the rest of the State combined, and more than doubling the activity in all the Southern California fields.

Joseph Dabney, pioneer California oil man, is putting down four of the new wells with A. J. Delaney. These will be located east of American avenue in proven territory. One derrick is at 3170 Cameron Place, one at 3390 Cameron Place, a third at 3504 Linden avenue, and the fourth at 3390 Pasadena avenue.

Dabney and Delaney both are old timers in Signal Hill, both being prominent in the operations of the Dabney Oil Syndicate. Dabney also owns productive property at Huntington Beach and Torrance, and with Ralph Lloyd was one of the discoverers of the Ventura avenue field at Ventura.

J. T. Robertson is spudding in a well at 3503 Elm avenue, and in the Los Cerritos district not far from the Kohlbush and Johnson gusher, M. S. Liberman is preparing to drill at 3450 Locust avenue. The Kohlbush and Johnson well which blew out a week ago and flooded the surrounding neighborhood with oil, is now flowing into the tanks, according to field reports. Production is about 2000 barrels a day, which is the largest by more than two to one, that has been completed in the northwest extension. Gas production which during the eruption was estimated at 10,000,000 cubic feet a day is gauged at 2,400,000 cubic feet a day.

[illegible] Gosnell Well

The Shell Company is preparing to start another well on its Gosnell property in the Ventura-avenue field at Ventura, according to official reports. The new well will be Gosnell No. 18, and is near the prolific wells which the Shell has been completing on this property for the past six months.

Does 550 Barrels

While public attention is centered on the spectacular development of the northwest extension of the Signal Hill field, wells in the old producing district which have been on the job for more than three years, are still quietly and regularly producing at a rate which in many fields is considered good as flush production.

One of the best of the old wells is the No. 4 well drilled by E. J. Miley in the early days of the field which came in at 28,000 barrels a day, the largest in the field's history, and which is still doing 550 barrels a day. No other well in the field ever equaled the initial rate of the Miley No. 4, and few are producing more oil three years after completion.

Miley has two other wells on this lease, both doing over 300 barrels a day. No. 1 is making 300 barrels a day, and No. 3 is making 221 barrels a day.

Quit Outpost Wells

Abandonment of the Susana No. 1 of the Henderson Petroleum Corporation, and the Dominguez No. 1 of the Marland Oil Company, both in the southeast end of the Dominguez field, closes a chapter of pioneering in that district, that was marked by long and persistent effort to get commercial production in a place where there wasn't any.

The Henderson well was an offset to the Shell Company's Manuel lease, which at the time the Shell acquired it, was said to be the highest priced piece of oil land in California. If the tract had been as productive as the Shell expected it to be, it would have cost the company about $7000 per acre, according to the terms that were reported at that time. But the Manuel lease produced only four producing wells, and these were not as prolific as developments on the adjoining DeFrancis property had led operators to believe.

The Henderson corporation acquired the Susana lease a short time after the Shell leased the Manuel tract, figuring that there was room for at least one well, and possibly two or three in the northwest corner. Good oil sands were found in the well, but water sands were so close that it was never possible to get production, although J. W. Henderson, president and general manager of the corporation, and one of the best known operators in the State, re- The Dominguez No. 7 well was subjected to every method known to the industry to solve the problem. A deep test on the south side of the field and went to 6300 feet without success.

[illegible] Report

Oil field operations reported to State Oil and Gas Supervisor R. D. Bush during the week ending November 28, show twenty-three new wells started, the same number as during the previous week. Of the twenty-three notices to drill filed this week, eight were for wells in the Long Beach field, one each in the Torrance, Montebello, Inglewood and Huntington Beach fields, one in Orange county, one in Los Angeles county, two in the Ventura field, six in the fields of Kern county, and one in the Coalinga field. The total new wells this year is 1239, as compared with 1073 at the same date last year.

Tests for water shut-off numbered nine, as compared with thirteen during the previous week. Yearly total to date, 1315; total to same date last year, 1476.

Deepening or redrilling jobs numbered seven, as compared with eighteen during the previous week. Total to date this year, 872; total to same date last year 787.

Abandonments this week numbered six as compared with seven during the preceding week. Total to date this year, 403; total to same date last year, 444.

SURVEYOR'S OFFICE PAYS

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

BUSINESS PHILOSOPHY

BY WILLIAM FEATHER

IN THE discussions of rates of exchange, balances of trade and shipping rules we may overlook the most important factor in connection with our foreign trade.

This is the matter of honesty.

In its elements, foreign trade is just as simple as corner grocery store trade, and the principles which succeed in one will succeed in the other.

Honest goods, honestly made, honestly labeled, honestly represented, and honestly priced, will assure for this country a profitable and permanent business with our friends and neighbors to the east, west, north and south.

WALL STREET PARAGRAPHS

Prices Higher as Market Shows Some of Old-Time Energy

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

[Copyright, 1925, New York Evening Post, Inc.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Wall street today recovered some of its old-time energy, which was made apparent in the security list on the stock exchange. Prices forced up their heads into higher levels, although in the midst of rather general strength, there were occasions of weakness, none of which, however, had the appearance of unusual significance. Industrials continued to lead with specialties rather than group movements in the foreground. Although without details of what went on behind closed doors, the street assumed that the gathering of railway executives would bring favorable results in its wake, but the carriers generally failed to register anything of importance in the market. The long-awaited action took place of Willys-Overland directors on arrears in preferred dividends, and the decision to meet it in common shares was what the street had anticipated. Expansion in merchandising fields was noted in the acquisition of a going Pittsburgh concern by Gimbel Brothers, the gross of which concern was pictured as exceeding all others in the department-store business. Further price adjustments—still on an upward scale—developed in the petroleum industry, thereby giving greater ground work for the street's theories bearing on the entire oil situation. If fears were entertained toward the discount rate they were withheld from expression in the stock market, although it was realized that a Thursday-morning attitude might alter somewhat in overnight reflection.

Out of the Smoke

From houses with Pittsburgh connections, it was learned that Kaufman & Baer of that city was to become a link in the department-store chain of Gimbel Brothers. Through this acquisition, the lead of this concern was to be further strengthened, as estimates were to the effect that with the added volume of business, annual gross, at current rates, should reach beyond $120,000,000. Holiday sales of the system were understood to be expanding, with substantial gains over a year ago likely to be spread on the corporation's records. Just how the purchase would be financed was not definitely known outside official circles, but indications were there would be no new securities offered. With its three stores in Manhattan, two operating under the Saks name, Gimbel stood ready to handle upper Fifth-avenue requirements, as well as those of Broadway and Sixth avenue, while its out-of-town locations were favorably considered for further expansion as business demanded.

The Silly Season

Just why Woolworth shares above 200 should prove attractive was as much a mystery today as ever. Paying $8 dividends, the return was figured to be less than 1 1-2 per cent on the current market price, which was far too low for consideration as an investment. So far as could be learned in banking circles, there was no immediate prospect of any change in the rate, nor was it thought likely that a melon quietly was ripening. With record earnings, all of which represented cash sales, the street recognized the strength of the company's financial position and its brilliant future, all of which had, however, been overdiscounted on the tape.

Still in Limelight

Many inquiries were heard in regard to a December meeting of the Hudson Motor Board, which, but lately had taken dividend action on the stock. Disappointment then was felt as the $3 rate was continued, notwithstanding a treasury position which could have been more liberal. Figuring in stock market discussion for a time, the possibility of a 50 per cent stock dividend appeared to have faded from sight, but today arose the suggestion of a $10 extra cash payment before the holidays.

Penalty of Shorts

Indications were at hand of a sizeable short interest in United Cigar Stores common, which commanded a premium in the loan crowd. Rights to subscribe to new stock were admitted to floor trading and were actively turned over during the day.

For the New Year

Where opportunity for study had been granted, no small degree of optimism had arisen toward the United States Rubber Company, which for the current year was expected to show earnings approximating $20 a share on the common stock. In their early exuberance market friends of the company had predicted dividend resumption on the junior stock before the end of the year, but it was a more conservative judgment of the day that such a step would now hold over for 1926 maturity.

Gathering of Clan

Eyes were turned toward the Yale Club where eastern railroad executives were in session for the greater part of the day. That the approaching session of Congress was to consider railroad matters of the utmost importance, was a foregone conclusion; the views of the administration already were known through reiterated statements from the White House, and the street assumed that the forthcoming President's message would further dwell upon the subject the coming week.

The Clearinghouse

News of Spring Street

What is believed to be a new record in industrial financing on the Pacific Coast has just been established in the marketing of the issue of 100,000 shares of Class A stock of the Superior Portland Cement, Inc., at $45 a share, amounting to $500,000. This was absorbed exclusively by Pacific Coast dealers, about seventy of whom participated.

The issue was first offered to the public at 9 o'clock on the morning of the 1st inst., and the books of the selling syndicate were closed two hours later with the issue heavily oversubscribed. The large number of dealers interested insured wide distribution and this in turn indicates that a strong market will be established.

C. L. Wagner, general superintendent of the Superior Portland Cement, Inc., whose services have been sought by large eastern companies, will remain in his present position, according to an announcement made yesterday by the syndicate management of Bond & Goodwin & Tucker, Inc.

Returns from North

On his return from a tour of Minnesota, North Dakota and Montana, J. J. Feckler, assistant vice-president of the Security Trust and Savings Bank, made public some interesting first-hand information regarding the Northwest.

"These States harvested a splendid grain crop. Based on average prices at the principal markets, North Dakota leads the hard-wheat States with a grain crop worth $282,000,000, with Minnesota a close second with $272,000,000 and South Dakota third with $167,000,000. Most significant of the improved conditions in North Dakota are the figures furnished by the State Dairy Commission, showing increase of butter fat from 12,718,509 pounds in 1919 to 21,269,000 pounds in 1925," says Mr. Feckler.

Mailing List Wanted

The All-Year Club of Southern California is desirous of obtaining the names of residents throughout the country who might be interested in the possibilities of this section, that the new booklet of the organization might be mailed to them. In this connection, William C. Garner, secretary, said:

"Frank C. Mortimer, vice-president of the Citizens' National Bank, has given us the names of twenty-eight prominent men throughout the United States, chiefly bankers, to whom he wished the new booklet sent. We sent it with his compliments. We wish others would furnish us with a list."

When names are sent to the All-Year Club of Southern California, Chamber of Commerce Building, the book and a personal letter are sent to the address given, the letter stating by whose request the book is forwarded.

Company Incorporates

The business and kilns of Byers Tile Company have been incorporated under the name of Byers Clay Products, Inc., according to an announcement made by the company at Santa Monica yesterday.

Dividends Announced

The Associated Oil Company has declared its forty-seventh quarterly dividend, amounting to 50 cents a share, payable January 25 to stockholders of record on the 31st inst. The stock sells ex-dividend in Los Angeles on the 30th inst.

ARCHITECTS EN ROUTE

Arrive in Vancouver on Way to Session in Los Angeles

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

VANCOUVER, Dec. 2.—The president and directors of the American Institute of Architects passed through Vancouver today from Chicago and will leave on the morning boat for the south.

Members of the party were D. Everett Wald, president, New York City; Abram Garfield, vice-president of Cleveland, O., and a son of the late President Garfield; Prof. Goldwin Goldsmith, Lawrence, Kan., head of the architectural department of Kansas State University; E. C. Kemper, executive secretary, Washington, D. C.; Ellis Jackson, Providence, R. I.; C. C. Zantzinger, Philadelphia, and William H. Sayward of Philadelphia.

The party will attend a regional conference of architects at Seattle, Portland and San Francisco en route to Los Angeles where the annual meeting of the institute's board of directors will be conducted on the 10th inst.

BETTER QUALITY BUT FEWER HORSES NOW

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Horses are decreasing in number, but there is a decided trend for beter quality in breeds. This fact was brought out in addresses at the annual meeting of the Horse Association of America here today. "People are surprisingly particular about the color of their horses and demanding a lot of flash," Harry McNair of the Union Stock Yards of Chicago declared. "Three-gaited and five-gaited saddle horses, polo mounts and hunters, all with good disposition, temperament and stamina, are particularly sought."

PARENT-TEACHER BODY HITS VILE MAGAZINES

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—A delegation of mothers, representing the California Parent-Teacher Association filed a protest against the widespread circulation of salacious magazines with U. S. Atty. Hatfield today. "Indecent publications" were criticised as being "ruinous to the morals of present-day youth," and the mothers urged that they be denied the use of the mails.

OVERSEAS BODY OF WOMEN BUSY

Washington Unit Publishes Army Pamphlet

Operations of Government Bureaus Explained

League Organized in 1921 Has Fifty Chapters

BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The Washington Unit of the Women's Overseas Service League has recently published the first of a series of pamphlets it plans to issue. This first is entitled "Do You Know These Facts Concerning the United States Army?" It is issued as an aid to persons wishing to familiarize themselves with the activities of the Army and what its various branches are doing for the benefit of the country.

The president of the Washington Unit says that the idea of publishing a series of pamphlets containing information concerning the work of the individual branches of the Federal government was the result of the realization that so many people were laboring under a misapprehension of just what the government does for the citizen.

As she puts it, "It is amazing the number of intelligent, even brilliant, women who know practically nothing of how the government functions." She, therefore, felt that it was the patriotic duty of the unit to answer accurately the many questions asked and to refute the many mis-statements which have been made regarding the government.

LEAGUE FORMED

The Women's Overseas Service League is composed of women who during the World War served overseas in various capacities. At the close of the war these women gradually returned home and naturally felt a strong comradeship for those who had also seen overseas service. They desired to perpetuate this comradeship which had been formed upon similar experiences, and also they desired to find some outlet for the capacity and eagerness for service which was developed overseas. Consequently the League was organized in 1921, and has since become nation-wide, there now being fifty units.

Eligibility for membership consists in having served the cause of the Allies overseas between August 1, 1914 and January 1, 1920, either individually or through the medium of some organization. The membership is composed of nurses, physicians, social workers, entertainers, dietitians, librarians, chauffeurs, nurses' aids, reporters, canteen and hut workers, and many others.

These members represent such organizations as the Army, the Red Cross of this and other countries, Y.M.C.A., the National Catholic Welfare Council, Society of Friends, Jewish Welfare Board, Knights of Columbus, and the Salvation Army. They served in many sections, some in France, others in Belgium, England, Serbia, Russia, Italy, and the Balkans.

Many of the women in this League have been decorated by foreign governments for their aid to the civilian population which suffered so extremely from the horrors of war. There are also those who received decorations for bravery displayed under enemy fire. Many who would have been eligible to membership made the supreme sacrifice.

While many of these women could tell of many thrills and many horrors during their foreign service, it is said that surprisingly little reminiscence is indulged in. This seems to be true of every one who served in the recent war. Perhaps it is because the horrors were greater, or because it is still too close, but one does not hear the many tales such as those with which the veterans of the Civil War used to enthrall young listeners.

PEACE TIME WORK

The peacetime work of the members of the league, while not so inspiring perhaps, is in its way of equal importance. They endeavor to carry out to the fullest measure the purpose of the League, which is "to keep alive and develop the spirit that prompted overseas service, to maintain the ties of comradeship born of that service and to assist and further any patriotic work; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, State and nation; to work for the welfare of the Army and Navy; to assist in any way in their power men and women who served and were wounded or incapacitated in the World War; to foster and promote friendship and understanding between America and the Allies in the World War."

Northwest to Have New York Industry Show

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

PORTLAND (Or.) Dec. 2.—In the past individual communities of the Pacific Northwest have carried on campaigns to advertise their resources and opportunities. State organizations have conducted land settlement drives. Chambers of Commerce and commercial clubs have sponsored movements to attract capital for land development and industrial projects. The transcontinental railroads have spent large sums in the same direction.

As a means of carrying on this work on more of a co-operative basis, the industrial, commercial and financial leaders of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana have worked out plans for holding a Pacific Northwest Commercial and Industrial exposition in the new Madison Square Garden in New York early next spring. Supplementary to this movement, the railroads are understood to be making more extensive plans than ever for advertising this section next year.

GAS TANK COMPLETED

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

PHOENIX, Dec. 2.—About 800,000 cubic feet of gas storage has been added by the Central Arizona Light and Power Company through completion of a spherical steel tank placed in the northern part of the city. It is designed especially to equalize pressure in time of heavy use. The tank, the first of its kind ever erected and called the "Hortonsphere," cost $60,000 and contains 480,000 pounds of metal.

CHURCHMEN DIFFER OVER WAR STAND

Disparity of Opinion Comes to Light in Conference on Conflict Attitude

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Seeking an adequate definition for the attitude of the churches toward war, the National Conference on the Churches and World Peace today found differences of opinion developing in its study groups.

One of these groups, working on details to be considered by the conference, went on record as opposed to further extension of present military plans of the United States, especially with reference to military training in high schools, land grant colleges and universities, which, it held, should be purely voluntary. This resolution was passed on to the finding committee of the conference for further disposition.

Bishop Henry A. Atkinson of New York asserted that regardless of what stand the churches took on war, 95 per cent of Americans would rush to the colors in the next war. Another group agreed that the churches would support equally the conscientious objector and the war-time fighting man, and passed a resolution to this effect along to the finding committee.

CONTRACTOR DROPS DEAD

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

REDDING, Dec. 2.—Frank McGorvin dropped dead in the Elk Club rooms here tonight. A heart attack is believed to have caused his death. He was a former resident of Sacramento, where he is survived by a daughter. He leaves a son who lives here.

Mexicans Tell of Unfairness of Cotton Men

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) Dec. 2.—Mexicans who left early in the fall to pick cotton in Mississippi, have registered complaints with the Mexican Consul General here that they have been unfairly dealt with and are left in a destitute condition, according to Consul Servando Barrera Guerra. The Mexican Consul at New Orleans is investigating the matter.

The laborers were promised pay at the rate of $1.25 per hundred pounds of cotton picked with rooms and meals free, according to Guerra. They now charge that that this contract has not been carried out. They were also promised free tickets back to San Antonio, and complain that these are being withheld. The Mexicans are now out of work, with nothing to live on and no way to get back to their homes, he stated.

About 5000 Mexicans were taken to Mississippi, approximately 1500 of whom were from San Antonio and vicinity.

ANGELENO ENDS LIFE

Body of J. Hines Found in Gas-Filled San Francisco Room

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—A man known only as J. Hines, 55 years of age, of Los Angeles, committed suicide today in his apartment at 259 Seventh street by turning on the gas.

He was found lying fully dressed on the bed with a newspaper in his hand which he had been reading when overcome. Timothy Coyne, manager of the apartments, found the body and notified the police.

A note was found addressed by Hines to his wife in which he said that he was ill and out of work and knew no other way out of his dilemma. He came to the apartment-house three weeks ago.

UNIVERSITY TO GET NEW TELESCOPE

Father Ricard Approves Plans for Apparatus at Santa Clara School

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Plans for a reflecting telescope, one of the largest in the world, and a five-foot spectroheliograph, to be installed in the observatory of the University of Santa Clara, were approved today by Father Ricard, director of the observatory.

The telescope will be built by T. S. H. Shearman, official meteorologist, and astronomer for the city of Vancouver, B. C. The casting of the speculum and the rough grinding will be done at Vancouver, and the finishing and the construction of the huge mountings will be done at San Francisco. H. C. Williams of San Francisco is to build the spectroheliograph that is expected to afford a more thorough study of the sun than hitherto has been possible.

MAKE SHIPPING RECORD

Great Lakes Close Best Year for Total Tonnage

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—The greatest season in the history of shipping on the Great Lakes has just closed, with a total tonnage of around 98,000,000, due largely to better conditions in the steel industry, which caused a record total of iron-ore shipments.

The year included a slight expansion in deep-sea shipping, although the Welland Canal, entrance to the Great Lakes, west of Ontario, is limited to vessels drawing thirteen feet.

Similar Names for Concerns Ruled Invalid

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Companies of the same or similar names may not be organized in California, in the opinion of Atty.-Gen. Webb. The only difference between the names of a Los Angeles organization and a similar one in Long Beach was the word "and" in the case of one name and a dash in the other.

Although a permit was issued by the Secretary of State's department to the California Building and Loan Association of Long Beach, the name of California Building-Loan Association was chosen first by a Los Angeles organization.

The concern that was second in the choice of names may be required to make a change even though a permit was granted by the Secretary of State, the Attorney-General ruled.

SMELL SENSE BARRED IN LIQUOR SEIZURES

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—A sense of smell is no justification for illegal search and seizure, according to the latest ruling of United States Commissioner Glass, who has ordered the return of the alcohol taken by Federal enforcement officers from the J. B. Scheur warehouse here. Incidentally the ruling will result in the suppression of evidence against the company in the form of the much-touted "little black book" and the sealed safe which was hauled to the Federal Building. The book, purporting to supply the key to the bootleggers' "Who's Who" in Chicago, was regarded as an important seizure by the dry forces under Lincoln C. Andrews.

Mr. B. A. Squire, Vice-President, International Projector Corporation, has summarized his letter of November 24, 1925, to us as follows:

Organization: International Projector Corporation is incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware and has acquired or will acquire immediately the entire business and assets of the Nicholas Power Company, Inc., and The Precision Machine Company, Inc., both located in the City of New York, and the Acme Motion Picture Projector Company, located in the City of Chicago, all leading manufacturers and distributors of motion picture projector machines, accessories and other machines pertaining to this industry. These corporations have been active in the industry since 1907, 1913, 1916, respectively.

Business: The Power, Simplex and Acme Motion Picture Projector machines, which are manufactured in the respective plants of the Corporation are the most widely known in the industry. These machines are sold in every part of the world. The principal business of the Corporation is the manufacture of Motion Picture Projecting Machines and accessories for theatres, schools, churches, lodges and industries. There is a steady and substantial revenue from spare parts and repairs. There are approximately 19,000 Motion Picture Theatres in the United States alone, and the average number of machines per theatre is 2.9. Most of the best known theatres in the larger cities use 4 or 5 machines. The Corporation supplies a large part of the Motion Picture Projector Machines used in the theatrical field, and the number of machines sold to schools for the showing of educational film is constantly increasing.

Assets: The net assets of the International Projector Corporation, exclusive of good-will, as appraised by Mr. William D. Pence, Consulting Engineer, formerly chief engineer of the Interstate Commerce Commission, together with the equity in real estate and buildings as appraised by Mr. B. K. Read of New York and Chicago, are in excess of $4,700,000, or about $188 per share of Preferred Stock issued. Nicholas Power Company, Inc., The Precision Machine Company, Inc., and Acme Motion Picture Projector Company are well known in the industry and have built up a valuable good-will, which has been acquired by the International Projector Corporation. This good-will is carried on the books at the nominal figure of one dollar.

Earnings: The combined earnings of the Nicholas Power Company, Inc., The Precision Machine Company, Inc., and the Acme Motion Picture Projector Company, all the assets and good-will of which have been acquired by the International Projector Corporation, have been as follows:

Properties: The business formerly carried on by Nicholas Power Company, Inc., and The Precision Machine Company, Inc., will hereafter be conducted in a ten-story fireproof building, situated at No. 90 Gold Street, New York City. This building, and the land on which it is located, are owned by the Cinema Building Corporation, all of whose stock is owned by International Projector Corporation. This building, and the land on which it is located, are independently appraised at $860,000, and are encumbered with mortgage of only $475,000.

The business formerly carried on by the Acme Motion Picture Projector Company will hereafter be conducted in a building at No. 1134 West Austin Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, owned by the International Projector Corporation.

General: The Motion Picture industry has developed during the last ten years to the fifth largest industry in the United States, and with the continued improvement in the quality of theatrical and educational film, the projection apparatus for showing this film has become of major importance. At the present time about 50,000 machines are in use in theatres. Approximately 20,000 schools have adopted Visual Education taught by the use of educational film necessitating the use of projector machines. This use is constantly increasing by reason of the persistent effort of progressive educators, who are securing more and better educational film each year. The Simplex, Power and Acme machines are the leaders in this industry and are now manufactured and sold by the International Projector Corporation.

The information contained herein, while not guaranteed, has been obtained from sources which we believe to be reliable.

STUFFING

One used to say, in Eighty Eight,
"Eat Everything Upon Your Plate!"
But nowadays it's rude indeed
To eat more than you really need.
Better to stop when you've enough
Than be a Goop, and stuff and stuff!

PARK COMMISSION'S REPORT WINS FAVOR

PRESIDENT'S COMMITTEE TO APPROVE BOUNDARY CLASH SOLUTION

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2. — The President's committee on recreation headed by Secretary of War Davis tentatively approved today the report of the special commission headed by Representative Temple of Pennsylvania, which made an exhaustive study of national park and forest reservations with a view to co-ordinating these activities and determining disputed boundary questions between the two departments.

In the absence of Secretaries Work and Jardine, approval by the other commission members of various proposals was given subject to acquiescence of these two members. The Temple commission report will not be made public until final action is taken.

It is understood there is little opposition to the recommendations unanimously adopted by the commission except as to the enlargement of one of the existing national parks in the West. Local opposition in that case has developed which may delay final action.

HELD FOR TRIAL ON LIQUOR CHARGE

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

ONTARIO, Dec. 2. — Dwight M. Easton, arrested several days ago on a charge of illegal liquor sales following a raid on his house, 747 East F street, was held to answer to the Superior Court this afternoon following his preliminary examination before Judge George R. Crane. Testifying against the asserted bootlegger were H. C. Griffin, who claimed to have purchased a bottle of gin from Easton and J. D. Orendorff, special prohibition enforcement officer, who was assisted by Deputy Sheriff J. A. Larson in making the arrest.

Dep. Dist.-Atty. C. O. Thompson appeared to prosecute the case. Easton was represented by Attorney Archie D. Mitchell. In lieu of $1500 bail, he was ordered held in jail to await trial.

COURT REVOKES CHARTER OF SPIRITUALISTS HERE

Action Instituted by 'Times' Strikes at Fake Cults, Pseudo Churches and Sets State Precedent

Establishing a legal precedent for the State supervision and control of so-called nonprofit organizations operating under California statutes, Judge Doran of the Superior Court yesterday revoked the charter of the National Independent Spiritualist Association, 514 Lankershim Building, Los Angeles, international headquarters of independent spiritualists.

The revocation came as a result of quo warranto proceedings filed by Atty.-Gen. Webb, City Prosecutor Friedlander and their staffs, following a sweeping investigation of the activities of fraudulent spiritualists by The Times.

The immediate result of the order is to pave the way for similar proceedings against 212 other like organizations in the State, and to annul the subordinate charters of more than 2000 so-called churches, the ordination certificates of more than 1000 so-called 'ministers and healers, and the membership cards of more than 65,000 dupes of the association throughout the country.

William A. Jackson, president of the association; Lois Jackson, his wife and its secretary, and one of its directors, were convicted some time ago before Police Judge Pope on several charges of criminal conspiracy to evade the provisions of regulatory city ordinances. Of the three, Jackson appealed his individual conviction, the appeal now being under submission in Superior Court.

Investigation of the association's activities by The Times followed the arrests in 1924 of Dr. Michael Angelo Crespo and other ordained ministers of the N. I. S. A. on charges ranging from supplying overnight divorces to obtaining money under false pretenses.

POLICE POWERLESS

At that time the City Prosecutor and the Los Angeles police department were powerless to curb the activities of fortune tellers, clairvoyants and the like because the soothsaying trade had universally taken advantage of a provision in city ordinances which absolved from prosecution any bona fide holder of a certificate of ministerial ordination in any bona fide church organization—and had, for the most part, possessed themselves of certificates from the N. I. S. A. which was then operating under a California State charter.

During the progress of the investigation, Charles Sloan of The Times staff, posing as "Dr. Chamberlin Snow of Chicago," a clever [illegible] desirous of pursuing his sub-rosa activities in Los Angeles, was ordained a minister of the gospel by the officers and directors of the association for the sum of $115, all negotiations for the certificate being conducted with President Jackson and in the presence of his wife and Miss Rose Gardner of The Times.

The ordination certificate was issued on November 6, 1924. On the following day, complaints of criminal conspiracy and other charges against the officers and directors of the association and violation of city ordinances against forty-six clairvoyants, seers and spiritualist mediums were issued by Prosecutor Friedlander. TRIO NEARLY DROWNED AS CAR UPSETS

Closed Sedan Hurled from Bridge in Crash Lands in Venice Canal Upside Down

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

VENICE, Dec. 2.—Huddled in the interior of their small sedan which rested on its top in four feet of water, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Raymond and their 6-year-old son Raymond Jr., were saved from drowning in the Aldebaran Canal by the quick action of three rescuers tonight.

Police are looking for the driver of a large car which knocked the Raymond machine from the bridge spanning the canal at Riviera avenue and then sped away. The sedan was shoved over the cement guard and fell twelve feet into the canal.

The Raymonds were saved from drowning because all the windows of the sedan were closed, preventing the water from flooding in. The three remained penned in the machine for more than four minutes.

C. W. Rogers of 259 Aldebaran Canal and two other men hurried to the scene and broke in the windows and extricated the Raymonds.

Raymond, still clutching the wheel, sustained a broken nose and bruises. The child was removed in a semiconscious condition, caused by water he had inhaled, and also had suffered lacerations on the neck. Raymond and the boy were taken to St. Catherine's Hospital. Mrs. Raymond, who escaped with minor injuries, was able to go to her home at 354 Sixth avenue, Venice.

OFFICIAL OF MEXICO TO SPEAK TODAY

Moises Saenz to Talk on International Relations at Hotel Clark Luncheon

Senor Moises Saenz, Under-secretary of Public Instruction of Mexico, will speak at a special luncheon at noon today at the Hotel Clark under the auspices of the Council on International Relations. The address will be the first of a series he is to give this week.

Mexico is making rapid strides along educational lines, Senor Saenz says, and his addresses will deal with matters pertaining to education development and international relations between his country and the United States. He was graduated with high honors from Washington and Jefferson College and took a post graduate course at Columbia. His rise in the educational field since his return to Mexico has attracted attention.

RAIL BODY ENDS PHONE INQUIRY

Question of Higher Rates in Commission's Hands

Decision This Month Likely on Business Issue

Chamber and Bledsoe Offer Pleas Against Plan

The question of whether Los Angeles telephone subscribers must continue to pay the present higher rates and whether many business subscribers must pay considerably higher rates after January 1, now rests in the hands of the State Railroad Commission. That body concluded yesterday the investigation it has been conducting into rates which it authorized the Southern California Telephone Company to charge.

Although the commission made no announcement, it is understood that it will endeavor to announce its decision this month inasmuch as one class of rate particularly complained of will go into effect January 1, unless it accepts the suggestion of Benjamin F. Bledsoe, attorney for the Retail Dry Goods Association. He proposed that the commission postpone the January 1 effective dates until it has opportunity to examine the November and December finances of the company. The suggestion was received without comment by the commission.

MORE STUDY URGED

"The equitableness of the system of business telephone rates which the commission has set up is open to grave question and the present spread of rates should be given further careful study before compulsory measured business service is made effective January 1," Robert D. Sangster, manager of the industrial division of the Chamber of Commerce, submitted to the commission on behalf of the chamber's board of directors. "A readjustment can be made with justice to the company and its patrons and in such a manner as will not hamper business and industrial interests in relation to telephone costs."

The board of directors of the chamber submitted an exhibit showing sixteen groups of business subscribers, numbering individually some 500 businesses, and showing how enormously some of the monthly bills of these firms will be increased if the commission's order, directing all business telephones to go on metered rates January 1, goes into effect.

EXAMPLE GIVEN

The exhibit showed that a group of Associated General Contractors whose September bill was $771 would have had to pay $1735.76 for the same service if the January 1 rates had been in effect then. Similarly a group of members of the Downtown Business Men's Association paid $5232, and would have paid $7859, increase 50 per cent; Plumbing Credit Association paid $2157, would have paid $2825, increase 31 per cent; Realty Board, 89 per cent; Restaurant Association, 84 per cent; Master Printers' Association, 33 per cent; Metal Trades' Association, 20 per cent; Music Trades' Association, 35 per cent; Radio Trades Association, 20 per cent; Southern California Credit Association, 96 per cent; Vernon Southeastern Industries Association, 91 per cent; Southern California Milk Dealers' Association, an 8.6 per cent decrease.

Bledsoe protested to the commission that the measured service rates proposed for compulsory payment January 1 are "unjust, unfair, inequitable and discriminatory."

INCREASES SHOWN

He showed how the commission had increased one-party residence subscribers' rates 26 per cent; two-party residence, 16 per cent, and then offered typical examples of what the new measured service would do to his clients. He said that in September Barker Brothers paid a bill of $1047.97, and that if the new service had been com-

ANYTHING WRONG? I'LL SAY NOT!

Actress-Countess Joyous on Arrival

Peggy Hopkins Joyce (Countess Morner)

THE Countess comes! Peggy Hopkins Joyce — Countess Morner for two solid years now—stepped off the train yesterday afternoon on her arrival here direct from Paris. The sun was shining and she smiled the famous Peggy smile, for she has been having a terrific cold—Oh, a terrible cold!

"Hot stuff!" said Peggy, not the Countess. She said the same thing when asked if she had patched up her troubles with the Count. "Did not know there had been any troubles," she declared. "People just think there might be and they guess. No troubles at all—everything is hot stuff."

Direct from Paris with Peggy came the loveliest finch fur coat, and in it she looked every inch a Countess. The top piece was a close-fitting little black hat with perhaps some trimmings on it. But Peggy doesn't need any trimmings. Her blue eyes and her smile won all the attention.

Peggy is here to be shot, not for heart-breaking, but in the films. Down at the Santa Fe to meet her were P. A. Powers, under whose production banner Peggy will sail; Erich Von Stroheim, who may be her director in a picture or two—Peggy having quite a bit to say about these things herself; E. Offeman, West Coast representative of the P. A. Powers Productions; and Ben Westland, business manager for Von Stroheim. All their wives came with them to make the reception seem more—well, sort of homey.

The first story that will be submitted for Peggy's approval, according to Powers, has been written especially for her by Cosmo Hamilton, to be released under the Associated Exhibitors' banner.

There may be one picture, there may be four. Who knows? Peggy hasn't had time to decide. She just arrived. To date she has finished one picture, not yet released, under title of "The Skyrocket," written by Adela Rogers St. Johns and directed by Marshall Neilan.

At the station, waiting for the train stood Jackie Coogan, all dressed up like—well, just as any of us would like to dress to go down to meet Peggy. But Jackie told the reporter he was there to greet his father, coming from New York with Marcus Loew and Lee Shubert. Jackie admitted to the reporter that he was darned glad Peggy was coming, but he was all keyed up over seeing his dad again. His mother was there with him, and bore out this statement.

GOVERNOR TO NAME JUDGES

Eighteen Appointments to New Municipal Courts Here to Follow Supreme Court Decision

Eighteen appointments to the new Municipal Court in Los Angeles, which will be established February 1, 1926, are to be made by Gov. Richardson as the result of the State Supreme Court decision upholding the legality of the provisions of the constitutional amendment adopted by the last Legislature establishing municipal courts in various cities.

Police Court judges, if properly qualified, become Municipal Court judges. Justices of the peace of Los Angeles township, however, will retain their present offices to serve those portions of the township outside the corporate limits of the city. It had been expected in some quarters that these justices of the peace, of whom there are nine in Los Angeles, would be transferred to the new Municipal Court in the same manner as police judges.

JUDGE DISQUALIFIED

There will be twenty-four judges of the new Municipal Court in Los Angeles. Of seven Police Court judges, six will go on the new court. The exception is Police Judge Cyril Sheldon. He is disqualified, according to the records, for taking his place on the new court by the fact that the Supreme Court decision upheld the Municipal Court regulation that judges must have been admitted to the practice of law in the State at least five years before the date of taking office, and must be electors of the community.

Sheldon, it is said, was admitted to practice March 13, 1922.

Justices of the peace are eligible to appointment to the Municipal Court bench if properly qualified. Justice Joseph Marchetti who was the subject of a test case, will not be eligible to appointment, as he will be about two months short of the required five years' practice on February 1. He will continue as justice of the peace for that portion of his territory outside the corporate limits of the city.

APPLICANTS REDUCED

Gov. Richardson is now in Southern California, having come to Los Angeles yesterday. Applications for the position of Municipal Court judges, which carry a salary of $6000 a year, originally numbered 160. This number has been reduced, by withdrawals and disqualifications, to 111 for the eighteen positions open in Los Angeles.

The following list of attorneys who have made application for or have been suggested for appointment as judges of the municipal

VENICE MAY BE DANCE ZONE

Ordinance Can Legalize Amusement on Sunday, Says Opinion of City Attorney

The City Council may legalize Sunday dancing at Venice by creating by ordinance an amusement zone, according to the opinion rendered yesterday by City Attorney Stephens.

The legal opinion will be referred to the Council for action this morning.

The opinion, in brief, states that the Council may enact valid legislation permitting a departure from the general prohibition if it deems fit.

The paragraph containing the subject matter of the report is as follows:

"It is, therefore, my opinion that if your Honorable Body determines that the proper safe-guarding of the public peace, health, safety or morals requires the prohibition of public dancing on Sunday, but that the necessities of the situation do not require complete prohibition and will be met by something less, and if, in that connection, you determine that the exemption of a limited amusement center at the seashore within the former city of Venice is a justifiable departure from such general prohibition, then such exemption is valid and will be sustained by the courts."

The opinion was asked of City Attorney Stephens by the Council following the request of the Venice Amusement Men's Association for an amusement zone.

Venice, until its consolidation with Los Angeles, enjoyed Sunday dancing, and was one of the leading beach resorts of Southern California, but last Sunday, for the first time in many years, dancing ceased.

MINNESOTANS TO MEET

CITY P.T.A. WILL CELEBRATE DAY

First Formal Observance in Ten Years

More Than 35,000 Members Will Take Part

Association Result of Club Founded in '80s

More than 35,000 members of the Parent-Teacher Association today will recognize Parent-Teacher Day in Los Angeles, the first time the work of the association has been formally celebrated since 1915. One hundred and seventy-one units of the organization will participate in exercises in Belmont High School, First and Belmont streets, from 10 a.m. today, until late in the afternoon.

Mrs. F. O. McCullough, president of the Los Angeles Federation of the Parent-Teacher Association, will preside over the program of the day, which will be opened by Rev. James A. Francis and Rev. Bob Schuler. The principal address scheduled on the program will be delivered by Mrs. Susan M. Dorsey, city superintendent of schools. Music will be furnished by the Belmont High School orchestra and the Mothers' Glee Club of the Humphreys-avenue school.

Much of the program will be given over to an exposition of the progress and development of the Parent-Teacher Association since its organization twenty-six years ago. This development will be traced in detail by the directors of the various departments and committees of the association.

The Parent-Teacher Association was created as the result of efforts in founding mothers' clubs in the '80s and early '90s by Miss Mary F. Ledyard, then city supervisor of kindergartens. These clubs proved so successful that on May 8, 1900, Miss Ledyard called a mass meeting of the mothers' clubs of Los Angeles, and with Prof. James A. Foshay, city superintendent of schools, presiding, the Los Angeles Parent-Teacher Federation came into existence under the name of the Los Angeles Federation of Mothers' Clubs.

In 1902 the federation voted to join the National Congress of Parent and Teacher. On the advice of that body the local organization became the State Congress and at the present time is functioning under the name of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers. Throughout the State the many parent-teacher associations work as units of this congress.

Mrs. Dorsey paid the following tribute yesterday to the Parent-Teacher Association:

"A long line of varied service to the school children of Los Angeles marks the history of the Parent-Teacher Federation, and never were its ministrations more beneficent and bounteous than at the present time.

"In the last eleven years of its activities there are to its credit the starting of the cafetery in the elementery schools (under the name of penny kitchens,) of the day nursery for children of preschool age, and, greatest achievement of all, the securing of the Yale Clinic. In more recent years those activities which stand out as especially indicative of the spirit and accomplishments of this organization, are the raising of a milk and food fund, amounting to thousands of dollars each year, which fund provides for hungry school children and the securing of scholarships for students who, without this help, would be forced to leave school and enter upon some sort of work to help support the family.

"From a small beginning the work of the Parent-Teacher Federation has grown to amazing proportions, embracing many departments, each of which is bent upon some form of beneficent service to childhood.

"All honor and success to the Parent-Teacher Federation!"

FIRST WOMAN ON 'Y' STUDENT COUNCIL

[Keystone Photo]

Miss Elmere Lewis

Elected unanimously by her fellow students, Miss Elmere Lewis is the first woman to be made a member of the student council of the Y. M. C. A. schools, it was announced yesterday. She is the only woman on the student governing body of a Y. M. C. A. on the Pacific Coast, being named for the honor at a recent meeting of students at the Women's Athletic Club.

Miss Lewis, who is specializing in public speaking and memory training, received her earlier education in Leipzig and also studied later in St. Louis.

NEW SCHOOL SOUGHT FOR LOS ANGELES

Fundamentalists Plan to Have Institution Which Will Cost $1,500,000

Fundamentalism as opposed to modernism in the realm of religion will have its innings in Los Angeles if the plans of President F. H. Ross of the University of Los Angeles to build a new college here are brought to completion.

A meeting to discuss the campaign for the erection of the proposed new school, to cost nearly $1,500,000 will be conducted at Trinity Methodist Church tomorrow evening, beginning with a supper at 6:30 o'clock. Fundamentalists of all denominations are invited. Among the speakers will be Revs. Fred H. Ross, Frank Stevens, H. Clay Needham, M. M. Horton, R. Zurbuchen and E. E. Taylor.

The University of Los Angeles was incorporated six years ago and, according to articles of incorporation, must always be maintained as an interdenominational institution. General courses in college work are planned and post-graduate work leading to the M. A. degree.

The first unit of the university is now being operated at 841 Harvard Boulevard. The plant is known as the California College and is valued at about $130,000. This college has been in existence for fifteen years, but last year the property was turned over to the University of Los Angeles, under which organization the school is now operated. Two other schools, the College of Bible Training at Huntington Park and the Free Methodist Junior College at Herman, are affiliated with the University of Los Angeles.

According to Mr. Taylor, director of the expansion campaign, characteristics of the University of Los Angeles are that it is "thoroughly Christian, pledged to the fundamentals and scriptural holiness; each recitation being opened with prayer and with Bible study required of each pupil."

DAM PROJECT IRONED OUT

San Gabriel Canyon Issue Nears Settlement When County Assures Pasadena of Water

The differences between Pasadena and the County Flood Control district, which threatened to delay the building of the San Gabriel Canyon dam, were ironed out in part yesterday at the government conciliation committee hearing.

The county, it was agreed, will submit a plan to the Pasadena city authorities within ten days, assuring that city of a water supply from the San Gabriel River during the construction of the dam, and if it proves acceptable Pasadena will withdraw its objection to the construction of the railroad the county proposes to build up to the dam site.

Two more cities made application yesterday for reservoir sites in the canyon, Alhambra and Whittier. These applications, it was said, will not interfere with the construction operations. They were made with an eye to the future merely.

AGREES TO CO-OPERATE

City Attorney Howard of Pasadena stated the case of his city before the committee, declaring he represented 70,000 to 80,000 people directly and 130,000 more indirectly. Pasadena, he said, must find additional water supply or be dried up in four or five years, causing the loss of a tremendous investment.

"If we can be assured of water we are more than anxious to

by Harry Carr

WE MIGHT have so many war airplanes that we would have to pry them apart to look at the sun.

But they wouldn't do any good if they were not in the hands of a disciplined Army.

VOLUBLE COL. MITCHELL

No matter what the verdict of the Mitchell court-martial, it is bound to do a lot of harm.

It has shaken the faith of the people of the United States in the discipline of the Army.

Were the lines of discipline drawn as tightly as everybody believed they were, Col. Mitchell would just as soon have thought of dynamiting the Capitol as of making accusations against his superior officers in the newspapers.

The Mitchell case is not merely a boil; it is a symptom.

FINGERS IN THE PIE

The real trouble with the Army is that the distance is too short between the halls of Congress and the headquarters of the General Staff.

The green grocers, country lawyers—or what have you—of Congress can't find it in their hearts to stop monkeying with the Army.

They get on the military and naval committees; and, once there, can't keep their fingers out of the pie.

GRAND THRILLS

The truth is, they like the thrill of being saluted by sentries; of taking Old Man Pickles of the Eighth Ward back home out to the battleships; and letting him hear the salute guns boom.

ARMY POLITICS

Believe me, brethren, I could some certain tales unfold about politics in the Army; but I can keep still even if Col. Mitchell's tireless vocal cords can't.

It is enough to say that conditions are little short of shocking. And those who deplore it most are the Army officers themselves.

HELP! HELP!

These Congressmen can't even let West Point and Annapolis alone.

Every time a cadet is expelled for hazing or some other breach of discipline, some fat Senator goes waddling up to the White House—sounding the alarm—between wheezes—as he goes.

Making the nation safe by disciplined force is one thing; letting the son of Boss Googleheimer get kicked out of the academy is another.

WHEN WAR COMES

When it comes to a showdown in war the politicians will, as usual, make a scared retreat, and the Army will scramble together a fighting force and go out and get killed as usual.

FIGHT OR DEBATE

But the impression made of our peace-time Army is disillusioning.

If there had been any Col. Mitchell in the famous Light Brigade, the war would have been over before they got through quarreling as to whether they should charge or write home to the London Times about the affair.

"SOMEBODY BLUNDERED"

As a matter of fact there was one thing they didn't tell us in our school days, about the "noble Six Hundred" who had to ride "into the Valley of Death" and die. The reason that "somebody blundered" was because politics got into the British army.

SAFETY ADVOCATES MEET

Women Consider Plans for Safeguarding Life and Limb on State's Thoroughfares

Spokesmen for 270,000 women of California backing the movement recently inaugurated by the California Public Safety Conference for the promotion of safety and especially the cutting down of the annual death toll in this State from automobile accidents, attended the meeting of that organization at the Alexandria yesterday, called for the purpose of co-ordinating the work of the different bodies interested in this project.

The aims of the Public Safety Conference, which functions under the auspices of the women's division of the California Development Association, were outlined by Mrs. E. F. Easton of San Francisco, chairman of the conference, and plans of co-operation were discussed by various speakers, including representatives of the city and county and of different organizations committed to the education of the public in safety methods. The meeting was conducted under the chairmanship of Miss Grace Stoermer, chairman of the Southern District of the safety conference.

"The movement to promote safety was launched by the conference several months ago, particularly in an effort to reduce the number of auto deaths," said Mrs. Easton. "When it is considered that last year there were 1385 persons killed in auto accidents, the importance of taking steps to reme-

FLAGSHIP DUE BACK IN PORT

Pennsylvania Scheduled to Return Saturday

Fleet to Begin Rehearsal for Night Practice

The U.S.S. California, flagship of the United States Battle Fleet, will return to the local base Saturday morning after having completed annual overhaul at the Puget Sound Navy Yard, and will immediately take back the four-starred flag of Admiral Charles F. Hughes, commander-in-chief, from the U.S.S. Pennsylvania, flagship during the absence of the California.

The Pennsylvania, now at San Diego with Admiral Hughes, where he is conducting a survey of the naval establishment, will also return Saturday morning and late that day Admiral Hughes and certain members of his staff will sail for Puget Sound aboard the U.S.S. Mississippi.

The Mississippi is going to the Puget Sound Navy Yard for overhaul and Admiral Hughes is making the trip to inspect the yard, arriving there on the 9th inst. Admiral Hughes and his staff will probably return south aboard the U.S.S. Omaha, flagship of the destroyer squadrons, which sails from Puget Sound on the 12th inst.

The fleet tomorrow will complete its periodical machinery overhaul, for which it has been in port all week, and on the 7th inst. will begin rehearsals for night battle practice, which spectacular exercises will be fired by all divisions next week.

Announcement was received yesterday that H.M.S. Dimede, British light cruiser en route from England to New Zealand, had left the Canal Zone on November 30 and would arrive at Los Angeles Harbor for a three-day stay on the 10th inst.

co-operate with the County Flood Control District," he said.

The city has applied for 85,000 acre feet annually from the San Gabriel, and the application is still pending before the State Water Supply Commission, which is seeking to determine how much water will be available. Pasadena's proposed reservoir could not be built, it is said, with the county railroad in place.

THOSE AT HEARING

Supervisors Cogswell and Wright and Chief Engineer Reagan of the flood control district represented the county at the hearing yesterday. The hearing, which is being conducted by F. J. Safley of the Interior Department, F. E. Bonner of the Forest Service and H. D. McGlashan of the Geological Survey, will continue daily sessions for the next week or ten days. Today the committee and Pasadena authorities will make an inspection trip up the San Gabriel Canyon.

EX-JUDGE IS DRAFTED TO DECIDE SUIT

Litigants Figure Money Saved by Not Waiting for Regular Trial

When Judge J. Perry Wood resigned from the Superior Court bench early in the fall, he thought he was through with judging. But yesterday he was back on the bench again, hearing testimony and ruling on objections.

At the solicitation of counsel in litigation over the Village Inn at Lake Arrowhead, Judge Wood consented to serve as judge pro tem. Large amounts of money being involved in the actions, counsel pointed out that the savings in interest charges would more than offset the cost of the per diem compensation of a judge pro tem. If the case had awaited its regular turn on the calendar, several months would have elapsed before it came to hearing.

The suits were filed in an effort to clear up a financial jumble in the dealings between William H. Kemble, who erected the hotel, and R. S. Langer and his associates, who advanced certain sums to Kemble and purchased the furniture for the inn. Since these transactions the management has changed, and the present management is not involved in the suits, it was explained.

Leaves for San Francisco to Embark on Voyage That Will Girdle Globe

Mrs. Teresa Rubens, mother of Alma Rubens, film actress, left Los Angeles yesterday for San Francisco to start on a trip around the world, the journey being a gift from her daughter.

Mrs. Rubens, who will be gone about six months, will not be here for the wedding of her daughter and Ricardo Cortez which is expected to take place late in February. Miss Rubens said yesterday that while her mother had been unwilling to miss the ceremony, plans for the trip had been made far in advance and it was finally decided that the tour could not be postponed.

Mrs. Rubens will visit the Orient, Paris, Berlin, Genoa and London.

pulsory then it would have paid $2556, an increase of 144 per cent. Similarly he submitted that the Broadway Department Store paid $846, would have paid $2107, increase 149 per cent; Bullock's, paid $975, would have paid $2635, increase 170 per cent; May Company, paid $996, would have paid $2620, increase 163 per cent; Chamber of Commerce, paid $157, would have paid $427, increase 171 per cent.

The increase in rates for Bledsoe's sixteen clients was estimated by him to amount to nearly $100,000 a year.

Bledsoe's statement was supported by affidavit of Samuel G. McMeen, a consulting telephone engineer of twenty-one years' experience. It was Bledsoe's contention also that compared with San Francisco rates, the rates in Los Angeles are "unjust and unnecessarily high." He gave comparative figures in support of his statement.

The present flat rate for individual business service is $12.50 a month. After January 1 all such patrons must pay $5.50 a month with permission to make seventy-five calls without further charge, but all calls between seventy-five and 175 will cost 5 cents each and all over 175 will cost 4 cents each. It is about this rate and also private branch exchange rates for the larger business houses that particular complaint now is being made.

The commission had in mind to confine its recent investigation to the business field alone, but the city and various civic and other organizations injected into the recent hearings evidence looking toward a reduction of residence and all ordinary rates. The commission gave no hint at the conclusion of its investigation that it would go beyond its original intention in the matter.

The hearing yesterday was occupied entirely by presentation of the Chamber of Commerce's evidence, Bledsoe's evidence, a showing by five hotels of how the increase would affect them and a few technical matters. Neither the city nor Mayor Cryer's telephone committee presented additional matter yesterday.

EXPLAINS STAND

At the conclusion of the hearing N. R. Powley, vice-president and general manager of the Southern California Telephone Company said:

"Now that every angle of the question of measured rates for business telephone service has been brought out and thoroughly studied over a period of nearly two years, we are confident that the business interests of Los Angeles look at the whole matter in a reasonable light. The situation rests upon the issue as to wether business users should pay in proportion to their use of the service. The hearings have shown that our patrons understand this and fully recognize the justness and equity of the measured-rate principle.

"We are in the same position as any other business in Los Angeles in that any increase in the servive to the individual customer—which in our case refers to the volume of telephone calls we must handle—causes a direct increase in expenses. Our position is that the measured rates equitably distribute charges in proportion to our customers' use of the service and particularly so in instances where a large use is made of the service."

SPIRITUALISTS LOSE CHARTER

San Francisco of more than forty "ministers" of spiritualist churches there and similar activities by the police and prosecuting attorneys of St. Louis, Kansas City, Chicago, Buffalo, San Diego, Portland, Seattle and other cities.

Of those arrested in Los Angeles all but eleven pleaded guilty. Of these eleven, nine were convicted, one man jumped his bond and the last case was dismissed when the "minister" turned State's evidence. In San Francisco pleas of guilty or convictions were found in every case.

Immediately following the arrests the evidence in the case was laid before Atty.-Gen. Webb by City Prosecutor Friendlander and The Times. The Attorney-General immediately assigned Dep. Atty.-Gen. Widney of Los Angeles to the case and authorized him to proceed in the name of the people in quo warranto to obtain a revocation of the organization's charter—the first time such a procedure had ever been attempted in State courts.

This petition was prepared and filed several months ago. It came to hearing in the last week after several continuances.

In the police courts the charge of conspiracy—one of the first ever filed for a fracture of city ordinances—was upheld by Police Judge Pope, in whose court all of the cases were tried. Only one appeal, that of President Jackson, was made from his rulings.

Credit for the presentation of the people's case in the police courts is due to Prosecutor Friedlander and his deputies, Leroy Reames and Paul Friedman, and in addition to these to Deputy Prosecutor Folsom and Chief Investigator Poland of the prosecutor's office for its preparation. The case for the people in the hearing in Superior Court was presented by Dep. Atty.-Gen. Widney and Deputy Prosecutor Reames.

IMPORTANT PRECEDENT

"Judge Doran's ruling and revocation of the N.I.S.A. charter establishes legal precedents of much importance to the people generally," Dep. Atty.-Gen. Widney said last night. "It confirms the right of the Attorney-General's office to act on behalf of the public against any abuses of charter rights of any of our nonprofit corporations, and, if these abuses are shown, to ask and procure an annulment of the charter. It will enable the Los Angeles police department in the future to proceed against all clairvoyants, numerologists, spiritualists and others who cannot show theological training and an ordination certificate from a recognized and genuine church organization which is really not operating for profit and whose funds are derived only from donations. It will wipe out of existence not only in California, but in the nation at large thousands of so-called spiritualist churches whose operations are not only fraudulent, but a distinct menace to the mental health of the public—and I hope it will result in the incarceration in jails or penitentiaries of many of the operators of these so-called churches.

"The Times is to be highly commended for its investigation and for the unswerving interest which it has shown in aiding the public officials to carry the results of the investigation to its ultimate end. It is not always true, I am sorry to say, that a newspaper which uncovers an existing evil is willing to follow it after the news element has vanished.

"Let me say, also, in behalf of our office that we have received the utmost in co-operation from City Prosecutor Friedlander and his staff and from other public officials interested in the case. This decision will go down in history as one of the outstanding legal achievements in the State in this part of the decade."

STATEMENT MADE

"The decision handed down by the Superior Court which revokes the corporate existence of the National Independent Spiritualist Association is indeed, very significant," said Prosecutor Friedlander yesterday.

"Almost two years ago proceedings were commenced in the Police Courts to expose the fraudulent practices of religious impostors who sold ordination certificates in a manner very much similar to that in which lottery tickets are circulated. It was felt that conviction in the Police Court on fraud charges, though effective, was not entirely sufficient and to reach the root of the evil it was essential to revoke the charter granted by the State of California to these pseudo-divines under which guise they were practising their profession, thereby destroying every vestige of their existence.

"This decision is rather in the nature of warning fraudulent operators of this sort of a scheme, serving them notice that the authorities, the courts and the public will not tolerate such imposition.

"If the proceeding to revoke the charter of this organization, which terminated in favor of the people, and the criminal prosecution have done nothing else, they have at least stripped a highly colorful veneer of an organized group of religious imposters who were preying upon a class of credulous, superstitious and unthinking people and brought forcefully to the surface a very intricate and involved method of fraud.

"Those who pursue this practice boldly assumed that the law is inadequate, that the authorities have no courage to stop their operations, that the public has no interest no matter how flagrant it might be and depended upon their ingenuity to manipulate and the strength of their organized efforts to merrily gather in considerable sums from dupes. The basis for this theory found support in the fact that in the past they managed successfully to defeat prosecutions by such strategy. It is hoped that by this decision of the Superior Court these religious mountebanks will be somewhat disillusioned."

Harry Houdini, president of the Society of American Magicians, world-famous as a handcuff king and as an investigator of the occult, wired this message to The Times last night: "Congratulations! It was well done. You have thrown an obstacle in the path of fraudulent spiritualism which will last for years to come."

PRAGER HEIRS WILL SHARE LARGE ESTATE

The distribution of $500,000 of the estate of Mrs. Mary J. Prager to numerous relatives was ordered yesterday by Judge York of the probate department. Mrs. Prager died in 1924, leaving nearly $1,000,000. The portion of the estate included in yesterday's order consists mainly of personal property and includes the furnishings of her home on Irvine Boulevard.

dy this situation becomes apparent.

"We concluded to inaugurate a campaign of education to impress upon the minds of the public not only the necessity of observing all traffic regulations, but of exercising care in the handling of their cars. We thought the best way to accomplish this would be through pledge cards, which we ask not only car owners and drivers to sign but pedestrians as well.

"By signing these cards the signers pledge themselves to observe every precaution, imposed not only by traffic regulation but by prudence, calculated to avoid accidents. The cards have been distributed all over the State through the five regional chairmen of the safety conference and the more than 100 district chairmen. Up to date more than 108,000 of these pledge cards have been signed, and the results of the campaign are already becoming apparent. It will be found that this year's number of accidents will fall considerably below that of last year."

Mrs. Easton stated that the principal efficacy of the pledge-card system is psychological.

"Most human beings are reluctant to break their word, and that is what violation of the rules outlined on these cards amounts to," she said. She added that the movement has from its very inception enjoyed the co-operation of virtually every woman's organization in the State, numbering more than 270,000, in addition to which many other organizations, including large business firms, have been active in their support of the campaign for safety.

CAPT. HEATH SPEAKS

Capt. Cleveland Heath of the Los Angeles police department spoke briefly in commendation of the movement. "How to promote public safety is one of the biggest problems of the police department in any large city today," said Capt. Heath. "We certainly appreciate the fforts put forth by this organization to assist us in this matter. That the vast number of accidents may be cut down has been demonstrated since the adoption of pedestrian control at street crossings in Los Angeles. This control has materially decreased the number of auto accidents on the streets."

Sheriff Traeger added his commendation to that of Capt. Heath. "The Sheriff's office is not so directly concerned in the prevention of accidents as is the police department," said Sheriff Traeger. "Our department is usually called upon when there is a wreck, and our office maintains a regular wrecking crew, which is part of the homicide squad. This in itself indicates the light in which we regard auto accidents and reveals the need of the existence of such an organization as the safety conference, whose mission it is to impress the public with the importance of exercising care in the handling of automotive vehicles."

PLACES SAFETY SIGNS

E. B. Lefferts, manager of the safety department of the Automobile Club of Southern California, told of what that organization has done to promote safety.

"We have placed more than 150,000 signs along the highways for the guidance of motorists, approximately 50 per cent of which are safety signs," he said. "Our engineering department is ever actively engaged in studying the possibilities of straightening curves, eliminating blind intersections and allied activities, designed to relieve congestion and consequent accidents."

Other speakers included Mrs. J. B. Lorbeer, district president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, who pledged the full support of that organization in the work the safety conference is doing; Dr. Miller McClintock, who spoke on "Traffic and Safety;" Sol Lesser of the West Coast Theaters, who gave an outline of what the motion pictures are doing to promote the education of the public in safety; and Norman E. Sloane, general manager of the California Development Association, who said his organization is backing the California Public Safety Conference because it feels the conference is engaged in the promotion of a line of activity of paramount importance to the State.

WATER WARNING FOR ANNEXATION BACKERS

The City Council took steps yesterday to warn communities contemplating annexation to Los Angeles that they must provide themselves with their own water and must not depend upon the municipal water bureau. The report of the Council's Water and Power Committee and a resolution recently adopted by the Water and Power Commissioners were adopted by the Council. The Council decided to send copies of the report and resolution to all circulators of annexation petitions.

Weak Kidneys

Weak kidneys are often a death sentence, so many serious disorders take root in these organs. Does your urine show albumen or sugar, evidences of destructive changes? Watch out for Bright's Disease or Diabetes —you may be in grave danger. MOTHER TELLS OF FATAL DAY

Mrs. Buus on Stand in Martin Case

Leaves Scene in Collapse After Testimony

Identifies Pictures of Two Slain Children

A dramatic scene took place late yesterday in Superior Judge Hahn's court when Mrs. Paul Buus, 2354 Mansfield street, mother of the two little Martin sisters, May and Nina, took the witness stand at the trial of S. C. Stone, former Glen Airy district night watchman, charged with the murder of the two little girls.

Mrs. Buus faced the ordeal bravely and choked back her tears as she told in a low voice, hardly audible to the jury and to the spectators, of the last time she saw her two daughters alive. After she identified pictures of her two little daughters she left the witness stand and almost completely broke down.

ON VERGE OF COLLAPSE

She was on the verge of collapse when several of her friends rushed to her assistance. The sight of the pictures of the girls completely unnerved her and she wept bitterly. She was sobbing as the court bailiff led her from the stand. Her friends took her to a rest room where they comforted her and she was able after some time to leave the Hall of Justice to go home.

A hush fell over the courtroom as Dep. Dist.-Atty. Ryan called her name. She gave a description of her two girls and testified that the last time she saw them was on August 23, 1924, at about 4:15 when they left their home to go to their grandmother's near-by—happy and carefree.

"Were they happy?" Ryan asked.

"They were very, very happy," she replied.

"Did you ever see them alive again?"

"No, sir," she responded in a whisper as she began to sob.

SAVED FROM ORDEAL

Mrs. Buus was saved from the ordeal of identifying the weather-beaten and torn clothing of her two daughters which was removed from their badly decomposed bodies when the remains of the children were found February 4, last, in a ditch not far distant from their home. Ryan said the grandmother will be called to identify the clothing.

The mother did, however, identify a little gold bracelet found by the two bodies as belonging to Nina, 8 years of age. May was 12. Chandler Bush, defense attorney, did not ask Mrs. Buus a question.

The calling to the stand of Mrs. Buus climaxed a busy day at the trial of Stone, which included a visit by members of the jury, court attaches and deputy sheriffs to the spot where the Martin girls' bodies were found several hundred feet east of Mesa Drive south of the Pacific Electric air line tracks near the Baldwin Hills.

The trip to the scene in a big sight-seeing bus proved eventful because of Tuesday night's rainfall. The bus in which the fourteen jurors were passengers became mired in the mud. They were compelled to walk several hundred feet over deep, sticky mud to view the spot and it was necessary to call another bus to return them to the Courthouse.

Stone was not fazed by the trip and watched wit hinterest while Capt. Jesse Hunter, District Attorney's investigator, explained the land with the aid of a large map. Stone remained seated in a Sheriff's car, which took him to the scene.

Asked about the trip he said:

"It was rather muddy, wasn't it?"

The weather-beaten clothes of the two murder victims—grim reminders of their tragic deaths—were introduced into evidence yesterday by Ryan and by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Dennison and displayed to the jurors who appeared horrified at the sight of them. Mrs. Buus turned her head as the articles of clothing were displayed, piece by piece.

Six witnesses testified for the prosecution during the afternoon session and not once was the name of Stone mentioned. These witnesses were called for the purpose of establishing the corpus delicti.

The sordid and grewsome circumstances of the finding of these bodies were told by these witnesses.

Luis Robledo, a laborer and friend of Julio Martinez, who, by chance, found the bodies, told of fashioning a cross from two sticks of wood and placing it near the head of little May.

"It is our custom," Robledo testified through an interpreter, "to place a cross where a dead body is found."

This was the first thing Robledo did when he was taken to the spot by Martinez. He was not interested in informing the police or in anything else: The placing of the cross to respect the dead was foremost.

SURGEON TESTIFIES

The first witness yesterday was Dr. F. R. Webb, assistant county autopsy surgeon, who examined the bodies of the two girls at an Inglewood undertaking parlor. He identified two bundles of clothing as those which he removed from the bodies. He said there was no clothing on the lower parts of either body. He was unable to tell the cause of death.

Deputy Sheriff Chester Allen described in minute detail the condition of the two bodies after their discovery by Martinez and identified pictures of the bodies, which were shown to the jurors. He told how the clothing had been drawn about their shoulders and described the torn undergarments of the two little victims. Allen said the gold bracelet was found under the body of the older child.

TELLS OF DISCOVERY

Martinez testified he was out of work at the time and set out from his home early on the morning of February 4, last, to seek copper and metals to sell. He was first attracted by a shoe, he said, and examined closer and saw the two bodies, partly covered by weeds. He rushed home and took Robledo and his family to the spot.

L. B. Selque, a farmer, and Frank West, a teamster, who were planting grain near by, said they were attracted by the excitement of Robledo and Martinez and walked over and saw the bodies. Selque testified he went to a near-by real estate office and notified the police. A newspaper reporter, he said, was first on the scene.

Selque created a bit of laughter when he said the reporter "got sore" because he would not take him to the bodies until the police arrived.

SEARCHED IN VAIN

Helen Roberts, a newspaper reporter, was called to tell of a search made by police and citizens of the vicinity where the bodies were found. This search, she said, was made in September, last year, and though scores of officers and citizens hunted over the weedy fields, the bodies were not found. She also described the condition of the bodies.

The prosecution today, according to Ryan and Dennison, will call witnesses, who are asserted to have seen the Martin sisters with Stone on the day they disappeared and witnesses who will testify they saw him in the vicinity of the spot where the bodies were later found.

Time element will play an important part during the trial, as Stone, according to present defense plans, will depend on an alibi to prove his innocence.

Man Sentenced for Help Given Girl Runaway

George H. Mistler, 42 years of age, was sentenced yesterday to serve six weeks in the County Jail after Judge Archbald of Juvenile Court had found him guilty of having violated his probation in connection with a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a 15-year-old girl.

In the original case, Mistler and his wife were asserted to have induced Mildred Trueblood to remain away from the home of her mother in Lennox for several weeks. Mistler had pleaded guilty to the charge and was placed on probation for one year. Probation officers told the court yesterday that through the connivance of Mistler and his wife the girl again left her home and spent several days on a ranch near Lancaster. The officers said they had warned Mistler not to have anything more to do with the girl at the time he was placed on probation.

The abandonment of banana areas in Panama has been somewhat offset by increase in small plantings.

NEW CONTINENT

A scientist says that another continent is slowly rising from the Pacific and may completely girdle Hawaii. If that is the case, it will belong to Uncle Sam when it sticks up high enough to be counted.

A HE-MAN LAUREATE

"The poet laureate of Peru killed another poet the other day over a little literary error," says a news item. Men have been slain for smaller crimes. Evidently it is possible for a poet to be a philanthropist.

EASY SANTA CLAUS

Now it appears that there are philanthropists who will loan Christmas money on personal jewelry. A man may leave his cuff buttons at one window and come away with a train of cars for baby. There is no use in denying Santa Claus when it is possible for the head of the house to trade his matchbox for a drum.

GIVING THE AIR

"The spectroscope on Mount Wilson shows that the oxygen in the atmosphere of Mars is relatively low. It is only 60 per cent of the oxygen on Mount Everest where explorers had to resort to oxygen tanks to keep alive," says a science note. Giving them the air seems to be more difficult on Mars than on the earth.

GERMANY AT HOME

Germany is going into the League of Nations under a full head of steam and with bells on. The League has been mentioned as a white men's club, although it has millions of swart members. The fair-skinned races are in leadership, however, and America is the only large group of whites remaining without the doors. The Mexicans are soon to enter.

AN UNLUCKY YEAR

Nineteen twenty-five has been an unlucky year for adventure. We tried to fly to Hawaii and failed. Two attempts were made on the North Pole without success. The best girl swimmers of the world made an effort to swim the English Channel and were defeated. Valentino thought he was making a venture in matrimony; but it seems to have been but alimony.

STUNG

A man writes a bee-keeper and asks why people get stung. The bee-keeper says that bees are more inclined to sting on cloudy days and are more amiable on good days. There is more nectar in sunshiny weather. Evidently a bee is happier after breakfast also. There is considerable human nature in a bee. But you never can tell—sometimes men get stung because things are too bright and rosy.

TURMOIL IN TEXAS

The skirted Governor of Texas celebrated Thanksgiving by supplying pardons to another group of 105 malefactors. It is very evident that the Governor can turn criminals out of the prisons faster than the courts can put them in. Another term of the Fergusons would make Texas a jailless State. What would be the use of having prisons if there are no prisoners. The Fergusons have conferred much notoriety on the Lone Star State, but it can hardly be cited as glory.

RING OUT, WILD BELLS

They have a novel cloture contrivance in the Italian Parliament. This is a system of what are called signal bells which are strung through the legislative hall and may be under the direction of the Speaker. The Italian Parliament recently passed important legislation to which some of the Communists made objection. One of them attempted to make a speech, but before he had gone very far the signal bells were at work and his voice was practically lost. The device virtually enables the chair to shut off any orator who becomes obstreperous or tiresome. It ought to be worth $1,000,000 in the Senate. The introduction of a battery of foghorns at the United States Capitol might make a revision of the Senate rules unnecessary.

PROSPERITY PREVAILS

Many economists were of the opinion that when prices began to change following the war wages would be the first to fall. As a matter of fact, wages have kept up better than anything else. According to the records and estimates of the Secretary of Commerce, if the year 1913 be indexed as 100 wages in 1920 were 199 and are now 228. They may not be at their peak, but the shrinkage is slight. At the same time, wholesale prices, which went to 226 in 1920, are now estimated at 150. Rents are also down. All of which means that the worker of today can make his wages go considerably farther than four years ago. The situation in this country is better than in any other. In the same period wages in Great Britain have dropped from 230 to 170 points. This is a pretty good country to put your money on. It is the land of the big doings. The general standard of living is higher in America than with any other people of the world at any time.

THE LIRA AND THE FRANC

From Rome comes the rather startling announcement that Italy's initial payment on her debt to the United States has been raised by public subscription. The money comes as voluntary contributions, chiefly from industries that are already heavily taxed.

Little wonder that the recent Italian loan of $100,000,000 was oversubscribed in New York in less than two hours. The late J. Pierpont Morgan said that character is about the best security for any loan. The willingness to pay and the determination to pay of the Italian people prove that they possess a character such as that in which Morgan placed his confidence.

The Italian Socialists would have repudiated their country's war debts. The Fascisti who succeeded them courageously asserted that Italy could pay and would pay. And the exchange value of the lira is now three times what it was when the Fascisti came into power.

Italy is now heavier taxed in proportion to its economic wealth than any other country that engaged in the World War. Its industrialists realize this and they determined that the country as a whole should not be compelled to carry the burden of the war debt. It is their present intention to raise among themselves each year the stipulated annual payment on the debt to America.

Plainly, Socialism has run its course in Italy. A new renaissance seems to have dawned, this time an economic renaissance, a rebirth of the spirit that once made Rome alike the dominating military and economic power of the world.

Italy possesses man power and potent hydroelectric power. When the streams tumbling from the Italian Alps to the valleys below are harnessed and set to revolving turbines, Italy will have fuel for all its industries, and to export. The Italians are good craftsmen, good workers; and character and industry are priceless assets to any people.

Meanwhile, Briand, for the eighth time Prime Minister of France, announces that the government will send a new debt-funding commission to Washington. The continued downward course of the franc has convinced the French financiers at least that France cannot afford to repudiate its war debts. The Times said as much editorially a year ago.

The French must balance their national budget by increasing taxation and reducing the cost of government. The people must pay a few millions more, and the government must spend a few millions less. France must have a government, if it is to continue to exist as a world power. And the French people must pay in taxes enough to enable that government to fulfill its obligations. France can borrow no more. And The Times is convinced that the French people, once the case is fairly and honestly presented to them, will preserve alike their national credit and their national honor.

While the Socialists were in control of the Italian government one franc would buy ten lire. France now has a parliament a majority of whose members are Socialists or radicals, and the exchange value of the lira is greater than that of the franc. These are important facts to those who desire to know something of the relation of government to economics.

A BULLSEYE

While past performances of the Fergusons have not been at all times such as to commend them as safe and sane molders of public policy, it must be admitted that Gov. "Ma" Ferguson of Texas hit the target in the center full and fair when she declared against wealthy and prominent violators of the prohibition amendment and posted a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction, for violation of the antiliquor laws, of any persons worth in excess of $5000.

"Enforcement of the liquor laws in Texas," she said in her announcement, "has become the enforcement of the laws against the poor and for the rich.

"Many wealthy business men boast of their liquor possessions, while the penitentiary is being filled with poor devils who have neither friends nor money, who have been found guilty of having a thin pint on their hip or of making a little for home consumption. When these things happen, then justice becomes a mockery and the law becomes a stench in the nostrils of all law-abiding people."

Allowing for the rhetorical exaggeration, there still remains enough truth in this statement to hurt. The rebuke is one that must be taken to heart not only in Texas; and the second paragraph quoted above might well hang as a framed wall decoration in every police station and in every enforcement office and in every judge's chamber of the land as a reminder that the law must be enforced impartially.

The condition complained of, enforcement officers should also be reminded, is not necessarily the result of deliberate intention. The little fish may come to the basket for two reasons: there are more of them and they are easier to catch. Enforcement officers might start out with the best motives in the world and produce the precise result she objects to.

But without doubt it is the bigger violators who do the most harm. The bootlegging business does not flourish upon the sale of half-pints, but upon the sale of gallons and cases. It is the men who can and do spend hundreds and thousands who provide the finances for the expensive equipment of automobiles and fleet motorcraft the bootlegger needs. It is "important money" that permits the corruption of public officers that pays for high bail and heavy fines. And if, as many investigators are convinced, there is a direct connection between big bootlegging and large-scale operations in robbery and theft the blame for the crime wave lies squarely at the door of wealthy drinkers.

As for the Texas situation, if it is Gov. Ferguson speaking, she has started something that may be of considerable benefit. If, on the other hand, it is Jim Ferguson, the ex-Governor, who is the real author of the proclamation, nothing much may be expected. In that case the statement is probably designed merely to draw attention away from the investigation of the State's highway department.

PLAYTIME IN HOLLYWOOD

Still another big theater project for Hollywood. That glorious community will soon have so many playhouses that the citizens will forget how to work.

Deep Water

VALE, RODEO!

Under the new regulations of the Humane Treatment of Animals Department of the city government, it seems likely that Los Angeles will have to say farewell to the rodeo, a relic of the days when considerably more of Southern California was range than anything else. The regulations restrict the exhibition that may be given between such narrow boundaries that its value, from a spectator's standpoint, will be about nil.

With some regrets that any link with Los Angeles' colorful past should be broken, it must be confessed that the change is probably a good one. This is no longer range country, and the rodeo itself has changed with the times. A rodeo with genuinely unbroken horses and really wild cattle is one thing, and a rodeo with mere simulation of these conditions something quite else. After the same cattle and the same horses have gone through the mill several times, they know what to expect, and must be pardoned for lack of enthusiasm. It would be euphemism to term the efforts that are made to arouse their fighting spirit anything less than sheer cruelty.

The rodeo on the range is a school for cowpunchers and horsemen, in which they may learn really valuable tricks of the trade. A rodeo in the city is an exhibition that has no purpose save amusement.

It is probable that the animals involved in a range rodeo do not particularly enjoy the parts they play, but this may be overlooked when a useful purpose is served. This excuse disappears when the affair is moved into town.

EFFICIENT SERVICE

Economy is the keynote of the annual report of Hubert Work, Secretary of the Interior, just issued from his office at Washington. The Secretary calls attention to the savings accomplished by the reorganization of the bureaus in his department, which for the two-year period from July 1, 1923, to June 30, 1925, amounted to $82,635,930.38. His efficient management of affairs has resulted in largely reduced appropriations, those for 1925 being over $30,000,000 less than for 1924. There was an unexpended balance of $25,732,000 turned back to the Treasury from appropriations for 1924 and another unexpended balance of $9,820,000 returned from appropriations for 1925.

The department is operating with 2000 less permanent employees than in 1923, this reduction making an average annual wage saving of $3,700,000, although salaries in all its bureaus were increased by $1,850,000 by the Reclassification Act. Few actual dismissals occurred, the reduction of forces being largely effected by not filling vacancies and by reassignment of duties.

By executive order the Bureau of Mines, the Patent Office and the Mineral Resources Division of the Geological Survey were transferred from the Department of the Interior to the Department of Commerce during the past fiscal year. The purpose of the shifting of the bureaus was to eliminate the overlapping of functions and discontinue unnecessary expense.

There is a paragraph in the report which will be rather dismaying to those who are looking for free farms on government land. It concludes with these two uncompromising sentences:

> The fertile lands have now passed into private ownership. The public land remaining after years of intensive homesteading may be regarded as valueless for agriculture.

So within a far less space of time than a man who was of mature years in the '80's would have deemed possible the fertile lands allotted by our generous government to its land-hungry people are gone—not gone in the sense that they have vanished somewhere, but that there are no more of them available to the poor citizen looking for a chance to make a living on a free farm.

The diminishing area of the public domain has caused a gradual reduction in the work of the General Land Office. When Secretary Work entered upon his duties this bureau was found to be operating with practically the same force it had maintained during periods of greater activity. A reorganization of the working force became necessary. A consolidation of divisions in Washington, the retirement of superfluous employees and the discarding of useless furniture during the past fiscal year resulted in a more closely knit organization and expedited the service.

The saving effected by the reorganization of the General Land Office, the consolidation of local land offices and the discontinuance of the offices of surveyors-general amounts to over $500,000 annually.

There is much in the report about the troubles incident to grazing on public lands. The gratuitous use of the public domain as an unrestricted range for live stock has resulted in overgrazing, and wide areas have been almost denuded of native grasses. The Secretary urges that these districts be better protected by the government by the enactment of suitable legislation.

Ill-advised reclamation projects have resulted in a loss to the government of $26,000,000. Secretary Work condemns the mistaken policy which has led to the loss and recommends a safer course of action.

All in all, the report is a valuable and highly interesting one and is bound to be approved by taxpayers because of the wise economy it so clearly indicates.

REFORMING LITERATURE

By James J. Montague

Mussolini may be, and again he may not—
Deserving of immortal fame,
But a marvelous plan he has certainly got
Of running the magazine game.
His editors dare not contract for or buy
An article, story or play
Unless it is viewed by his critical eye—
And is stamped with the party's O.K.

Over here if this system were put in effect
And some editor grouchy and gruff,
Said to me: "Say that poem I'll have to reject,
It really is terrible stuff."
I should not sneak home with my head hanging down,
A picture of failure and woe,
But I'd look at the chap with a soul-searing frown
And hiss at him: "Oh, is that so!"

And on the next day with a confident grin
I would pay a professional call,
And the verse that the editor canned I'd turn in To the leader of Tammany Hall
Of the votes I controlled (with a family of eight)
I would drop a quite palpable hint—
And then I would sit down serenely and wait
To see my production in print.

Of course we can't tell till this scheme has been tried
Six months or, well, maybe a year,
What result it will have if it's ever applied
To the magazine trade over here.
But if our big leader should make up his mind
To treat our great editors rough,
And pass on their pieces, we think you would find

PUNISH THE SINNERS

We cannot get rid of sin; but we can make sinners so much trouble that they will consider the better possibilities in rectitude. If immorality ever pays as steady a profit as morality the world will be wrecked. We must hammer away at making evil-doers trouble, with law and gossip. Thieves are rarely properly punished, but sheriffs, judges and lawyers make them so much trouble that few of them prosper. And gossip helps; I have never known a thief to proudly strut as does a man who has succeeded in honest ways.—[E. W. Howe's Monthly.

EVEREST OR RUWENZORI?

BY L. J. VANDENBERGH

The Roy Chapman Andrews expedition in the Tibet set out to find relics of the original man and found dinosaur eggs and fossils. F. W. Migeod is on his way to the Tanganyika to find both. The latter takes up the research where the German scientists left off at the outbreak of the war and follows in the footsteps of Prof. W. E. Cutler of the British Museum, who died last May as the result of fevers contracted in the Tendaguru swamps.

Which of the two giant mountains threw its shadows over the first man? The Everest or the Ruwenzori? Judging by the live specimens of colossi of the river, the plain and the mountain the Ruwenzori guesses should command a betting of two to one in favor of the higher Central African plateau; for there are still found the elephants, rhinoceros and hippopotamus in droves. The slopes of the Ruwenzori are also the habitat of the gorilla, while in the darkness of the Congo forest in the region of Itury the Mambuti Pygmies still roam from camp to camp, nomads of the woods, and live on caterpillars, bugs and rodents, roots and nature's greens and move in branches of the trees as comfortably as on terra firma, sleep like a litter of puppies on top of each other to keep warm and speak a primordial, monosyllable language.

Mr. Migeod will find no difficulty to locate some specimens of humanity with faces like a cross between the ape and man. Los Angeles could show him their photographs taken in the lower Congo. The Adventurers' Club of Chicago could exhibit a photograph of a gorilla who kept a Congolese woman in captivity for two years until a member of that institution shot the beast.

Going a little north the explorer will be shown the footprint of Kintu, the first man on earth and son of the god Gulu, who climbed down from heaven to populate the earth from his base, a hill in the Bulamwezi country of Uganda. The Semliki River holds its own, with the Ganges and the Euphrates, in the traditions of the African tribes as it winds its way from the Tanganyika toward the Albert Nyanza. The banks of this little-known river are part of the genealogy of the ancient Nile as is proven by representations on the tombs at Sakarrah, 3366 years before Christ.

What profiteth it a man to search for skulls and bones when he can find mummies in the British Museum and in Cairo, which trace the similarity of ancient man to modern man, and he finds at both ends strong traditions of his creative origin? To link man's origin to the ape through the finding of an anthropoid-ape-fossil-tooth in Nebraska is no shorter a flight of the imagination than that which the scientist attempts to puncture in a paraphrase of his own writings with those of Genesis. Whereas every student of man's origin wishes the explorer godspeed in his discoveries natural history will be more benefited by a hundred-foot dinosaur skeleton than by the logical or illogical links with which he will build up a thesis to convince man of his wherefrom, for the average man is more interested in his future than in his past.

A little country girl went shopping in the city with her mother and had her first experience in an elevator. 'How did you like it?" asked the father on her return.

"Why, it was so funny, daddy," answered the child. "We went into a little house, and the upstairs came down."—[Exchange.

LETTERS TO The Times

Who Were Guilty?

PASADENA, Nov. 30.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I notice that Governor Richardson charges that city officials of Los Angeles protected and accepted bribe money from "Big Hutch" and other swindlers in 1920, but that the guilty officials are barred from prosecution by the statute of limitations.

It seems to the average citizen that when the Governor of the State makes such a serious charge it is the duty of Mayor Cryer, who was chief executive of Los Angeles in 1920, to take cognizance of the Governor's charges and conduct an investigation, disregarding any statute of limitations.

The people want to know the names of these bribe-takers and partners of bunco men and it is the duty of the Mayor of Los Angeles to start an investigation that will lead to the exposure of alleged crooked city officials serving under his administration as charged by the Governor of the State.

J. C. HACKER.

Tied in Red Tape

CULVER CITY, Nov. 28.—[To the Editor of The Times:] We are only two struggling property owners who make sacrifices each year in order to meet our taxes promptly. And yet for all our promptness I have just found that our property for been sold for $6.04. The original assessment was for furnishing street lights on Clarington avenue, the avenue on which we live in the Palms district. In order to redeem this property, for which we received no notice of assessment, we were compelled to pay the original assessment of $3.68 plus 10 per cent penalty of 36 cents, advertising fee 50 cents, certificate of sale 50 cents.

When I found that they had our name and address properly on the books down there I asked why we did not receive our notice and the clerk said "Ask me something easy. People come in here and ask the most impossible questions. The best way is not to own any property. I don't. If you people insist on owning property you must take the consequences." Then I went to room sixteen, the registration room, and I found that the name and address were properly registered and I asked again why we had not received notice and if we would receive notice in the future and the clerk replied, "You may and you may not, depending entirely upon whether you will or not. The best thing for you to do is to run down every three or four months and find out whether there is any assessment against you. Sometimes the clerks forget to come down here and get the names in order to send the assessments out. But that don't make a bit of difference. You pay and you pay the penalty."

What we want to know is, what are we paying our taxes for? Is it to employ a lot of inefficient clerks who don't own property here and don't want anyone else to own property? However, if Los Angeles expects to prosper she should lend her assistance and at least see that clerks are employed who are bright enough to send out notices when they appear before their eyes. If the attitude of indifference continues among the employees of the city it will mean a cheapening of values, for people will sell their property at any price. The property owner is not being treated with respect or fairness.

Wants Peace and Quiet

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 30.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I read with much interest the article in a recent issue of your paper concerning excess of noise in this city.

I have just returned from the East and was much surprised to hear "our noise" as a topic of conversation by people who have been out here recently. The auto "honking" was the chief concern—then the street cars—both largely covering the resident sections where one is entitled to reasonable quietness.

One needs only to stand on Wilshire morning or evening—say, in front of Gaylord apartments—and listen to the "nuts" "honking" for others to get out of the way so they can exceed the speed limit by ten or more miles.

If there is an ordinance covering this and a few arrests are made every day for a month it will stop. Something should be done.

F. L. SMITH.

A JOKER IN THE PACK

BY ELMER ELLSWORTH HELMS

The Association Against Prohibition, which has always been loud in its clamor against the saloon, since the other fellow has buried the saloon never to be resurrected—the other day put in a side argument for the saloon. This was the argument: "Wipe out the abuse, not the use. There are bad barber shops, filthy shops, dangerous barber shops, but because of that you do not favor prohibiting the barber business." Did you ever hear of a man going into a barber shop and having three shaves or two haircuts and then treating the house to a shampoo? Did you ever hear of a poor wife knocking at the parson's door late at night, crying, "Doctor, do come and help me get John out of the barber shop. He has already had five facial massages, two hair singes and three mustache trims and when he comes home I know he will break up the furniture and maybe kill the children and me." There is a fundamental difference between the barber trade and the saloon trade; a difference that makes one amenable to regulation and the other amenable only to prohibition.

Every man is popular with somebody, even though it may merely be with himself.

DINNER FOR GRAUMAN TO BE UNUSUAL

Plans Ready for Unique Testimonial to Motion-Picture Producer

All preparations have been concluded for the unique testimonial dinner which the Wampas is tendering Sid Grauman on behalf of the motion-picture industry, according to the statement of Harry D. Wilson, chairman of the arrangements committee.

Leaders in every branch of the motion-picture industry—producers, distributors, exhibitors, directors, writers and stars, to the number of 500 have accepted invitations to the dinner. Mayor Cryer and other city officials, as well as bankers and leaders of the business world also will be present in recognition of Grauman's contributions to the community.

The program of speeches and entertainment, prepared under the auspices of the Wampas, will give this affair a tone comparable only to the famous Gridiron Club dinners held at the national capital every year.

Maj. Rupert Hughes will be toastmaster for the evening. Fred Niblo will present Grauman to the assembled guests.

Further reservations are coming in to Wilson's office at such a rate that it will doubtless be necessary to add accommodations to the existing floor plan. Besides the chairman, the arrangements committee consists of Ham Beall, Robert Doman, Pete Smith, James Loughburrough, Mark Larkin, Ray Leek and George Landy.

Motor Company Sales for Year Set New Record

The Walter M. Murphy Motors Company is celebrating its first anniversary with what is declared to be a record-breaking business for an automobile-distribution concern in California. Since December 1, 1924, the firm has handled cars valued at nearly $23,000,000.

"We have had shipped to us a total of 18,766 Hudson and Essex cars since that date," said Richard F. Carlson, general manager of the Murphy organization. "This number of cars in value will approximate a total of $22,938,350."

All cars sold by the company are closed models and the retail prices average more than $1200. The business record is regarded as indicative of highly prosperous conditions in Southern California.

HARRY ALPINE TRIAL FOR MURDER BEGINS

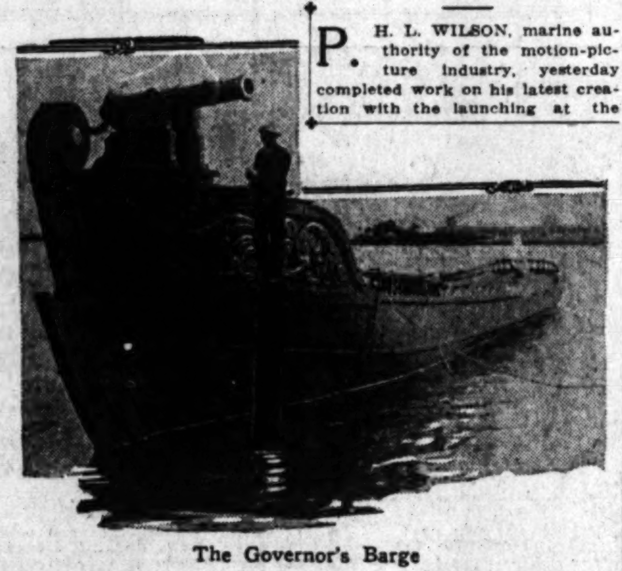
The murder trial of Harry Alpine, accused of slaying Barney Blum, got under way yesterday before Judge Reeve with the calling of several technical witnesses, including policeman who found the body. The trial will continue today.

PICTURE PRIZES AWARDED

Winners in the photographic contest recently conducted by the Roland J. Giroux Company were announced yesterday at an exhibit of the photographs submitted, which have been hung at the Southern California Camera Club in the Stimson Building. James W. Morrison, Charles B. Holman and J. W. Moore were, respectively, first, second and third prize winners of $50, $25 and $10 each.

"WORLD'S LARGEST ROWBOAT"

Unique Craft Will be Used in Film



The Governor's Barge

P. H. L. WILSON, marine authority of the motion-picture industry, yesterday completed work on his latest creation with the launching at the harbor plant of the Seacraft Corporation of the "world's largest rowboat," 112 feet long with a beam of only twelve feet. The marine oddity is the Governor's barge to be used by Douglas Fairbanks in the filming of his present production off Catalina Island.

The boat was towed yesterday to Catalina. It will be taken twenty-five miles off-shore, there to be attacked by the pirate ship, which in ordinary times is the old clipper ship Llewellyn J. Morse. By an ingenius system of ringbolts and chains attached to the rowboat's keel it will be sunk and then raised on the scene of the conflict.

The giant barge will be propelled by thirty oars, to be pulled by thirty sailors from the United States Battle Fleet.

GAIN SHOWN BY BUILDING IN SUBURB

Beverly Hills Total for Eleven Months Beats 1924 Figures by $5,307,564

Building in Beverly Hills continues to increase.

Figures compiled by the building inspector indicate that in the eleven months just passed Beverly Hills has done $5,307,564 more building than it did in the corresponding period of 1924.

The total for the eleven months of 1925 is $9,400,816; for the corresponding period in 1924 it was $4,093,252.

The November, 1925, total, the month just ended, is $1,067,760, an increase of $696,140 over November, 1924, when the total was $369,620.

Last month's building was headed by residential construction which included permits for eighty-seven residences. Averaging more than $9650 each in cost, the total value of the eighty-seven dwellings was $839,550.

The month's construction also included the beginning of work on ninety garages aggregating in value $26,410; five apartment houses with a total value of $44,500; five business buildings costing together $86,500 and alteration and repair work nivolving the expenditure of $70,500.

Holiday Season Celebrated by Store Employees

Employees of the Safeway Stores ushered in the holiday season yesterday with a banquet in the company's warehouse on Vernon avenue. There were gifts of merchandise to all the diners and the regular biweekly bonus of $2500 was paid out. The 450 managers and department heads reported prosperous conditions, and it was announced that each employee will receive a turkey for Christmas as a gift of the organization.

There are now 322 Safeway Stores, distributed from San Diego to Bakersfield.

SHIP LINE DEFENDANT IN LAWSUIT

Damages of $27,810 Asked on Ground Company Made Misrepresentations

Declaring the status of the Southern California Steamship Company was misrepresented to him to induce him to advance money to the company, S. C. Gill yesterday filed suit for $27,810 damages against the asserted directors of the company. Those named defendants in the action are W. Petersen, W. A. Keen, J. Bartenson, E. J. Mitchell and E. N. Fletcher.

Among other things, Gill said, the defendants represented that Petersen was an old-line mariner; that he mastered everything from a windjammer to a modern liner, including the boat that laid the first trans-Atlantic cable and the Steamer George Washington, on which Woodrow Wilson went to France in 1919.

Gill also charged the defendants told him the company had obtained water-front space at Long Beach and Santa Monica. All of the asserted representations were false, according to Gill, who said he advanced $2810 to the company. He asked $25,000 exemplary damages. The complaint was filed by Attorneys Harry L. Cohn and Walter Desmond.

LOEW HERE ON VISIT TO CULVER CITY

Says Trip Merely to Look Over Plant and Not to Do With Merger Proposal

Marcus Loew, president of Loew's, Inc., arrived here yesterday to pay his annual visit to the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio at Culver City. He was accompanied by Lee Shubert, a stockholder in Loew's, Inc., and by his brother-in-law. He was welcomed at the train by Louis B. Mayer and other studio executives, and after a short visit at the studio went to the Biltmore.

"My visit has nothing to do with the distributing merger that was proposed with United Artists," he said. "It is merely an inspection trip. There are to be no startling developments that I know of in the motion-picture world. Things at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio seem to be going as they should.

"We proposed a distribution merger with United Artists because we thought they had some good pictures and that the arrangements would be mutually beneficial, but that is all off now."

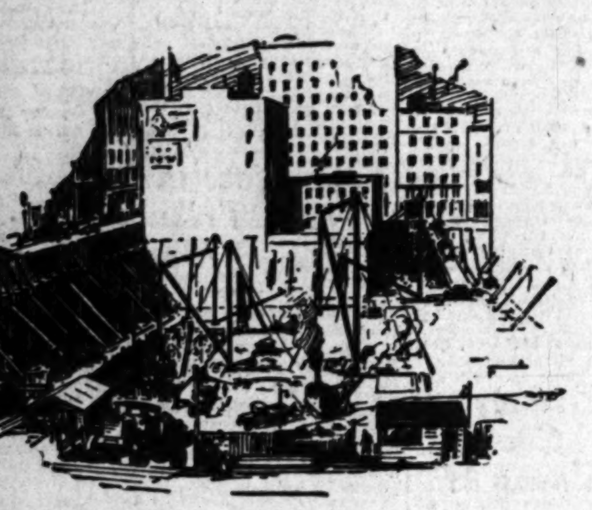
He said he expects to return to New York in time for Christmas.

Former Lawyer Fined $250 in Contempt Case

W. J. Hittson, a disbarred attorney, was fined $250 yesterday by Judge Shaw for contempt of court on charges brought by the Los Angeles Bar Association that Hittson had held himself out to be an attorney in this city since his disbarment in September, 1918. Hittson was asserted to have caused his name to be listed in the telephone directory as an attorney and to have sent out letterheads on which the word "lawyer" followed his name. It was also charged that he was listed as an attorney in the directory of a building in which he maintained an office.

Hittson, who was given five days in which to pay the fine, will have to serve a day in jail for each $2 of the fine if the amount assessed by the court is not paid, Judge Shaw ruled.

Rev. M. Madeline Southard of Winfield, Kan., was recently reelected president of the International Association of Women Preachers.



The Foundation

IN many an American city today tall structures stand on foundations that were planned by their architects to support the weight of extra stories if the future's needs should call for such additions. Their very existence is proof of the vision of men who provided for that which they could not definitely foresee.

Similarly capable of meeting the future's needs was the foundation upon which the Bell System has been reared. At a time when a few miles was the greatest distance over which man's wire-borne voice might travel, the telephone pioneers could not, of course, foresee in detail the problems of invention, manufacture, construction and operation which future expansion might involve.

They could, however, and did catch the vision of a national growth which would necessitate a service continent-wide in scope. They could and did provide the foundation for a structure capable of growing with the nation. The proof of their vision lies in the fact that America today has a nation-wide, universal telephone service.

What Women are Doing

The monthly meeting of the Drama League, Los Angeles Center, will be this evening at 8 o'clock in studio A of the Friday Morning clubhouse. The program, a reading by Helen Taggart Pole of the play, "Processional," by John Howard Lawson, an American playwright, promises to furnish the members a great field for the discussion which follows the reading.

"Processional" will be read for the first time in California. This play was produced by the Theater Guild at the Garrick Theater in New York in January, this year, and created widespread interest. Among camments of well-known critics that of Heywood Broun is worthy of note. Mr. Broun says: "'Processional' is wholly engrossing, extraordinarily poignant—altogether one of the finest plays that has come out of our native theater."

The play is a jazz symphony of American life and in the words of Edward Bjorkman, is one of the finest and most significant plays produced in America in a long time. It is a broad theme, and the discussion, which will be led by Mrs. W. E. Silverwood, president of the Drama League, will be interesting to all those who have the interest of modern drama at heart. Nonmembers will be welcome and may be admitted upon payment of a nominal admission charge.

Anatole France Discussed

The Explorers will meet at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow in the Louis XV room of the Hollywood Plaza Hotel on Vine street, just south of Hollywood Boulevard.

Leslie Conner Williams will discuss Anatole France and will review "Anatole France Himself," an informal biography written by the great man's secretary, Jean Jacques Brousson. Mrs. Williams also will review Christopher Morley's latest novel, "Thunder on the Left." This extraordinary story was published as a serial in Harper's Magazine, and was introduced with the editorial statement "that in our deliberate opinion no more beautiful nor distinguished contribution to American fiction has been made for many years."

A discussion of current plays, motion pictures, art exhibitions and magazine articles will conclude the meeting.

Highland Park Ebell

December programs at Highland Park Ebell Club express a holiday spirit. The Marian Andrews Trio, including Marian Andrews, who possesses a soprano voice of vibrancy and color; Elsie Manion, violinist, and Evelyn Kemp, pianist, well-known artists, will appear next Tuesday morning.

Miss Winifred Rouzee will resume her discussion of the books of the Bible before the Bible section.

California Jubilee Day was observed with a Spanish program of romance and vivid coloring last Tuesday morning, when Katherine Von Blon, soprano, in costume, sang Spanish songs, accompanied by Raymond McFeeters at the piano, and several pupils of Norma Gould gave Spanish dances, interpreting the moods of the Spanish in an idealistic manner.

Much interest was shown in the section meetings of Tuesday, when Miss Gertrude Darlow reviewed new books after the monthly luncheon, and later when affairs of state were discussed at the American citizenship section.

Through the courtesy of Mrs. W. L. Judson, chairman of art, paintings by local artists are being exhibited monthly at the clubhouse. For December, the exhibit is by Karl Yens, who was preceded by Nell Brooker Mayhew in October, and William L. Judson in November.

FRENCH TOAST

Cut six slices of stale bread one-third of an inch thick and toast a nice golden brown. Beat three eggs in a bowl and add gradually a pinch of salt, two cups of milk and a teaspoonful of sugar. Strain into a large shallow pan and lay in the slices of toast, which should float on top. Let stand ten minutes, turning over once. Heat three level tablespoonfuls of butter in a large omelet pan, lay in the soaked toast carefully and cook until a golden brown on the bottom, pour the remaining milk mixture slowly over the toast; turn the toast and cook a nice brown. Place on a hot platter, sprinkle with a few drops of lemon juice and place a thin slice of tart jelly on each piece. Sprinkle with powdered sugar and serve with slices of lemon.

ARTICHOKE FRITTERS

Remove the tough outside leaves from ten young artichokes, cut off the ends of the remaining leave, take out the chokes, cut each artichoke in six slices lengthwise and cover with cold water to which has been added two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice. In the morning, at least three hours before the artichokes are to be cooked, make a batter by mixing the yolk of one egg with one tablespoonful of olive oil, two tablespoonfuls of sifted flour and two tablespoonfuls of milk, mix well. Drain the artichokes, add the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs to the batter with a seasoning of salt and pepper; dip in the pieces of artichoke and fry a nice brown in hot olive oil; drain, place on a folded napkin and garnish with lemon slices and branches of parsley.

FRUIT SALAD

Cut six halves of canned pears in dice and mix with half a cupful of diced seeded dates, one cupful of peeled and diced orange, half a cupful of seedless raisins, one-half a cupful blanched and chopped almonds and one-half cupful of lemon French dressing. Serve on cold lettuce-covered plates.

BAKED OYSTER PIE

Line an earthenware or glass baking dish with a short biscuit dough and sift over the bottom and sides some dry flour; drain the liquor from four cupfuls of California oysters, season with salt, paprika, and two tablespoonfuls of melted butter; place the oysters in the dough-covered dish, add one cupful of milk, cover with the biscuit dough, make a small hole in the center, brush with beaten egg and milk and bake in a quick oven.

SAND TORTE

Melt one cupful of butter, skim carefully and let stand in cold place until solid; place the butter in a bowl and beat to a cream and gradually beat in three-quarters of a cupful of sifted sugar and beat hard until light; add the yolks of two eggs and beat five minutes; add two tablespoonfuls of blanched and ground almonds, the grated rind and juice of one lemon and five-sixths of a cupful of cornstarch sifted with two tablespoonfuls of flour; beat five minutes and fold in the stiffly beaten whites of three eggs. Butter a deep cake tin and cover the bottom and sides with cake crumbs, pour in the cake batter and bake in a moderate oven thirty-five minutes. Cool on a wire cake rack and when cold cover with boiled icing.

HIGH SCHOOL DEBATE ON AVIATION, TOPIC

Manual Arts High School debating teams will take part in two debates Friday night on the subject, "Resolved, that the Sixty-ninth Congress should provide for an independent department of aviation."

The affirmative team, which consists of Abe Epstein and Jack Holmes, will meet Los Angeles High School at Manual Arts at 8 p.m. Friday, with Judge Craig of the Superior Court presiding.

The negative team, consisting of Arthur Huey and John Graves, will compete with the high school at the University of Southern California in the latter's auditorium.

CARRIED FIGHTS TO BATH, SAYS HUSBAND

When Thomas P. Hubbard was enjoying his bath he did not care to be involved in family disputes, so it was nothing less than extreme cruelty for his wife to jimmy her way into the bathroom with a hammer and a screwdriver and carry her quarrel to him there, he declared in his suit for divorce from Bertha Hubbard. On another occasion, he said, she tore his coat from him and scratched his face.

YOUNG SEES WEAKNESS IN TAX PLAN

Lieutenant-Governor in Address Doubts System Can Withstand Strain

Questioning the adequacy of California's present tax system to stand the strain of normally increasing State expenditures, Lieut.-Gov. Young, in an address yesterday at the Los Angeles City Club, advocated a thorough study of the State tax system, "with an examination of the best in the tax systems of other States, thus aiding in the revision of our own."

"One of the burdens borne by the taxpayer has of late shown a tendency to become oppressive," said Mr. Young. "I refer to the rates allowed by the Railroad Commission for certain public services. When in Los Angeles a month ago I found a general condition of alarm concerning a proposed increase in telephone rates for this city—an increase which seemed to me to be exorbitant.

"I have always tried to be a defender of the theory by which great powers are vested in the State Railroad Commission. However, I have always realized that this commission, designed to be a bulwark of the people, against all possible unjust encroachments of public service corporations, might easily, if the viewpoint under which it were created should change, become a positive menace to the public welfare. I hope that condition has not arrived and that the fears I heard expressed a month ago have not been justified."

Worn Brakes Send Cookies to Wrong Man

The little general store at the corner of Yale and Alpine streets did not order a truckload of cookies yesterday and did not know exactly what to do with them when they arrived. In fact, they proved decidedly in the way.

The whole thing was more or less unintentional on everybody's part, Bill Manna, driver of the truck, explained to Detective Lieutenant Southerland. Manna, piloting the cookies for his employers, the Nutt Brothers Company, arrived at the top of the hill blissfully unconscious that his brakes were out of order, and did not discover the fact until it was too late. There was nothing else to do but to hit the store, Manna said.

Jack Lutz, 18 years of age, of Venice, who was sitting beside Manna, was bruised in the smash-up, but there were no other injuries.

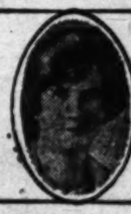
Would-be Suicide Incarcerated in Psychopathic Ward

A. T. Bradshaw, 70 years of age, of 962 North Hollenbeck street, Belvedere, was taken to the psychopathic ward of the General Hospital yesterday, following his attempt upon his life in front of his home. Bradshaw, it was said, ran into his front yard flourishing a razor, and drew it across his throat in full view of the horrified neighborhood. He is expected to recover.



The Woman and Her Job

BY VALERIE WATROUS

(Questions concerning the problems of women will be answered in th if addressed to Mrs. Watrous at The Times.)

THE WALLS OF HOME

Dear Mrs. Watrous:

With your intimate knowledge of business, do you honestly that women make good in business? Down in your heart, d think a woman's place is in the home? AUNT SU

Well, down in my heart, old thing, I'm profoundly convinced the writer of that letter is an uncle, not an aunt. No woman is quite silly enough to ask that question, 'cause every woman knows there are a million of us who don't have homes in which to have a place. What are you going to do with us?

Domestic service? Oh yes, there is that avenue, but what about the woman who has intelligence and education? Is she to sell her services for $10 a week when she can market them for $40? Suppose she is a widow with two small children? Will she be welcomed as a housemaid?

My sister has just been telling me of a woman who was visited by one misfortune after the other throughout the nine years of her married life. The crowning one came with the death of her husband. She was penniless, living in a small furnished flat, had two small children to support, and was herself tubercular.

I could tell you what she did and how she did it. It's a story in itself. But eventually she went into clerical work, and with less than $100 a month fed and clothed herself and children, also a younger sister, educated the three, has seen her daughter satisfactorily married and is putting her son through high school.

Perhaps you wouldn't call that "making good in business," Uncle Susan, but what she did would have given the average man the hebejebes.

Maybe women don't make good in business, but I recently observed that Delaware has a woman secretary of State; that an American woman, married to a Briton, has been elected Mayor of the English city from which Abraham Lincoln's forebearers came; that a daughter of a Supreme Court Justice is a

CITY SEEKS EXTENSION OF AVENUE

Suit Filed to Condemn Land Needed in Widening Virgil Thoroughfare

What is considered one of the most important street projects to be started in the western part of the city in several years got under way in Superior Court yesterday when the city filed suit to condemn property for the widening and extension of Virgil avenue.

The project calls for the opening and widening of the avenue between Fountain avenue and Geneva street and a new extension of the avenue connecting Sunset Boulevard, Leavitt street and Fountain avenue.

The complaint, which named approximately 2500 property owners defendants, comprises 634 pages of printed matter and is the largest document of its kind to be filed in Superior Court since the complaint calling for the condemnation of land for the new Civic Center.

Widening and extension of Virgil avenue, street officials say, will aid greatly in facilitating traffic between the downtown and Hollywood sections and generally in the western part of the city. The complaint was prepared by attaches of the City Attorney's office.

Employees in Final Tribute to E. B. Machin

Funeral services for Edward B. Machin, pioneer Los Angeles manufacturer, will be conducted tomorrow at Forest Lawn, and will be attended by the entire force of employees of the Machin Shirt Company, 739 South Broadway, which he founded in 1890.

Mr. Machin, who was 77 years of age, was born in New York and came to Los Angeles thirty-five years ago. The company he headed is declared to be the oldest and largest custom shirt house on the Pacific Coast, with a wide distribution of customers.

Mr. Machin had been a member of the Chamber of Commerce since 1894, and was active in business until a few years ago, when his age compelled his retirement. He remained president of the company, however, until his death. He leaves his widow but no other near relatives.

Legion Leaves Commander Off Election Slate

Uncertainty surrounds the naming of the next commander of Los Angeles Post No. 8, American Legion, it was stated yesterday with the announcement that the annual election will take place at Foresters' Hall tonight. Nominations made two weeks ago for next year's officers failed to include the names of possible commanders of the post.

C. W. Maples, G. C. O'Connell and Bertha Hooper are nominees for vice-commanders, M. B. Silberberg for judge-advocate, M. C. Collingwood for treasurer, R. W. Holliway for historian and Rev. Gordon Palmer for chaplain. Miss Marie Renard, Gardner Bullis, Archie Vernon and Horace Shidler are on the ballot for executive committeemen, and Earl Taylor and Charles Ogden are candidates for sergeant-at-arms.

Buffet Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Frankel are planning to entertain with a buffet supper at their beach home, Santa Monica, Sunday evening, honoring John Powell, composer-pianist, and Howard Hanson, composer. These artists are appearing with the Philharmonic Orchestra tomorrow afternoon and Saturday evening.

Monkeys Play on Telephone Wires

When a telephone company contracted to put up wires in Mexico it naturally assumed that they could be of light weight, there being no danger of extra strain upon them from snowfalls or sleet storms. The company, however, had not allowed for the curiosity and playfulness of the parrots and monkeys. Every night, after darkness had settled down completely, these little wild creatures performed all kinds of gymnastics and capers on the wires, so that miles and miles had to be replaced with heavy cables.

HOSTESS FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Entertains at Pre-Nuptial Luncheon

[Snyder for National Illustrated News Syndicate]

Mrs. Hazel White

ONE of the gracious hostesses of recent date is Mrs. Hazel White, who entertained at her home in North Ardmore avenue, with a bridge luncheon honoring Miss Paula Weyman, popular bride-elect of the season, whose engagement to Richard Wack, was recently announced. The decorations and place cards carried out the motif of the approaching wedding and twenty guests were bidden. Dainty favors arranged as corsages proved on closer inspection to be beautiful little handkerchiefs of shaded coral silk.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.

Author of "Diet and Health" and "Diet for Children"

A SIMPLE MEAL WILL HELP

First course: small servings of celery, olives and salted nuts, French rolls and butter on side; second course: oysters on half shell, cocktail sauce; third course: soup with crackers; fourth course: sweetbreads with mushrooms en casserole; fifth course: capon with rich dressing, cranberry sauce, candied sweet potatoes, creamed onions; sixth course: small portion of tomato and lettuce salad; seventh course: ice cream and cake; eighth course: demi-tasse.

A typical table d'hote dinner. Too high in protein, fat and carbohydrates. Two low in vitamins and mineral elements. Too great a variety and so much that one invariably overeats. Very high in cost in health and money. We have this type of dinner often, don't we—some of us, anyway?

Next Sunday, December 6, is Golden Rule Sunday. On this day, we are asked to give a little thought to the motherless and fatherless children in the orphanages of the Near East. We are asked to have a simple dinner of vegetables, corn grits, or other cereal, with milk, and some stewed apricots—and donate the money we save by so doing, and as much more as we can spare, to help the Near East Relief to continue to support these children. This meal is the type of meal that is a banquet to them.

Let's all do this. It will not only put us in sympathy with the work of the near East Relief, but will benefit us in health. We'll send the money we save—and as much more as we can spare—to the Near East Relief agency in our respective cities, or to the headquarters at 151 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

ALCOHOLISM

Mrs. S.: There is no home remedy that I know of for the cure of drinking. If your husband hasn't moral stamina enough to stop himself I am afraid no material remedies will help him.

Your work is to furnish him well-balanced, nutritious meals and pleasant surroundings. See if you cannot get him interested in taking a good course of physical exercises in a gymnasium, and in every way have him try to build up a strong, healthy physical constitution. We will hope the moral constitution will develop with it.

ITCHY TOES

J.: Intense itching between the toes and fingers, without any itching elsewhere on the body, is usually due to a fungoid, or a germ growth. Both of these are the lowest type of vegetable life. The growth of these agents is favored by moisture and warmth.

The treatment consists of the application of some germicide that will kill off the infection; and after bathing the hands and feet, to be sure of always wiping them thoroughly dry. A good germicide (which is also a deodorant,) for this purpose, is a solution made of one ounce of formalin to the quart of water. Apply this by rubbing a little on the parts, after they have been thoroughly washed and dried. Repeat this daily for a week, then twice a week, and then less often.

K.: Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for our article on Diet in Chronic and Acute Bright's disease.

Tomorrow—Answers to Mothers

My Dear Followers: When sending for material which we offer you, please remember to inclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must inclose 10 cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 200 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the column as soon as possible, if they are of general interest. Don't forget the stamped, self-addressed envelope if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

IMPERIAL SHIPPING UP TO STATE BOARD

The matter of providing railway express service for dairy produce from Imperial Valley to Los Angeles is one for the State Railroad Commission and not the City Council or Board of Public Utilities and Transportation to decide, according to a report filed yesterday with the board by J. O. Marsh, manager. The board returned to the Council a resolution which had been proffered by Councilman Jacobson and advised that it be forwarded to the Railroad Commission.

CITY CHIEFS TO UNITE IN RAT DRIVE

Ordinance Which Satisfies Property Owners as Well as Government Sought

Various city officials will work out together a rat-proofing ordinance which will satisfy the demands of the United States Public Health Service and which will work no unwarranted hardship upon property owners, it was stated yesterday after a public hearing on the matter in the Council chamber.

The Building and Safety Commission and Council Building and Safety Committee met jointly to consider the proposed ordinance and a large crowd of citizens were present.

Maj. H. F. White of the United States Public Health Service stated that his department wished some instrument which they can use to enforce their war on rodents. It was explained that no drastic regulations were contemplated.

Others who spoke at the meeting were City Health Officer Parrish and J. J. Backus, manager of the Building and Safety Commission.

CAMP FUGITIVE CONVICTED

Joseph Agner was convicted yesterday before Judge Burnell of escaping from the county road camp and will be sentenced today. Agner was serving time in the camp for burglary. He was rearrested in Oregon and extradited.

THE NEW

IN STORES AND HOMES

NOVELTIES, IDEAS AND PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS

By Olive Gray

Hand-Made Gifts

Most personal of all, perhaps, is the hand-made gift. Time there is for this and opportunity for making articles new and original. Even though you may not be expert at such work, you may ally yourself with a class, where, under expert instruction, you may become quite facile. Nearly every downtown store holds classes and never before it seems were there so many fine objects to accomplish. Worsted-flowering, the Spanish shawl; fashioning plastic art; hooking lovely rugs, in facsimile of ye old Colonials; knitting scarves and sweaters; lamp-shading; tapestry working; creating silken flowers. The list is inspiring; the work fascinating, as well as economical.

Nonslips

New are the garment hangers having rubber knobs at either end, which prevent the coat or dress from slipping off, as is too often the case. Many of the gifty ones are enameled in dainty colors, while those for children have rosy faces painted upon them.

Improved Shoe Trees

The best of the shoe trees, are "toed in." That is, the toe pieces are riveted so that they are not always coming out. Nothing is more provoking than to have the tree toe adhere to the shoe, just as you are hurrying to get dressed for a belated appointment.

Hat Holders

So simple that you wonder why no one thought of them before, are the wooden hat-holders, for keeping your hat neatly in the clothes-closet. These may be flattened out when not in use and, when standing in a row upon the shelf, are quite ornamental, being enameled in dainty colors. It is a good idea to place a pad on top, sacheted with your favorite odor, so that your hat will carry with it your personal perfume.

Parisian

Gladys writes from Paris that autographed hats are the latest fads. Artists who design the hats for the local milliners, sign their names, thus adding to the value of the chapeaux.

All Dolled Up

Your dressing-table should be all dolled up these days. If you do not possess a number of these toyish accessories, it is up to Santa Claus to get busy with your Christmas stocking. A bisque-headed doll for your pin cushion, a similar one, but smaller, for your powder puff, a doll for your lampshade and, oh, dolls, dolls, for every imaginable boudoir purpose, including pillows, bags and other receptacles.

Aunt Jane Says:

"Tell them to place a rubber mat on the bottom of the bathtub and even the stiff-legged older generation will not be likely to slip, when getting in or out of the bath."

Americanizing

Fashion should be interested in the exhibit, staged recently in New York, where American artists of repute, taking the cue from French painters who do not disdain to thus design, have put their talents at the disposal of textile manufacturers of silk and fabrics. A correspondent writes:

The designs are essentially American in character, emphasizing the revolt from the traditional acceptance by silk manufacturers of French designs. There is, for example, "Hollywood," by Neysa McMein; "Tango Weed," by Ralph Barton; "Skyscraper," by Clayton Knight; "Jazz," by Rene Clarke; "Sargasso Sea" and "1850," by Katharine Sturges, and "Inca" and "Maya," by Charles B. Falls. The designs are thirty-one in number and are now being manufactured into dresses for the spring season. Every dress length sold to the women of the country will be accompanied by a card giving the name of the design and its author. The collection of designs printed on silk and the original artists' sketches have been presented to the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Wished on by Fashion

Tie ends still flutter from many collars.

There is also a new bloused-in-back effect.

The uneven hem-line is favored by the mode.

In neckwear, the double collar is a smart note.

The body is often outlined to below the hips.

Some of the new coats have bell-shaped sleeves.

All the new coats sponsor the godet movement.

Brown and white fur is used together a great deal.

The big, pouch-shaped bag is smartest for shopping.

A great deal of rich embroidery is used on crepe dresses.

The bolero is smart and very good for youthful figures.

A narrow scarf collar may be used on the surplice frock.

Mole dyed green is used on a coat of light green kasha.

The sports frock uses inverted pleats both front and back.

A great deal more freedom is given to the tailored mode.

Mole seems to be one of the favorite furs for trimming.

A great many frocks and coats are without underarm seams.

South American Business Object of Consul's Trip

Senor Don Manuel Ayulo, honorary Consul in Los Angeles for the Peruvian government, has gone to South America on a trade-extension trip in the interests of several local manufacturing companies, with a view to developing foreign trade between South American countries and Los Angeles Harbor. Peru has an unlimited field for the development of trade with this country, he stated.

Bolivia and Ecuador also will be visited, where Senor Ayulo plans to appoint agents representing local companies, as the initial step in establishing a market for the products of the firms in whose interest he is making the trip.

During his absence of several months affairs of the consulate of Peru here will be conducted by W. Desmerets, Vice-Consul of Colombia, and acting Consul of Honduras.

Clubman Jailed for Checks Said to be Worthless

Joseph Simons, dapper young Hollywood club and society man, was arrested yesterday by Detective Lieutenants Knowles and Wilson on suspicion of forgery and issuing fictitious checks.

The youthful suspect, said to be a member of a well-to-do Hollywood family, was declared by the detectives to have moved in the best of the film capital society, but to have used his social standing to float a number of worthless checks when he became pressed for funds. He was arrested in his room at the Westgate Hotel at 445 South Western avenue.

OVERSEAS LEAGUE TO PLAN FOR CHRISTMAS

Christmas celebration at the Red Cross Hut of the Veterans' Hospital at Sawtelle; at the Soldiers' and Sailors' Club, 755 South Main street, Los Angeles, and for disabled ex-service women of the community, are to be planned at the December meeting of the Los Angeles unit of the Women's Overseas Service League this evening at the Gatch-Hill Studios, 3508-3510 West Seventh street, with Miss Grace Hobson, the president presiding. The gift-giving and holiday celebration activities of the local unit of the W. O. S. L. are in charge of Mrs. Zorayda McCulloch, service chairman, and Miss Peggy Wood, club chairman. Nomination of officers for the coming year also will be in order at the meeting, according to Mrs. Blanche Mullen, chairman of the nominating committee.

LEVY FOR VERMONT PAVING CONFIRMED

The City Council yesterday denied all appeals for aid and confirmed the assessments for the paving of Vermont avenue from Manchester avenue to One Hundred Sixty-fifth street and from Manchester avenue to Sixty-third street. The City Attorney ruled that there was at present no way for the city to assist property owners in bearing the burden of the improvement, as was requested by Councilman Colden, who argued that highways to the harbor are of great public benefit to the entire city.

TALKS ON SHOES

A number of teachers and pupils of the Hollenbeck Heights Junior High School attended a lecture yesterday, given by L. Gablere of Mellinkoff's Shoe Store. This was one of a series of educational lectures on application of the various schools and industrial organizations.

Jury Calls for All Records of Automat Vendor

The United States grand jury issued a subpoena yesterday directing L. G. Kellogg, former fiscal agent for the Jeffries Automatic Service Company, vendors of pie and sandwich machines, to produce all books of the L. G. Kellogg Company during the time he acted as agent for the Jeffries concern.

United States authorities as well as agents of the State Corporation Commission began an investigation several months ago of the manner in which the Jeffries company sold approximately $3,000,000 worth of leases in its machines throughout Southern California.

PLAN TO RAISE AUTOS FROM HARBOR BOTTOM

Aside from such other duties as building wharves, planning warehouses and managing a force of several hundred workmen, Harbor Engineer Nicholson was assigned the task yesterday at the regular meeting of the Harbor Commission of determining ways and means of raising a roadster and a sedan now resting on the bottom of the harbor near Berth 233.

The two cars ran off the bulkhead November 21, all the occupants escaping unhurt. At present the automobiles are not a menace to navigation, but should be removed, according to a recommendation of General Harbor Manager Spear.

OIL CHIEF GOES EAST

J. C. Wheeler, manager of the Shell Company of California, Mrs. Wheeler and young son, Cary, are leaving soon to spend the Christmas holidays at Mr. Wheeler's former home in Baltimore.

WOMEN CALEDONIANS MEET

KHJ CHRISTMAS FETE PREPARED

More Than 400 Poor Children to be Given Party

Each to Receive Gift from Mrs. B. B. Bonheim

Orphan Kiddies May Join in on Entertainment

BY PAUL SHEEDY

With Christmas three weeks off, KHJ is completing preparations for the largest party in the history of this pioneer station of the Southwest, with more than 400 poor children of the city to be the special guests of the stars of the studio's children's hour programs in the elaborate celebration to be broadcast by remote control from the main auditorium of the First Methodist Episcopal Church.

Each one of the child guests is to be given gifts through the kindness of Mrs. B. B. Bonheim, who has given several fine parties for the children, with Edward Murphey, former attache of the station, taking the place of Santa Claus that he filled last year to the delight of the youngsters. His assistants are to be Uncle Remus, the Sandman and Louis F. Klein, all favorites of the twilight hour.

PARTY IN EVENING

The party is to start at 6 o'clock on Christmas evening, with Uncle John heralding the arrival of Santa Claus before the microphone, and it is possible that groups of children will be brought in to the church from orphan asylums and other institutions to see the festivities in addition to the group of poor children of the city who will be invited personally by the children's hour stars of the studio, with each youthful performer giving the names of ten to be asked.

Further plans were made at the studio last evening, when a group of popular artists extended their courtesies to the radio audience with a complimentary concert, lasting from 8:30 until 10 o'clock, following the lecture of Dr. Mars Baumgardt, optometrist and astronomical authority, who resumed his weekly lectures after missing the previous one because of illness, his first absence since he began broadcasting several years ago.

The hour and a half of music was composed of popular and semiclassical selections, with the participants including the Piggly Wiggly Girls' instrumental trio, Lilyan Ariel, concert pianist; Lenore Killian, favorite contralto soloist; Dave Albert and his piano accordion and the Piggly Wiggly Hawaiian Trio. They were all greeted with spontaneous applause with a flood of requests for special numbers coming in over the studio telephones.

Seven youthful entertainers appeared on the evening's children's-hour program after Prof. Walter Sylvester Hertzog made his usual radio talk on history. A feature of the evening was the farewell of Dick Winslow, screen juvenile reporter, and his sister, Camille Johnson, who are leaving for a six-week trip through Louisiana and other Southern States for a production company, making several news pictures, with Dick also appearing in radio talks at stations there as well as sending in a weekly account of his adventures to be read from KHJ. They are to visit the old home of Uncle Remus and many historical spots in the South.

With them last evening were two talented pupils of the Thompson Progressive School for Saxophone, Harold Marshall, 12 years of age, and Carl Eastwood, 11, playing four excellent saxophone solos, with "Remembrance" from "Suite d'Amour," as played by the former, composed by Kathryne Thompson, who accompanied the children. Mickey McBan, well-known screen juvenile and the "Scotch Laddie of KHJ," and Vivian Marple, the "Blue Bell of KHJ," appeared before the microphone, with Robert Taylor, child reader, also giving pianologues.

Two new faces appeared on yesterday's matinee program of the Pacific States Electric Company; Sylvia Courtney, contralto soloist, who was accompanied by Mona Content, concert pianist, and Gayle Lamb, cornetist, accompanied by Frederick Errett, with Wesley B. Tourtelott again scoring a hit with his piano solos. Fred C. McNabb, the "Garden Man of KHJ," made his weekly talk on plants and their care prior to the musical, with McClellan Reed following with his weekly discussion of "Child Psychology" and its importance in present-day educational advancement.

The noon broadcast from the tower was quite different from the programs usually sent into the air at this hour, and more elaborate than the dance concerts. The Orpheus Four male quartet, Uncle Remus and his humorous darky dialogues, Sol Hoopii and his Novelty Three and Dave Albert and his piano accordion filled the hour with numbers, all appearing through the courtesy of the Motor Transit Company, who have frequently sponsored excellent programs from KHJ.

Three of KHJ's widely-known artists are to appear tonight at Monrovia in a special benefit entertainment for the disabled soldiers. Little Vyola Von, demure star of the children's hour program and petite mistress of the Charleston, Hatch Graham and his banjo, and Uncle Remus are to go, all giving their services to assist the veterans.

FINLAYSON DECLINES JUDGESHIP

Reluctance at Leaving City Given as Reason for Refusing Richardson Job

Presiding Justice Frank Finlayson of Division II, Second District Court of Appeal, yesterday declined the offer of an appointment to the State Supreme Court tendered by Gov. Richardson, who is now in the city.

Justice Finlayson gave as the reason for declining the appointment his reluctance to leave Los Angeles. He has lived in this city for thirty-nine years, he said, and has formed many ties with friends and various organizations. His family resides here and their interests are here, he stated, and he did not care to part with these considerations to take a place on the Supreme Court Bench.

After Finlayson's refusal, Gov. Richardson said he would make no decision regarding the appointment until after his return to Sacramento. He leaves tomorrow night.

It is probable that one of the associate members of the court will be advanced to the post of Chief Justice, recently resigned by Justice Louis Myers, and an appointment as associate justice made in the near future.

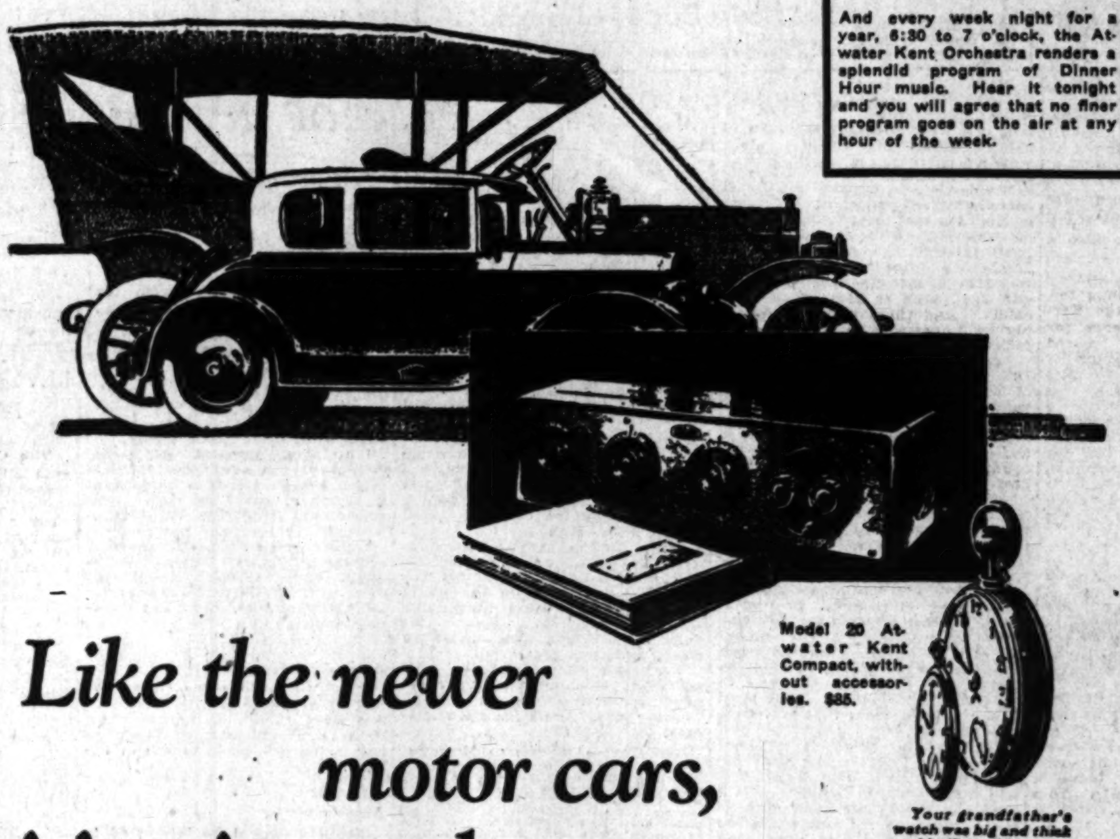
ATWATER KENT RADIO

On KNX Tonight

And every week night for a year, 6:30 to 7 o'clock, the Atwater Kent Orchestra renders a splendid program of Dinner Hour music. Hear it tonight and you will agree that no finer program goes on the air at any hour of the week.



Model 20 Atwater Kent Compact, without accessories. $85.

Your grandfather's watch was big and thick and bulky and heavy. Your modern watch tells time just as well in half the space.)

Like the newer motor cars, it's trim and compact

ALL THE POWER and range of larger Atwater Kent sets is in this new Model 20 Compact. All the same parts are there—just re-arranged to save space. Same tone and volume—same distance and selectivity.

That's the trend of modern invention—discarding mere bulk to save space and increase convenience.

It's been done with automobiles. The cumbersome, heavy cars of ten and fifteen years ago have given place to the smaller, smarter models now in vogue—easier to handle in traffic, easier to park, and costing less for up-keep.

It was natural that in radio this trend should be sensed and met. It was still more natural that this should be done by Atwater Kent.

You must see the Model 20 Compact to appreciate it fully. Go to any store where Atwater Kent Radio is sold. Better go today.

KEE SUIT TO BE DISMISSED

rmer Port Chief to Drop Case Against Successor

lement Out of Court in $150,000 Action Seen

rms Reached by Litigants Not Disclosed in Court

ndicating a settlement out of t of the differences of Edgar Kee, former chairman of the bor Commission, and Charles Colden, Councilman, who succeeded McKee as head of the bor Commission, it was stated erday in Judge Monroe's court steps had been taken to dismiss the suit for $150,000 damages brought last year by McKee against Colden and Louis [illegible], former port official and a harbor— district realty dealer.

While a formal dismissal of the action had not been entered on the court register yesterday, [illegible] Stone, attorney for McKee, said that such a dismissal has been prepared and probably will be filed by attorneys representing Colden. McKee, it was said, appeared before Presiding Judge [illegible] Tuesday and obtained a warrant for the return of $24 he deposited as a jury fee in the case. What terms, if any, the litigants arrived at in reaching a settlement of the issues in the case was not disclosed in court. The case had been scheduled to go to trial before Judge Monroe yesterday.

McKee charged in his complaint that the defendants entered into a conspiracy to de his character with the ultimate object of having him removed from the Harbor Commission. The motive for the asserted conspiracy, he asserted was based on his refusal to enter into an asserted combine with the defendants to obtain a profit from the sale of lands in the harbor district to the city.

The defendants entered both a general and specific denial of the charges and it was reported in their behalf that if McKee insisted, they were willing to go to trial in defense against the accusations made by McKee.

ADDITION TO TANGLES IN FERLIN CASE

Man Convicted of Arson Faces Statutory Charge Naming Stepdaughter

The affairs of the Ferlin family were complicated further yesterday when Dep. Dist.-Atty. Ham filed a complaint against George H. Ferlin, charging him with a statutory offense against his stepdaughter, [illegible] Miller, 13 years of age. Ferlin already is under sentence for arson and for burning insured property, and his conviction of murder, found by a jury in spite of Judge Jennings's advice, was set aside by the court.

Mrs. Dean Ferlin, his wife, is under arrest charged with contributing to the delinquency of her two children, Lovita and Raymond, and Ivan Hunsacker, who is said to have assumed Ferlin's place in the household when Ferlin was arrested, faces a similar charge.

Ferlin's arrest in the first place followed the death of Walter [illegible], declared to have been hired by him to burn a building on Manchester avenue, who was burned in an explosion.

Stops Colds

The best way known to stop a cold is Hill's Cascara-Bromide-Quinine. Millions prove that every winter. It stops a cold in 24 hours.

Many thousands of people every year die from results of colds. Pneumonia alone claims 150,000. So a cold is a very important matter. Treat it in the best way known.

Take Hill's tablets the moment a cold appears. Do it in this way—the best way science knows. All druggists sell Hill's.

Bookkeeper Falls Heir to Fortune

"Upon the death of an uncle I inherited $50,000. I gave up my position and intended enjoying myself when I was stricken with a severe case of stomach trouble and colic attacks. Two of these attacks made me lose consciousness. After treating with our best doctors with little benefit, I decided to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and it helped me at once. I have been entirely well for past year." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. ONCE RULED WILD TEXAS COW LANDS

Everett E. Townsend

DISCOVERER OF ANCIENT TREES HERE

Former Lone Star State Sheriff Tells Wonders of Untraveled Districts

Everett E. Townsend, who resigned after six years as Sheriff of the largest, and said to be the roughest, county in Texas — Brewster county, in the "Big Bend" of the Rio Grande—is visiting in Los Angeles with his son-in-law and daughter, Roy Hudgins and wife of 845 Gladys avenue, Long Beach.

Brewster county is the heart of the cattle range country of West Texas, said Townsend, and approximately 100 miles square, with about 125 miles of frontage on the Mexican border.

While enforcing law and order in this vast cattle-grazing and quicksilver-mining country, Townsend explored many places difficult of access and found natural wonders perhaps not heretofore known to exist.

Townsend contrasted the apparent ease of enforcing the law here in Los Angeles, with a policeman on every street crossing and a judge around the corner, to his domain in West Texas, where it was 100 miles to the Sheriff's office and 100 yards to Mexico — and safety. And there were few telephones, impassable roads and other difficulties.

Commenting on the reports of Dr. E. H. Sellards of the bureau of economic geology of the University of Texas, which announces the discovery of a marvelous prehistoric forest in a remote part of the border region of Brewster county, Townsend says he was the first person to report the existence of the enormous petrified trees, which are said to have been 600 feet in diameter. Compared to these trees the giant Sequoias of California are mere shrubbery, he says.

Near this petrified forest are the Chisos Mountains of great scenic beauty, which afford excellent big game hunting, as do the Palomas Mountains of Chihuahua, across the Rio Grande in Mexico.

This part of West Texas 100 miles and more from any railroad, is perhaps the least explored, least known part of the United States, says Townsend, and can be tied up to the scenic wonders of the great Southwest—Texas to California—which is becoming more and more attractive to tourists seeking the unusual.

WILD PARTY PICTURED IN DEATH CASE

Everybody Had Bottle, Says Witness at Murder Trial of Tom Bay

"It seemed everybody had a bottle," Clarence Sovern, a witness in the murder trial of Tom Bay, motion-picture cowboy, asserted yesterday before Judge Keetch and a jury. He was describing an asserted wild party in the rooms of Yakima Jim Anson in a Hollywood hotel. Bay is charged with killing Anson.

Sovern said he was in Anson's room before the shooting, but left. He heard an uproar later and returned, to find Anson dying.

The jury was completed in the course of the day and Dr. Webb, county autopsy surgeon, the first witness, testified Anson died of gunshot wounds. The weapon that did the slaying was introduced in evidence. Deputy County Surveyor Gorman introduced a diagram of Anson's room to show the position of the body and furniture to help the jury to visualize the shooting.

The case will continue today. Dep. Dist - Attys. Jordan and Scheineman are the prosecutors.

Mrs. Toplitzky Reported to be Critically Ill

Mrs. Ida Toplitzky, mother of Joe Toplitzky, prominent Los Angeles realty man, and of Frank, Harry and Bernard Toplitzky, was reported to be in a critical condition last night at her home, 926 Detroit street, following an illness of more than a year.

She is the widow of Myer Toplitzky who died in Los Angeles in February, 1922.

Mrs. Toplitzky came to Southern California from St. Paul in 1900 with her family.

DEPLORES DECADENCE OF BRAINS

Visiting Author-Lecturer Says American Intellect Has Hit Toboggan

American intelligence is declining, according to Albert Edward Wiggam of New York, author and lecturer on heredity and the influence of our present day civilization on humanity, who arrived at the Alexandria yesterday to deliver a number of lectures in Southern California and to gather material for a series of magazine articles.

"Forces created by our manner of life are at work in our country today which have dulled the fine edge of the intelligence that characterized the pioneers," said Mr. Wiggam. "Remedies may be applied that will stay the progress of these forces and steps in that direction have already been taken. The subject is a complicated one, involving heredity, environment, social conditions, the speed at which we are living, and many other things."

Mr. Wiggam will lecture at Culbertson Hall, California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, on the subject of heredity and human progress tomorrow night and will also deliver lectures on kindred subjects at Beverly Hills and Santa Barbara.

He is the author of two books, "New Decalogue of Science," and "Fruit of the Family Tree," which have created a sensation in the East and which have been among the six best sellers in the line of non-fiction literature ever since their publication.

LONG RACE TO BEDSIDE OF SON WON

Mrs. A. H. Kerr Speeds Part Way from Tulsa, Okla., on Chartered Train

The anxiety of a mother was put to rest last night when Mrs. Alexander H. Kerr, widow of the late oil magnate, arrived at the Good Samaritan Hospital after speeding 1600 miles, part of which distance was covered in a specially chartered train, to find that her son Billie, 9 years of age, who was operated on for appendicitis several days ago, was out of danger.

Mrs. Kerr received word of her son's illness and impending operation shortly after arriving in Tulsa, Okla., where she went to visit friends.

Mrs. Kerr chartered a special train to carry her 137 miles from Tulsa to Alvard where she made the connection with a through Santa Fe train. She arrived at 6 o'clock last night and was met by her secretary, Miss F. G. Slater, who drove the districted mother to the hospital.

When Mrs. Kerr discovered her son was out of danger, she embraced him with tears in her eyes.

After spending nearly three hours at the boy's bedside, Mrs. Kerr drove to her home at 345 South Westlake avenue.

Mrs. Kerr said she expected to remain in the city until her son leaves the institution.

BREAKFAST CLUB TO ENTERTAIN GUESTS

The Breakfast Club at its weekly meeting tomorrow morning will be host to Joseph Hergesheimer, author, Dr. Rufus B. Von KleinSmid, president of the University of Southern California, Dr. George F. Bovard, president emeritus of the same institution, and Coach Jones and the entire U.S.C. football team. A rally will be staged for the football team with the cheer leaders and university orchestra in attendance. Both Dr. Von KleinSmid and Hergesheimer will speak. Preceding the breakfast, members of the club and their guests will ride into the Griffith Park hills.

DURKIN AGAIN INDICTED

Chicago Gunman Accused Anew Despite Supposed Suicide or Clever Ruse in Eastern City

Despite reports from Chicago that Martin Durkin, gunman and auto thief, either committed suicide by jumping in the Chicago River or planned a clever ruse, the United States grand jury in Los Angeles for the fourth time since November 12, last, indicted Martin Durkin for violation of the Dyer and Motor Vehicle Theft acts.

He is accused in a bill returned yesterday of having stolen a Chrysler car from James Paul in Chicago on August 10, last, and of having disposed of it here after driving it across the country.

Durkin's suicide plan, revealed on November 11, last, when an overcoat and small coat found on the Michigan-avenue bridge in Chicago were identified with a note found in one of the pockets, at first was accepted by Chicago officials and later rejected when the river failed to yield a body after it had been dragged thoroughly.

Two weeks ago a bandit gang shot its way out of a police trap laid in a Chicago cigar store, killing a policeman and a taxi driver, and wounding a bystander and another policeman.

This deed also was attributed to the waxen-mustached desperado, who is accused of several other slayings the country over, one of them being the killing of a Sacramento policeman last summer and the recent cold-blooded killing of Edward C. Panahan, a Department of Justice agent, in Chicago when Panahan lay in wait for Durkin in a garage.

Betty Werner, Durkin's sweetheart, and Lloyd Worthington, an accomplice, also have been indicted for Dyer Act violations; Betty twice and Worthington once. They are held in Chicago pending the outcome of an intensive search being conducted for Durkin. The trio were indicted here November 12, last.

Others indicted yesterday are:

Wallace Rickert, who is accused of bringing a stolen car to Los Angeles from Seattle in violation of the Dyer Act; Daniel J. Deegan, mail clerk, accused of robbing the mails on the Lark of money in registered letters; Emmett McCormick, accused of posing as a United States secret service agent while borrowing from service-station attendants, and Hugo Fredericks, charged with posing as a naval officer, prevailing upon several men to pay him for instructions in navigation.

ROBBER CALLING SELF DURKIN IN HOLD-UP

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

PEORIA (Ill.) Dec. 2.—"I'm Martin Durkin, stick 'em up!" said a robber who resembles the Chicago gunman tonight when he entered a saloon and held the place up, robbing eight customers of $750.

DOUG AND MARY STOP BUSINESS

Two Hundred of Uncle Sam's Employees Crowd Passport Office While Screen Celebrities Make "Personal Appearance" to Comply With Vise Regulations

Ponderous machinery of the United States government wheezed suddenly about 11 o'clock yesterday and for about half an hour all but went out of commission.

The reason—?

That's easy: Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks, or in Yankee terms, plain Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks of Pickfair, Beverly Hills.

Testifying to how fast news travels, fully 200 governmental workers crowded into the United States District Court clerk's office a few minutes after the famous screen pair made application for passports to Europe and Japan.

Numerous ejaculations of: "Isn't she beautiful! My, he's handsome! Look at that gorgeous fur coat! Oh! Ah!" etc. interrupted Doug and Mary at almost every sentence.

After half an hour they departed leaving an awe-struck knot of stenographers and clerks in their wake, unconscious of typewriters and piles of Federal business.

Mary said she was born thirty-one years ago in Toronto, Can., and Doug admitted May 23, 1883, at Denver was the time and place of his birth.

By the margin of her fluffy crown, Mary topped the measuring bar at five feet; Doug is nine and one-half inches taller.

The couple plan on leaving New York on January 16. They made a trip to Europe last year.

LAST CALL TO PAYERS OF INCOME

Installments Must be Met by Midmonth to Avoid Filing of Liens

Last call for 1924 income tax installments were issued to 40,000 Southern Californians yesterday by Collector of Internal Revenue Goodcell. The invitations must be accepted by not later than the 15th inst., or income-tax liens will be filed against the delinquent's property.

"This final payment will clear the way for collection of 1925 income taxes," Collector Goodcell said. "Taxpayers are liable for severe penalties unless the final 1924 payments are made.

"Promptly on January 1 blanks for reporting the 1925 income will be mailed to 350,000 taxpayers in the district.

"Many taxpayers are under the impression that an exemption of $3500 for married couples has been fixed by Congress. This is incorrect, as the exemption of $2500 provided by the Revenue Act of 1921 is still in force, and cannot be changed except by Congressional action."

CUPID'S AIM GROWING POOR

Failure of Figures for First Eleven Months of Year to Show Any Gain in Marriages Starts Speculation as Grist of Divorce Mill Goes to High Figure

Are the darts of the little gay god who is supposed never to miss his mark growing more blunt?

Or are the cherubic boy's eyes growing dim after countless years of target practice?

Or is it, to be more practical, a fact that the sheiks and shebas of Los Angeles county are beginning to value the freedom of so-called single-blessedness more than the pictured comforts of a home and fireside and—matrimony?

These were the questions that confronted Chief Deputy County Clerk Hill yesterday when a check showed that the number of marriage licenses issued for the first eleven months of this year exactly equaled the number taken out during a corresponding period last year.

The eleven-months' period in both years showed that 15,022 loving couples called at the Marriage License Bureau for the little white slips that amount to sailing papers on the sea of matrimony.

Hill was somewhat astounded by the facts revealed by tell-tale figures.

"These figures indicate a falling off in marriages," he said. "There are many thousands more persons in the county now than last year, yet there has been no gain in marriages. And, worse than that, the number of licenses taken out both last year and this year are considerably behind the number for a corresponding period in 1923."

A look on the other side of the domestic ledger, however, disclosed a decided increase in the number of divorces applied for. During the first eleven months of 1924 there were 7069 suits filed in which the plaintiffs asked freedom from marital bonds, while the corresponding period for this year showed a total of 8065 divorce cases. The latter figures were vouched for by Emily Shumway, head of the index department.

This condition, say attaches of the clerk's office, should furnish local modernists with plenty of material to speculate about on the next rainy evening.

PAUPER OR ANANIAS, WIFE ASKS

Spouse Asserts Husband Lavished Diamonds and Autos on Other Woman, But Defendant Declares He Pawned Watch to Keep Wolf from Heels

The burning question of whether Aubrey Raymond Pedder is able to buy automobiles and diamonds for other women, as his wife, Alice Orey Pedder, hints, or is broke and had to pawn his watch, as he asserts, was not settled yesterday in Judge Gates's court. Mrs. Pedder, who has named Mrs. Eleanor McDonald as co-respondent, had her husband in court and was demanding alimony on the ground that he has much property and is capable of earning $2000 a month as a builder.

"I can't pay," said Pedder. "I have only $30 which I got by sacrificing my watch. My property is all mortgaged for more than it is worth."

"Didn't you buy a fine car for Mrs. McDonald recently?" queried the wife's counsel.

"No," denied Pedder.

"Didn't you go to a jewelers to buy her $18,000 worth of diamonds?" insisted the lawyer.

"No," said Pedder again, and the lawyer, saying he "would see about this," asked a continuance of the hearing, which was granted.

The husband, grinning changed his smile to a frown at the court door, however, when Bailiff Olds arrested him on a bench warrant issued by Judge Hanby. He had failed, it seemed, to appear in some proceedings in that jurist's court. Pedder was led away to jail.

NEMESIS OF EVOLUTION DUE TODAY

Dr. W. B. Riley, Fighting Fundamentalist, to Give Talks at Baptist Church

Dr.W.B.Riley

Dr. W. B. Riley, the fighting fundamentalist, who picked the late W. J. Bryan to head the prosecution in the Scopes trial in Tennessee, will arrive in Los Angeles today. Sunday Dr. Riley will preach at the Temple Baptist Church, his subject for morning and evening being, respectively, "Our Besetting Sins" and "The Unpardonable Sin."

Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Minneapolis, Minn., for twenty-nine years, Dr. Riley is noted for his aggressive opposition to evolution and higher criticism.

Following a successful career as an evangelist, Dr. Riley became famous as leader of the religious conservatives who gathered around the standard of the World Christian Fundamentals Association, organized in Philadelphia seven years ago. For five years he was chairman of the conference committee and in that period he organized 200 Bible conferences to promote the fundamentalist movement, raising $200,000 to finance the work. In order to avert a breakdown he resigned this office two years ago and has since been secretary of the executive committee.

The World Fundamentalist Association fathered the antievolution law passed by the Tennessee Legislature.

SANTA FE TERMINAL DISCUSSED

Results of Conference Between Rail Heads and Board Withheld

Representatives of the Board of Harbor Commissioners and Santa Fe Railroad conferred yesterday for two hours concerning the wish of the railroad for City Council authority to build a freight terminal at Anaheim Road and the wish of the board for the railroad to connect with the municipal belt railroad through the Dominguez Slough viaduct but at the conclusion of the conference neither side would make any statement of results.

The conference was attended by W. K. Etter, general manager here for the railroad, and R. B. Ball, its local chief engineer; President Walter Allen of the board, General Manager Charles H. Spear of the board and George Nicholson, harbor engineer.

The city is withholding approval of the company's petition for the vacating of certain streets in connection with what the company wishes until the company and board complete negotiations. It was learned that the cost of entering through the viaduct is objected to by the company and that this was a point at issue yesterday.

The company's request for street vacating is to come before the Council today but conferees would not say whether negotiations have reached the point where the Council is likely to act.

SUSPECT IN DOPE SALE ARRESTED

Antonio Zepeda Believed to Have Given Children Supply of Narcotic

Suspected of peddling dope to school-children, Antonio Zepeda, 24 years of age, was arrested by Detective Lieutenants Southard, Boshardt and Shanks of the narcotic squad yesterday. Police say that in raiding his home at 427 Bauchet street, which is just around the corner from the Macy-street school, they found a small quantity of morphine and a number of hypodermic needles.

Zepeda's arrest follows that of Guadaloupe Hernandez, who was shot by Officer Yoakum of the narcotic squad October 22, last, and is being held under guard in a hospital. He is accused of narcotic selling in the same vicinity.

Capt. Littlejohn, head of the narcotic squad, expressed the opinion that the arrest of Zepeda will end dope-peddling activities in the Macy-street school district. A number of reports have been made to him recently, he said, that school children of the district were being supplied with dope.

GOVERNOR TO NAME JUDGES

In future the Municipal Court judgships will be elective. It was at first planned to establish the new court here December 1, but on account of the lateness of the Supreme Court decision the City Council, by resolution postponed this action until February 1.

Ralph H. Clock of Long Beach, former Superior Judge of Los Angeles, conferred with Gov. Richardson yesterday. Clock, two days ago, was appointed a member of the State Fish and Game Commission in place of Frank M. Newbert of Sacramento, who was ousted as president and member by the Governor.

After receiving numerous telegraphic invitations yesterday, Gov. Richardson left last night on a late train to attend the Imperial Valley County Fair at Brawley today. He will return tonight and be in his local office all day tomorrow before departing for San Francisco.

In Long Beach, where the Municipal Court is in operation, two appointments will be made by Gov. Richardson. The appointments are necessary because of the disqualification of Judges W. S. Brayton and Frederick Helwig, under the five-year practice requirement, cleared up by the Supreme Court decision. They were not originally appointed, but went over automatically by transfer as existing judges or justices. Charles F. Cook, who also went over automatically, is not disqualified. Some time ago the Governor appointed Charles Wallace and Stephen G. Long.

ACTION AT HAND

It was reported in Long Beach yesterday that the Governor would lose no time in making the new appointments and that City Attorney J. H. K. Hull and Chris Wilson, an attorney who formerly was considered by the Governor for one of the other appointments, are under consideration.

The Supreme Court decision also validates the charter amendments of nineteen cities, including Long Beach Harbor development. It establishes the authority of the new Los Angeles charter with reference to Municipal Courts. It also finds that the ordinances of the Board of Supervisors redistricting territory in the county are lawful, including the plenary power of the board to abolish any township. The abolition of township lines of Lankershim, which was contested, is upheld.

STEPHENS RULES ON POLICE INVESTIGATOR

MUST BE UNDER CIVIL SERVICE REGULATIONS, ACCORDING TO CITY ATTORNEY

The police department cannot hire a special investigator or business manager unless both are placed under civil service regulations, according to an opinion from City Attorney Stephens read yesterday at a meeting of the Civil Service Commission.

Examinations have been conducted for both positions and the eligible list is ready if Chief Heath desires to make the appointments, according to Secretary King of the commission.

The commission yesterday received twelve applications from persons seeking an emergency appointment as general manager of the civil service department. Selection of an appointee will be made within a few days, it was said.

Says—Now Stiff Joints Must Go!

New Discovery Limbers 'Em Up and Even the Creaking Ceases.

Yes: it's true—the world progresses.

All you have to do nowadays to limber up, that old stiff, creaky knee joint is to squeeze a half inch of miracle-working substance from a tube.

Then rub it on the offending part for about a quarter of a minute, or until it soaks through the skin and disappears on its errand of mercy.

Then read the evening newspaper and go to bed.

The chances are that your misbehaving knee joint will lose its "creak" while you are dreaming about the high fences you used to jump when you were a youngster.

"And in the morning," says one who has tried the new discovery, "you'll feel so happy that you'll want to jump into your sportiest clothes and walk briskly down the street just to show the neighbors that you are not as old as they think you are."

Joint-Ease: They call this wonder-working substance, for the reason that when ordinary remedies fail to limber up the stiff, inflamed rheumatic joint or reduce the swelling, Joint-Ease succeeds.

It's a good name for a good, clean, stainless prescription that in just a few months has proven to a multitude of people that lame, swollen, distorted joints can speedily have the kinks taken out of them and work as smoothly as ever.

But Joint-Ease is for bothersome joints, whether in knee, elbow, ankle, hip, shoulder, spine or finger, and for that purpose its sale, at 60 cents a tube, is immense.

All druggists sell dozens of tubes of it every week and druggists everywhere report a big demand.

Always remember, when Joint-Ease gets in joint agony gets out—quick.

It's Probably Neuritis; Use Tysmol For Relief.

Knife-like jabs of pain in the vicinity of the shoulder blade are generally due to neuritis, brought on by exposure to draughts or sudden changes of weather. In some cases there is stiffness or soreness in the muscles, making it difficult to raise the arm.

The safest and easiest way to relieve such an attack it to apply a small quantity of Tysmol over the affected area. This soothing, healing preparation is quickly absorbed through the pores and carried to the throbbing, aching peripheral nerves. The pains usually stop at once, and in a very short time the last trace of soreness should disappear.

Tysmol is absolutely harmless—free from dope. Price $1 at The Owl Drug Co., and all other leading drug stores. Mail orders accepted by Tysmol Company, Mfg. Chemists, 400 Sutter St., San Francisco.—[Advertisement.

MYSTERY HALTS FEDERAL COURT

Case at Fresno Suddenly Adjourns

Officials Refuse to Discuss Reasons

Hint at Important Turn in Prosecution

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

FRESNO, Dec. 2.—Mystery piled upon mystery in the trial of twelve former Fresno police for alleged bootlegging conspiracy in the United States District Court today when the trial was suddenly halted about 4 p.m. and when soon afterward Asst. Dist.-Atty. Lucas announced that one of the biggest sensations in the history of the conspiracy investigation might be expected with the reconvening of court at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Why the case was halted is known only to Judge Edward J. Henning and the attorneys for the government and the defense and they will not tell before tomorrow, they announced.

While the taking of testimony was under way a recess was called and the attorneys went into conference with Judge Henning in his chambers, from which came the announcement that the trial would be adjourned until tomorrow.

Questioned concerning the reason for the sudden adjournment, Lucas said he had nothing to say other than that "it will be everything or nothing tomorrow morning," in regard to a statement concerning the adjournment. The "everything" he said, if it is told, will prove one of the biggest sensations in the history of the case.

The adjournment was precipitated when one of Lucas's assistants passed a business card bearing finely-written script to Asst. U. S. Atty. Neville, who read it with a surprised mien, passed it to Dist.-Atty. Lovejoy of Fresno county, who sits with the government attorneys, who read it and in turn passed it on to Lucas.

Immediately after reading the card, Lucas requested a conference of the attorneys and the court. Judge Henning suggested that it be held in open court and when Lucas objected, the attorneys and judge went into the latter's chambers. In a few minutes several prohibition agents hastily left the Federal Building for an unannounced destination and the adjournment was ordered.

The trial was opened today with statements of opposing counsel to the jury featured by the following statements by Lucas: Fornes sought in June to have Prohibition Agent Nicely whose investigation resulted in the indictment of the twelve men, start an investigation by which information could be obtained to force five men from the department; that Fornes paid Nicely $50 expense money for a trip to Los Angeles to attempt to obtain immunity from prosecution of Dan Barsetti, Emilio Giometti and Carlo Oliveri, with whom the police are said to have conspired against the dry law and who are unde other indictments, one charging conspiracy; that despite the fact that eleven search warrants were issued for the Europa bar, alleged focal point of the conspiracy, liquor was found there but once.

That marked money passed to Clifford Sayre, former police sergeant, by an Italian, was found on Sayre's person at the time he was arrested.

Opening testimony was given by Prohibition Agent C. W. Iversen, who said he purchased seventy-five drinks from Oliveri and Barsetti at the Europa bar.

Through the testimony of Iversen, D. W. Mathews and James Puryear the government laid the groundwork of testimony designed to show that the Europa bar was an open and notorious liquor establishment, testimony of each of the witnesses being of the same nature, that they had purchased liquor there on numerous occasions.

The only other witness prior to the adjournment was Mrs. Edna A. Davis, Police Court clerk, who was called upon to produce search warrants and affidavits for search warrants on the European bar.

SIX INJURED WHEN STAGE TURNS TURTLE

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 2.—Six persons were injured, some of them seriously, when a southbound stage was wrecked on the State highway at Naples, seventeen miles northwest of here, early this morning.

The injured, who were taken to the Cottage Hospital in Santa Barbara suffering from lacerations, bruises and shock, are: George Peters, 2445 West Sixty-ninth street, Los Angeles; Mrs. Juana Solis, 35 Bannon Place, San Francisco; Miss Carmen Valdez, 36; A. Shortwell, San Francisco; Miss Niva Clark, 1420 South Main street, Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Velpeh of Casper, Wyo.

Four other passengers were uninjured and continued their journey to Los Angeles.

SUCCESSFUL DRIVE

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SANTA MONICA, Dec. 2.—Indications that the $37,000 goal set by the directors of Santa Monica's first Community Chest would be subscribed before the end of the allotted six days of campaigning, was apparent this noon when it was announced at the campaign workers dinner in the Presbyterian Church here that one-third of the amount, $11,540.71, had been obtained in the first day of the drive.

SUBMARINE IS SAFE

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 2.—The submarine S-33, which early this afternoon was reported to have been destroyed by an explosion, is safe, according to word from naval headquarters here. The sub is completing a reliability trip outside of San Diego Harbor.

ROB NEW ARRIVALS

Wife of Newport Beach Fisherman Victim of Land Sharks Upon Reaching New York

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEWPORT BEACH, Dec. 2.—Greeting his family from Europe after a separation of thirteen years only to have them robbed of their $400 in traveling expenses when they arrived in New York was the experience of Nick Santich, Newport Beach fisherman today. But Nick is happy as he is surrounded by his wife and two children, Rosie 19 years of age, and Tony 13. The latter a babe of a day when Nick left the shores of Jugo-Slavia thirteen years ago.

Several weeks ago, after satisfying the immigration authorities, Santich sent for his family, who lived in Purvich, on the island of Luki, Jugo-Slavia. He had saved $1600, which he sent for passage money. But when the family reached New York they were advised that they must have $400 for traveling expenses before they could proceed. Failure to pay it would cause them to be deported, they were told.

In despair a telegram was sent Santich, who hurried about among his friends and the money was raised and sent. According to the story brought by Mrs. Santich, when the money was handed her at the pier by a bank messenger, the man who had told her to get the money snatched it and disappeared.

When the pretty 19-year-old daughter arrived here she saw Steve Despolotovich, employed in Herman's fish market, and when he aided in a hurried search for her father, she threw her arms around him and kissed him.

"Fine girl," said Steve, in recounting the episode later, as he softly rubbed his cheek, "but she thought I was her sweetheart, but he lives at San Pedro. Lucky feller."

Developments show that Mrs. Santich had been deceived at the Hoboken docks by a man and woman who are said to have represented that they were government officials, and that they must put up $400 as "traveling expenses" or be sent back to Europe. Efforts are being made to investigate the deception.

GIVEN PROBATION

Pretty Fresno Bride Pleads Guilty to Embezzlement

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

FRESNO, Dec. 2.—Suddenly and unexpectedly the embezzlement trial of Mrs. Lelah Failletaz, pretty former Sunday-school teacher and cashier, was held today by her plea of guilty and request for probation. After Asst. Dist.-Atty. Hogan had advised the court that no objection would be made, Judge Stanley Murray placed the youthful matron on two years' probation.

Mrs. Failletaz, nee Larsen, a bride of but a few months, was charged with having filled out one of the checks of her employer, the United Vacuum Cleaner Stores, and used it to make a payment on her automobile.

Lax business methods of the Fresno branch store, through which the embezzlement was possible with no effort other than the filling out of the amount and payee's name to a check, were scored by both Hogan and Judge Murray during the discussion of the probation application.

The girl, who is not yet 20 years of age, was in charge of signed checks which she was permitted to fill out in payment of small bills of the store, testimony showed and it was to this system that the embezzlement was blamed.

Mrs. Failletaz was arrested upon her return from a honeymoon trip to the Yosemite last summer. She married the manager of her company's store in Long Beach.

County Must Pay Rancher $16,300 Says Superior Court

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SANTA ANA, Dec. 2.—Perry Warren, Laguna Beach property owner, who was defendant in a suit brought by the county to condemn a coast boulevard right of way across his property, was awarded judgment of $16,300 damages by a jury in Superior Judge E. J. Marks's court.

In his reply to the county's suit, Warren had claimed $29,000 damages, but just before the trial when a compromise was attempted, he reduced his demand to $16,400. The county refused to offer him more than $15,000.

The jury yesterday awarded $15,500 for the land and $800 for improvements upon it.

At the trial Chief Deputy District Attorney C. N. Mozley represented the county. Attorneys James L. Allen and James L. Davis were counsel for Warren.

SEEK MISSING GIRL

Young Woman's Sweetheart Unable To Aid Parents

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SANTA ANA, Dec. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Breest of 320 South Highland avenue, Fullerton, are making frantic efforts to locate their 18-year-old daughter, Louise, who disappeared from her home last Thursday evening. No trace of the girl had been found up until a late hour today.

Suspicions that the girl had eloped with her sweetheart, said to be Orlando Miller of Huntington Beach, were not confirmed when Miller denied to Huntington Beach police that he had any knowledge of the girl's whereabouts.

The father of the young woman told Fullerton police that his daughter left home Thursday evening ostensibly to visit friends, but had not been heard from since.

REORGANIZE CITY BOARD

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

VENICE Dec. 2.—Formal reorganization of the Venice Zoning and Planning Commission, which is the only public body to remain intact as a result of Venice's consolidation with Los Angeles, was announced today. Carroll J. Daly was unanimously retained in office as president of the commission as was W. W. Neely, as vice-president.

Other officers include Elmer Bull, secretary, and Daid A. Braunberger and Harry H. Lieber, directors.

Bold Bandit Holds Up Bank Near Fresno

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

FRESNO, Dec. 2.—A sheriff's posse and police were today scouring Fresno and vicinity in a search for a lone, unmasked bandit who, at 1:30 p. m. today robbed the First National Bank of Kerman of between $600 and $1000 in currency with the enforced assistance of Donald Sayre, youthful taxi driver who was also dispossessed of his motor car after he had driven the bandit several miles from the scene of the hold-up.

Loitering nonchalantly around the banking room while President J. A. Johnson completed business transactions with several patrons, the bandit, who had asked Sayre to go into the bank with him, suddenly pulled two large calibre revolvers with which he forced Johnson and three bank patrons to stand aside, while Sayre, at the point of one of the weapons, was forced to gather up all the money in sight.

Rushing from the bank and forcing Sayre ahead of him, the bandit frightened Sayre into driving him several miles toward Fresno and then made Sayre get out and drove away unaccompanied. The car, a Nash sedan, bearing license No. 315-336, is owned and operated by Archie Wilde, by whom Sayre was employed.

Sayre reported to the police as soon as he could get into the city, stating that the bandit had engaged him a few minutes after alighting from a Southern Pacific train.

The bandit is described as a tall, slender, dark man wearing light clothing and a light golf cap and was unknown to any of those who saw him today. Atone Ennes, J. A. Thomas and Mrs. William Otto, were the customers who were in the bank at the time of the robbery.

SECOND BADGE BANDIT

Fresno Sheriff Finds Evidence of Many Crimes

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

FRESNO, Dec. 2.—An orgy of love piracy has been going on near Fresno in connection with roadside petting parties, some of them resulting in bandits attacking the women involved after robbing their male companions, it was revealed today in connection with Sheriff Jones's investigation of the shooting of Aron Georgian, alias George Gordon, and an attempted assault upon Mrs. Lena Faulkner, his companion, by an unidentified negro Monday night.

Rivalled only by the exploits of Harry Dunlap, the notorious "badge bandit," the history of the local banditry is confined largely to the neighborhood of Chestnut and California avenues, a secluded spot which is much favored by clandestine lovers, according to Jones.

During his investigation of the shooting of Georgian, who was in a critical condition today, Jones said residents of the vicinity of the love cote told him of a number of instances in which petting parties were similarly interrupted by bandits. Jones said they evidently were not reported because of the victims' fear of publicity.

Mrs. Faulkner and Georgian gave fictitious names seriously handicapping him in his investigation, Jones said, but a negro, believed to have been the one who attacked them, was partially identified today when a Hindu reported that he had been robbed in his room.

The police announced that they have received anonymous reports from victims of such robberies of petting parties.

POULTRYMEN ATTEND SCHOOL AT TULARE

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

TULARE Dec. 2.—Poultrymen from all sections of Tulare county and several other valley points are attending the first annual Tulare county poultry school, which closes this afternoon at the Tulare High School after two days' successful session.

"Selectin and Management of Breeding Stock" and "Feeding of Laying Hens" formed subjects for two interestin lectures today by W. E. Newton, extension specialist, Dr. J. R. Beach of the University of California in the forenoon spoke on "The Value of Sanitation," while this afternoon he chose for his topic "Autopsy Demonstrations."

"Suggestions for the 1926 Program by Poultrymen," by I. N. Foss, manager of the Tulare Co-operative Poultry Association, chairman of the event, will close the meeting.

SAN FERNANDO WILL PICK NEW ALDERMEN

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

SAN FERNANDO, Dec. 2.—Although it is still four months before the local municipal election, talk of who will be the new Aldermen already has begun. Three Councilmen are to be chosen to succeed the three whose terms expire next April. They are Hardiman Folwer, H. C. Harding and Thomas Knox. Floyd A. Pomeroy and George R. Holliday are the holdovers. Fowler already has announced he will not be a candidate for re-election, it being intimated that he may make the race for the State Legislature or for Congress.

Civic Leader Favors Use of Riverside Labor on New Memorial Building

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 2. — Representative citizens, including a delegation from the committee of one hundred which did such notable work in putting over the bond issue, attended a meeting of the City Council today and laid before the members of that body suggestions as to plans for the civic auditorium and soldiers' memorial.

The discussions centered about three points, architecture, acoustics and the employment of local labor. E. B. Criddle, who was chairman of the committee of one hundred, emphasized particularly the question of labor. The working people of Riverside, whether members of a union or not, voted for the bonds. During the campaign Mr. Criddle said the committee in its campaign for the bonds assured the representatives of labor that as far as it could consistently be done, Council would be urged to provide that the auditorium should be a Riverside product, not only representing Riverside ideals, but built by Riverside labor.

Mr. Criddle disagreed with the idea that it would be necessary to go outside of Riverside for an architect. He expressed the belief that this city can produce all the talent needed for the designing and construction of a building that would be representative of Riverside.

Fast Driver to End Honeymoon in County Jail

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SANTA ANA, Dec. 2.—Henry Ballard, Torrance speeder, was admitted to the Orange County Jail late yesterday afternoon to begin serving sentence of five days for speeding, after pleading guilty to the charge of driving his car fifty miles an hour.

Ballard and his bride were said to have been on their way to San Diego on their honeymoon in a machine bedecked with "just-married" signs, when the groom was arrested by State traffic officers.

The bride asked Judge Morrison if she could serve part of the husband's sentence, but he refused.

OFFICERS FAIL IN HUNT FOR BANDIT

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

POMONA, Dec. 2.—Baffled in their search for the bandit who last night held up A. M. Allison, night operator at the local Southern Pacific Railroad station, and forced him, at the point of an automatic pistol, to hand over $30 in cash from the cash drawer and his own watch, valued at $50, local police today admitted that they had no further clews to work on, other clews having proved fruitless.

The attack happened last night during a pouring rain and for this reason police were unable to track the auto in which it is believed the bandit made his escape. The man wore a mask, but despite this Allison obtained a good description of him and immediately flashed the local police station and notified company detectives.

Belief that the job was performed by local talent was expressed by police, due to the fact that the burglar seemed to be familiar with the station surroundings.

VAN NUYS TO COMBAT TUMBLEWEEDS TODAY

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

VAN NUYS, Dec. 2.—A war is to be waged against tumbleweeds, puncture vines, tin cans, rubbish and trash when Van Nuys citizens early tomorrow begin their one-day campaign to put the town in spick-and-span condition for the winter season. The city has been divided into four districts, with H. C. Hatterscheid, J. W. Praiswater, William Shaffer and Leslie Taylor named as captains. Everybody in town will be drafted, army style, to help in the clean-up work. All carts and trucks will be impressed to carry all debris to a large pyre where it will be burned. By nightfall all of Van Nuys is expected to be in shipshape order.

VALLEY BANKER PLANS CRUISE AROUND WORLD

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

SAN FERNANDO, Dec. 2.— L. H. (Bing) Malin, manager of the San Fernando branch of the Bank of Italy, has been granted a six months leave of absence, beginning the first of the year, and will make a cruise around the world. His journey will take him to South America, Capetown, Africa, Zanzibar, the Red Sea, Egypt, Rome, Monte Carlo and to England before his return home here about the middle of June, 1926.

DRAW GRAND JURY

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SANTA ANA, Dec. 2.—Summons was being served today upon thirty citizens of Orange county to report Saturday for duty on the Orange-county grand jury for 1925. The prospective jurors will report at 10 a.m., the 5th inst., in Superior Judge R. Y. Williams's court where their names were drawn Saturday.

ZELZAH, Dec. 2.—A move has been started here to organize a Kiwanis Club for Zelzah. Leading citizens and ranchers in this district will be asked to join. Other Kiwanis clubs in San Fernando Valley are at Van Nuys, San Fernando and Lankershim.

GIGANTIC SWINDLE

Pomona Woman Accused of Forgeries Said to Have Totaled Thousands of Dollars

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

POMONA, Dec. 2.—With the arrest here last night of Mrs. E. M. Short, attractive wife of George A. Short, local carpenter, was bared a series of amazing forgeries involving hundreds of residents of the Pomona Valley and representing losses of approximately $33,000 for two finance companies, it was learned today, when John J. Hill, Jr., deputy District Attorney, made the fact known.

The Pomona Valley Mortgage Company, a local institution, headed by B. M. Marshall, is asserted to have suffered a loss of $22,000, while the Pacific Coast Finance and Mortgage Company of San Francisco, lost some $11,000.

Involved with Mrs. Short is Mrs. Rosie Adamson, formerly Pomona district manager of the Sewing Machine Exchange, distributors of a well-known make of washing machine. Mrs. Adamson was arrested in Long Beach. The District Attorney's office states that Mrs. Short was the employee and the confidante of Mrs. Adamson, who is credited with being the brains of the asserted swindle.

According to Deputy Hill, the losses were incurred by the two mortgage companies through the sale by the two women of duplicate purchase contracts on washing machines, the originals being disposed of to the local finance company and the San Francisco concern receiving the duplicate forgeries. Residents of Ontario, Chino, Claremont, La Verne, San Dimas, and Corona who signed contracts for washing machines will not lose through the transactions, according to finance company officers, the whole loss being sustained by the latter.

Mrs. Adamson, through her agency, was directly responsible to a Los Angeles distributor of the washing machines, Attorney Hill stated today, and evidence given to the grand jury yesterday brought out that in the case of outright sales, where a contract was not signed, the two women led the distributors to believe that a part-payment sale had been made, holding back the major portion of the purchase price from month to month.

The two women have been out of the local agency for a month, the company having been taken over by the Los Angeles distributors when it came to their knowledge that the affairs of the local branch were heavily involved. B. M. Marshall, president of the Pomona Valley Mortgage Company, gave the major portion of the testimony before the grand jury yesterday.

Mrs. Short, arrested last night, is now in the County Jail, and has recently started divorce proceedings against her husband, it is said. Both Mrs. Short and Mrs. Adamson were well known throughout the valley.

Attorney Hill said today that he will ask that bonds for the two women be set at $25,000 each.

Rush Work on New Railroad Below Border

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

CALEXICO, Dec. 2.—Construction work on the new Mexicali and Gulf Railroad connecting Imperial Valley cities with the port of San Felipe on the Gulf of California is to be resumed this week, according to the announcement of General Manager W. I. Bassett today.

A contract for grading the next seven-mile unit of roadbed has been let to Welch & Stewart of San Francisco, Bassett said, and an outfit is now being assembled here preparatory to starting actual work. Construction was stopped last spring when the new railroad reached the Imperial Valley levee system and was unable to continue across overflow territory until the annual summer flood subsided.

The present contract will extend the road from the levee across the basin of Volcano Lake, which is now dry, to the banks of the river below Pescadero Cut, a distance of thirty-two miles from Calexico. Work will be halted at that point until the 1926 flood passes, according to the general manager.

Locating parties are now surveying in the delta territory at the head of the gulf, and preparations will be made to complete the line to its deep-water terminal during the winter of 1926-27.

OUTLINES POLICY OF STRICT ENFORCEMENT

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SANTA MONICA, Dec. 2.—Hip-pocket flask toters, dope peddlers, reckless drivers and speeders will be given the full force of the law when arraigned in municipal court after the first of the year, Charles A. M. Spencer, newly elected police judge for Santa Monica, declared today. Dope agents who prey on young children or who exploit their wares in any manner will be dealt with stringently, Judge Spencer stated.

"I will enforce the law in all cases," Judge Spencer said, "but of course, justice demands that circumstances and the conditions obtaining in each case be considered in its disposition. I will enforce prohibition statutes the same as I would any other statute. Bootleggers are violating the law and will be sentenced accordingly if guilty. The question of carrying flasks must be judged according to each case."

CUSTOMS OFFICE AT LONG BEACH PORT

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, Dec. 2.—The port of Long Beach will lose none of its identity through being included by order of the Federal government in the Los Angeles district, city officials declared here today. Instead Long Beach harbor will gain Federal recognition as the port of Long Beach by reason of the establishment here of a separate customs office with a customs inspector and a staff of deputies in charge, it is asserted.

Preparations are under way for providing the customs department with suitable quarters in the harbor district here just as soon as Collector of Customs Schwaaebe, of Los Angeles gives notice of the needs, city officials said today.

HOLD YOUTH FOR THEFT OF AUTO

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

ANAHEIM, Dec. 2.—Quick work on the part of the Anaheim and Long Beach police departments resulted in the arrest of Phillip Salcido, 19 years of age, on a grand-larceny charge.

Salcido admits stealing an automobile owned by Trefon Harrison from its parking place in the rear of the Oyster Loaf Cafe, officers assert. He also is accused of stealing another car from the Long Beach branch of the Fuller Paint Company, which he drove to this city Saturday afternoon and exchanged for the more expensive car owned by the Anaheim cafe man.

LONG BEACH, Dec. 2.—Robert M. Clark, former judge of the Superior Court of Ventura county and president of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, will be the principal speaker at the annual memorial services of Long Beach Lodge No. 888, B.P.O.E., to be held here next Sunday at 8 p.m. The memorial program, in charge of Judge Matt M. Thomas, has not been completed, but it was said today that Steven A. Gavin will deliver the eulogy.

PERSONAL INJURY SUIT

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

VISALIA, Dec. 2.—Charles D. Stanton of Pixley is sueing the Southern California Edison Company for $50,000 damages in a case now being tried before Superior Judge J. A. Allen.

Stanton contends that he was injured September 28, 1925, while working in a well pit. He says that the power was turned off during a portion of the time he was in the well pit. But that through negligence it was turned on again by the company and that he was not notified, and was thus badly burned and scarred.

Stabbing Affray at Pomona Results in Arrest

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

POMONA, Dec. 2.—John W. Woodside, La Verne, was today held to answer in Superior Court to a charge of assault with intent to commit murder brought against him by Robert Evans, Pomona, following a preliminary hearing before Justice White.

According to witnesses, Woodside stabbed Evans, after an altercation on a motor transit bus, inbound from Los Angeles which culminated in front of the local Motor Transit Company office. Woodside testified that after having reprimanded Evans for asserted ungentlemanly conduct to a woman passenger on the bus, Evans became abusive and in stabbing him, Woodside insisted he acted in self-defense, believing that Evans was going to draw a gun when he made a motion to reach for his hip pocket. Evans stated on the stand that he was under the influence of liquor and he only remembers the fight in front of the local bus office.

Evans was severely slashed about the body and spent some days in the local hospital before recovering from the wounds inflicted by a pocket knife. Dep. Dist.-Atty. Frank F. Ely handled the case for the prosecution, while Attorney Allen Mitchell represented the defendant.

CONFESS ROBBERY

Tell of Robbing Discharged Soldier of $80

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

HUNTINGTON Beach, Dec. 2.—Confessions involving them in the slugging and robbing of Campbell Devonshire, a young discharged soldier, on the highway between Old Town and Pacific Beach on October 16, were made yesterday to Paul Hayes, captain of detectives of the San Diego police force, by Joe Hallett and Leroy Kimmell, who were arrested in Huntington Beach Monday in connection with the theft of $6000 in bonds belonging to Mrs. Emma Keath at the Nye Hotel in San Diego, September 7.

According to the confession the two young men were assisted by a man named Burnet, who took $80 from Devonshire, after striking him over the head with an automobile crank. Devonshire was thrown out of the machine which had been hired by the three men and they returned to San Diego.

VALLEY CHAMBER TO NAME NEW DIRECTORS

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

SAN FERNANDO, Dec. 2.—The Chamber of Commerce will conduct its annual election of directors on the 8th inst., it is announced by President Fred W. Prince. Five directors are to be named to succeed Prince, Hardiman Fowler, Frank J. Hendershot and Herbert S. Sykes. Holdovers are H. L. Topleman, Harry H. Dace, J. Leo Flynn, W. J. Millen, C. C. Knight and S. G. Chamberlain. The retiring directors may be re-elected. The chamber at present has 106 active members.

CHURCHMEN POUR OIL ON WATERS

Court Fight of Redlands Church May be Settled by Arbitration

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SAN BERNARDINO, Dec. 2.—Oil is being spread on the troubled waters of the Redlands church war, it became apparent today, through moves by opposing factions.

So thickly has the oil been spread that two criminal cases in which the defendants are representatives of the "ins" and the "outs" may never be heard in the courts, it was learned.

The first move toward a slight degree of peace, if not a complete restoration of harmony, came when Attorney Grant Holcolm was granted a continuance of the case in which trustees of the church are charged with battery in connection with the ejecting of Mrs. Bessie Barnett from the First Christian Church of Redlands, split by internal strife.

The second move was the continuing of Mrs. Barnett's trial in the Redland's court on a charge of disturbing a religious meeting, a kindred case in which the trustees are the complaining witnesses and Mrs. Barnett the defendant.

Both requests for delays are based on hopes of arbitrators within the split congregation for the return of harmony, it was learned. That it may be possible to drop the two criminal cases without a hearing is considered possible, it was reported, and if this is accomplished more steps toward harmony may be taken.

The trial of the trustees had been set for hearing Friday before Justice J. C. Smith in Highland, the case having been transferred from Redlands because Justice Peter J. McIver, of that township, is one of the active participants in the Redlands church war.

COMMUNITY BOOSTERS BANQUET AT DUARTE

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

AZUSA, Dec. 2.—Three hundred representatives of twenty-one cities in the Associated Chambers of Commerce of the San Gabriel Valley met last night at Marigold Garden in Duarte. E. H. Philleo, president of the Azusa chamber welcomed the guests, and response was made by J. L. Matthews of Covina, president of the associated chambers. Harold S. Ryerson, who will leave soon for Washington to work for a $1,000,000 bill in Congress, presented a very instructive talk on the necessity of Federal aid in protection of California watersheds. W. E. Evans of Glendale also spoke on the question of water supply reporting his personal observations during a field investigation of the Boulder Dam project. Noting the season of the year a masterly oration was given by Rev. M. L. Kain of Covina, on the spirit of Christmas.

Community singing was led by Joseph D. Coles with Mrs. Henry Damerel at the piano.

MONROVIA VOTERS BEAT BOND ISSUE

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

MONROVIA, Dec. 2. — Polling less than a 20 per cent vote, a proposition to issue $15,000 in school bonds to erect a new grade school in the south part of this city was rejected yesterday. The necessary two-thirds majority failed by only fifteen votes. Active sponsors of the bond issue declared that the voters were perplexed by the fight over placing the new school south of Duarte Road, which was followed by a last-minute selection at Magnolia and Diamond avenues in an effort to stem the tide of opposition. This statement was borne out by the lightest vote in local school history.

DR. MILLIKAN TO ADDRESS STUDENTS

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, Dec. 2.—Dr. Robert A. Millikan, head of the California Institute of Technology, director of the Norman Bridge Laboratory of Physics and Nobel prize winner in physics in 1923; Chester Rowell, editor and traveler, and other well-known speakers will address the Southern Califronia Student World Court Conference to be held at the California Institute of Technology next Saturday morning.

Students from various Southern California colleges and universities will discuss the aspects of the World Court in detail, and after hearing arguments pro and con will adopt a resolution expressing the sentiment of the majority toward the court. This will be sent to the Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs.

SEEK LOST BONDS

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, Dec. 2.—Detectives were searching Hollywood today for Jack Gordon, asserted $100,000 Liberty bond thief, on the belief that the man is in hiding in the cinema capital. Gordon, former valet for John R. Osborne, Los Angeles promoter, disappeared from the Hotel Maryland at the same time that the bonds a.d. several weeks ago.

Osborne reported the theft to the Pasadena police and disappeared himself a few hours later, after offering a reward of $5000 for the return of the bonds and the capture of Gordon.

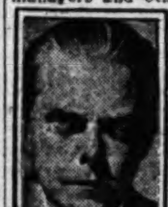
BUSY U CITY

CENTER OF ART HUMS AS MANY FILMS START

By Grace Kingsley



Svend Gade

After a hectic session at Universal City, during which general managers and other officials were raised, toppled and fell in such quick succession that nobody had a chance to take a census of them, President Carl Laemmle wiped his heated brow and went off to Europe. But before he left he started many swift-moving enterprises, as is his wont.

For one thing he announced that Svend Gade had been selected to wield the megaphone on Florence Barclay's "The Rosary." This popular story, with its universal appeal to our romantic sensibilities, is to be filmed with an all-star cast. Gade is now busy gathering such a cast.

Paradoxical as it may seem, it was Gade's direction of "Hamlet" which first attracted America's attention to European productions and gained him fame. Only recently, because of his Universal affiliations, he was compelled to decline an offer from the Inspiration Pictures Corporation to direct Richard Barthelmess.

Lois Weber has signed to direct for Universal once more. Formerly, as you doubtless remember, Miss Weber was one of Universal's star directors. Then she went with Famous Players-Lasky, and afterward made independent pictures. Miss Weber's first picture under her new contract, as yet untitled, will be from an original written by the director herself. It will have Mary Philbin as its star. Miss Philbin's role will be that of the real American girl, as Miss Weber sees her.

"The real American girl," Miss Weber contends, "is not a flapper. She is essentially the same girl America has always produced. She is thoroughly modern, sophisticated and up-to-date, but she is still basically as sweet, as sincere and as moral as she has ever been."

With its many other present activities and production plans for the future, Universal has prepared a program of six big serial pictures to be made and released in 1926, according to an announcement by William Lord Wright, supervisor of serials. The reception accorded Universal's serials last season has demonstrated the popularity of this type of picture, and the company plans to go into chapter-play production on a larger scale than ever.

The six serials planned for 1926 include "The Great West That Was," based on the book by the famous "Buffalo Bill" Cody; "Spangles," a circus story by Nellie Revell; "The Return of the Riddle Rider," a sequel to the Arthur B. Reeve story, "The Riddle Rider," in which William Desmond made such a success last year; "The Fire Fighters," from John Moroso's popular novel; "Whispering Smith Rides," based on the famous character of fiction created in the stories by Frank M. Spearman, and one other story, the title of which has not been announced.

Universal City will house two women directors, inasmuch as Mrs. Wallace Reid has established headquarters for her production company at Universal City and will start production this week on "The Earth Woman," an original story. Walter Long will direct under Mrs. Reid's supervision. The cast includes Mary Alden, Priscilla Bonner, Russell Simpson, John Carr, Carroll Nye and others.

Carroll Nye is a rising young juvenile, who is fast making a name for himself in pictures.

Vivian Oakland, according to well authenticated report, is to play an important role in King Baggot's next picture. Miss Oakland was recently in vaudeville with John T. Murray.

Larry Semon Back

Larry Semon and his wife, Dorothy Dwan, found New York so alluring that they simply couldn't tear themselves away. So the comedian rented a typewriter and proceeded to write the story for his next comedy under the inspiration of Broadway. The name of the story isn't disclosed, but as Semon will arrive home today, the pantingly eager fan will not have long to wait to find out all about it.

Al St. John Ponders

Al St John

Speaking of comedians, Al St. John may quite possibly follow the example of Lloyd, Semon and other fun-makers, and go in for bigger and better laughs on the five-reel programs.

St. John is completing within ten days the last of his series of six two-reel comedies for Educational, under direction of Stephen Roberts. These have proven even more successful than his previous comedies, which ranked him easily among the leading popular laughmakers of the screen. Three propositions are now causing the comedian to wrinkle his more or less pure brow. He may continue as a two-reel comedian; he may head his own company, making feature-length comedies, or two-reelers, at his discretion; or he may sign with one of the two big companies which are making him offers, to film the longer pictures.

Rather than get a headache trying to figure out what to do, on completion of his present comedy, St. John is hying himself to Big Bear Lake for a month's hibernation, emerging only for Christmas. After Al enjoys the hunting vacation he has promised himself for these many months of strenuous comedy-making, he will announce whether he will be seen in the future in two reels or whether he will expand himself to five reels.

Huntley Gordon in It

Huntley Gordon, one of the most popular players on the screen today, is playing an important role in the Fox Films production, "The Gilded Butterfly." As John Converse, Mr. Gordon falls from the paths of virtue for the first time in several years, portraying a man who schemes and plots, with the beautiful heroine as the object of his sinister machinations. However, he reforms in time so that you will get a chance to see him as the sort of character you remember him playing.

Ray Hallor Engaged

Ray Hallor has been engaged to play an important part in "Red Dice" at the De Mille studio, which William K. Howard is directing.

Will Support Clyde Cook

If a cruel fate doesn't double-cross us, we shall soon be able to see another Clyde Cook comedy. This comedy will be directed by James Horne.

Gertrude Astor and Grace Gordon have been signed for important roles in the picture.

Hergesheimer Here

Joseph Hergesheimer, noted novelist, has arrived in Los Angeles looking forward to taking another whack at the movies. He is in conference with Samuel Goldwyn, Henry King and Frances Marion regarding an original story, which it is proposed he write for Goldwyn, to be directed by King.

Sam Polo in It

Sam Polo, noted aerial acrobat, has been engaged to play a big role in the circus sequence of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "The Light Eternal," which stars Norma Shearer and Charles Emmett Mack. Polo was formerly with Barnum and Bailey and Ringling Brothers' circuses.

LYRIC CLUB SINGS EFFECTIVE PROGRAM

Simonsen Welcomed; Miss Weaver Merits Applause; Vocal Trio Pleases

BY ISABEL MORSE JONES

The Lyric Club sang to many friends last evening at the Philharmonic Auditorium. They also presented Axel Simonsen in his first public appearance since his return from Paris and introduced Maude Darling Weaver, contralto. The club's trio gave a group of soprano songs arranged for three voices.

The Woman's Lyric Club is an admired institution in the music life of the city and rightly so. Its members have collectively and individually worked for the betterment of vocal music in Southern California. Many a famous singer has this organization to thank for his first appearance.

Opening with the Rumanian Love Song by Gaines, the club gave a good account of itself under the able direction of J. B. Poulin. "The Last Night," "When the Land was White with Moonlight," and "The Galway Piper," were sung with keen attention to their varying moods, Mrs. M. Hennion Robinson's accompaniments being very effective.

Maude Darling Weaver, contralto, sang Secchi's "Lungi dal caro bene," exceptionally well. She has a smooth legato and carried off the difficult style of this classic song with finish. The Tschaikowsky number which followed is possibly too dramatic for her powers at present.

Axel Simonsen, well-known violoncellist, has gained much technical proficiency during his two years in the French capital of music. He has an entirely different style of bowing and even his tone has changed. Of the ease and facility with which he essays difficulties such as abound in the Lalo concerto, the Spanish dance, by Breton, and "L'Escarvat," by Cassado, there is much to be said in praise. One regrets a certain hardness of tone which was never heard from Simonsen in other days. After all, tone is the essential requirement of beauty with any instrument.

The Lyric Trio, composed of Mary Teitsworth, Electa Felt Ferry and Cornelia Glover, accompanied by Dorothy Robinson, sang with spirit and looked irresistible. Their intonation could be more definite, however.

The club closed a successful evening with a Lullaby, by Dunn and the Mother Goose Cycle, by Johns.

YOUNG PIANIST TO BE HEARD IN RECITAL

Frances Mae Martin, winner of the Pacific Coast Piano Contest sponsored by the National Federation of Music Clubs, will be heard in recital tomorrow night, the 4th inst., at Ebell Auditorium.

Mrs. Martin, who is a member of the faculty of the Hollywood Conservatory, has been chosen to play the difficult piano part of the Scriabin "Prometheus, Poem of Fire," which will be presented here the 6th inst., with the Philharmonic Orchestra under the baton of Modest Altschuler.

For her program Friday night Mrs. Martin will play the Beethoven Appassionata Sonata, a group of Chopin, her own Concerto, and moderns. Elinor Mario, soprano, will sing a group of Mrs. Martin's songs.

BERNSTEIN AUTHOR OF NEW FILM

Figueroa to Screen Story of Humble Jewish Family, Beginning Saturday

Stars, directors, cameramen, extras and, in fact, everybody on the Universal lot are all excited, the reason being that "His People," Universal's big surprise picture, opens at Fred Miller's Figueroa Theater Saturday.

Ordinarily the opening of a picture would not arouse such intense interest around the studio, but "His People" is unusual for the reason that it was written by one of the most popular executives on the lot, Isadore Bernstein. And, of course, Mr. Bernstein himself is watching with some interest, too, as the opening here marks the western premiere. He hopes the picture will duplicate its sensational current run at the Rialto in New York. It is the type of story that one might expect from Fannie Hurst rather than from a business executive.

The interest revolves around a humble Jewish family living in the East Side tenement district of New York and from their trials and sorrows, their joys and their final happiness, the author has literally taken a page from life.

It is billed as a "surprise picture" and from advance reports it is truly that, many eastern critics having declared it one of the best pictures to reach the screen in recent years.

The cast is headed by the famous European actor, Rudolph Schildkraut, with such excellent support as Rosa Rosanova, George Lewis, Blanche Mehaffey, Kate Price, Virginia Brown Faire and Arthur Lubin. It was directed by Edward Sloman.

Augmenting the picture at the Figueroa Saturday will be a gala prologue personally staged by Hal Horne with Eddie Janis and his musical Figueroans. Shows will run continuously from 2 p.m. to 11 p.m.

FOX OFFICIAL GOES TO NEW YORK OFFICE

Important plans for the making and distribution of the balance of this year's product were discussed in addition to matters concerning the pictures, which will be released under the Fox banner during the coming year. These pictures will be based on some of the greatest successes of stage and literature.

Among some of the productions which Mr. Grainger previewed during his sojourn in the West were "Three Bad Men," "The Gilded Butterfly," "The Golden Strain," "My Own Pal," "The First Year," "A Trip to Chinatown," "The Gentle Cyclone," and particular plans were made for the release of "The Johnstown Flood," a special production which Grainger believes will prove to be one of the most spectacular pictures of the year, the cast of which is announced as follows: George O'Brien, Florence Gilbert, Janet Gaynor, Paul Panzer and Max Davidson.

George Irving, well-known character actor, has been cast for the role of Col. Fairfax, the title part in the F.B.O. screen production of Louis Joseph Vance's stirring racing story, "King of the Turf."

MANTELL ART RARE IN SHYLOCK ROLE

Genevieve Hamper Engages With Contrasts in Her Portia Portrayal

Robert Mantell proves the realism of his art in his portrayal of Shylock in "The Merchant of Venice." It is a redoubtable thrill to see him in this Shakespearean drama, which was an attraction Tuesday night at the Biltmore Theater, and was also previously given before a large audience Saturday afternoon.

The veteran Shakespearean artist presented the role of Shylock in a realistic fashion. His superb characterization of the cynical Jew was equally matched with the artistic suspense of Portia's literal interpretation. The blood-thirsty desire for vengeance was offset in the calm manner in which Miss Hamper thwarted the evil design of the money lender, so cleverly that it became a question of taste where laurels should go.

Whether, driven on by the basest of all passions, hate, avarice and revenge, in demanding his pound of flesh, as Shylock, or whether he draws blood from his own heart as a sacrifice to "la grande passion" in Othello, the actor in Mantell makes him forget all obstacles of age and injury. He lets his dramatic soul take hold of an infirm body to carry his audience into the world in which Shakespeare lived and mover and had his being. Thus he becomes a living example of the lines which he quotes:

"For affection,
Mistress of passion, sways it to the mood
Of what it likes or loathes."

Mantell's muse is his affection for his art and at her behest he lives the life of a miser, a lover or a candidate to the throne, carried by avarice, love or ambition as the part demands. He animates Shakespeare's characters with the full measure of their limitations, even to the extremes.

Watching the development of the ensnaring wiles of Shylock one is tempted to ask "did Shakespeare make Mantell or did Mantell unfold the beauties of Shakespeare?" The glory of the immortal poet and dramatist is interwoven with the halo of the actor. The one is the supplement of the other.

Mantell, at his best in Shylock, makes the audience come to the decision that the honors must be divided. For the casual reader and even the analyst, omits in his visualization such passages as the spirit of the law which changes the value of the bond to a liability, making Shylock ask: "Is it so nominated in the bond?" Mantell's interpretation makes the audience hold its breath.

Another study of contrasts is brought out "al fresco" in Portia. Genevieve Hamper keeps her sweet self-composure as a lottery victim of the three chests in which she is the object of fate, and in the character of the doctor of law who holds in her hand the dispensation of salvation for Antonio and the undoing of Shylock.

Her clear enunciation, timely emphasis and natural presentation rob Shakespeare of many irrelevancies, which the casual reader passes over and the close student rereads. Her thorough understanding of the play makes the lines speak for themselves in her rendering. Her encores were more than deserved.

Harry Sothern as Launcelot Gobbo caused the audience to roar in laughter at his antics of clownish philosophy. The omission of the opening of the gold and silver caskets was amply compensated for by James Neil, Jr., who drew the prize of Belmont.

SENIOR FARCE TO BE STAGED TONIGHT

"The Broken Bachelor," the first annual senior farce of the University of Southern California, written by Ellsworth Ross, and Cecil Carle, is to be presented in Bovard Auditorium, Thirty-fifth and University avenue, tonight and tomorrow night.

The story concerns young Bob Robbins, a love-shy bachelor, fighting his last stand against matrimony. In order to cure him of his bashful indifference, his friends scheme—and a plot arises.

The cast includes Ellsworth Ross, Pauline Klene, Elizabeth Horne, Dorothy Davis, Les[illegible] Harding, Harry Rockefeller, Harriet Pearson, William Hogue, Melvyn Levinson, Ralph Holly and John Atwell, all seniors at the University of Southern California.

Mrs. Sally Taft Teschke directed the collegiate comedy, and the unusual lighting effects are the result of the efforts of Ray McDonald.

"LIMITED MAIL" IS CLOSING AT TALLY'S

"The Limited Mail," Warner Brothers' sensational thriller, will close Friday night at Tally's Broadway Theater and will be followed by a melodramatic story of the underworld, "The People vs. Nancy Preston."

The Sierra Pictures, Incorporated, have just started production on the third picture of a series of western features starring William ("Bill") Patton, which have been bought by the Chesterfield Motion-Picture Corporation of New York City.

Advertisements on rate holder rates on application.

To estimate the cost of want ads count 5 average words per line. Word containing more than 6 letters should be counted as two words.

Advertisers should retain receipts given by The Times for payment of Want Ads, as no mistake will be rectified without them.

Consecutive order advertisements for the Daily or Sunday Times cannot be discontinued or changed after 4:30 p.m. of the day preceding date of insertion.

Cancellations of advertisements before appearance cannot be guaranteed to take effect until after the advertisement has appeared once. Countermands must be received by 2:30 p.m. for daily issue and 6 p.m. Friday for Sunday issues.

Rates for display advertising will be furnished on request.

The Times will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement ordered for more than one time.

The inadvertent omission or incorrect publishing of advertising will be rectified only by cancellation of the charge made for the service rendered.

FRIDAY, 8 P.M., is closing hour for the early issue of the Sunday Times.

HELEN TALKS PIANO
"Here are three special piano buys for this week. A dainty sweet-toned $1000 baby grand to go at $475; not a mar or scratch on the case; and here is a splendid rich-toned upright piano to go at $149. The new price was $450, and over yonder is an elegant highest grade 88-note player piano, price cut to [illegible]. Terms as low as $5 cash and $5 per month. Many other models priced at $28, $77, $98, and up, in uprights, players and baby grands. Hundreds of wonderful buys. A visit to this big 10-story warehouse will surprise you. If you can't call, drop me a line and I will gladly give you full details. Come down & ask for Helen." LINCOLN PIANO STORAGE CO., 800 N. SPRING ST., at Alpine. Take E. W. or 3 car to Alpine, walk one block east to big 10-story warehouse. Remember! We close at 4:30.

PUBLIC DEMAND

Through conscientious effort, fair and square dealing, coupled with a marvelous automobile, our sales have increased so tremendously, that we are delighted to announce the opening of our 7th-Street Branch.

We fully intend to make this the most exclusive used car showroom in the city.

Our stock consists of nothing but very late models, conditioned thruout. Our prices are exceptionally low.

It will unquestionably pay you to look over our stock, so that we may serve you, if not immediately, in the future.

IT SELDOM HAPPENS

A cosy 6-r. bungalow, presented to some fortunate purchaser who can recognize and appreciate a real opportunity when they see it. I own a lot close to Wilshire in the very heart of L. A. Home district where you can enjoy every home advantage and modern comfort, 15 min. from downtown shopping district, convenient bus & st. cars. This lot is appraised at $13,500, is legally zoned for apartment buildings. Will unquestionably grow in value every year. Having moved into a larger Beverly home I will sell this lot for the ground value and make fair terms with good people. This presents an opportunity if you act immediately, to secure an excellent cosy 6-r. bungalow, absolutely as a present, to have rent free for years and be sure of a big profit on resale if such a sane thrifty and intelligent suggestion appeals to you phone ROY D. LEGAL NOTICES—
Bids, Proposals

NOTICE OF SALE OF A PORTION OF THE LAND KNOWN AS PACIFIC COLONY TRACT, SITUATED IN LOS ANGELES COUNTY.

Notice is hereby given that the State Board of Control of the State of California pursuant to the power and authority conferred upon it in and by the provisions of Chapter 132 of the California Statutes of 1925, hereby offers for sale and will sell, at public auction, upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, all of that piece or parcel of land lying and being within the County of Los Angeles, State of California, known as the Pacific Colony Tract, and more particularly described as follows:

Beginning at the most westerly corner of lot 6 of the C. M. Wright Tract, as the same is shown on map recorded in Book 5, Page 75, and Book 1705 of Deeds, Page 145, Los Angeles County Records; and marked by a 2" iron pipe set in the fence corner; thence along fence line on the west boundary of Lot 6, S. 20 13', E. 2102.0'; thence S. 71 49', E. 317.0'; thence S. 87 07', E. 334.3'; thence N. 38 14', E. 122.5'; thence N. 24 30', E. 187.0'; thence S. 66 30', E. 133.5'; thence N. 47 10', E. 225.3' to a 1½" iron pipe; thence N. 25 18' W. 2270.5' to a 1¼" iron pipe on the northwest line of Lot 7; thence along said northwest line and the northwest line of Lot 6, S. 62 36', W. 902.2', to the point of beginning. Embracing portions of above mentioned Lots 6 and 7 and containing 52.1 acres.

Said public auction sale of the above described real property will be held and conducted in the offices of the State Board of Control, Room 1024, Pacific Finance Building, City of Los Angeles, Los Angeles County, State of California, on the 6th day of January, A.D. 1926, commencing at the hour of 10 a.m. of said day.

The following are the terms and conditions of the sale:

It is understood and agreed that all minerals, coal, oil and products thereof, on, in or under said lands belong to and remain the property of the State of California, and the State of California reserves to itself the right to prospect, mine or otherwise extract or remove the same either by its own agents or by persons authorized by the State of California, to prospect for, mine or otherwise extract or remove the same, or conduct any work or operations upon said land for prospecting, mining or removing any minerals, coal, oil or other products thereof.

The right is hereby reserved to reject any and all bids.

Terms of payment:

10% of the bid to be deposited in cash upon the acceptance of the bid. The residue of the purchase price to be payable upon such terms and under such conditions as shall be approved by the State Board of Control.

MOSELEY QUITS AIR POSITION

Resigns as Instructor in Aviation for Guards, Lieut. Arnold Succeeds

MAJ. C.C. MOSELEY

Maj. C. C. Moseley, commanding officer in charge of the California National Guard Air Service, and head of the municipal air port at Griffith Park, has resigned his position as instructor in aviation for members of the Guard, it was announced yesterday, and will devote part of his future time to private business. His place as instructor will be filled by Lieut. Leslie P. Arnold, a member of the recent 'round-the-world flight of United States Army aviators.

LIEUT. LESLIE ARNOLD

Maj. Moseley, who is a Regular Army officer, has accepted a position as general superintendent of the Western Air Express, a corporation founded by Los Angeles men which has obtained contracts to carry mail between Los Angeles and Salt Lake City. He will continue as commanding officer of the California National Guard Air Service, however, and will also retain his position at the municipal airport.

The change was made at Maj. Moseley's request, he and fellow-officers of the Air Service Squadron requesting the appointment of Lieut. Arnold, who has been stationed at San Diego.

Collapse Fatal to Patient in Dental Office

Frank Weisfield, 43 years of age, a cloak cutter residing at 2714 Cincinnati street, collapsed yesterday afternoon while undergoing nasal treatment in the office of Dr. R. A. Woodhull, 611 Brockman Building. Despite efforts of Dr. Woodhull and two other physicians, Weisfield died a few minutes later.

In a statement given detectives Dr. Woodhull said Weisfield had been under treatment with him, but a short time and that the patient was referred to him by Dr. Harry Brandel, who also has offices in the Brockman Building, for diagnosis and treatment.

Drs. Woodhull, Brandel and Carl Rice were called in when Weisfield showed signs of labored respiration. Strychnine was injected hypodermically, a pulmotor was called for and adrenalin administered, but efforts proved useless. Death is ascribed to natural causes.

Detective Lieutenants Jarvis and Craig and Officer Payne investigated the case.

The body was removed to Garrett Brothers funeral parlors where it will be held for an autopsy, probably to be conducted this morning.

Doctor Detained at Jail After Auto Collision

Dr. R. W. Ford of 446 South Rampart street was held in the City Jail last night on suspicion of having driven an automobile while under the influence of liquor.

His detention followed a collision of his machine with a car driven by Miss Mable Brewer, 824 Crescent Heights Boulevard, in which Miss Brewer suffered minor injuries, and her mother, Mrs. Clara L. Bradley, 52 years of age, was critically injured.

Mrs. Bradley was taken to the Hollywood Hospital suffering from three serious cuts on the head from broken glass. The accident occurred at Lockwood and Vermont avenues.

YOUNG WIFE IN ACID CASE SURRENDERS

Woman Missing Since Last Monday Gives Self Up to Police for Questioning

Mysteriously missing since last Monday night, when she was accused of having hurled carbolic acid in her husband's face disfiguring and partly blinding him, Mrs. Arline Hartz, pretty wife of Elmer Hartz, youthful bank teller, appeared suddenly at Central Police Station last evening with Atty. S. S. Hahn. The latter told police officials the woman had come to him voluntarily for advice.

Mrs. Hartz made a vigorous denial that she had attempted to blind her husband and declared the acid had been thrown accidentally into his face when he attempted to stop her from drinking the poisonous fluid. She declared she had been despondent over her separation from Hartz and had tried to kill herself.

Hahn, Mrs. Hartz, Assistant Captain of Detectives Bean and Acting Captain Finlinson were closeted a long time in Capt. Finlinson's office. At the conclusion of the conference, Hahn stated he will take Mrs. Hartz to the District Attorney's office this morning, where he expects a complaint charging her with assault with intent to do bodily harm will be issued.

Young Hartz, who is still in the hospital, told police officers two days ago that he would prosecute his wife if she were found.

The acid-throwing, or acid-spilling, episode occurred Monday night in front of the Hellman Bank at Seventh and Figueroa streets, where Hartz is employed. Mrs. Hartz later disappeared and it was at first feared she had committed suicide.

PIONEER TO BE BURIED TOMORROW

Mrs. Cecilia Peschke Came to California Fifty Years Ago from Ohio

Funeral services for Mrs. Cecilia Peschke, pioneer resident of Los Angeles who died yesterday, will be conducted tomorrow morning at 8:30 o'clock from the undertaking parlors of Godeau & Martinoni, 828 West Washington street.

Mrs. Peschke died at her home, 129 West Thirty-eighth street, shortly before 8 o'clock yesterday morning following an illness of fifteen months duration. She was 77 years of age and came to California fifty years ago from Cincinnati, O. Arriving in San Francisco, she came south by steamer to what was then Santa Monica Harbor. She was one of those who rode on the first train from Santa Monica to Los Angeles; the train consisting of flat-cars with benches on them.

Mrs. Peschke was a member of the Pioneer Society and the German Ladies Benevolent Society. Her husband, Emil Peschke, pioneer merchant of this city, died two years ago. She leaves two sons, Oscar J. and William F. Peschke; a daughter, Mrs. Alvina Zobelein, all of Los Angeles; a sister, Mrs. Matilda Feldkamp of Cincinnati, O., and two brothers, Francis Strobel of Dayton, Ky., and Albert A. Strobel of this city.

The body will be taken to the Holy Cross Mausoleum, 4701 South Main street, pending further arrangements.

GIRL GIVEN JUDGMENT FOR ATTACK

Verdict of $25,000 and Costs for Jessie Gentle Against D. F. Harris

After six hours deliberation the jury in the damage suit of Miss Jessie Gentle against Donald F. Harris, asserted father of her child, at 9:30 o'clock last night in Judge Crail's court, Department 15, returned a verdict allowing the plaintiff $25,000 and costs.

Damages of $75,000 were asked by Miss Gentle through her attorney, Charles R. McCarty, the complaint being based on an asserted attack by Harris in Fresno on August 25, 1923. On the witness stand last Thursday, Miss Gentle declared that following the asserted attack in Fresno she had come to Los Angeles and that her baby was born in a hospital here on January 1, 1924. The baby is now in custody of its foster parents, according to testimony during the trial.

Harris entered a complete denial of Miss Gentle's charges and vigorously contested the suit, which opened before Judge Crail on November 30, last.

The case was given to the jury yesterday afternoon. Judgment against Harris will be entered by the clerk of the court this morning, according to Judge Crail.

WIDOW OF MERCHANT PASSES ON

Mrs. Loretta Vosburgh, of Pioneer Business Fame in City, Dies at 93 Years

Mrs. Loretta Virginia Vosburgh, widow of Charles Norton Vosburgh, former pioneer business man of Los Angeles, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Lillian Vosburgh, 2647-A North Griffin avenue, at the age of 93 years.

Mrs. Vosburgh was deeply interested in literary work and even in her recent years devoted time to writing verse descriptive of Southern California. Up to the time of her death she was actively interested in civic affairs.

She leaves only her daughter Lillian, of this city. Funeral announcement will be made later.

Izzard Company Opens Offices in Los Angeles

The Izzard Company, Pacific Coast advertising agency with head office at Seattle, a service office in Portland and direct representation in San Francisco, has just opened a service office in Los Angeles.

The local office, which is located in the Merchants National Bank Building, will be conducted by George H. Peters, recently manager of the Portland office and previously connected with the Seattle offices.

George H. Peters

"The primary object of our service office here," Mr. Peters stated yesterday, "is to serve the interests of our clients whose distribution includes Southern California. The various industries of the Pacific Northwest are building an excellent market for their products in this territory and we find it increasingly necessary for us to maintain close contact with this region.

"For some time executives of our company have been making frequent trips to Los Angeles and the developments of our business now make it desirable to have a more direct and continuous connection with this city."

Can of Codfish Casus Belli in Store Rumpus

Mrs. George Lasher, 56 years of age, of 2910 Leeward avenue, will remember codfish she didn't eat, but which played an important part in her arrest last night on a charge of disturbing the peace.

Mrs. Lasher, according to reports furnished police, sent her husband to the store of Aaron Ginsberg, 2430 West Seventh street, to purchase a can of the sea food. Mrs. Lasher, upon opening the can, decided the fish contained too many bones for comfortable eating and personally returned them to the store.

Mrs. Ginsberg, she declared to police, hurled the fish in her direction, striking her in the face, whereupon she retaliated by striking the wife of the store proprietor in the face with her fist. Police were called.

Tables Turned; Man Bites Dog; Poor Chow Dies

A new wrinkle in defense was successfully brought into play last night by James M. Johnston, butcher and dog fancier, when he was the object of a vicious attack by a female Chow dog he was fondling. His arms tied in the vice-like grip of the pedigreed canine that suddenly turned on him, Johnston buried his teeth in her throat and retained the hold until the Chow pet died of strangulation.

Johnston, both arms severely chewed by the dog, was admitted to the Receiving Hospital for treatment where he told of the strange incident. He told police he is the owner of a dog kennel at 2823 Rosanna street.

Artist Answers Door Ring to be Felled by Blow

Summoned to the door of his home last night, H. Bradshaw, an artist living at 658 Lillian Way, was struck in the face with a blunt weapon, probably brass knuckles, and knocked unconscious. His mother, with whom he conducts an art school, went to his aid as his assailant fled.

Bradshaw was unable to give any description of the man and could advance no theory for the assault. It was stated at the Bradshaw home that a threatening letter of a rambling nature, which warned Bradshaw to give up his art teaching, had been received some time ago.

R. E. Langworthy Takes Up Duties as Humane Chief

Filling the newly created position of superintendent of the Los Angeles Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, 1412 South San Pedro street, R. E. Langworthy, for eleven years State parole officer for Southern California, entered on his new duties on the 1st inst. Direct administration of activities of the society will be conducted through Langworthy, working in conjunction with the board of directors.

Langworthy resigned his State post last July, and since that time has been engaged in straightening out his personal business affairs.

Destiny at Wheel Guides Car Into Crash Near Bakersfi as Four Men and Woman, All Past 70, Near End of Long, Happy Tour

Fate played a cruel jest on old age yesterday, when four men and one woman, each more than 70 years of age and longing for their own firesides in Whittier, ended a tour of the United States in ward beds in the Bakersfield Hospital. Just as the long journey, unmarred by accident, was almost completed, the five old persons were suddenly tossed into a head-on automobile collision.

Mrs. S. A. Ulrey is in a serio condition with a double fracture of the pelvic bone, a broken collarbone and internal injuries; her husband is suffering from an injured spine and possible fractures; B. A. Omkst has a sprained back with a possibility of fracture, and F. Ulrl and B. Swearingen were resident of Court-martial Again Warns Counsel of Bickering

avy Officer Defends Gas Valve Equipment of Shenandoah

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Opposg counsel in the court-martial of ol. Mitchell failed today to keep he peace as ordered yesterday by he co urtpresident, Maj.-Gen. Rob-rt L. Howze, and they were arned again that the tribunal viewed with disfavor" the coninual bickering and wrangling.

Gen. Howze called the attenion of counsel anew to Army laws overning court procedure and olemnly requested cuonsel for oth sides to take notice. The arning was given during the ross-examination of Lieut.-Comander Charles Rosenthal, senior urviving officer of the Shenan-oah disaster, by Representative rank Reid of Illinois, defense ounsel.

Maj. Allan Cullion, assistant rial judge advocate, had objected o Reid's manner. The defense ttorney referred to what he called is opponent's lack of comprehen-ion and added: "Things get to our ears, but they never reach our brains."

In the confusion that followed en. Howze ordered a three-min-te recess and when the court reonvened delivered his admonition.

Commander Rosendahl testified hat Lieut.-Commander Zachary ansdowne did not protest against aking the Shenandoah on her fa-al flight into the Middle West. The eduction effected in the automatic as valves had nothing to do with he wrecking of the ship, he tes-ified, and the gas escapes funcioned satisfactorily during its last attle with the elements. Those tatements were supported by Lieut. Roland G. Mayer, construcion officer of the Shenandoah.
Persistent efforts of the defense to how failure of the big dirigible's as valves, as charged by Col.
Mitchell, brought no concessions rom the two Navy officers and hen court adjourned tonight Reid as still grilling Lieut. Mayer. He ill conclude the cross-examination
